On September 7, 2005, Lennox International Inc. (the Company) called for redemption all of its outstanding 6% Convertible Subordinated Notes Due 2009, on October 7, 2005. The notes were issued and the redemption will be effected pursuant to the provisions of the Indenture, dated as of May 8, 2002, between the Company and The Bank of New York Trust Company, N.A., as Successor Trustee to The Bank of New York, as trustee. The notes will be redeemed at a redemption price of 103.571% of the principal amount thereof, plus accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date. As of September 7, 2005, there was $143.75 million in aggregate principal amount of the notes outstanding.

On the redemption date, the redemption price will become due and payable upon each note to be redeemed. Unless the Company defaults in the payment of the redemption price and accrued and unpaid interest in accordance with the indenture, interest on the notes will cease to accrue on and after the redemption date and the only remaining right of the holders of the notes will be to receive payment of the redemption price, including accrued and unpaid interest to the redemption date, upon surrender to the trustee of the notes.

The notes called for redemption may be converted by the holders at any time before the close of business on the business day prior to the redemption date. Notes are convertible into common stock, par value $.01 per share, of the Company at a rate of 55.2868 shares of common stock per $1,000 principal amount of notes.
