Group Life Insurance

The Company provides group life insurance to all of its full-time employees. The amount of group life insurance on each full-time employee is equal to 150% of the employee's base salary, which excludes any bonus paid to an employee pursuant to any bonus plan adopted by the Company. To the extent that such insurance coverage exceeds $50,000 for any employee, such employee recognizes the cost of such excess insurance as taxable income. The group life insurance premiums paid on behalf of the Named Executive Officers are in the Summary Compensation Table therein under the heading "All Other Compensation."

401(k) Profit Sharing Plan

The Company's ASE, Inc Retirement Savings Plan ("Retirement Savings Plan") is a retirement savings plan under Sections 401(a) and 401(k) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("Code"). Under the present plan, eligible employees may choose to reduce their salary or wages from the Company from 1% to 100% (subject to a maximum reduction of $12,000 per year) and have such amounts contributed to MetLife Defined Contribution Group ("MDCG") under the terms of the Retirement Savings Plan; these amounts are not taxed to the employee at the time of contribution to the Retirement

Savings Plan. Eligible employees turning age 50+ during the current calendar year may also be eligible to make a catch-up contribution of up to $2,000. In addition, eligible employees may elect to reduce their salary or wages from the Company by not less than 1% nor more than 10% and have such amounts contributed to MDCG under the terms of the Retirement Savings Plan; these amounts are taxed to the employee at the time of contribution to the Retirement Savings Plan. Contributions up to 6% of the employee's compensation are matched at a rate of 50% by the Company ("Matching Contributions"). In addition, the Company may, but is not obligated to, make additional contributions to the Retirement Savings Plan. Both the Matching Contributions and the additional discretionary contributions are limited to the Company's accumulated net profits (prior to any deduction of contributions to the Retirement Savings Plan and any federal, state or local income taxes). The maximum annual allocation to an employee's account (including earnings, losses and forfeitures) is the lesser of (i) 100% of their salary or wages, or (ii) $40,000. All contributions under the Retirement Savings Plan are invested (pursuant to several investment choices) by the trustee for the Retirement Savings Plan. The current plan was amended during 2002 to comply with the 2001 tax law changes. The Company's trustee for the Retirement Savings Plan is JP Morgan Chase Manhattan Bank Trust. MDCG is agent to Chase Manhattan Bank Trust.

Edgar Filing: AERO SYSTEMS ENGINEERING INC - Form 10-K/A

Distributions of the vested portions of an employee's account balance will typically occur on their employment termination, retirement, death, or disability. Distributions can be made in the form of a lump sum, annuity or installment method of payment, at the discretion of the employee. During the years ending December 31, 2002, 2001, and 2000, $498,480, $800,975, and $494,229, respectively, were distributed by the Retirement Savings Plan. In 2002, 2001, and 2000, no distributions were made to any executive officer of the Company, including the Named Executive Officers. Benefit amounts credited during 2002, 2001, and 2000 pursuant to the Retirement Savings Plan for the Named Executive Officers, the distribution or unconditional vesting of which are not subject to future events, are included in the Summary Compensation Table under the heading "All Other Compensation."

Employment Agreement

The Company entered into an employment agreement with Charles H. Loux dated August 30, 1999, which provides for a term of one year, commencing on September 20, 1999 and ending September 30, 2000. That agreement was amended and renewed on September 30, 2000, 2001, and most recently on September 30, 2002 (the "Agreement"). The Agreement provides for an annual base salary of $171,000 effective January 1, 2003. The Agreement also provides for an annual incentive bonus based on certain performance criteria set forth in the Agreement; these criteria may be adjusted from time to time by the Board in its sole discretion, but upon consultation with Mr. Loux. The maximum incentive bonus that may be paid with respect to any year cannot exceed 50% of the base salary paid during that year. Under the Agreement, Mr. Loux is entitled to participate in any retirement savings plan, life insurance, health insurance, dental insurance, disability insurance or any other fringe benefit which the Company may from time to time make available to its salaried or executive employees; however, the Company agreed under the Agreement to provide Mr. Loux with term life insurance equal to two and one-half (2-1/2) times his annual base salary. Under the Agreement, if Mr. Loux's employment is terminated by the Board of Directors for reasons other than "cause" (as that term is defined in the Agreement), Mr. Loux is to receive a cash severance payment equal to 12 months' base salary in effect at the time of the termination and a pro-rated bonus. In the Agreement, should Mr. Loux's employment terminate for any reason, he is bound to a covenant not to compete or disclose confidential or secret information for a period of two years after the termination date.

