PROXY STATEMENT

The enclosed proxy is being solicited on behalf of the Board of Directors of the Company for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held at 10:00 a.m., Eastern Daylight Savings Time, on Tuesday, June 28, 2005, and any adjournments thereof (the Annual Meeting). This proxy statement, including the Notice of Meeting and the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 29, 2005 (the 2004 fiscal year) was first mailed to shareholders on May 25, 2005.

Only shareholders of record at the close of business on May 19, 2005 are entitled to notice of and to vote at the meeting or any adjournments thereof. The total number of outstanding shares entitled to vote at the meeting is 38,980,416. Each shareholder is entitled to one vote for each share held.

Without affecting any vote previously taken, the proxy may be revoked by the shareholder by giving a written notice of revocation to the Company in writing (attention: James A. McGrady, Secretary). A shareholder may also change his or her vote by executing and returning to the Company a later-dated proxy or by giving notice of revocation in open meeting.

All properly executed proxies received by the Board of Directors will be voted as directed by the shareholder. All properly executed proxies received by the Board of Directors which do not specify how shares should be voted will be voted FOR the election as directors of the nominees listed below under Election of Directors and in the discretion of the proxies on any other business properly brought before the meeting or any adjournments thereof.

The presence, in person or by proxy, of a majority of the outstanding common shares is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum. Broker non-votes occur when brokers who hold their customers' shares in street name sign and submit proxies for such shares and vote such shares on some matters, but not others. This would occur when brokers have not received any instructions from their customers, in which case the brokers, as the holders of record, are permitted to vote on routine matters, which includes the election of directors.

Solicitation of proxies may be made by mail, personal interview and telephone by officers, directors and regular employees of the Company, and by the employees of the Company's transfer agent, National City Bank. In addition, the Company has retained a firm specializing in proxy solicitations, Georgeson Shareholder Communications, Inc., at a cost of approximately $1,500 to assist the Company with its proxy solicitation process. The Company will bear the cost of the solicitation of proxies, including the charges and expenses of brokerage firms and others for forwarding solicitation material to beneficial owners of shares.

OTHER DIRECTOR INFORMATION, COMMITTEES OF DIRECTORS AND CORPORATE GOVERNANCE INFORMATION

General

A total of seven meetings of the Board of Directors of the Company were held during the 2004 fiscal year. No director attended less than 75 percent of the aggregate of (i) the total number of meetings of the Board of Directors and (ii) the total number of meetings held by all committees of the Board of Directors on which that director served during the period each served as a director.

There are no family relationships among our directors and executive officers except that Messrs. Deshe and Diamond are each married to a sister of Mr. Schottenstein.

Each of Messrs. Aaron, Sonnenberg and Weisman and Ms. Eveillard are paid an annual retainer of $30,000 and receive an additional $20,000 annually for each committee on which they serve. Each of Messrs. Diamond and Weisman do not receive any compensation for serving as members of the Community Affairs Committee. In addition, Messrs. Aaron, Deshe, Diamond, Sonnenberg and Weisman and Ms. Eveillard receive a quarterly board meeting fee of $5,000 so long as they attend at least one board meeting during that quarter. In 2004, each of Messrs. Aaron, Sonnenberg and Weisman and Ms. Eveillard also received $20,000 for their services on a special committee of the Board of Directors (the Special Committee). The Special Committee was formed in order to review and evaluate proposals relating to the restructuring the Corporation s existing credit facilities and to make recommendations to the full Board of Directors with respect to any such proposals.

The Company s Corporate Governance Principles provides that all incumbent directors and director nominees are encouraged to attend the annual meeting of shareholders. All of the directors attended the annual meeting of shareholders in 2004.

Table of Contents

Each of Messrs. Aaron, Sonnenberg and Weisman and Ms. Eveillard are automatically granted options each quarter to purchase 2,500 of our common shares under our Amended and Restated 2000 Stock Incentive Plan. Corporate Governance Principles

In March 2004, the Board of Directors adopted Corporate Governance Principles that address Board structure, membership (including nominee qualifications), performance, operations and management oversight. A copy of the Corporate Governance Principles can be found at the Company's corporate and investor website at www.retailventuresinc.com and is available in print (without charge) to any shareholder upon request.

