ABN AMRO offer update

ABN AMRO notes the announcement of Fortis today in which it provides details of its planned rights issue. Fortis also disclosed, in the trading update press release, measures proposed to the European Commission to meet anti-trust requirements.

Fortis has proposed to the European Commission that certain businesses of ABN AMRO in the Netherlands, notably Hollandsche Bank Unie NV, 13 advisory branches and two Corporate Client Units could be sold.

Fortis is currently in discussions with the European Commission regarding these proposals. The European Commission is expected to make further announcements, at the latest by 3 October 2007. As discussions are continuing, it is not possible to provide clients and staff with further details at this moment. During the whole process, the highest level of customer service will continue to be guaranteed.

Fortis and ABN AMRO will follow appropriate procedures in full consultation with regulators, the Central Workers Council, unions and all other relevant parties.
