QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS ABOUT THE SPECIAL MEETING AND MERGER

Q. What is the proxy statement/prospectus and why am I receiving it?

A. This proxy statement/prospectus describes the proposed merger between Coddle Creek Financial Corp. and First Community Bancshares, Inc. Because you are a stockholder of Coddle Creek, you are being asked to vote on the merger agreement at a special meeting of stockholders to be held on October 30, 2008.

Q. When and where is the special meeting?

A. The Coddle Creek special meeting of stockholders will be held at Coddle Creek's corporate headquarters located at 347 North Main Street, Mooresville, North Carolina 28115, on October 30, 2008 at 11:00 a.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After you have carefully read this proxy statement/prospectus, indicate on your proxy card how you want your shares to be voted. Then sign, date and mail your proxy card in the enclosed prepaid return envelope as soon as possible. Alternatively, you may vote by following the Internet and telephone voting instructions indicated on the proxy card. This will enable your shares to be represented and voted at the special meeting.

Q: Why is my vote important?

A: The merger agreement must be approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Coddle Creek common stock. If you do not vote, it will have the same effect as a vote against the merger agreement.

Q: If my shares are held in street name by my broker, will my broker automatically vote my shares for me?

A: No. Your broker or other nominee will not be able to vote shares held by it in street name on your behalf without instructions from you. You should instruct your broker or other nominee to vote your shares, following the directions your broker or other nominee provides.

Q: What if I fail to instruct my broker?

A: If you fail to instruct your broker or other nominee to vote your shares, it will have the same effect as a vote against the merger agreement.

Q: Can I attend the meeting and vote my shares in person?

A: Yes. All stockholders are invited to attend the special meeting. However, if you hold your shares in street name, you will need proof of ownership (by means of a recent brokerage statement, letter from a broker, or other nominee) to be admitted to the meeting. Stockholders of record can vote in person at the special meeting. If your shares are held in street name, then you should instruct your broker on how to vote your shares, following the directions your broker provides.

Q: Can I change my vote?

A: Yes. There are three ways you can change your vote after you have sent in your proxy card:

you may send a written notice to the Corporate Secretary of Coddle Creek stating that you would like to revoke your proxy before the special meeting;

you may complete and submit a new proxy card, and any earlier proxy will be revoked automatically or, if you submitted your proxy via the Internet or by telephone, you can change your vote by submitting a proxy at a later date, in which case your later-submitted proxy will be recorded and your earlier proxy revoked; or you may attend the special meeting and vote in person, and any earlier proxy will be revoked. However, simply attending the special meeting without voting will not revoke your proxy.

If you have instructed a broker or other nominee to vote your shares, you must follow directions you receive from your broker or other nominee to change your vote.

Q: Should I send in my stock certificates now?

A: No. You should not send in your stock certificates at this time. Instructions for surrendering your Coddle Creek common stock certificates in exchange for the merger consideration will be sent to you after we complete the merger.

Q: Where will my shares of First Community common stock be listed?

A: We intend to apply to have the shares of First Community common stock to be issued in the merger approved for quotation on the Nasdaq Global Select Market. First Community's common stock currently trades on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol FCBC.

Q: May I resell my stock acquired in the merger?

A: The First Community common stock issued pursuant to the merger will be freely transferable under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, which is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the Securities Act, except for shares issued to any Coddle Creek stockholder who may be deemed to be an affiliate of First Community for purposes of Rule 144 promulgated under the Securities Act.

Q: When do you expect to complete the merger?

A: We expect to complete the merger in the fourth quarter of 2008. However, we cannot assure you when or if the merger will occur. Coddle Creek stockholders must first approve the merger agreement at the special meeting and the necessary regulatory approvals must be obtained.

Q: Whom should I call with questions?

A: You should contact Billy R. Williams, Corporate Secretary of Coddle Creek, at (704) 664-4888.

Q: What will I receive in the merger?

A: If the merger agreement is approved by the stockholders of Coddle Creek and the merger is subsequently completed, each outstanding share of Coddle Creek common stock will be converted into the right to receive the following:

$19.60 in cash; and

0.9046 of a share of common stock of First Community, plus cash in lieu of any fractional share interest.

Q: How Does the Coddle Creek Board Of Directors recommend that I vote?

A:

The Coddle Creek board of directors has unanimously approved and adopted the merger agreement and recommends that Coddle Creek stockholders vote FOR approval of the merger.

Q: What happens if I transfer my Coddle Creek shares after the Record Date for the Special Meeting?

A: The record date for the special meeting is earlier than the expected date of completion of the merger. Therefore, if you transfer your shares of Coddle Creek after the record date for the special meeting, but prior to the merger, you will retain the right to vote at the special meeting, but the right to receive the merger consideration will transfer with the shares of Coddle Creek common stock.

We have attached the merger agreement to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix A. Please read the entire merger agreement. It is the legal document that governs the merger. We propose a merger whereby Coddle Creek will merge with and into First Community. Immediately following the merger, the subsidiary merger is expected to be completed with Mooresville Savings Bank merging with and into First Community Bank, with First Community Bank as the surviving entity. Subject to approval by Coddle Creek stockholders and the receipt of all required regulatory approvals, we expect to complete the merger and the subsidiary merger in the fourth quarter of 2008.

Coddle Creek Stockholders will receive Cash and Whole Shares of First Community Common Stock for each Share of Coddle Creek Common Stock Exchanged Pursuant to the Merger (Page 34)

If the merger of Coddle Creek with and into First Community is completed, each outstanding share of Coddle Creek common stock (other than shares held by dissenting stockholders) will be converted into the right to receive:

$19.60 in cash, which is referred to as the per share cash consideration; and

0.9046 of a share of First Community common stock, which is referred to as the exchange ratio, plus cash in lieu of any fractional share interest.

Table of Contents

The exchange ratio is subject to possible adjustment under certain circumstances described in The Merger-Termination of the Merger Agreement beginning on page 44.

Comparative Per Share Market Price Information (Pages 56 and 57)

Shares of First Community common stock currently trade on the Nasdaq Global Select Market under the symbol FCBC. Shares of Coddle Creek common stock are quoted on the Pink Sheets under the symbol CDLX.PK. The following table sets forth the closing sale prices of First Community common stock as reported on the Nasdaq Global Select Market and the bid prices of Coddle Creek common stock as quoted on the Pink Sheets on July 31, 2008, the last trading-day before we announced the merger, and on September 22, 2008, the last practicable trading-day before the distribution of this proxy statement/prospectus.

The following table also includes the equivalent market value per share of Coddle Creek common stock on July 31, 2008 and September 22, 2008, which reflects the sum of (a) the product of the exchange ratio of 0.9046 multiplied by the last quoted bid price of First Community common stock on the dates indicated, plus (b) the per share cash consideration of $19.60.

	First Community Common Stock	Coddle Creek Common Stock	Equivalent Market Value per Share of Coddle Creek
At July 31, 2008	$ 35.83	$ 21.90	$ 52.01
At September 22, 2008	$ 36.00	$ 45.00	$ 52.17

The stock portion of the merger consideration to be received for each share of Coddle Creek common stock will be based on the most recent closing price of First Community's common stock prior to the consummation of the merger. Because the stock portion of the merger consideration to be paid to stockholders of Coddle Creek is based on a fixed number of shares of First Community common stock and because the market value of the shares of First Community common stock to be received by Coddle Creek stockholders will change, stockholders of Coddle Creek are not assured of receiving a specific market value of First Community common stock, and thus a specific market value for their shares of Coddle Creek common stock, at the effective time of the merger. First Community cannot assure you that its common stock will continue to trade at or above the prices shown above. You should obtain current stock price quotations for the First Community common stock from a newspaper, via the Internet or by calling your broker. See The Merger Merger Consideration beginning on page 34.

Dividend Information (Pages 56 and 57)

First Community currently pays a quarterly cash dividend to its stockholders. During the quarter ending June 30, 2008, First Community paid a cash dividend of $0.28 per share of First Community common stock. First Community intends to continue to pay a quarterly cash dividend to its stockholders. However, the payment of dividends by First Community on its common stock in the future, either before or after the merger is completed, is subject to the determination of its board of directors and depends on its cash requirements, financial condition and earnings, legal and regulatory considerations and other factors.

During the quarter ending June 30, 2008, Coddle Creek paid a cash dividend of $0.50 per share of Coddle Creek common stock. In July 2008, Coddle Creek declared a cash dividend of $0.25 per share of Coddle Creek common stock, which was paid to its stockholders on August 19, 2008. Pursuant to the merger agreement, Coddle Creek cannot pay future cash dividends without the prior approval of First Community.

Federal Income Tax Consequences of the Merger (Page 50)

At the effective time of the merger, First Community and Coddle Creek will receive an opinion of counsel to the effect that, based on certain facts, representations and assumptions, the merger will be treated as a tax-free reorganization for federal income tax purposes. Coddle Creek stockholders generally will not recognize any gain or a loss on the conversion of shares of Coddle Creek common stock into shares of First Community common stock. However, Coddle Creek stockholders will be taxed on the cash portion of the merger consideration received for their shares of Coddle Creek common stock. The parties' obligation to complete the merger is conditioned on their receipt of the opinion regarding the federal income tax treatment of the merger.