The Board of Directors meets in regularly scheduled executive session (without management present). The non-management directors of the Company alternate as the chair of such executive sessions in alphabetical order by last name.

The Corporate Governance Principles provide that the Board's goal is that a majority of the directors should be independent directors. A director will be designated as independent if he or she (i) has no material relationship with the Company or its subsidiaries; (ii) satisfies the other criteria specified by NYSE listing standards; (iii) has no business conflict with the Company or its subsidiaries; and (iv) otherwise meets applicable independence criteria specified by law, regulation, exchange requirement or the Board of Directors. The Board of Directors has affirmatively determined that the following persons are independent under that definition:

Henry L. Aaron
Elizabeth M. Eveillard
Lawrence J. Ring
Harvey L. Sonnenberg
James L. Weisman

The Board of Directors has a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee, a Compensation Committee and an Audit Committee, all of which are comprised solely of independent directors.

Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee

The members of the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee are Messrs. Weisman (Chair), Aaron and Sonnenberg, and Ms. Eveillard, each of whom is independent as discussed above. In March 2004, the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee recommended, and the Board of Directors approved, a Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee Charter, a copy of which can be found on the Company's corporate and investor website at www.retailventuresinc.com and is available in print (without charge) to any shareholder upon request.

The Committee met one time during the 2004 fiscal year. Its functions include assisting the Board in determining the desired qualifications of directors, identifying potential individuals meeting those qualification criteria, proposing to the Board a slate of nominees for election by the shareholders and reviewing candidates nominated by shareholders. In addition, the Committee also reviews the Corporate Governance Principles, makes recommendations to the Board with respect to other corporate governance principles applicable to the Company, oversees the annual evaluation of the Board and management, and reviews management and Board succession plans.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee meets to discuss, among other things, identification and evaluation of potential candidates for nomination as a director. Potential candidates are identified and evaluated according to the qualification criteria set forth in the Board's Corporate Governance Principles, including independence, character, diversity, age, skills and experience of such individuals.

The Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee will consider nominees recommended by shareholders for the 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, provided that the names of such nominees are submitted in writing, not later than January 24, 2006, to the Company (Attn: James L. Weisman). Each such submission must include: (a) as to the nominee, (i) name, age, business address and residence address; (ii) principal occupation or employment; (iii) the class and number of shares of the Company beneficially owned; and (iv)

Such notice shall be accompanied by a consent signed by the nominee evidencing a willingness to serve as a director, if nominated and elected, and a commitment by the nominee to meet personally with the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee members.

Other than the submission requirements set forth above, there are no differences in the manner in which the Nominating and Corporate Governance Committee evaluates a nominee for director recommended by a shareholder.

Mr. Wilansky was nominated to the Board of Directors pursuant to his employment agreement. Mr. Ring was recommended to the Board of Directors by Mr. Wilansky, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company.

Compensation Committee

The members of the Compensation Committee are Ms. Eveillard (Chair) and Messrs. Aaron, Sonnenberg and Weisman. Each member of the Compensation Committee is independent as discussed above. None of the members of the Compensation Committee are present or former officers of the Company or are themselves or any of their affiliates, if any, parties to agreements with the Company.

In March 2004, the Compensation Committee recommended, and the Board of Directors approved, a Compensation Committee Charter, a copy of which can be found on the Company's corporate and investor website at www.retailventuresinc.com and is available in print (without charge) to any shareholder upon request.

Table of ContentsAUDIT AND OTHER SERVICE FEES

The Audit Committee has adopted a policy under which audit and non-audit services to be rendered by the Company's independent registered public accountants are pre-approved. The Committee's Pre-Approval Policy (the Pre-Approval Policy) can be found on the Company's corporate and investor website at www.retailventuresinc.com. The Pre-Approval Policy is designed to assure that the provision of such services does not impair the independence of the Company's independent registered public accounting firm and is summarized below.

Delegation - the Audit Committee may delegate pre-approval authority to one or more of its independent members provided that the member(s) to whom such authority is delegated report any pre-approval decisions to the Audit Committee at its next meeting. The Audit Committee has not delegated to management its responsibilities to pre-approve services performed by the independent registered public accounting firm.

