On December 22, 2009, AGCO Corporation (the Company) replaced its U.S. and Canadian wholesale accounts receivable securitization facilities with new receivables sales agreements with AGCO Finance LLC (AGCO Finance) and AGCO Finance Canada, Ltd. (AGCO Finance Canada) to provide for the ongoing sale of the Company's U.S. and Canadian wholesale accounts receivable on a non-recourse basis. AGCO Finance and AGCO Finance Canada, which provide retail and wholesale financing of the Company's products, are both owned 51% by Coöperatieve Centrale Raiffeisen-Boerenleenbank B.A., Rabobank Nederland, New York Branch, and 49% by the Company.

As part of the new arrangements, the Company entered into: (i) a Receivables Purchase Agreement with AGCO Finance for the ongoing sale by the Company to AGCO Finance of accounts receivable owing to the Company from dealers in the United States (the U.S. Receivables Purchase Agreement); and (ii) a Receivables Purchase Agreement with AGCO Canada, Ltd. (AGCO Canada), which is a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company, and AGCO Finance Canada for the ongoing sale by AGCO Canada to AGCO Finance Canada of accounts receivable owing to AGCO Canada from Canadian dealers (the Canadian Receivables Purchase Agreement). As of December 22, 2009, receivables from United States dealers of $344.9 million and receivables from Canadian dealers of $111.7 million Canadian dollars, which previously had been sold through the securitization facilities, were sold to, respectively, AGCO Finance and AGCO Finance Canada.

As part of this transaction, the existing securitization facilities, under which AGCO sold accounts receivable owing from AGCO dealers in the United States and Canada to certain purchasers, were terminated.

The information required by these Items with respect to material relationships between the Company and any of the parties to the subject agreements are set forth under the heading Related Parties on page 45 of the Company's Form 10-K filed on February 27, 2009 and is incorporated herein by reference.