Compensation of Directors

During 2002, Messrs. A. L. Maxson, Dr. Leon E. Ring, and Patrick J. Donovan received an aggregate of $10,000, $10,000 and $4,000, respectively, (plus reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses in carrying out their responsibilities as a Director) for serving on the Board of Directors of the Company and for serving on the Board's Audit Committee. In 2002, the other members of the Board of Directors received no compensation for serving as Directors but received reimbursement of out-of-pocket expenses incurred in carrying out their responsibilities as Directors of the Company. At this time, only Messrs. Maxson, Ring, and Donovan receive compensation equaling $2,000 per meeting to a maximum of $10,000 per year for serving on the Board of Directors and as committee members.

Report of Board of Directors on Executive Compensation

During the year ended December 31, 2002, the members of the Board of Directors of the Company, with the exception of Charles H. Loux, were not executive officers or employees of the Company or its subsidiaries. For the period after September 25, 2001, Messrs. Richard A. Hoel, James S. Kowalski, and Thomas L. Auth are governors and members of Minnesota ASE, LLC, which owns 51% of the Company's stock. The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for ensuring that compensation for executives is consistent with the Company's compensation philosophy. The Board believes that the Company's executive compensation is reasonable given its financial performance and as compared to other similar companies in the industry.

The Board annually evaluates the performance and compensation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"). The Board's deliberations regarding annual salary and incentive bonus are made without the presence of the CEO. Annual base salary for the CEO is established on the basis of a number of factors, including general performance of the Company and competitive standards. Although the Board takes into account corporate performance generally in determining annual base salary, there is no specific formula relating corporate performance to annual salary.

The Company's policy with respect to the compensation of its executive officers, including its CEO, includes the following beliefs:

1. The Company believes that its compensation system should attract and retain experienced, highly qualified executive officers.

2. The Company believes in pay for performance based on specific written goals and objectives and that executive compensation should have a substantial component of incentive compensation based on performance.
3. The Company believes that its executive compensation level should be measured by comparison to similar companies as well as other factors, such as an individual's contributions and performance.
4. The Company believes that the overall compensation level of the Company's executive officers should take into account the overall performance of the Company as compared to similar companies.

Determination of Compensation of Chief Executive Officer

The CEO's total annual compensation consists of two elements -- annual base salary and annual incentive bonus. Charles Loux's annual base salary for 2002 was determined in part by comparison to the annual salaries of chief executive officers of other companies of similar size and complexity. The annual incentive bonus component of Charles Loux's 2002 compensation plan was determined by establishing certain levels of financial performance of the Company as compared to the pre-determined annual budget and certain other factors. The factors and performance thresholds for 2002 were determined in the first quarter of that year by agreement between Charles Loux and Mr. Richard A. Hoel, the Chairman of the Board, which was ratified by the Board. For the year ended December 31, 2002, 80% of Charles Loux's total available incentive bonus was based on the Company reaching certain levels of net income in 2002 as compared to the annual budget. The remaining 20% of Charles Loux's 2002 incentive bonus was determined in the Board's discretion after reviewing his overall performance. For 2002, Charles Loux did receive an annual incentive bonus.

The Board believes that its current compensation philosophy and approach has served the Company's shareholders fairly, and it plans to continue the same compensation philosophy and approach for the foreseeable future.