Audit Services - Annual audit, review and attestation engagement terms and fees are subject to the specific pre-approval of the Audit Committee. Any changes in the terms, conditions or fees resulting from changes in the audit scope requires the Audit Committee's approval.

Other Services - Unless a type of service to be provided by the independent registered public accounting firm has received general pre-approval, it will require specific pre-approval by the Audit Committee.

In no event will the independent registered public accounting firm be retained in connection with a transaction initially recommended by the independent registered public accounting firm, the purpose of which may be tax avoidance and the tax treatment of which may not be supported in the Internal Revenue Code and related regulations or similar regulations of other applicable jurisdictions.

Pre-approval fee levels for all services to be provided by the independent registered public accounting firm will be established periodically by the Audit Committee. Any proposed services exceeding these levels will require specific pre-approval of the Audit Committee. Each year the independent registered public accounting firm will provide the Audit Committee with an estimate for the fees for its anticipated services. Each quarter, the independent registered public accounting firm will provide the Audit Committee with a report of the audit, audit-related, tax and other services provided together with the actual fees incurred. Any changes to the estimate of services and fees will be discussed quarterly and, if necessary, revised.

No services were provided by the independent public accountants during the 2004 fiscal year that were approved by the Audit Committee under SEC Regulation S-X Section 2-01(c)(7)(i)(C) (which addresses certain services considered de minimis and may be approved by the Committee after such services have been performed).

In addition, all outstanding stock options became fully exercisable and all restrictions imposed on any outstanding shares of restricted stock lapsed. Mr. Kozlowski released any claim he might have to a bonus for the 2004 fiscal year. As additional severance, Mr. Kozlowski was permitted to retain an automobile in his possession.

Pursuant to his employment contract, in 2001, the Company loaned Mr. Kozlowski the initiation fee for a country club membership, which loan was forgiven at a rate of 10 percent for each 12 consecutive month period Mr. Kozlowski remained employed after the date the loan was made. Pursuant to his employment contract, Mr. Kozlowski became responsible for the unpaid balance of the loan on termination of employment for any reason other than death or disability before the ten-year period has elapsed. The largest amount of the loan outstanding during the 2004 fiscal year was $68,329. The unpaid balance of the loan ($57,466) was paid in full by Mr. Kozlowski on April 14, 2005.

Mr. McGrady entered into an employment agreement with the Company effective June 21, 2000, with an initial term ending June 21, 2003. Mr. McGrady's employment agreements extends automatically for successive 12-month periods unless either party notifies the other of an intent to terminate, in writing, at least 60 calendar days prior to the date of automatic extension. Mr. McGrady's participation in the deferred compensation or other employee benefit plans, insurance plans, discount privileges, incentive plans and other employee welfare plans generally available to the executive of the Company. The agreement also provides for a vehicle allowance. Mr. McGrady's base salary was $426,000 for 2004 fiscal year and will be $475,000 for the fiscal year ending January 28, 2006.

The Company may terminate the employment agreement during its term, for any reason, upon 30 days' written notice to Mr. McGrady, and may, in its sole discretion, require Mr. McGrady to cease active employment immediately. In the event of such a termination (other than termination for cause), Mr. McGrady shall be entitled to: (i) severance pay in the form of base salary for 12 months, subject to certain provisos; (ii) payment of any incentive bonus declared, but unpaid, if he has been employed the full fiscal year prior to the date of termination; and (iii) continuation of his health coverage for 12 months under the same terms as provided to other Company executives, subject to certain provisos.

If the Company terminates Mr. McGrady's employment for cause, the Company's obligations under the employment agreement cease on Mr. McGrady's last day of active employment, except that the Company shall pay to Mr. McGrady: (i) any unpaid portion of his salary earned to the date of termination; (ii) any unpaid, declared bonus; and (iii) any unpaid business expenses properly incurred by Mr. McGrady under the employment agreement prior to termination.

