Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement

On October 28, 2004, Kaiser Aluminum Corporation (the Company ) and its wholly owned subsidiary, Kaiser Aluminum & Chemical Corporation, and the lenders under its Post Petition Credit Agreement (the Credit Agreement ) completed the Seventh Amendment to the Credit Agreement. The amendment was approved by the United States Bankruptcy Court for the District of Delaware (the Court ) on October 28, 2004. Among other things, the amendment resets a financial covenant and permits the sale of the Company s interests in and related to Queensland Alumina Limited.

The Company has previously disclosed that in connection with the amendment and the completion of the previously announced commodity asset sales, it expects that the amount of borrowing base available under the Credit Agreement would decline. However, as also disclosed, the Company believes that once amended, the Credit Agreement would be adequate to support the Company s liquidity requirements through the remainder of the Cases. This belief is based on the fact that it was the commodity assets that subjected the Company to the most variability and exposure from both a price risk basis as well as from an operating perspective. While there can be no assurance, based on recent primary aluminum prices and recent market conditions for fabricated aluminum products, the Company currently expects availability under the Credit Agreement to remain near or above the $100 million range.

A copy of a related press release issued on October 26, 2004 is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 8.01 Other Events

On October 25, 2004, the Court, which is overseeing the Company s on-going Chapter 11 reorganization proceedings, approved an extension of exclusivity for the Company and all debtors to February 28, 2005. The order did provide that exclusivity could be terminated earlier with respect to four subsidiaries that own (or owned) certain of the Company s commodity-related interests in Jamaica, which have been sold/monetized, and in Australia, which are subject to a Court approved auction. A copy of the related press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.