Table of Contents

Tax matters are complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend upon the facts of your particular situation. In addition, you may be subject to state, local or foreign tax laws that are not discussed herein. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult your own tax advisor for a full understanding of the tax consequences to you of the merger.

Coddle Creek's Financial Advisor Believes that the Merger Consideration is Fair to Coddle Creek Stockholders (Page 24)

Among other factors considered in deciding to approve the merger, the Coddle Creek board of directors received the opinion of its financial advisor, Howe Barnes Hoefler & Arnett, Inc., which we refer to in this proxy statement/prospectus as Howe Barnes, that, as of July 22, 2008 (the date on which the Coddle Creek board of directors approved the merger agreement), the merger consideration was fair to the holders of Coddle Creek common stock from a financial point of view. The opinion dated as of July 22, 2008 is attached to this proxy statement/prospectus as Appendix B. You should read this opinion completely to understand the assumptions made, matters considered and limitations of the review undertaken by Howe Barnes in providing its opinion. Howe Barnes' opinion is directed to the Coddle Creek board of directors and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to any matters relating to the merger. Coddle Creek has agreed to pay Howe Barnes a percentage of the total consideration received by Coddle Creek and its stockholders for Howe Barnes' financial advisory services rendered in connection with the merger. Howe Barnes has received $100,000 as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, with the remainder of its fee payable at closing of the merger as a success fee. Coddle Creek's board was aware of this fee structure and took it into account in considering Howe Barnes' fairness opinion and in approving the merger. In addition, Coddle Creek has agreed to reimburse Howe Barnes for its reasonable expenses incurred by it on Coddle Creek's behalf, and to indemnify Howe Barnes against liabilities arising out of the merger, including the rendering of Howe Barnes' fairness opinion. During the two years preceding the date of the opinion, Howe Barnes has not had a material relationship with Coddle Creek or First Community where compensation was received or that it contemplates will be received after closing of the transaction.

Our Board of Directors Recommends Approval of the Merger (Page 20)

Based on Coddle Creek's reasons for the merger described herein, including the fairness opinion of Howe Barnes, the Coddle Creek board of directors believes that the merger is fair to you and in your best interests and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR approval of the merger agreement.

Date, Time and Location of the Special Meeting (Page 18)

The special meeting will be held at 11:00 a.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time, on Thursday, October 30, 2008, at Coddle Creek's corporate headquarters located at 347 North Main Street, Mooresville, North Carolina 28115. At the special meeting, Coddle Creek stockholders will be asked to approve the merger agreement and to approve a proposal to adjourn the special meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement.

Record Date and Voting Rights for the Special Meeting (Page 18)

You are entitled to vote at the special meeting if you owned shares of Coddle Creek common stock as of the close of business on September 24, 2008. You will have one vote at the special meeting for each share of Coddle Creek common stock that you owned on that date.

Stockholders of record may vote by mail, telephone, via the Internet or by attending the special meeting and voting in person. Each proxy returned to Coddle Creek (and not revoked) by a holder of Coddle Creek common stock will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated thereon. If no instructions are indicated, the proxy will be voted FOR approval of the merger agreement and FOR the proposal to adjourn the special meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies on the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

Approval of the Merger Agreement Requires a Majority Vote by Coddle Creek Stockholders (Page 19)

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Coddle Creek common stock is necessary to approve the merger agreement on behalf of Coddle Creek.

Management of Coddle Creek Owns Shares Which May Be Voted at the Special Meeting (Pages 19 and 53)

Each of the directors and executive officers of Coddle Creek, who collectively own approximately 22.5% of the outstanding shares of Coddle Creek common stock as of the record date for the special meeting, has entered into a shareholder agreement with First Community pursuant to which each of them has agreed to vote all of their shares in favor of the merger agreement.

First Community and Coddle Creek Must Meet Several Conditions to Complete the Merger (Page 35)

Completion of the merger depends on meeting a number of conditions, including the following:

stockholders of Coddle Creek must approve the merger agreement;

First Community and Coddle Creek must receive all required regulatory approvals for the merger and the subsidiary merger, and any waiting periods required by law must have passed;

there must be no law, injunction or order enacted or issued preventing completion of the merger;

the First Community common stock to be issued in the merger must have been approved for trading on the Nasdaq Global Select Market (or on any securities exchange on which the First Community common stock may then be listed);

First Community and Coddle Creek must receive a legal opinion confirming the tax-free nature of the merger;

the representations and warranties of each of First Community and Coddle Creek in the merger agreement must be accurate, subject to exceptions that would not have a material adverse effect on First Community or Coddle Creek, respectively;

First Community and Coddle Creek must have complied in all material respects with their respective obligations in the merger agreement;

Mooresville Savings Bank must have entered into a new employment agreement with Dale W. Brawley;

First Community and Mooresville Savings Bank must have entered into settlement agreements with certain executive officers of Coddle Creek;

First Community and certain executive officers and non-employee directors of Coddle Creek must have entered into consulting agreements; and dissenting shares shall not represent 10% or more of the outstanding Coddle Creek common stock.

Unless prohibited by law, either First Community or Coddle Creek could elect to waive a condition that has not been satisfied and complete the merger anyway. The parties cannot be certain whether or when any of the conditions to the merger will be satisfied, or waived where permissible, or that the merger will be completed.

First Community and Coddle Creek Must Obtain Regulatory Approvals to Complete the Merger (Page 37)

To complete the merger, the parties need the prior approval of or waiver from the Federal Reserve Board, which is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the FRB, the Office of the Comptroller of the Currency, which is referred to as the OCC, the North Carolina Commissioner of Banks, which is referred to as the NC Commissioner, and the Bureau of Financial Institutions of the Virginia State Corporation Commission, which is referred to as the VA Bureau of Financial Institutions. The U.S. Department of Justice is able to provide input into the approval process of federal banking agencies and will have between 15 and 30 days following any approval of a federal banking agency to challenge the approval on antitrust grounds. First Community, First Community Bank, Coddle Creek and Mooresville Savings Bank have filed all necessary applications with the applicable regulatory agencies. First Community and Coddle Creek cannot predict, however, whether the required regulatory approvals will be obtained or whether any such approvals will have conditions which would be detrimental to First Community following completion of the merger.

First Community and Coddle Creek may Terminate the Merger Agreement (Page 44)

First Community and Coddle Creek can mutually agree at any time to terminate the merger agreement before completing the merger, even if stockholders of Coddle Creek have already voted to approve it.

Either company also can terminate the merger agreement:

if any required regulatory approvals for consummation of the merger are not obtained;

if the merger is not completed by February 27, 2009;

if the stockholders of Coddle Creek do not approve the merger agreement; or if the other company breaches any of its representations, warranties or obligations under the merger agreement in a manner which would be reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on it and the breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days of notice of the breach.

In addition, First Community may terminate the merger agreement at any time prior to the special meeting if the board of directors of Coddle Creek withdraws or modifies its recommendation to the Coddle Creek stockholders that the merger agreement be approved in any way which is adverse to First Community, or breaches its covenants requiring the calling and holding of a meeting of stockholders to consider the merger agreement and prohibiting the solicitation of other offers. First Community also may terminate the merger agreement if a third party commences a tender offer or exchange offer for 15% or more of the outstanding Coddle Creek common stock and the board of directors of Coddle Creek recommends that Coddle Creek stockholders tender their shares in the offer or otherwise fails to recommend that they reject the offer within a specified period.

Coddle Creek may terminate the merger agreement at any time during the two-day period following the fifth calendar day immediately prior to the effective time of the merger if the average closing price of First Community's common stock is less than $22.75; provided, however, First Community may elect to increase the exchange ratio to a number equal to a quotient, the numerator of which is the product of the $22.75 and the exchange ratio then in effect and the denominator of which is First Community's average closing price, in which case the merger agreement will not be terminated. First Community is not required, however, to increase the exchange ratio, and it is possible under these circumstances that the Coddle Creek board of directors could conclude that proceeding with the merger at the lower price, rather than exercising Coddle Creek's right to terminate the merger agreement, would still be in the best interests of Coddle Creek and its stockholders. First Community's average closing price will be the average of the closing sales price per share of First Community common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market for the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the fifth day immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

First Community and Coddle Creek may Amend and Extend the Merger Agreement (Page 44)

The parties may amend the merger agreement at any time before the merger actually takes place, and may agree to extend the time within which any action required by the merger agreement is to take place. The merger agreement may not, however, be amended after the special meeting without the approval of the stockholders of Coddle Creek if such amendment would require the approval of the Coddle Creek stockholders under applicable law.