Ms. Davis entered into an employment agreement with the Company effective as of April 29, 2004, which terminates upon her death, disability (as such term is defined in Ms. Davis employment agreement), voluntary termination by Ms. Davis or involuntary termination by the Company. The agreement provides for an annual salary of $260,000 and a cash bonus of 50% of her base salary if Board-approved, predetermined performance measures set annually are met. In addition, for each year Ms. Davis annual salary is less than $300,000, she will receive a minimum guaranteed bonus to raise her salary to $300,000. The agreement also provides for Ms. Davis participation in the employee pension or welfare benefit plans of the Company at a level commensurate with her title and position. The agreement also provides for a vehicle allowance and fuel card. Ms. Davis's base salary for the 2005 fiscal year will be $300,000.

If the Company terminates Ms. Davis employment for cause, or if Ms. Davis voluntarily terminates her employment with the Company, the Company shall pay to Ms. Davis: (i) the unpaid base salary Ms. Davis earned to the date of termination; (ii) any unpaid cash incentive bonus earned for the fiscal year that ends before the fiscal year during which such termination occurs; (iii) equity incentives to which Ms. Davis is entitled under the Company's Stock Incentive Plan and the applicable stock option and restricted stock agreements; and (iv) any rights accruing to Ms. Davis under any applicable employee benefit plan, fund or program.

Mr. Miller entered into an employment agreement with the Company effective October 10, 2003, which terminates upon his death, disability (as such term is defined in the employment agreement), voluntary termination by Mr. Miller or involuntary termination by the Company. not been terminated; (iv) exercise any outstanding stock options that are vested on the date of termination and those that would have vested during the one year following the effective date of termination, in each case subject to the terms of the Company's Stock Incentive Plan and any applicable agreement thereunder; and (v) any rights accruing to him under any applicable employee benefit plan, fund or program.

REPORT OF THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

General

The Board has delegated to the Compensation Committee the authority to review and approve on an annual basis the corporate goals and objectives with respect to compensation for the executive officers of the Company, other than the Chairman's compensation, and to evaluate the executive officers' performance in light of these established goals and objectives. The committee has the sole authority to set the chief executive officer's annual compensation, including salary, bonus, incentive and equity compensation, and to approve the annual compensation, including salary, bonus, incentive and equity compensation, for the other executive officers.

In the 2004 fiscal year, the Compensation Committee engaged Hewitt Associates, an independent compensation consulting firm, to perform competitive peer analysis and advise the Company on executive officer compensation.

Compensation Philosophy

The Company's executive compensation program is based on two objectives:

To provide market-competitive compensation opportunities, and

To create a strong link among the interests of the shareholders, the Company's financial performance, and the total compensation of the Company's executive officers.

The key components of the Company's executive officer compensation program are short-term compensation, consisting of an annual base salary and annual bonuses under the Company's 2003 Incentive Compensation Plan. Due to provisions contained in certain of the Company's credit facilities, the Company's ability to issue long-term equity based compensation is restricted at this time.

Base Salaries. Our policy is to pay executive officers at or somewhat above the competitive compensation averages for comparable positions. The companies used for this comparison for the 2004 fiscal year were comprised of a 55-company retail peer group from Hewitt Associates' database. The companies which comprise this retail group have a median revenue of $2.4 billion and reflect the Company's scope of operations and the competitive market in the retail industry for senior executive talent. Generally, previously granted stock options and other equity awards are not considered in setting cash compensation levels.

Compensation levels for individual executive officers, however, may be more or less than competitive averages, depending upon a subjective assessment of individual factors such as the executive's position, experience, skills, achievements, tenure with the Company and historical compensation levels.

Incentive Compensation. The Compensation Committee believes incentive compensation should be calculated to achieve a combination of individual and company-wide objectives and performance goals that clearly link the interests of the executive officers with the financial performance of the Company.

The key component of the incentive compensation program is the Company's 2003 Incentive Compensation Plan (the 2003 Incentive Plan) pursuant to which bonuses are paid based upon a predetermined formula of the Company's earnings before interest and taxes (EBIT). The Compensation Committee administers the 2003 Incentive Plan. For fiscal year 2004, the predetermined EBIT targets were not achieved; as a result, no bonuses were paid under the 2003 Incentive Plan.

