Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 16, 2009, Celgene Corporation (the “Company”) announced the election of Carrie S. Cox to the Company’s Board of Directors (the “Board”), effective December 16, 2009. Ms. Cox is an experienced corporate director with a distinguished career in global healthcare. She has served as executive vice president and president of Schering-Plough’s Global Pharmaceutical Business. Before joining Schering-Plough, Ms. Cox served as executive vice president and president of Pharmacia Corporation’s Global Prescription Business.

As a Board member, Ms. Cox will receive an annual fee of $60,000. In addition, under the Company’s 2008 Stock Incentive Plan, on December 16, 2009, the Company granted to Ms. Cox a non-qualified option to purchase 25,000 shares of the Company’s common stock. The option will vest in four equal annual installments commencing on the first anniversary of the date of grant.

Attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference as Exhibit 99.1 is the Press Release announcing the election.

Item 5.03 Amendments to Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws; Change in Fiscal Year.

On December 16, 2009, the Board approved and adopted an amendment to the Company’s bylaws (the “Amendment”) to provide for the election of directors by majority voting in uncontested elections rather than by plurality voting. Plurality voting is retained for contested elections. The Amendment took effect upon adoption by the Board.

In connection with the Amendment, the Board also adopted a policy in furtherance of the majority voting principles of the Amendment. Under the Board’s policy, in uncontested elections, an incumbent director nominee who does not receive the required votes for re-election is expected to tender his or her resignation to the Board. The Nominating and Governance Committee will recommend to the Board whether to accept or reject the tendered resignation within 90 days after certification of the election results and the Board will act on the committee’s recommendation. The Company will promptly disclose the Board’s decision regarding whether to accept the tendered resignation (or, if applicable, the reason for rejecting the tendered resignation).

The foregoing description of the Amendment is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Amendment, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