Coddle Creek's Directors and Executive Officers Have Some Interests in the Merger that Are in Addition to or Different Than Your Interests (Page 46)

Coddle Creek's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger as individuals which are in addition to, or different from, their interests as stockholders of Coddle Creek. These interests include, among other things:

each of George W. Brawley, Jr., Dale W. Brawley, and Billy R. Williams currently is a party to an employment agreement with Mooresville Savings Bank. Each of these employment agreements provides that upon a change of control of Mooresville Savings Bank, the officer's base salary will be increased to include the average of the two previous years' discretionary bonuses, if any, and such adjusted base salary shall be increased annually thereafter by not less than 6% for the remainder of the term, which is automatically extended for three years. In lieu of receiving any benefits under their respective employment agreements, each of Messrs. G. Brawley, D. Brawley and Williams entered into a settlement agreement with First Community and Mooresville Savings Bank which provides that the current employment agreement between the officer and Mooresville Savings Bank will be terminated at the effective time of the merger and the officer will be entitled to receive a lump-sum payment in settlement of any benefits due to the executive as a result of the merger under his currently existing employment agreement. Pursuant to the terms of their respective settlement agreements, George Brawley will be entitled to receive $834,352, Dale Brawley will be entitled to receive $469,223, and Billy Williams will be entitled to receive $332,387;

as contemplated by the terms of the merger agreement, Mooresville Savings Bank intends to enter into a new employment agreement with Dale W. Brawley pursuant to which Mr. Brawley will continue as an employee of Mooresville Savings Bank (or First Community Bank following the merger) and will be entitled to receive an annual salary of $75,000 and the use of an automobile during the term of the agreement. In addition, at the closing of the merger, Mr. Brawley will receive a payment of $100,000 in consideration for the two-year non-compete and non-solicitation restrictions set forth in his new employment agreement;

as contemplated by the terms of the merger agreement, First Community Bank intends to enter into consulting agreements with George W. Brawley, Jr., Billy R. Williams and each non-employee director of Coddle Creek and Mooresville Savings Bank. Pursuant to the terms of Mr. Brawley's consulting agreement, he will be entitled to receive a one-time payment of $50,000 plus $6,000 for the relocation of the Mooresville Insurance Agency and the use of an automobile during the term of the consulting agreement. Pursuant to the terms of Mr. Williams' consulting agreement, he will be entitled to receive monthly payments equal to approximately $90,000 in the aggregate over the two-year term of his consulting agreement. In addition, First Community Bank will pay for the medical insurance premiums for Mr. Williams and his spouse for a period of three years and provide the use of an automobile during the term of the agreement. The non-employee directors will be entitled to receive $500 per month (or $6,000 in the aggregate) during the one-year term of their consulting agreements; under certain deferred compensation plans maintained by Coddle Creek, if a Coddle Creek executive officer or director who participates in the deferred compensation plan is terminated within 24 months following the merger, the starting date for payments due to the executive officer or director under the plan will be accelerated to begin on the date of termination rather than the date of retirement, which currently is age 65. The amounts payable to the executive officers and directors under the plans will not change;

the cash payment to the Coddle Creek executive officers and directors holding outstanding, vested and unexercised stock options to acquire shares of Coddle Creek common stock; and

First Community's agreement to honor indemnification obligations of Coddle Creek for a period of six years and to maintain Coddle Creek's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance for a period of five years following the merger, subject to the terms of the merger agreement.

Table of Contents

The board of directors of Coddle Creek was aware of the foregoing interests and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the merger.

Coddle Creek is Prohibited from Soliciting Other Offers (Page 42)

Coddle Creek has agreed that, while the merger is pending, it will not initiate or, subject to some limited exceptions, engage in discussions with any third party other than First Community regarding extraordinary transactions such as a merger, business combination or sale of a material amount of assets or capital stock.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger (Page 52)

The merger will be accounted for under the purchase method of accounting under generally accepted accounting principles, or GAAP.

Stockholders of First Community and Coddle Creek Have Different Rights (Page 60)

The rights of Coddle Creek's and First Community's stockholders under their respective business corporation laws are different. Upon consummation of the merger, in addition to cash, the stockholders of Coddle Creek will receive shares of First Community common stock in exchange for their shares of Coddle Creek common stock. As a result, the Coddle Creek stockholders will become stockholders of First Community and their rights as stockholders of First Community will be governed by First Community's articles of incorporation, as amended, and bylaws and the Nevada Revised Statutes, which is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the NRS. The rights of stockholders of First Community differ in certain respects from the rights of stockholders of Coddle Creek.

Termination Fee (Page 45)

Coddle Creek must pay First Community a termination fee of $1.0 million if the merger agreement is terminated under specified circumstances.

Coddle Creek's Stockholders Have Dissenters' Rights (Page 54)

Under North Carolina law, holders of Coddle Creek common stock have the right to dissent from the merger and, if the merger is consummated and all requirements of North Carolina law are satisfied by holders seeking to exercise dissenters' rights, to receive payment equal to the fair value of their shares of Coddle Creek common stock, determined in the manner set forth under North Carolina law. The procedures which must be followed in connection with the exercise of dissenters' rights by dissenting stockholders are described under The Merger Dissenters' Rights and in Article 13 of the North Carolina Business Corporation Act, which we refer to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the NCBCA. A copy of Article 13 of the NCBCA is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus. A stockholder seeking to exercise dissenters' rights must (i) deliver to Coddle Creek, before the stockholder vote on the merger agreement at the special meeting, a written notice of the stockholder's intent to demand payment for the stockholder's shares of Coddle Creek common stock if the merger is effectuated; and (ii) the stockholder must not vote in favor of the merger agreement. A vote against the merger proposal or an abstention will satisfy the requirement of not voting for the merger proposal. The return of a signed proxy which does not specify whether you vote in favor or against approval of the merger proposal or abstain from voting will be considered a vote in favor of the merger proposal. A shareholder vote against the merger proposal or an abstention alone, however, will not satisfy the notice requirement of Article 13 of the NCBCA. Any failure to follow the specific procedures set forth in Article 13 of the NCBCA may result in a stockholder losing the right to claim fair value as described above.

The Shares of First Community Common Stock to be Issued in the Merger will be listed on Nasdaq (Page 53)

Pursuant to the merger agreement, the shares of First Community common stock issued in connection with the merger will be listed on the Nasdaq Global Select Market or on any securities exchange on which the First Community common stock may then be listed.

RISK FACTORS

*Upon completion of the merger, you will receive cash and shares of First Community common stock in exchange for your shares of Coddle Creek common stock. Prior to deciding whether or not to approve the transaction, you should be aware of and consider the following risks and uncertainties that are applicable to the merger and First Community, in addition to the other information contained in or incorporated into this proxy statement/prospectus by reference, including the matters addressed under the caption Cautionary Statement Concerning Forward-Looking Statements beginning on page 17. First Community has included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ending December 31, 2007 additional risk factors that address its business.*

Because the exchange ratio is fixed and the market price of First Community's common stock will fluctuate, you cannot be sure of the market value of the First Community common stock that you will receive in the merger.

Upon completion of the merger, each issued and outstanding share of Coddle Creek common stock will automatically be cancelled and converted into the right to receive $19.60 in cash and 0.9046 of a share of First Community common stock. The value of the shares of First Community common stock that you will receive will vary based on the trading price of First Community's common stock. As of September 22, 2008, the last practicable trading day for which information was available prior to the date of this prospectus/proxy statement, the closing sale price reported on the Nasdaq Global Select Market for First Community's common stock was $36.00.

Stock price changes may result from a variety of factors, including general market and economic conditions, changes in the values and perceptions of financial services stocks generally, changes in First Community's business, operations and prospects, and regulatory considerations. Many of these factors are beyond First Community's control. Accordingly, at the time of the special meeting, you will not necessarily know or be able to calculate the exact value of the shares of First Community's common stock you will receive upon completion of the merger. The value of the transaction and each share of Coddle Creek common stock on consummation of the merger may be higher or lower depending on the value of First Community's common stock on that date. Additionally, the value of the shares of First Community's common stock received by a Coddle Creek stockholder may decline immediately after, including, as a result of, the completion of the merger.

The merger agreement limits Coddle Creek's ability to pursue alternatives to the merger with First Community, may discourage other acquirers from offering a higher valued transaction to Coddle Creek and may, therefore, result in less value for the Coddle Creek stockholders.

The merger agreement contains a provision that, subject to certain limited exceptions, prohibits Coddle Creek from soliciting, negotiating, or providing confidential information to any third party relating to any competing proposal to acquire Coddle Creek or any of its subsidiaries. In addition, if Coddle Creek executes a definitive agreement in respect of, or closes, an acquisition transaction with a third party, the merger agreement provides that Coddle Creek must pay a $1.0 million termination fee to First Community. These provisions of the merger agreement could discourage a potential competing acquirer that might have an interest in acquiring Coddle Creek, even if it were prepared to pay a higher per share price than proposed in the merger agreement.

The fairness opinion obtained by Coddle Creek from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances prior to the merger.

Howe Barnes, the financial advisor to Coddle Creek, delivered an oral fairness opinion to the Board of Directors of Coddle Creek on July 22, 2008, which was subsequently confirmed in writing dated as of the same date. The fairness opinion states that, as of the date of the opinion, the merger consideration set forth in the merger agreement was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of shares of Coddle Creek common stock. However, the fairness opinion does not reflect changes that may occur or may have occurred after the date on which it was delivered, including changes to the operations and prospects of First Community or Coddle Creek, changes in general market and economic conditions, or other changes. Any such changes may alter the relative value of First Community and Coddle Creek.

