Company. Under the terms of the Settlement, which are set forth in a Stipulation of Settlement dated as of March 2, 2004, the Company has paid $375,000 into escrow for the benefit of the Class and will commence making payments into escrow under a $3,000,000 promissory note, bearing interest at the rate of prime plus 3%, over a four year period, on June 30, 2004, which escrow proceeds will be distributed to the Class upon the effective date of the Settlement. In addition, a total of $2,375,000 of proceeds from a Company insurance policy will be used to fund the Settlement. The Settlement will become effective after the period to appeal has lapsed or, if an appeal is taken, after the appeal is finally dismissed. The period to appeal expires 45 days after the final approval order is entered. Other than appeals, all other conditions to the settlement becoming effective have been satisfied. Once effective, the Settlement will fully and finally release all claims between the Class and the Company and its affiliates in the Class Action.

Under the terms of the Settlement, the Company has agreed to prosecute any valid third party or cross-claims that it believes it has in relation to the class action. Of any net recovery (after attorney fees and other costs of prosecution) of any amounts collected from the resolution of these claims, one half will be allocated to the class as additional settlement funds and the other half will be allocated to offset the Company's obligations under the promissory note.

For additional information regarding the Settlement, see "Item 3. Legal Proceedings" of the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003, and the notes to the Company's unaudited consolidated financial statements contained in the Company's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the period ended March 31, 2004.
