FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Supporters of SIRIUS/XM Merger Urge FCC Approval

Consumer Benefits of the Merger Cited in Recent Filings

WASHINGTON, DC and NEW YORK, NY October 10, 2007 SIRIUS Satellite Radio (NASDAQ: SIRI) and XM Satellite Radio (NASDAQ: XMSR) today highlighted additional support they have received for their merger in recent weeks from Members of Congress, consumer advocates, automaker Kia Motors and diverse on-air talent, including Charlie Daniels and Deepak Chopra. These recent filings with the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) urge approval of the merger, noting the many benefits the merger of XM and SIRIUS will offer consumers. The latest comments were added to the thousands of favorable comments from individuals, as well as from organizations such as the NAACP, the Latino Coalition, the League of Rural Voters and the Parents Television Council.

Members of Congress

Comments supporting the merger were filed by Rep. Eliot Engel (D NY), Rep. Rick Boucher (D VA), Rep. Anthony Weiner (D NY) and Rep. Pete Sessions (R TX). Their supportive comments focused on the merger's consumer benefits:

I believe that this merger will improve the variety and quality of satellite radio services to consumers. (Rep. Eliot Engel, September 18, 2007)

The proposed merger should be considered in the context of a broad market definition, which includes the entire marketplace for audio entertainment. Under such an appropriate definition, the merger would combine only a small percentage of the market, but would lead to significant pro-consumer benefits. I, therefore, believe the merger is in the public interest and urge that the Commission approve it. (Rep. Rick Boucher, September 4, 2007)

There is no doubt that the merger would be good for consumers of this service. A merger will allow the two companies to pool their resources, cut costs through economies of scale, boost innovation by bringing together their best and brightest talent, and ultimately make more programming available to subscribers. (Rep. Anthony Weiner, September 12, 2007)

Perhaps most impressively, the new a la carte offerings will pave the way for a unique form of competition in the entertainment industry—one based on the individual programming preferences of listeners. (Rep. Pete Sessions, September 27, 2007)

Consumer Advocates

Two additional organizations, the Independent Women's Forum and Latinos in Information Sciences and Technology Association (LISTA), joined the numerous independent advocacy groups that support the merger, saying:

We believe a combined Sirius-XM will strengthen satellite radio and the broader audio entertainment market, opening the door to expanded programming and production opportunities for Latino technology professionals. (Jose A. Marquez, Latinos in Information Sciences and Technology, October 9, 2007)

IWF is also interested in the increased efficiencies of a combined company and greater competition from other audio providers that would increase the speed to market of new and advanced technologies in satellite radio and audio entertainment. These are exactly the kinds of byproducts fueled by a free market that would simply not be possible without a merger of the two companies. (Michelle D. Bernard, Independent Women's Forum, October 1, 2007)

Automaker

On behalf of the consumers who purchase their vehicles, Kia Motors America joined other automakers such as Honda, Hyundai and Toyota, in expressing support for the merger:

The merger between SIRIUS and XM will further enhance Kia's goal of providing our customers with high-quality, high-value products. We believe that it is in our customer's interest and the public interest to allow SIRIUS and XM to merger. (Kia Motors, August 21, 2007)

On-Air Talent

Celebrated Oldies music radio DJ Bruce Morrow (Cousin Brucie), American music legend Charlie Daniels, leader in mind-body medicine Deepak Chopra, and Elvis Presley Enterprises, producer of Elvis Radio, made compelling arguments for the merger and the plethora of benefits a combined SIRIUS-XM will offer consumers. In announcing their support, they said:

Satellite radio has given me an opportunity to have a more personal relationship with listeners from all over the country, who can call in for one-on-one conversations about health, spirituality, relationships and success. The merger between SIRIUS and XM will help to ensure that positive programming like mine is available to a greater number of listeners at lower prices than ever before. (Deepak Chopra, October 8, 2007)

Truckers were among the first satellite radio customers and many continue to be very loyal listeners. They also will have a lot to gain from this proposed merger. Once this deal is approved, truckers and others who spend many hours on the road will have a greater range of programming choices and packages available to them. (Charlie Daniels, October 2, 2007)

My contemporaries and I appreciate that the music that influenced our generation is able to live on with satellite radio, and we are truly excited that this merger will allow even more Americans to rediscover music that paved the way for today's hits. I encourage the Department of Justice and the Federal Communications Commission to continue to allow listeners to hear the unique programming satellite radio offers by approving this merger as quickly as possible. (Cousin Brucie, September 26, 2007)

By giving consumers lower priced programming options and increased variety of content, this combination proves to be in the public interest. So in the spirit of consumer benefit for Elvis fans and radio listeners nationwide, I strongly encourage you to expeditiously authorize the proposed merger of SIRIUS and XM. (Jack Soden, Elvis Presley Enterprises, October 5, 2007)