Directors and officers of Coddle Creek have interests in the merger that are in addition to or different than the interests of stockholders.

When considering the recommendation of Coddle Creek's board of directors, you should be aware that some executive officers and directors of Coddle Creek have interests in the merger that are different from your interests. These arrangements may create potential conflicts of interest. For example, some of Coddle Creek's executive officers will receive a cash payment upon closing of the merger under the terms of their settlement agreements. These and certain other additional interests of Coddle Creek's directors and executive officers may cause some of these persons to view the proposed transaction differently than you view it, as a stockholder. See "The Merger - Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger" beginning on page 46.

First Community may fail to realize the anticipated benefits of the merger.

The success of the merger will depend on, among other things, First Community's ability to realize anticipated cost savings and to combine the businesses of First Community and Coddle Creek in a manner that does not materially disrupt the existing customer relationships of Coddle Creek or result in decreased revenues resulting from any loss of customers and that permits growth opportunities to occur. If First Community is not able to successfully achieve these objectives, the anticipated benefits of the merger may not be realized fully or at all or may take longer to realize than expected.

The market price of shares of First Community common stock may be affected by factors which are different from those affecting shares of Coddle Creek common stock.

You will receive shares of First Community common stock in connection with the merger. Some of First Community's current businesses and markets differ from those of Coddle Creek and, accordingly, the results of operations of First Community after the merger may be affected by factors different from those currently affecting the results of operations of Coddle Creek. For a discussion of the businesses of First Community and Coddle Creek and of certain factors to consider in connection with those businesses, see "Information About Coddle Creek," beginning on page 58, "Information About First Community," beginning on page 57 and the documents incorporated into this proxy statement/prospectus by reference concerning First Community and referred to under "Where You Can Find More Information" beginning on page 68.

Coddle Creek stockholders will have a reduced ownership and voting interest after the merger and will exercise less influence over management.

Following completion of the merger, Coddle Creek stockholders will own approximately 4.6% of First Community's outstanding shares of common stock after taking into account the sale of certain shares of First Community's common stock by the ESOP that the ESOP is expected to receive in connection with the merger to settle a loan owed to Coddle Creek by the ESOP. Consequently, Coddle Creek stockholders should expect to exercise less influence over the management and policies of First Community than they currently exercise over the management and policies of Coddle Creek.

The merger is subject to the receipt of waivers and approvals from government entities that may not be received, may take longer than expected or impose conditions that are not presently anticipated.

Before the merger may be completed, various waivers and approvals must be obtained from the FRB, the OCC, the VA Bureau of Financial Institutions, and the NC Commissioner. There can be no assurance as to whether these regulatory waivers and approvals will be received or the timing of the waivers and approvals. In addition, these governmental entities may impose conditions on the completion of the merger or require changes to the terms of the merger. Neither First Community nor Coddle Creek is obligated to complete the merger if the regulatory approvals received in connection with the completion of the merger include any condition which First Community reasonably determines in good faith would materially reduce the benefits of the merger to such a degree that First Community would not have entered into the merger agreement had such condition been known as of the date of the merger agreement.

If the merger is not completed, Coddle Creek will have incurred substantial expenses without realizing the expected benefits.

Coddle Creek has incurred substantial expenses in connection with the merger. The completion of the merger depends on the satisfaction of certain conditions including the approval of Coddle Creek's stockholders and the approval of state and federal regulatory authorities. We cannot guarantee that these conditions will be met. If the merger is not completed, these expenses could have a material adverse impact on the financial condition of Coddle Creek because they would not have realized the expected benefits.

Changes in the accounting method for business combinations may have an adverse impact on the transaction if the transaction is not closed by December 31, 2008.

Currently and for the years ended December 31, 2008 and prior, in accordance with SFAS No. 141 Business Combinations, all acquisition-related costs such as investment banker fees, attorney's fees and accountant's fees, as well as contingent consideration to the seller, are capitalized as part of the purchase price and become part of goodwill or allocated to the fair value of other tangible or intangible assets and liabilities.

In December 2007, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued SFAS No. 141 (revised 2007), Business Combinations, which is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as SFAS 141R, which requires an acquirer to do the following: expense acquisition related costs as incurred and record contingent consideration at fair value at the acquisition date with certain subsequent changes in fair value to be recognized in the income statement. SFAS 141R applies prospectively to business combinations for which the acquisition date is on or after beginning of the first annual reporting period beginning on or after December 15, 2008. Earlier application is prohibited. If the acquisition is not completed by December 31, 2008, SFAS 141R may have a material impact on our accounting for this transaction.

Time, Date and Place

A special meeting of stockholders of Coddle Creek will be held at 11:00 a.m., Eastern Daylight Saving Time, on Thursday, October 30, 2008 at Coddle Creek's corporate headquarters located at 347 North Main Street, Mooresville, North Carolina 28115.

Matters to be Considered

The purposes of the special meeting are to consider and approve the merger agreement and to consider and approve a proposal to adjourn the special meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement.

Shares Outstanding and Entitled to Vote; Record Date

The close of business on September 24, 2008 has been fixed by Coddle Creek as the record date for the determination of Coddle Creek stockholders entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting and any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. At the close of business on the record date, there were 610,545 shares of Coddle Creek common stock outstanding and entitled to vote. Each share of Coddle Creek common stock entitles the holder to one vote at the special meeting on all matters properly presented at the meeting.

How to Vote Your Shares

Stockholders of record may vote by mail, telephone, via the Internet or by attending the special meeting and voting in person. If you choose to vote by mail, simply mark the enclosed proxy card, date and sign it, and return it in the postage paid envelope provided.

If your shares are held in the name of a bank, broker or other holder of record, you will receive instructions from the holder of record that you must follow in order for your shares to be voted. Also, please note that if the holder of record of your shares is a broker, bank or other nominee and you wish to vote at the special meeting, you must bring a legal proxy from the broker, bank or other nominee confirming that you are the beneficial owner of the shares.

Table of Contents

Any stockholder executing a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is voted by:

delivering to Coddle Creek prior to the special meeting a written notice of revocation addressed to Billy R. Williams, Corporate Secretary, Coddle Creek Financial Corp., P.O. Box 117, 347 North Main Street, Mooresville, North Carolina 28115;

delivering to Coddle Creek prior to the special meeting a properly executed proxy with a later date; or attending the special meeting and voting in person.

Attendance at the special meeting will not, in and of itself, constitute revocation of a proxy.

Each properly executed proxy returned to Coddle Creek (and not revoked) by a holder of Coddle Creek common stock will be voted in accordance with the instructions indicated thereon. If no instructions are indicated, the proxy will be voted FOR approval of the merger agreement and FOR the proposal to adjourn the special meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies on the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Participants in the ESOP

Participants in the ESOP have the right to direct the ESOP trustees how to vote shares allocated to the participant's account. ESOP participants will receive with this document an ESOP Participant Voting Instructions form for use in directing the ESOP trustees with regard to the voting of the shares of Coddle Creek common stock allocated to his or her plan account. Shares of common stock held by the ESOP for which no voting instructions are received will not be voted by the trustees which will have the same impact as a vote against the merger. If signed voting instructions are returned with no instructions indicated, those shares allocated to the ESOP participant will be voted FOR the proposals at the special meeting. Participants' voting instructions with respect to shares of common stock held under the ESOP will be held in strict confidence.

Votes Required

A quorum, consisting of the holders of a majority of the issued and outstanding shares of Coddle Creek common stock, must be present in person or by proxy before any action may be taken at the special meeting. Abstentions will be treated as shares that are present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum but will not be counted in the voting on a proposal and this will have the same effect of a vote against the merger proposal.

The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Coddle Creek common stock is necessary to approve the merger agreement on behalf of Coddle Creek. The affirmative vote of a majority of the votes cast by stockholders at the meeting is required to approve the proposal to adjourn the special meeting if necessary to permit further solicitation of proxies on the proposal to approve the merger agreement.

Any broker non-votes submitted by brokers or nominees in connection with the special meeting will not be counted for purposes of determining the number of votes cast on a proposal but will be treated as present for quorum purposes.

Broker non-votes are shares held by brokers or nominees as to which voting instructions have not been received from the beneficial owners or the persons entitled to vote those shares and the broker or nominee does not have discretionary voting power under the applicable New York Stock Exchange rules. Under these rules, the proposals to approve the merger agreement and to adjourn the special meeting are not items on which brokerage firms may vote in their discretion on behalf of their clients if such clients have not furnished voting instructions within ten days of the special meeting. Because the proposal to approve the merger agreement is required to be approved by the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Coddle Creek common stock, abstentions and broker non-votes will have the same effect as a vote against the proposal to approve the merger agreement at the special meeting. And for the same reason, the failure of a Coddle Creek stockholder to vote by proxy or in person at the special meeting will have the effect of a vote against this proposal. Because of the vote required for the proposal to adjourn the special meeting, abstentions and broker non-votes will have no effect on this proposal.