The Compensation Committee believes that, from time to time, achieving objectives and goals other than earnings targets may also be in the best interests of the Company and its shareholders. During the 2004 fiscal year, senior management of the Company undertook a significant number of time consuming projects that are not related generally to operations (such as implementing the Sarbanes-Oxley §404 controls, refinancing its revolving credit facility and pursuing other liquidity options) or are extraordinary in nature. Accordingly, the Compensation Committee, utilizing its discretion under the Plan and applying its best business judgment, authorized the payment of additional incentive payments to the Chief Executive Officer in an amount of up to $400,000 and the other executive officers, as a group of up to $500,000, in the aggregate, during 2004 (the Special Incentive Pool). Based upon its review of progress being made in connection with such special projects, the Compensation Committee approved the payment of one-third of the Special Incentive Pool on each of April 30, 2004 and July 31, 2004 to the Chief Executive Officer and the other executive officers, but did not approve the payment of the final one-third of the Special Incentive Pool.

On April 28, 2005, the Compensation Committee established EBIT targets for the 2005 fiscal year under the 2003 Incentive Plan. At 100% of target, Mr. Wilansky is entitled to a target bonus of 100% of his annual base salary,* Mr. McGrady and Ms. Davis are entitled to a target bonus of 50% of their annual base salary and Mr. Miller is entitled to a target bonus of 45% of his annual base salary. Bonus payments increase as performance levels increase between the minimum and maximum targets, as follows, and proportionately as performance increases between the various established target levels:

Performance Level	Mr. Wilansky*	Mr. McGrady
		Ms. Davis	Mr. Miller
Below 70% of target	No funding	No funding	No funding
At 70% of target	50% of base salary	25% of base salary	22.5% of base salary
At 100% of target	100% of base salary	50% of base salary	45% of base salary
At 140% of target	200% of base salary	100% of base salary	90% of base salary

* Under the terms of his Employment Agreement, Mr. Wilansky is guaranteed a minimum bonus payment of $1,000,000 whether or not EBIT targets are achieved for the 2005 fiscal year.

On April 28, 2005, the Compensation Committee also established a discretionary bonus pool of up to $378,000 for the 2005 fiscal year, which the Compensation Committee can distribute, as it sees fit, to reward executive officers who the Committee determines have contributed notably to the company's performance and have not received adequate or competitive compensation. The Committee does not plan to distribute any portion of the discretionary bonus pool if bonuses are paid under the 2003 Incentive Plan.

Chief Executive Officer Compensation. On November 3, 2004, the Company announced the removal of Mr. Rossler as President and Chief Executive Officer and Mr. Kozlowski as Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer. Mr. Schottenstein recommended that Mr. Wilansky, President and Chief Executive Officer of Filene's Basement, a subsidiary of the Company, be elected President and Chief Executive Officer, a recommendation that was discussed and considered at several meetings of the Compensation Committee and by the Board. The Committee and Board considered, among other things:

The importance to the Company of a smooth transition of management; and

Mr. Wilansky's experience, including his success in operating Bon Ton Stores and Filene's Basement. After carefully considering these and other factors, the Board approved Mr. Wilansky's promotion to the position of President and Chief Executive Officer.

In determining the compensation appropriate for Mr. Wilansky, the Compensation Committee considered the above factors and, among other things:

Mr. Wilansky's experience, tenure and responsibilities, including the added complications of a management structure at least temporarily without a Chief Operating Officer;

That Mr. Wilansky, in line with normal compensation practice, should receive compensation somewhat higher than he received for his services prior to his promotion and the expansion of his responsibilities;

The compensation of other executives in the retail industry for similar positions;

Table of Contents

The advice of the Committee's independent compensation consultant; and

The recognition of the fact that, although the Committee believes a significant portion of Mr. Wilansky's compensation should be performance-related, he should be afforded the opportunity to implement his plans to improve performance.

