Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

Input/Output, Inc. (I/O) announced on February 16, 2005, that it had issued and sold to Fletcher International, Ltd., an affiliate of Fletcher Asset Management, Inc. (Fletcher), 30,000 shares of a newly designated Series D-1 Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock (Series D-1 Preferred Stock) in a privately-negotiated transaction exempt from registration under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended. The total purchase price for the Series D-1 Preferred Stock was $30 million. I/O intends to use the proceeds from the issuance of the Series D-1 Preferred Stock for general corporate purposes, including working capital and potential business opportunities. I/O has no present commitment or ongoing negotiations with respect to any potential acquisition.

The Series D-1 Preferred Stock may be converted at the preferred holder's election into up to 3,812,428 shares of I/O common stock (Common Stock), subject to adjustment, at an initial conversion price of $7.869 per share, also subject to adjustment in certain events.

I/O also granted Fletcher the right, commencing August 16, 2005 and expiring on February 16, 2008, subject to extension, to purchase up to an additional 40,000 shares of one or more additional series of Series D Preferred Stock, having similar terms and conditions as the Series D-1 Preferred Stock, and having a conversion price of 122% of the prevailing market price of I/O Common Stock at the time of issuance, but not less than $6.31 per share (subject to adjustment in certain events).

Under I/O's purchase agreement with Fletcher dated February 15, 2005, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 (the Agreement), I/O agreed to file a registration statement with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) to register for resale the shares of Common Stock issuable under the Series D Preferred Stock. If I/O is unable to register such shares of Common Stock by the times and on the conditions set forth in the Agreement, it will be liable to Fletcher for additional sums until the registration requirements have been met.

Commencing on February 16, 2007 (or earlier upon the occurrence of certain events), the holders of the Series D-1 Preferred Stock have the right to cause I/O to redeem all or a portion of their shares of Series D-1 Preferred Stock for shares of registered Common Stock or, at I/O's election, for cash. The number of shares of Common Stock to be issued by I/O upon redemption will be determined by dividing the stated value of the shares of Series D-1 Preferred Stock being redeemed by the prevailing market price at the time of such redemption. If I/O elects to redeem the shares of Series D-1 Preferred Stock for cash, it will pay the holders a redemption cash amount also based on the market price of the shares of Common Stock otherwise issuable.

The Series D-1 Preferred Stock will accrue cumulative dividends at a minimum rate of 5% per annum, payable quarterly. These dividends may be paid, at I/O's election, in cash or shares of registered Common Stock. So long as the Series D-1 Preferred Stock is outstanding, I/O may not pay any dividends in cash or property to holders of junior securities (including holders of Common Stock), and may not purchase or redeem for cash or property any junior securities (including Common Stock), unless there are no arrearages in dividends declared and paid on the Series D-1 Preferred Stock and sufficient cash has been set aside to pay dividends on the Series D-1 Preferred Stock for the next four quarterly dividend periods. The Series D-1 Preferred Stock will not be entitled to vote on any matters other than with respect to specified corporate acts that would adversely affect the Series D-1 Preferred Stock, and with respect to certain other actions as required under the Delaware General Corporation Law.

If, at any time after July 15, 2005, the 20-Day Average Price (as defined in the Certificate of Rights and Preferences of Series D-1 Cumulative Convertible Preferred Stock, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 3.1 (the Certificate)) per share of I/O common stock is less than $4.4517 (subject to adjustment as provided in the Agreement), then (i) all dividends on the Series D-1 Preferred Stock must thereafter be paid in cash and (ii) either the conversion price will be reduced to $4.4517 per share (subject to adjustment as provided in the Agreement) or I/O will settle all of its future redemption obligations in cash, or cash and common stock. If a restatement of I/O's financial statements is required due to any material change in the financial statements during specified periods, the conversion price may, at the holder's election, also be adjusted. The maximum number of shares of I/O Common Stock issuable under the Series D-1 Preferred Stock and any and all subsequent series of Series D Preferred Stock shall initially be 7,669,434 shares. The Agreement provides that under no event will the total number of shares of common stock issuable under the Series D Preferred Stock exceed 15,724,306 shares.

During the term of the Agreement, neither Fletcher, nor any of its affiliates, shall engage in short sales of I/O common stock. However, Fletcher and its affiliates are not prohibited from engaging in any transaction in any stock index, portfolio or derivative of which I/O common stock is a component.

Shares of Series D Preferred Stock may not be converted into Common Stock until I/O obtains approval from its stockholders of an amendment to its certificate of incorporation to increase its number of authorized shares of Common Stock. I/O has agreed to propose an amendment to its certificate of incorporation to increase its authorized shares of common stock from 100,000,000 to at least 200,000,000 shares at its next annual meeting of stockholders, to be held not later than May 5, 2005. If stockholder approval is not obtained by August 5, 2005, then all redemptions and conversions of Series D-1 Preferred Stock must be satisfied only in cash and not in shares of Common Stock and the dividend rate on the Series D-1 Preferred Stock will increase.

I/O has agreed to indemnify Fletcher and its affiliates for liabilities, losses, damages, costs and expenses which may be incurred by Fletcher or its affiliates as a result of any claims made against Fletcher or such affiliates based upon (i) any breach by I/O of its representations, warranties or covenants contained in the Agreement or the Certificate, or (ii) untrue statements of material facts or omissions to state material facts in any filing by I/O with the SEC. Fletcher has similarly agreed to indemnify I/O and its affiliates for claims based upon breaches by it and untrue statements and omissions made by Fletcher with its written consent expressly for inclusion in any of I/O's SEC filings. Additionally, I/O has agreed to indemnify Fletcher and its affiliates against liabilities they may incur based upon Fletcher's or any such affiliate's inability to perform any contract to sell I/O common stock issuable under the Series D-1 Preferred Stock as a result of I/O requiring Fletcher to suspend resales of common stock under any registration statement.

The foregoing description of this transaction is only a summary and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the documents filed as Exhibits under Item 9.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K.