The directors and executive officers of Coddle Creek, who collectively own approximately 22.5% of the outstanding shares of Coddle Creek common stock as of the record date for the special meeting, have entered into shareholder agreements with First Community pursuant to which they have agreed to vote all of their shares in favor of the merger agreement. See The Merger Shareholder Agreements on page 53.

Table of Contents

As of the close of business on the record date for the special meeting, First Community did not beneficially own any shares of Coddle Creek common stock.

Solicitation of Proxies

Coddle Creek will pay for the costs of mailing this document to its stockholders, as well as all other costs incurred by it in connection with the solicitation of proxies from its stockholders on behalf of its board of directors. In addition to solicitation by mail, the directors, officers and employees of Coddle Creek and its subsidiaries may solicit proxies from stockholders of Coddle Creek in person or by telephone, telegram, facsimile or other electronic methods without compensation other than reimbursement for their actual expenses.

Arrangements also will be made with custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for the forwarding of solicitation material to the beneficial owners of stock held of record by such persons, and Coddle Creek will reimburse such custodians, nominees and fiduciaries for their reasonable out-of-pocket expenses in connection therewith.

Recommendation of the Coddle Creek Board of Directors

The Coddle Creek board of directors has unanimously approved the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement. Based on Coddle Creek's reasons for the merger described in this proxy statement/prospectus, including Howe Barnes' fairness opinion, the board of directors of Coddle Creek believes that the merger is in the best interests of Coddle Creek's stockholders and unanimously recommends that you vote FOR approval of the merger agreement. See The Merger Coddle Creek's Reasons for the Merger beginning on page 23.

THE MERGER

(PROPOSAL ONE)

The following information describes the material aspects of the merger agreement and the merger. This description does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the appendices to this proxy statement/prospectus, including the merger agreement. You are urged to carefully read the appendices in their entirety.

General

Under the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, Coddle Creek will be merged with and into First Community. At the effective time of the merger, each share of common stock of Coddle Creek, no par value per share, outstanding immediately before the effective time of the merger (except as provided below) will, by virtue of the merger and without any action on the part of a Coddle Creek stockholder, be converted into the right to receive:

$19.60 in cash, which is referred to as the per share cash consideration ; and

0.9046 of a share of common stock of First Community, which is referred to as the exchange ratio, plus cash in lieu of any fractional share interest.

As of September 22, 2008, there were 610,545 shares of Coddle Creek common stock outstanding.

Shares of Coddle Creek common stock held by Coddle Creek stockholders who have elected dissenters' rights will not be converted into the right to receive the merger consideration upon consummation of the merger. Stockholders who wish to assert their dissenters' rights and comply with the procedural requirements of Article 13 of the NCBCA, will be entitled to receive payment of the fair value of their shares in cash in accordance with North Carolina law. For more information regarding the exercise of these rights, see Dissenters Rights.

After completion of the merger, it is expected that current First Community stockholders will own approximately 95.2% of the combined company and former Coddle Creek stockholders will own approximately 4.6% of the combined company after taking into account the sale of certain shares of First Community's common stock by the ESOP that the ESOP is expected to receive in connection with the merger to settle a loan owed to Coddle Creek by the ESOP.

Background of the Merger

Coddle Creek's board of directors has from time to time engaged with senior management in strategic reviews and has considered ways to enhance Coddle Creek's performance and prospects in light of competitive and other relevant developments. These strategic reviews have focused on, among other things, the business environment facing financial institutions generally, as well as conditions and ongoing consolidation in the financial services industry. These reviews have also included periodic discussions with respect to potential transactions that would further Coddle Creek's strategic objectives, and the potential benefits and risks of those transactions, and from time to time have focused on the possibility of a merger with another banking organization. In addition, Coddle Creek's senior management has had from time to time informal discussions with representatives of other financial institutions regarding the potential benefits and risks of business combination transactions.

In March 2008, Coddle Creek's board of directors, with members of Coddle Creek's senior management present, met with representatives from Howe Barnes to discuss strategic alternatives available to Coddle Creek. On April 8, 2008, the Coddle Creek board of directors formally engaged Howe Barnes to conduct a limited auction of Coddle Creek and its subsidiary, Mooresville Savings Bank. After being formally engaged, Howe Barnes prepared a Confidential Information Memorandum describing Coddle Creek and Mooresville Savings Bank. While preparing the Confidential Information Memorandum, Howe Barnes began to identify potential merger partners for Coddle Creek, primarily those with a presence or interest in Charlotte, North Carolina and surrounding areas.

In mid-April 2008, with the consent of Coddle Creek, Howe Barnes contacted 11 prospective merger partners, including First Community. Nine of the prospective merger partners, including First Community, signed confidentiality agreements and received information on Coddle Creek. Of the nine prospective merger partners who received information on Coddle Creek, five parties submitted initial indications of interest to acquire Coddle Creek, including First Community.

On or about May 21, 2008, Coddle Creek's management team met separately with the chief executive officers of two prospective merger partners, one of which was the chief executive officer of First Community. First Community's chief executive officer and Coddle Creek's management team generally discussed the strategic visions for Coddle Creek and First Community, the cultures and traditions of their companies and other matters. Shortly thereafter, the Coddle Creek board of directors evaluated the initial indications of interest received through Howe Barnes' efforts. It determined that the valuation of Coddle Creek, the relative proportions of cash and stock in the merger consideration indicated by First Community, and the general terms contained in First Community's initial indication of interest were superior to those received from the other companies who submitted initial indications of interest. Accordingly, the Coddle Creek board of directors authorized management to continue to engage in discussions and negotiations with First Community regarding a potential transaction and to commence due diligence.

Over the first several days of June 2008, First Community conducted an on-site due diligence review of Coddle Creek. Included in this review were interviews of the senior management team of Coddle Creek by First Community's senior executives and its advisors. Following the on-site review and during the first two weeks of June 2008, a series of communications occurred in which the senior management teams of Coddle Creek and First Community and their respective advisors participated. On June 16, 2008, Coddle Creek received a revised indication of interest from First Community setting forth the material terms of a potential merger, including the financial terms and the transaction structure. In the revised indication of interest, First Community proposed to purchase each share of Coddle Creek common stock for approximately $49.00 per share as of that date with the merger consideration to be paid in a combination of cash and shares of First Community common stock.

On June 17, 2008, the boards of directors of Coddle Creek and Mooresville Savings Bank held a special joint meeting at which senior management was present. The purpose of the special joint meeting was to discuss various acquisition proposals received by Howe Barnes in its capacity as the investment advisor to Coddle Creek. Howe Barnes provided an overview of its activities undertaken to date, and the five parties who submitted initial indications of interest, including First Community. Howe Barnes then summarized the course of discussions with First Community, the material terms of First Community's indication of interest and several aspects of First Community's proposal that remained to be resolved. Howe Barnes presented to the board of directors detailed financial information with respect to First Community and pro forma data with respect to the potential transaction. After the foregoing presentations and an extended discussion among the participants in the meeting, Howe Barnes orally advised the boards of directors of Coddle Creek and Mooresville Savings Bank that in its opinion the merger consideration and general terms of the merger were fair to the holders of Coddle Creek common stock from a financial point of view. Also at this meeting, Brooks, Pierce, McLendon, Humphrey & Leonard, L.L.P., Coddle Creek's legal counsel, which is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as Brooks Pierce, informed the board of directors of Coddle Creek of the legal standards applicable to a decision by the Coddle Creek board of directors to approve a merger of Coddle Creek. After further questions by and discussions among the members of the Coddle Creek board of directors, and consideration of the factors described under Coddle Creek's Reasons for the Merger, the Coddle Creek board of directors voted unanimously to direct Coddle Creek's management to move forward with discussions with First Community, with a resolution of the various issues identified by the board of directors of Coddle Creek being a requirement to entering into the letter of intent.

After the special joint meeting of the boards of directors of Coddle Creek and Mooresville Savings Bank, Coddle Creek's and First Community's senior management and advisors engaged in additional discussions regarding the various issues to be resolved. After resolving the most important of these issues, Coddle Creek agreed to pursue a proposed transaction exclusively with First Community for the next 45 days under the framework of a revised indication of interest submitted by First Community to Coddle Creek on June 23, 2008. During the remainder of June and through July 2008, Coddle Creek, First Community and their advisors negotiated the definitive documentation associated with and conditions precedent to consummation of a possible merger of Coddle Creek and First Community and their respective banking subsidiaries.

On June 26, 2008, representatives of Howe Barnes and Brooks Pierce conducted an on-site due diligence review of First Community. Included with this review were discussions with the senior management team of First Community.