After carefully considering the foregoing and other factors, the Compensation Committee approved an employment agreement with Mr. Wilansky, effective November 1, 2004, that provides for an annual base salary of $1,000,000, with minimum annual increases of 2.5% (with the first such increase to occur at the beginning of the 2006 fiscal year) and a target annual bonus per fiscal year of 100 percent of base salary and a maximum annual bonus per fiscal year of 200 percent of base salary with the following minimum bonus guarantees: (i) $800,000 for the 2004 fiscal year; (ii) $1,000,000 for the 2005 fiscal year; and (iii) $250,000 for the 2006 fiscal year. In addition, Mr. Wilansky will be entitled to an annual perquisite allowance from the Company of $50,000 (which amount includes any associated tax gross-up), payable in equal installments in accordance with the Company's payroll practices for executive employees. Other terms and conditions of Mr. Wilansky's employment are described above under Executive Compensation Employment Agreements.

In setting the guaranteed minimum annual bonuses, the Committee considered, among other things, Mr. Wilansky's plans to launch new strategic initiatives to improve performance and agreed that it would be inappropriate to penalize him if overall Company performance fell below established EBIT targets until his initiatives are fully implemented.

Other Executive Officers Compensation. The Compensation Committee considered the following factors in determining the base salaries for fiscal 2005 for the President, who is also the Chief Executive Officer as of November 4, 2004; the Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Secretary; the Executive Vice President and General Counsel; and Senior Vice President and Controller: (1) Hewitt Associates' compensation study of a 55-company retail peer group from Hewitt Associates' database; (2) the level of compensation paid to persons holding comparable positions with other publicly traded companies in the retail industry; and (3) their respective roles and responsibilities with the Company.

In addition, the Compensation Committee approved discretionary bonuses for the 2004 fiscal year in recognition of the services rendered to the Company during the fall and winter of 2004 by Mr. McGrady, the Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer, Treasurer and Secretary of the Company, Ms. Davis, the Executive Vice President and General Counsel of the Company, and Mr. Miller, Senior Vice President and Controller of the Company, after the departure of the Company's prior President and Chief Executive Officer and Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer.

Long Term Equity Based Compensation. Due to provisions contained in certain of the Company's credit facilities, the Company's ability to issue long-term equity based compensation consisting of grants of restricted stock and stock option awards is restricted at this time.

Section 162(m) Compliance. Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code generally disallows a tax deduction to public companies for compensation over $1,000,000 paid for any fiscal year to the Company's Chief Executive Officer and four other most highly compensated Executive Officers. While the Company designed the 2003 Incentive Plan and its performance goals to meet the criteria for deductibility under Section 162(m), the Committee also retained discretion to consider unusual items that impacted the Company's performance. As discussed above, based on the Company's performance, the Committee determined that the threshold performance goals for annual incentive awards under the 2003 Incentive Plan were not met for 2004. The Committee however determined that based on a number of factors discussed above, some level of annual incentive awards should be made to the Executive Officers at a level below the targets established for the Company. The Committee believes that all compensation for 2004 paid to named Executive Officers other than Mr. Wilansky is properly deductible under the Code.

Mr. Wilansky's minimum bonus guarantees ($800,000 for the 2004 fiscal year and $1,000,000 for the 2005 fiscal year) are not deductible under the Code; consequently, in 2004 and 2005 the portion of his base salary plus guaranteed bonus in excess of $1 million will not be deductible.

Table of Contents

Conclusion. We have reviewed all components of Mr. Wilansky's and our executive officers' compensation, including salary and bonus. Based on this review, the Compensation Committee finds Mr. Wilansky's and our executive officers' total compensation to be reasonable.

Respectfully submitted,

Compensation Committee

The following graph compares the performance of the Company with that of the Standard & Poor's General Merchandise Stores Index and the Russell 2000 Index, both of which are published indexes. This comparison includes the period beginning January 29, 2000 through January 29, 2005.

The Standard & Poor's General Merchandise Stores Index is published weekly in the Standard & Poor's Statistical Service and the index value preceding each fiscal year end has been selected for purposes of this comparison. The Russell 2000 Index is a capitalization-weighted index of domestic equity securities traded on the New York and American Stock Exchanges and the NASDAQ that measures the performance of the 2,000 smallest companies in the Russell 3000 Index. The Company's common shares are traded on the NYSE.

The comparison of the cumulative total returns for each investment assumes $100 was invested on January 29, 2000, and that all dividends were reinvested.

