ITEM 3. SOURCE AND AMOUNT OF FUNDS OR OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

On April 26, 2002, the Company entered into a preferred stock purchase, debt exchange and modification agreement with Midland (the "Midland Agreement"). Pursuant to the Midland Agreement and prior to its consummation on August 13, 2002:

- o The Company consented to Midland's acquisition of the rights of the lenders under the Company's credit agreement dated November 30, 1999, as amended, with Bank One Louisiana, N.A. and three other commercial banks. On May 1, 2002, Midland acquired the rights of those lenders under the credit agreement for $13,870,000 in cash, the source of which was capital contributions from its members. On that date, the total amount of the principal, accrued interest and penalties owing under the credit agreement was $21,331,564. Thereafter, and prior to the consummation of the Midland Agreement, Midland advanced the Company $2,814,500 for working capital needs and to establish a cash collateral account with Bank One to secure the Company's obligations under outstanding letters of credit.
- o Midland acquired claims against the Company in the amount of $5,622,881 held by the Company's unsecured creditors. Midland's acquisition cost for these claims was an aggregate of $2,851,373, including payments made for the unsecured creditors, fees paid to a collection agent and attorney's fees. Midland's source of these payments was capital contributions from its members.

Upon consummation of the Midland Agreement on August 13, 2002:

- o $10,000,000 of the amount the Company owed Midland under the credit agreement was cancelled in exchange for 738 shares of the Company's series A preferred stock.
- o $12,791,024 of the amount the Company owed Midland under the credit agreement was converted into the following, which continue to constitute secured indebtedness under the credit agreement: (i) a convertible debenture in the principal amount of $10,651,564 payable in five equal annual installments, bearing interest at Wall Street Journal Prime (that is, the prime rate of interest reported in the Wall Street Journal in its daily table of "Money Rates") plus 2.5 percentage points and convertible into shares of the Company's common stock at $0.35 per share (the closing price of the Company's common stock on the Nasdaq National Market on March 6, 2002, the date the Company concluded negotiations on the terms of the convertible debenture); and (ii) a promissory note in the principal amount of $2,139,500 (the amount of the advances made to the Company by Midland after the Company entered into the Midland Agreement), which is payable August 13, 2005 and bears interest at the rate of Wall Street Journal Prime plus 3.0 percentage points.

On August 1, 2003, the shareholders of the Company approved an increase in the number of shares of authorized common stock to 150,000,000 shares, and approved a one-for-ten reverse stock split of the outstanding shares of the Company's common stock, to be effective immediately after the conversion of Midland's series A preferred shares. Accordingly, on August 3, 2003, each share of series A preferred stock was converted into 100,000 shares of the Company's common stock and the one-for-ten reverse stock split was effected, resulting in Midland owning 7,380,000 shares of common stock of the Company. Also as a result of the increase in the Company's authorized shares, Midland had the right, at any time, to convert its convertible debenture into 3,043,304 shares of common stock of the Company.

ITEM 4. PURPOSE OF TRANSACTION

Midland acquired the shares of common stock of the Company for the purpose of obtaining a significant equity position in the Company and for the purpose of exerting control over the direction of the Company.

Prior to consummation of the transaction, Midland agreed to cause its designees to the board of directors to approve the calling of a meeting of shareholders for the purpose of voting on an increase in the authorized number of shares of the Company's common stock, and to approve a rights offering. Midland also agreed to vote its shares in favor of the proposed increase in the authorized number of the Company's shares. The increase in the Company's authorized shares and reverse stock split are described in Item 3.

In addition, prior to consummation of the transaction, the Company entered into agreements, effective April 2002, terminating the employment agreement of Dailey J. Berard, who was then a director of the Company and was formerly chairman of the board, president and chief executive officer of the Company, and the consulting agreement of Jerome E. Chojnacki, who was then the chairman of the board, president and chief executive officer. Also effective April 2002, the Company obtained the resignation of Mr. Berard as a director and the resignation of Mr. Chojnacki as Chairman of the Board, President and Chief Executive Officer. Upon consummation of the transaction, Charles E. Broussard resigned from the Company's board of directors, and the remaining directors, Perry Segura and George C. Yax, appointed Mr. Hines, Frank J. Cangelosi, Jr., William A. Downey, Daniel R. Gaubert, Donald R. Moore and Allen C. Porter, Jr., all designated by Midland, as members of the board.

In addition, Midland may engage in effecting any other transaction or matter that would constitute or result in any of the transactions, matters or effects enumerated in Item 4(a) - (j) of Schedule 13D, or enter into discussions with other shareholders and management of the Company regarding any or all of the foregoing. Any actions that Midland might undertake, and the timing of such actions, will depend upon its

ITEM 6. CONTRACTS, ARRANGEMENTS, UNDERSTANDINGS OR RELATIONSHIPS WITH RESPECT TO SECURITIES OF THE ISSUER

Edgar Filing: MIDLAND FABRICATORS & PROCESS SYSTEMS LLC - Form SC 13D

In addition to the matters described in Items 3 and 4, prior to consummation of the Midland Agreement, Midland agreed to assist the Company in obtaining a $7 million line of credit, and the Company and Midland subsequently agreed that this line of credit would be in the amount of $8 million. The Company subsequently established the line of credit with the Whitney National Bank; an affiliate of Midland has guaranteed the Company's obligations under the line of credit. In addition, Midland agreed to take all steps necessary to continue the listing of the Company's common stock on the Nasdaq SmallCap Market for a period of at least two years following consummation of the Midland Agreement.

Upon consummation of the Midland Agreement on August 13, 2002, in addition to the matters listed in Items 3 and 4, Midland transferred to the Company the claims it had acquired from the Company's unsecured creditors in the amount of $5,622,881. In exchange for these claims, the Company delivered to Midland a promissory note in the principal amount of $4,708,936, payable August 13, 2006, and bearing interest at the rate of Wall Street Journal Prime plus 3.0 percentage points. This promissory note also constitutes secured indebtedness under the Company's credit agreement with Midland. $675,000 of the amount the Company owed Midland under the credit agreement was cancelled in exchange for the assignment to Midland of accounts receivable of the Company's subsidiary, Superior Derrick Services of Texas, L.L.C., in the amount of $1,191,405, against which the Company had established reserves of $516,405. $680,000 of the amount the Company owed Midland under the credit agreement (substantially all of which consisted of penalties) was forgiven by Midland, and Midland waived all of the Company's defaults under the credit agreement.

Since the closing of the Midland Agreement, Midland has provided financial, operational and management support to the Company. Under an informal arrangement with the Company, Midland has agreed to provide financial support and funding for working capital or other needs at Midland's discretion from time to time. Midland provided a standby letter of credit to a customer of the Company in support of a contract included in the Company's backlog at December 31, 2003. The letter of credit was in the amount of $3.1 million and expired on March 31, 2004. Since that time, the Company has been awarded contracts, totaling $13.1 million, which have required a financial guarantee or letter of credit from Midland. During the year ended December 31, 2003, Midland advanced $5,900,000 to the Company for working capital. Midland also provides accounting information system and reporting services to the Company, including maintaining computer hardware and software to process financial information and produce management reports, processing data associated with those reports, assisting in report design and preparation, processing operating and payroll checks, consulting assistance with the design and implementation of financial reporting systems and other related services.