On July 22, 2008, the boards of directors of Coddle Creek and Mooresville Savings Bank held a regularly scheduled joint meeting at which senior management, together with Coddle Creek's legal and financial advisors, reviewed the discussions and negotiations with First Community regarding the proposed merger and the results of Coddle Creek's due diligence investigation of First Community. Brooks Pierce presented a draft of the merger agreement to the board of directors of Coddle Creek and discussed its terms as well as several remaining issues relevant to the merger agreement that remained unresolved. After responding to questions from members of the board of directors of Coddle Creek on the merger agreement, Brooks Pierce discussed the terms of the shareholder agreement, the affiliate letter, the bank merger agreement and the various agreements to be entered into by Coddle Creek's senior management and noted a number of unresolved issues in these ancillary agreements. Howe Barnes presented detailed financial information with respect to the potential transaction and answered questions of the board of directors of Coddle Creek, and rendered an oral opinion that, as of July 22, 2008, the consideration provided in the merger agreement was fair to the holders of Coddle Creek common stock from a financial point of view. This opinion was subsequently confirmed in writing as of the same date. Also at this meeting, Brooks Pierce discussed again with the Coddle Creek board of directors the legal standards applicable to its decision to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby. Senior management of Coddle Creek and the board of directors of Coddle Creek reviewed the terms of the proposed merger agreement, and the Coddle Creek board of directors concluded that the proposed transaction with First Community was in the best interests of Coddle Creek and its stockholders. After further questions by and discussion among the members of the Coddle Creek board of directors and consideration of the factors described under Coddle Creek's Reasons for the Merger, the Coddle Creek board of directors voted unanimously to approve the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated thereby as being in the best interests of the stockholders of Coddle Creek, subject to resolution of the several specified remaining issues.

On July 22, 2008, First Community's board of directors held a regular meeting at which its management reviewed in detail with the board of directors the terms of the merger agreement. Based upon First Community's board of directors review and discussion of the merger agreement and the relevant factors, described below in First Community's Reasons for the Merger, First Community's board of directors unanimously authorized and approved the execution of the merger agreement with Coddle Creek.

Following the completion of the meetings of the boards of directors of Coddle Creek and Mooresville Savings Bank and the First Community board of directors on July 22, 2008, Coddle Creek's and First Community's senior management and their respective advisors continued discussions to resolve the remaining issues with respect to the definitive merger agreement. After reaching a resolution on those items, the merger agreement was entered into by Coddle Creek and First Community on July 31, 2008. After the stock market closed on July 31, 2008, First Community and Coddle Creek issued a joint press release publicly announcing the proposed merger.

Coddle Creek's Reasons for the Merger

Coddle Creek's board of directors, at its meeting held on July 22, 2008, considered the merger agreement and determined it to be in the best interests of Coddle Creek and its stockholders. In reaching its determination, the Coddle Creek board of directors consulted with Coddle Creek management, as well as its financial and legal advisors, regarding the financial fairness of the merger and the terms of the merger agreement, and considered a number of factors. Listed below are the material factors that Coddle Creek's board of directors considered in its decision. The Coddle Creek's board of directors did not assign any specific or relative weight to the factors listed below and considered all of the factors as a whole in reaching its conclusion to approve the merger agreement.

The Coddle Creek board of directors' understanding of the business, operations, financial condition, earnings and future prospects of Coddle Creek and Mooresville Savings Bank;

The current and prospective economic, regulatory and competitive environment facing Coddle Creek and the community banking industry in general, including the decline in net interest margins and unfavorable yield curve, evolving trends in technology and the cost of such technology, and the increasing importance of operational scale and financial resources in maintaining efficiency and remaining competitive over the long term;

First Community's ability to pay the merger consideration and obtain regulatory approvals for the merger;

The merger consideration to be paid to Coddle Creek stockholders for their shares in relation to, among other things, the market value, book value, earnings per share and projected earnings per share for Coddle Creek common stock;

The portion of the merger consideration composed of cash and not subject to variations in the market value of First Community's common stock;

The marketing and bidding process conducted by Coddle Creek and Howe Barnes and the Coddle Creek board of directors' belief that a transaction with First Community was the best overall transaction available to Coddle Creek and its stockholders;

The greater market liquidity of First Community's common stock relative to Coddle Creek's common stock;

The review by the Coddle Creek board of directors with its financial and legal advisors of the structure of the transaction and the financial and other terms of the merger agreement, including the consideration offered by First Community;

The nature of the respective markets, customers, asset/liability mix and operations of Coddle Creek and First Community;

The reports of Coddle Creek's management and the financial presentation by Howe Barnes to the board of directors concerning the operations, earnings and financial condition of First Community on a historical and prospective basis and of the combined companies on a pro forma basis;

The historical and current market prices of Coddle Creek's and First Community's common stock and the potential for increased earnings for Coddle Creek's stockholders as stockholders of the combined company;

The fact that First Community's offer represented a significant premium over the market price of Coddle Creek's common stock;

The impact of the acquisition on the depositors, employees, customers and communities served by Mooresville Savings Bank; and

The opinion delivered to the Coddle Creek board of directors by Howe Barnes that, as of the date of the opinion and based upon and subject to the considerations set forth in its opinion, the merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Coddle Creek common stock.

The Coddle Creek board of directors also considered the following matters associated with the merger in connection with its deliberations of the proposed transaction, including:

The risks to Coddle Creek's business if the merger is not completed;

The interests of Coddle Creek's executive officers and directors with respect to the acquisition apart from their interests as holders of Coddle Creek common stock, and the risk that these interests might influence their decision with respect to the merger. See Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger; and

The risk that the terms of the merger agreement, including provisions prohibiting Coddle Creek from soliciting additional competing proposals and requiring the payment of a termination fee under specified circumstances, could have the effect of discouraging other parties that might be interested in a transaction with Coddle Creek from proposing such a transaction.

The Coddle Creek board of directors evaluated the factors described above, including asking questions and receiving information from management and its legal and financial advisors, and determined that the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by it were in the best interests of Coddle Creek and its stockholders. Accordingly, the Coddle Creek board of directors unanimously approved the merger agreement and recommends that Coddle Creek stockholders vote FOR approval of the merger agreement.

First Community's Reasons for the Merger

First Community entered into the merger agreement with Coddle Creek because, among other things, First Community believes the merger is consistent with its expansion strategy in North Carolina. The acquisition will expand First Community Bank's banking operations and complement its existing banking network. The Coddle Creek franchise is a natural expansion of First Community's current North Carolina operations into the Lake Norman region of North Carolina.

Opinion of Coddle Creek's Financial Advisor

On July 22, 2008, at a meeting of the Coddle Creek board of directors, Howe Barnes delivered to the Coddle Creek board of directors its opinion, to the effect that, as of that date and based upon and subject to various assumptions, matters considered, and limitations on Howe Barnes' review described in the opinion, the shareholder consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to the stockholders of Coddle Creek. No limitations were imposed by Coddle Creek on Howe Barnes with respect to the investigations made or the procedures followed in rendering its opinion.

Coddle Creek retained Howe Barnes to act as its financial advisor in connection with its proposed merger with First Community based upon Howe Barnes' qualifications, expertise, and reputation advising financial institutions and other companies. As part of its investment banking business, Howe Barnes is regularly engaged in the valuation of banks and bank holding companies, thrifts and thrift holding companies, and various other financial services companies, in connection with merger and acquisitions, initial and secondary offerings of securities, and valuations for other purposes.

The full text of Howe Barnes' written opinion to Coddle Creek's board of directors, dated July 22, 2008, which sets forth the assumptions made, matters considered and extent of review by Howe Barnes, is attached as Appendix B and is incorporated herein by reference. The fairness opinion should be read carefully and in its entirety. The following summary of Howe Barnes' opinion is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the opinion. Howe Barnes' opinion is directed to Coddle Creek's board of directors and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder of Coddle Creek as to how a stockholder should vote with regard to the merger at the special meeting of stockholders described in this proxy statement/prospectus. The opinion addresses only the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration to the holders of Coddle Creek's common stock. The written opinion provided by Howe Barnes to Coddle Creek, dated as of July 22, 2008, was necessarily based upon economic, monetary, financial market, and other relevant conditions as of the date the opinion was rendered. Accordingly, it is important to understand that although subsequent developments may affect its opinion, Howe Barnes does not have any obligation to further update, revise, or reaffirm its opinion.

In connection with its review and arriving at its opinion, with the consent of Coddle Creek's board of directors, Howe Barnes assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the financial information and other pertinent information provided by Coddle Creek and First Community to Howe Barnes for purposes of rendering its opinion. Howe Barnes did not assume any obligation to independently verify any of the information discussed above, including, without limitation, information from published sources, as being complete and accurate. With regard to the financial information, including financial projections it received from Coddle Creek, as well as estimates of cost savings, Howe Barnes assumed that this information reflected the best available estimates and good faith judgments of management as to Coddle Creek's future performance and that the projections provided a reasonable basis upon which Howe Barnes could formulate its opinion. The forecasts and projections were based upon numerous variables and assumptions that are inherently uncertain, including, among others, factors relative to the general economic and competitive conditions Coddle Creek faces. Accordingly, actual results could vary significantly from those used in the forecasts and projections.