ITEM 13 - CERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Until September 25, 2001, Celsius Inc., a subsidiary of Saab AB, owned approximately 80% of the Company's outstanding Common Stock. Prior to this date, Celsius Inc. guaranteed certain bank lines of credit granted to the Company by Skandinaviska Enskilda Banken ("SEB"). In addition, during the same period of 2001, Celsius Inc. provided customer assistance and consulting services to the Company. As consideration for such guarantees, customer assistance and consulting services, the Company incurred and paid interest charges (or fees) to Celsius Inc. in the amount of $140,000 for the period of January 1, 2001 to September 25, 2001. During this same period up to September 25, 2001, the bank lines of credit to the Company from SEB were in the amount of $6,000,000. Although the line of credit had a $6,000,000 limit, Celsius Inc. allowed the Company to exceed this limit for short periods of time. The portion over $6,000,000 was assessed a higher interest rate. To secure the guarantees by Celsius Inc. of such lines of credit and to secure any other present or future obligations of the Company to Celsius Inc., the Company granted security interests to Celsius Inc. in substantially all of the Company's assets. This line of credit was paid off and terminated on September 25, 2001, as part of the transaction of Minnesota ASE, LLC acquiring 51% of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company.

On September 25, 2001, Celsius Inc. sold 2,245,000 shares of the Company's Common Stock, or 51% of the total outstanding shares of common stock of ASE, to Minnesota ASE, LLC. Related to this transaction, the Company secured new bank financing agreements with M&I Marshall & Ilsley Bank for operating funds and future letter of credit needs. These new agreements are asset-based collateral agreements, with the funds available under these agreements determined by the available securable assets at any point in time, up to a maximum of $6,000,000 of operating funds and $3,000,000 of letter of credit funds. Also related to this transaction, Celsius Inc. agreed to continue to hold until scheduled maturity certain existing bank guarantees that were previously provided to a few of the Company's customers, and Celsius Inc. provided a three-year $1,500,000 loan to the Company at 8% per year, which is subordinated debt to the bank agreement.

This loan is collateralized by a third party pledge by Minnesota ASE, LLC, of the shares of ASE purchased by Minnesota ASE, LLC, from Celsius Inc. The Company also provided an indemnification agreement to Celsius Inc. to secure Celsius Inc.'s interest in the above items. The Company's obligations under the three-year Note are secured by a Security Agreement between the Company and Celsius Inc. and by a combination Mortgage, Assignment of Rents, Security Agreement and Fixture Financing Statement between the Company and Celsius Inc. pursuant to which all of the personal and fixture assets of the Company are pledged as collateral. The Company, Minnesota ASE, LLC and Celsius Inc., in connection with the foregoing loan and security arrangements, are party to a Stockholders Agreement (the "Stockholders Agreement"). The Stockholders Agreement provides, among other things, for Celsius to have a designee on the Company's Board of Directors so long as it holds at least 10% of the outstanding common shares, a right of first refusal in certain circumstances with respect to any sale of shares by a shareholder to a third party, tag-along rights with respect to sales of stock to third parties, and certain registration rights of shareholders in the event of any public offering of the stock of the Company. In March of 2003, in connection with Celsius Inc. providing an extension to a down payment letter of credit to one of the Company's customers, the Company repaid to Celsius Inc., $500,000 of the $1,500,000 three-year Note.

On September 25, 2001, Minnesota ASE, LLC, loaned the Company $2,600,000 in order to supplement bank financing, and $2,300,000 of the balance was repaid prior to year end, leaving an outstanding balance of $300,000. The remaining $300,000 has been converted to a note bearing interest at 8% and does not have a stated due date. During 2002, Minnesota ASE, LLC loaned the Company an additional $200,000, leaving an outstanding balance of $500,000 at December 31, 2002.

For the period of January 1, 2002 through December 31, 2002, Minnesota ASE, LLC charged the Company as consideration for such guarantees and for certain administrative support provided and the Company paid a fee of $180,000. The Company presently pays no compensation to board members that are affiliated with Minnesota ASE, LLC.

The Company's chairman is a senior shareholder and founder of Winthrop & Weinstine, P.A., the Company's general counsel. Winthrop & Weinstine, P.A. has acted as general counsel to the Company since 1977. The Company has paid Winthrop & Weinstine, P.A. $266,916 for legal services and reimbursement of costs incurred during the period from January 1, 2002 to December 31, 2002.