Table of ContentsCERTAIN RELATIONSHIPS AND RELATED TRANSACTIONS

Transactions between the Company and its current directors, executive officers or significant shareholders (persons who beneficially own more than five percent of the outstanding common shares of the Company) are omitted from the discussion below if at the time any such transaction was entered into, such person was not a director, executive officer or significant shareholder of the Company.

Real Estate Leases and Subleases

The Company leases stores and warehouses under various arrangements with our majority shareholder, SSC, and its affiliates. Such leases expire through 2024 and in most cases provide for renewal options. Generally, the Company is required to pay real estate taxes, maintenance, insurance and contingent rentals based on sales in excess of specified levels.

The Company has several leasing agreements with SSC and its affiliates. As of May 19, 2005, the Company leases four store locations owned by SSC under a Master Lease Agreement. Additionally, the Company leases or subleases from SSC, or affiliates of SSC, 31 store locations, 5 warehouse facilities and a parcel of land. The minimum rent for these leaseholds is set forth below with additional contingent rents based on aggregate sales in excess of specified sales for the store locations. Leases and subleases with related parties are for initial periods generally ranging from five to twenty years, provide for renewal options and require the Company to pay real estate taxes, maintenance and insurance.

Each lease entered into with SSC or its affiliates is on terms at least as favorable to the Company as could be obtained in an arm's-length transaction with an unaffiliated third party. The Company has a policy that requires our audit committee to review and approve all affiliated leases prior to consummation.

During the last fiscal year, the Company paid approximately $24.7 million in related party lease expense.

Future minimum lease payments required under the aforementioned leases, exclusive of real estate taxes, insurance and maintenance costs, at January 29, 2005 are as follows (in thousands):

Fiscal Year		Minimum Payments
2005	$	20,754
2006		20,316
2007		19,473
2008		18,330
2009		17,610
Future Years		97,003
Total	$	193,486

SSC operates a chain of furniture stores, five of which operate in separate space subleased from the Company. Three of these furniture store subleases (the Furniture Subleases) are for a term concurrent with the respective lease between the Company and a third party landlord. These Furniture Subleases provide for the payment by SSC of base rent and other charges in amounts at least equal to its pro rata share based on square footage and its pro rata share of any percentage rent based on its gross sales. Two additional furniture store subleases are for periods shorter than the Company lease. For fiscal 2004, SSC paid to the Company an aggregate of $1.3 million pursuant to these subleases.

Merchandise Transactions with Affiliates

The Company purchases merchandise from and sells merchandise to affiliates of SSC. Some of such affiliates of SSC manufacture, import and wholesale apparel as their principal business. The members of the Company's merchandising staff use these sources and make their purchasing decisions in the same manner as with unaffiliated sources. Any merchandise purchased from such sources is on terms at least as favorable to us as could be obtained in an arm's-length transaction with an unaffiliated third party. Total purchases by us from SSC and other affiliates for fiscal 2004 were approximately $4.7 million, representing 2.8% of our total purchases during the fiscal year.

Table of ContentsServices Agreements

We receive services from SSC pursuant to a Corporate Services Agreement between the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries and SSC. The agreement sets forth the costs of shared services, including specified legal, advertising, import, real estate and administrative services. As of January 29, 2005, the only services we receive pursuant to this agreement pertain to real estate services and the administration of our health insurance and benefit plans. The Company believes that it is able to obtain such services at a cost, which is equal to or below the cost of providing such services internally or obtaining such services from unaffiliated third parties. For fiscal 2004, the Company paid SSC or its affiliates $1.3 million for such services.

In prior years, the Corporate Services Agreement had provided for participation by the Company in a self-insurance program maintained by SSC. Under this program, the Company was self-insured for purposes of personal injury and property damage, motor vehicle and Ohio workers' compensation claims up to various specified amounts, and for casualty losses up to $100,000. The Company terminated its participation in this self-insurance program in fiscal 2003. While the Company no longer participates in the program, it continues to remain responsible for liabilities it incurred under the program. For fiscal 2004, the Company paid SSC a total of $0.3 million for claims, adjustments and administrative costs relating to prior years. The Company's current insurance arrangements for personal injury and property damage, motor vehicle and Ohio workers' compensation claims are with unrelated third parties.