Howe Barnes does not purport to be an expert in the evaluation of loan portfolios or the allowance for loan losses with respect to loan portfolios and, accordingly, assumes that Coddle Creek's allowances and First Community's allowances were adequate to cover any losses. In addition, Howe Barnes has not reviewed and does not assume any responsibility for any individual credit files and did not make an independent evaluation, appraisal, or physical inspection of the assets or liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of Coddle Creek's or First Community's individual properties, nor was Howe Barnes provided with any such appraisals. In rendering its opinion, Howe Barnes expressed no opinions with respect to the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors, or employees of Coddle Creek, or any class of such persons relative to the merger consideration to be received by the holders of the common stock of Coddle Creek in the transaction or with respect to the fairness of any such compensation. In addition, for purposes of rendering its written opinion, Howe Barnes assumed that (i) the merger will be consummated in accordance with the terms set forth in the merger agreement, without any waiver of any of its material terms or conditions, and that obtaining the necessary regulatory approvals for the merger will not have an adverse effect on either separate institution or the combined entity, and (ii) the merger will be consummated in a manner that complies in all respects with the applicable provisions of the Securities Act, the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, which is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the Exchange Act, and all other applicable federal and state statutes, rules, and regulations.

In connection with rendering its opinion to Coddle Creek's board of directors, Howe Barnes performed a variety of financial and comparative analyses, which are briefly summarized below. Such summaries do not purport to be a complete description of the analyses performed by Howe Barnes. The fact that any specific analysis has been referred to in the summaries below is not meant to indicate that the analysis was given greater weight than any other analysis. Accordingly, the ranges of values resulting from any particular analysis described below should not be taken to be Howe Barnes' view of Coddle Creek's or the combined company's actual value. Moreover, Howe Barnes believes that the analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the analyses and the factors considered, including information presented in tabular form, without considering all of the analyses and factors, could create an incomplete understanding of the process underlying the analyses and, more importantly, a misleading or incomplete view of its opinion as to fairness from a financial point of view that is based on those analyses.

(1) Performance for the last twelve months ended June 30, 2008 for Coddle Creek and March 31, 2008 for peer group.

(2) All ratios calculated by Howe Barnes.

Discounted Dividend Analysis. Howe Barnes estimated the value of a share of Coddle Creek common stock based on the value of the estimated dividend payments to Coddle Creek stockholders through December 31, 2012 plus a terminal value assuming the share is sold at the end of 2012. Howe Barnes determined the reasonableness and achievability of the financial and operating projections based upon financial information provided by Coddle Creek, historical performance and other factors.

Howe Barnes estimated the value of Coddle Creek on a per share basis by:

Calculating a market value as of December 31, 2012 by multiplying Coddle Creek's 2012 estimated net income by a range of selected terminal multiples ranging from 15x to 25x, based on the July 21, 2008 price-to-last twelve month earnings multiples of:

- 17.6x median of nationwide public thrifts with assets between $100 and $350 million;
- 16.9x median of Southeast public thrifts;
- 23.7x Peer Group;

28.3x Coddle Creek; and

Discounting the market value to the present value using a range of selected discount rates from 10.0% to 15.0%, based on typical thrift investor return expectations.

Based on these assumptions, the implied per share value of Coddle Creek common stock ranged from $12.02 to $21.50. Howe Barnes informed the Coddle Creek board of directors that the present value analysis was considered because it is a widely used valuation methodology, but that the results of the methodology are not conclusive and are highly dependent upon the numerous assumptions that must be made, including discount rates, terminal multiples and management net income projections.

Table of Contents

Accretion / Dilution Analysis. On the basis of financial projections established by management, and estimates of on-going cost savings accruing to the combined companies, as well as estimated one-time costs related to the merger, Howe Barnes compared pro forma equivalent earnings per share, cash earnings per share, book value per share, tangible book value per share and cash dividends per share to the stand-alone projections of Coddle Creek and First Community. No assumptions were made regarding revenue enhancements following the completion of the transaction and assumes that 28,591 shares of Coddle Creek common stock are used to pay off the ESOP loan. The comparisons indicated:

127.5% accretion to earnings per share and 131.1% accretion to cash earnings per share for Coddle Creek stockholders in the first year of combined operations;

0.4% accretion to earnings per share and 0.8% accretion to cash earnings per share for First Community stockholders in the first year of combined operations;

43.6% dilution to book value per share and 63.7% dilution to tangible book value per share for Coddle Creek stockholders in the first year of combined operations; and

3.0% accretion to book value per share and 2.3% dilution to tangible book value per share for First Community stockholders in the first year of combined operations.

The estimates of achievable cost savings and revenue synergies and the timing of the realization of such cost savings and revenue synergies are based on numerous estimates, assumptions, and judgments and are subject to significant uncertainties. Actual results may vary, and variations in amounts and timing may be material.

Contribution Analysis. Howe Barnes compared the contribution of Coddle Creek to the combined companies relative to its approximate ownership of the combined companies. The analysis indicated that Coddle Creek's stockholders would own approximately 4.6% of the pro forma shares of First Community. Coddle Creek's approximate contributions are listed below by category:

	Contribution %⁽¹⁾
	Coddle Creek	First Community
Ownership (shares)	4.6%	95.4%
Assets	7.2%	92.8%
Loans	10.3%	89.7%

* Note all balance sheet data is as of June 30, 2008.

(1) Assumes that 28,591 shares of Coddle Creek common stock are used to pay off the ESOP loan.

(2) Synergies allocated to target.

In performing its analyses, Howe Barnes made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, general business and economic conditions, and other matters, many of which are beyond Coddle Creek's or First Community's control. The analyses performed by Howe Barnes are not necessarily indicative of actual values or actual future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than those suggested by those analyses. Howe Barnes drew from its past experience in similar transactions, as well as its experience in the valuation of securities and its general knowledge of the banking industry as a whole. Estimates of company valuations do not purport to be appraisals or to necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their respective securities actually may be sold. Accordingly, those analyses and estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty, being based upon numerous factors or events beyond the control of the parties or their respective advisors, and Howe Barnes does not assume any responsibility if future results are materially different from those projected.

As described above, Howe Barnes' opinion and presentation to Coddle Creek's board of directors were among the many factors taken into consideration by Coddle Creek's board of directors in making its determination to approve the merger, and to recommend that Coddle Creek stockholders approve the merger.

Coddle Creek has agreed to pay Howe Barnes a percentage of the total consideration received by Coddle Creek and its stockholders for Howe Barnes' financial advisory services rendered in connection with the proposed merger. Howe Barnes has received $100,000 to date, with the remainder of its fee payable at closing of the merger as a success fee. Coddle Creek's board of directors was aware of this fee structure and took it into account in considering Howe Barnes' fairness opinion and in approving the merger. In addition, Coddle Creek has agreed to reimburse Howe Barnes for its reasonable expenses incurred by it on Coddle Creek's behalf, and to indemnify Howe Barnes against liabilities arising out of the merger, including the rendering of Howe Barnes' fairness opinion. During the two years preceding the date of the opinion, Howe Barnes has not had a material relationship with Coddle Creek or First Community where compensation was received or that it contemplates will be received after closing of the merger.

Merger Consideration

Upon consummation of the merger, each outstanding share of Coddle Creek common stock (other than any dissenting shares) will be converted into the right to receive:

$19.60 in cash; and

0.9046 of a share of common stock of First Community, plus cash in lieu of any fractional share interest.

No fractional shares of First Community common stock will be issued in connection with the merger. Instead, First Community will make a cash payment to each Coddle Creek stockholder who would otherwise receive a fractional share.

As more fully described under "Federal Income Tax Consequences" commencing on page 50, Coddle Creek stockholders generally will not recognize a gain or a loss as a result of receiving shares of First Community common stock. However, Coddle Creek stockholders will be taxed on the cash portion of the merger consideration received for their shares of Coddle Creek common stock.

Upon consummation of the merger, any shares of Coddle Creek common stock that are held directly or indirectly by First Community, other than in a fiduciary capacity or in satisfaction of a debt previously contracted, will be canceled and retired and no payment will be made with respect to those shares.

Procedures for Exchanging Coddle Creek Common Stock Certificates

Promptly following the completion of the merger, the exchange agent will mail to each holder of record of shares of Coddle Creek common stock a letter of transmittal and instructions for surrendering certificates representing shares of Coddle Creek common stock in exchange for the merger consideration allocated to them. Upon surrender of a stock certificate of Coddle Creek common stock for exchange and cancellation to the exchange agent, together with a duly executed letter of transmittal, the holder of such certificate will be entitled to receive the merger consideration and the certificate for Coddle Creek common stock so surrendered will be canceled. No interest will be paid or accrued on any cash constituting merger consideration.

Coddle Creek stockholders who surrender their stock certificates and complete the letter of transmittal, will receive the merger consideration as the result of the merger promptly following completion of the exchange agent's delivery procedures. Other stockholders will receive the merger consideration as soon as practicable after their stock certificates have been surrendered with appropriate documentation to the exchange agent or other steps have been taken to surrender the evidence of their stock interest in Coddle Creek in accordance with the instructions accompanying the letter of transmittal.

