IMMEDIATE RELEASE

GOODRICH PETROLEUM CLOSSES PREVIOUSLY ANNOUNCED EQUITY OFFERING, INCLUDING UNDERWRITERS OVER-ALLOTMENT OPTION

Houston, Texas December 10, 2007. Goodrich Petroleum Corporation (NYSE: GDP) announced today that it has closed its previously announced offering of 5,800,000 shares of its common stock, par value $0.20 per share (the Initial Shares ) and that the underwriters of the offering have exercised in full their option to purchase an additional 630,750 shares of common stock (the Option Shares ). The closing for the issuance and sale of the Option Shares closed simultaneously with the closing of the issuance and sale of the Initial Shares.

Net proceeds from the offering were approximately $145.4 million after deducting the underwriters' discount and estimated offering expenses. The Company will use approximately $123.9 million of the net proceeds to pay off outstanding borrowings under the Company's senior credit facility, which may be reborrowed to fund capital expenditures related to the Company's Cotton Valley Trend drilling program and approximately $21.5 million of the net proceeds to purchase capped call options on an aggregate of 5.8 million shares of the Company's common stock from affiliates of Bear, Stearns & Co., Inc. and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. These capped call options may reduce the potential dilution from the offering by allowing the Company to potentially recoup up to approximately 1,657,000 shares sold in this transaction over an average two-year period. The number of shares actually delivered upon settlement of the capped call option transaction will vary, and will have a value for each of the 5.8 million options equal to the excess of the stock price at settlement over $23.50 per share, subject to a maximum recouped value of $9.40 per option.

Of the aggregate 6,430,750 shares sold, 4,835,750 shares were sold on a firm commitment basis at a price to the public of $23.50 per share and 1,595,000 shares were purchased by Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc., each acting as an agent for one of its affiliates, to facilitate their hedging in connection with the capped call option transactions. The hedge shares will be offered by the purchasers themselves or through their broker-dealer affiliates from time to time at varying prices.

Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc. and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc. acted as joint book-running managers. In addition, Howard Weil Incorporated, Raymond James & Associates, Inc., Capital One Southcoast, Inc., Johnson Rice & Company L.L.C., Tudor, Pickering & Co. Securities, Inc., BMO Capital Markets Corp. and BNP Paribas Securities Corp. were co-managing underwriters for the offering. Copies of the final prospectus supplement and accompanying base prospectus may be obtained from the offices of Bear, Stearns & Co. Inc., 383 Madison Avenue, New York, New York 10179, Attention: Prospectus Department, (866) 803-9204; or by contacting J.P.

In connection with the capped call option agreements described above the counterparties may engage in hedging activities which could have the effect of increasing, or preventing a decline in, the price of the Company's common stock following the pricing of the offering. The option counterparties or their affiliates will likely modify the hedge positions from time to time by purchasing and selling shares of the Company's common stock, other of the Company's securities or other instruments they may wish to use in connection with such hedging. This is particularly likely to occur just before or during the settlement periods for the options.

Goodrich Petroleum has filed a registration statement (including a base prospectus and prospectus supplement) with the SEC (Commission File No. 333-145339), which has been declared effective by the SEC, for the offering to which this communication relates. Before you invest, you should read the base prospectus and prospectus supplement in that registration statement and other documents Goodrich has filed with the SEC for more complete information about Goodrich and this offering.