Debt Agreements

On June 11, 2002, the Company entered into two separate credit facilities (collectively, the Term Loans) equally held by Cerberus Partners, L.P. (Cerberus) and SSC, and amended and restated its $75.0 million senior subordinated convertible loan, initially entered into on March 15, 2000, which is held equally by Cerberus and SSC (the Senior Subordinated Convertible Loan). During fiscal 2004, the Company extended the maturity dates of the Term Loans by one year. The Company recorded $23.7 million in interest expense relating to the two credit facilities in fiscal 2004 of which $20.2 million was paid to Cerberus and to SSC.

$100 Million Term Loans

The Term Loans are comprised of a $50.0 million Term Loan B and a $50.0 million Term Loan C. All obligations under the Term Loans are senior debt and, subject to an Intercreditor Agreement by and among the parties, have the same rights and privileges as the Revolving Credit Facility and the Senior Subordinated Convertible Loan. The Company and its principal subsidiaries are obligated on the Term Loans. During fiscal 2004, the Company extended the maturity dates of the Term Loans by one year. As a result, the maturity date of the Term Loans, which originally matured on June 11, 2005, was extended to June 11, 2006, under substantially the same terms and conditions.

The Term Loans' stated rate of interest per annum depends on whether we elect to pay interest in cash or a paid-in-kind (PIK) option. During the first two years of the Term Loans, we may pay all interest in PIK. During the final two years of the Term Loans, the stated rate of interest is 15.0% if paid in cash or 15.5% if PIK and the PIK option is limited to 50% of the interest due. For the years ended January 31, 2004 and February 1, 2003, the Company elected to pay interest in cash.

The Company issued 2,954,792 Warrants to purchase common shares at an initial exercise price of $4.50 per share to SSC and Cerberus in connection with the Term Loan C. The Warrants are exercisable at any time prior to June 11, 2012. In September 2002, Back Bay Capital Funding LLC bought from each of Cerberus and SSC a $3.0 million interest in each of their term loans, and received a corresponding portion of the Warrants from each of Cerberus and SSC. The Company has granted the Term Loan C Lenders registration rights with respect to the shares issuable upon exercise of the Warrants. The $6.1 million value ascribed to the Warrants was estimated as of the date of issuance.

using the Black-Scholes pricing model with the following assumptions: risk-free interest rate of 5.6%; expected life of 10 years; expected volatility of 47%; illiquidity discount of 10%; and an expected dividend yield of 0%. The related debt discount is amortized into interest expense over the life of the debt.

The number of shares issuable varies upon the occurrence of the following: (i) the issuance of additional common shares without consideration or for a consideration per share less than the Warrant exercise price; (ii) the declaration of any dividend; (iii) the combination or consolidation of the outstanding common shares into a lesser number of shares; (iv) the issuance or sale of additional shares at a price per share less than the current market price but greater than the Warrant exercise price; (v) the issuance of convertible securities which are convertible into common shares; and/or (vi) the exchange of shares in a merger or other business combination.

$75 Million Senior Convertible Loan

The Company amended and restated its $75.0 million Senior Subordinated Convertible Loan on June 11, 2002 (Convertible Loan). As amended, borrowings under the Convertible Loan bear interest at 10% per annum.

At the Company's option, interest may be PIK for the first two years, and thereafter, at the Company's option, up to 50% of the interest due may be PIK until maturity. PIK interest accrued with respect to the Convertible Loan is added to the outstanding principal balance, on a quarterly basis and is payable in cash upon the maturity of the debt. The Convertible Loan is guaranteed by all of our principal subsidiaries and is secured by a lien on assets junior to liens granted in favor of the lenders on the Revolving Credit Agreement and Term Loans. The Convertible Loan is not subject to prepayment until June 11, 2007. The agent has the right to designate two observers to the Company's Board for so long as the agent is the beneficial owner of at least 50% of the advances initially made by it and has the right to designate two individuals to our Board for so long as the agent is the beneficial owner of at least 50% of the conversion shares issued upon conversion of the advances initially made by it.

The Convertible Loan is convertible at the option of the holders into the Company's common shares at an initial conversion price of $4.50. The maturity date is June 10, 2009.
