ITEM 8.01. OTHER EVENTS.

On August 12, 2008, Weyerhaeuser Company issued a press release stating the following:

Weyerhaeuser Announces Retirements of Alford, Neeser

FEDERAL WAY, Wash. (Aug. 12, 2008) Weyerhaeuser Company (NYSE: WY) today announced that Lee T. Alford, senior vice president Residential Wood Products, and Craig D. Neeser, senior vice president Industrial Wood Products and International, will retire from Weyerhaeuser on Oct. 1.

Effective with the retirements, Thomas F. Gideon, executive vice president Forest Products, will assume leadership of Residential Wood Products in addition to his current duties. James M. Branson, senior vice president Timberlands, will add Industrial Wood Products and International to his existing responsibilities.

Lee and Craig have helped guide Weyerhaeuser through a period of enormous change, said Daniel S. Fulton, president and chief executive officer. Whether it was through Lee's leadership in the establishment of our iLevel approach to the residential wood products market or Craig's work with our international and Canadian assets, each has made a mark on Weyerhaeuser and helped position us for future growth. We thank them for their contributions.

Alford, 60, joined Weyerhaeuser in 1996 after serving in various management positions with several forest products companies including Cavenham Forest Industries, Duke City Lumber Company Inc., and Crown Zellerbach. At Weyerhaeuser, he has served in his current role since 2004. Before that, he was vice president Softwood Lumber; vice president Southern Timberlands; and vice president Mississippi/Louisiana Operations.

Neeser, 53, has held his current position since 2006 after serving as senior vice president Canada from 2005 to 2006.

Neeser also served as vice president British Columbia and vice president BC Coastal Group. He joined Weyerhaeuser in 1999 with the company's acquisition of MacMillan Bloedel where he had worked since 1977.

Weyerhaeuser Company, one of the world's largest forest products companies, was incorporated in 1900. In 2007, sales were $16.3 billion. It has offices or operations in 13 countries, with customers worldwide. Weyerhaeuser is principally engaged in the growing and harvesting of timber; the manufacture, distribution and sale of forest products; and real estate construction, development and related activities. Additional information about Weyerhaeuser's businesses, products and practices is available at <http://www.weyerhaeuser.com>.