No stock certificates representing fractional shares of First Community common stock will be issued upon the surrender for exchange of Coddle Creek stock certificates. In lieu of the issuance of any such fractional shares, First Community will pay to each former stockholder of Coddle Creek who otherwise would be entitled to receive a fractional share of First Community common stock an amount in cash determined by multiplying the fraction of a share of First Community common stock which such holder would otherwise be entitled to receive pursuant to the merger agreement by the closing price per share of First Community common stock as reported on the Nasdaq Global Select Market on the last business day before the merger is completed.

You will receive dividends on First Community common stock or other distributions, if any as so declared by the board of directors of First Community, declared after the completion of the merger only if you have surrendered your Coddle Creek stock certificates. Only then will you be entitled to receive all previously withheld dividends and distributions, without interest.

After completion of the merger, no transfers of Coddle Creek common stock issued and outstanding immediately prior to the completion of the merger will be allowed. Coddle Creek stock certificates that are presented for transfer after the completion of the merger will be canceled and exchanged for the appropriate merger consideration.

First Community will only issue a First Community stock certificate in a name other than the name in which a surrendered Coddle Creek stock certificate is registered if you present the exchange agent with all documents required to show and effect the unrecorded transfer of ownership of the shares of Coddle Creek common stock formerly represented by such Coddle Creek stock certificate, and show that you paid any applicable stock transfer taxes.

If your Coddle Creek stock certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, you may be required to deliver an affidavit and a lost certificate bond as a condition to receiving any First Community stock certificate to which you may be entitled.

Payment and Termination of Coddle Creek Stock Options

At the effective time of the merger, each option to purchase shares of Coddle Creek common stock granted under Coddle Creek's stock option plan which is outstanding, vested and unexercised immediately prior thereto will be canceled in exchange for the right to receive a lump sum cash payment equal to the product of (1) the number of shares of Coddle Creek common stock subject to such holder's stock option and (2) the excess, if any, of (A) the sum of (i) the per share cash consideration of $19.60 and (ii) a dollar value determined by multiplying the average closing price by the exchange ratio of 0.9046, rounded to the nearest cent, and (B) the exercise price per share of such stock option. For purposes of the merger, First Community's average closing price will be the average of the closing sales price per share of First Community common stock as reported on the Nasdaq Global Select Market for the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the fifth day immediately prior to the effective time of the merger (or if such calendar day is not a trading day on the Nasdaq, then the trading day immediately preceding such calendar day). As of September 22, 2008, there were 62,331 Coddle Creek stock options issued and unexercised with exercise prices between $21.00 and $35.50 per share.

Conditions to the Merger

Completion of the merger is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions set forth in the merger agreement, or the waiver of such conditions by the party entitled to do so, at or before the closing date of the merger. Each of the parties obligations to consummate the merger is subject to the following conditions:

the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Coddle Creek common stock must have approved the merger agreement;

all regulatory approvals required to consummate the merger by any governmental authority must have been obtained and must remain in full force and effect, all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof must have expired, and no required approval may contain any condition, restriction or requirement which First Community's board of directors reasonably determines in good faith would, individually or in the aggregate, materially reduce the benefits of the merger to such a degree that First Community, in its good faith judgment, would not have entered into the merger agreement had such conditions, restrictions or requirements been known as of the date of the merger agreement;

no statute, rule, regulation, judgment, decree, injunction or other order may have been enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered which prohibits, restricts or makes illegal the consummation of the merger;

the registration statement of First Community, of which this document is a part, must have become effective under the Securities Act and no stop order suspending the effectiveness of such registration statement shall have been issued and no proceedings for that purpose shall have been initiated by the Commission and not withdrawn;

the shares of First Community common stock to be issued in connection with the merger must have been approved for listing on the Nasdaq Global Select Market (or on any securities exchange on which the First Community common stock may then be listed);

each of First Community and Coddle Creek must have received an opinion of Patton Boggs LLP to the effect that the merger will constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code, which is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the Code;

First Community Bank must have entered into a consulting agreement with each of George W. Brawley, Jr. and Billy R. Williams and the non-employee directors of Coddle Creek and Mooresville Savings Bank; and

First Community and Mooresville Savings Bank must have entered into settlement agreements with each of George W. Brawley, Jr., Dale W. Brawley and Billy R. Williams, which agreements have been executed and delivered by the parties.

In addition to the foregoing conditions, the obligation of First Community to consummate the merger is subject to the following conditions, which may be waived by First Community:

the representations and warranties of Coddle Creek in the merger agreement must be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the effective time of the merger, except as to any representation or warranty which specifically relates to an earlier date and except that the representations and warranties of Coddle Creek will be deemed true and correct unless the failure or failures of those representations and warranties to be true and correct has had or is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect (as defined below) on Coddle Creek;

Coddle Creek must have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it at or prior to consummation of the merger;

First Community must have received a certificate from specified officers of Coddle Creek with respect to compliance with the foregoing conditions to the obligations of First Community;

dissenting shares shall not represent 10% or more of the outstanding Coddle Creek common stock;

Mooresville Savings Bank must have entered into an employment agreement with Dale W. Brawley; and

First Community shall have received such certificates of Coddle Creek's officers or others and such other documents to evidence fulfillment of the conditions to its obligations as First Community may reasonably request.

In addition to the other conditions set forth above, the obligation of Coddle Creek to consummate the merger is subject to the following conditions, which may be waived by Coddle Creek:

the representations and warranties of First Community in the merger agreement must be true and correct as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the effective time of the merger, except as to any representation or warranty which specifically relates to an earlier date and except that the representations and warranties of First Community will be deemed true and correct unless the failure or failures of those representations and warranties to be true and correct has had or is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect (as defined below) on First Community;

First Community must have performed in all material respects all obligations required to be performed by it at or prior to consummation of the merger;

Coddle Creek must have received a certificate from specified officers of First Community with respect to compliance with the foregoing conditions to the obligations of Coddle Creek; and Coddle Creek shall have received such certificates of First Community's officers or others and such other documents to evidence fulfillment of the conditions to its obligations as Coddle Creek may reasonably request.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, a material adverse effect on either First Community or Coddle Creek is defined to mean any effect that (1) is material and adverse to the financial condition, results of operations or business of such entity and its subsidiaries taken as a whole or (2) would materially impair the ability of such entity and its subsidiaries to perform their respective obligations under the merger agreement or otherwise materially impede the consummation of the merger. However, under the terms of the merger agreement, none of the following would be deemed to constitute a material adverse effect on any entity:

changes in banking, savings institution, and similar laws of general applicability or interpretations of them by governmental authorities;

changes in GAAP or regulatory accounting requirements applicable to banks, savings banks or their holding companies generally;

changes in general economic conditions affecting banks, savings banks and their holding companies generally; and with respect to Coddle Creek only, the effects of any action or omission taken with the prior consent of First Community or as otherwise contemplated by the merger agreement;

provided that the effect of the changes described in the first three bullet points immediately above shall not be excluded as a material adverse effect to the extent of a materially disproportionate impact, if any, that they have on First Community and its subsidiaries as a whole on the one hand, or Coddle Creek and its subsidiaries as a whole on the other hand, as measured relative to similarly situated companies in the banking industry.

Regulatory Approvals

Consummation of the merger is subject to receipt of certain regulatory approvals and waivers. We are not aware of any other material governmental approvals or actions that are required prior to the parties' completion of the merger other than those described below. We presently contemplate that if any additional governmental approvals or actions are required, these approvals or actions will be sought. However, we cannot assure you that any of these approvals or actions, including any additional approvals or actions required, will be obtained.

Federal Reserve Board. Completion of the merger is subject to approval by the FRB pursuant to Section 3 of the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended, or receipt from the FRB of a waiver of this approval. First Community applied for a waiver and on August 26, 2008 the FRB informed First Community that its waiver request was approved.

Office of Comptroller of the Currency. The merger of Mooresville Savings Bank with and into First Community Bank is subject to prior approval by the OCC under the Bank Merger Act. This statute and the related regulations require the OCC to take into account (i) the effect of the merger on competition, (ii) the managerial and financial resources and future prospects of the resulting institution, (iii) the effect of the merger on the convenience and needs of the community served, (iv) the performance of Mooresville Savings Bank and First Community Bank in meeting the credit needs of the relevant communities, including low- and moderate- income neighborhoods, consistent with safe and sound banking practices, and (v) the effectiveness of Mooresville Savings Bank and First Community Bank in combating money laundering activities.

The Bank Merger Act prohibits the OCC from approving a merger if the merger:

would result in a monopoly or be in furtherance of any combination or conspiracy to monopolize or to attempt to monopolize the business of banking in any part of the United States; or would substantially lessen competition or tend to create a monopoly in any section of the country, or would result in any other manner in a restraint in trade, unless the OCC finds that the anti-competitive effects of the merger are clearly outweighed by the probable effect of the transaction in meeting the convenience and needs of the communities to be served.

In addition, under the Community Reinvestment Act of 1977, the OCC must take into account the record of performance of Mooresville Savings Bank and First Community Bank in meeting the credit needs of the communities served by these financial institutions, including low- and moderate-income neighborhoods.

The merger may not be completed until the 30th day or, with the consent of the relevant agencies, the 15th day, following the date of the OCC approval, during which period the United States Department of Justice may comment adversely on the merger or challenge the merger on antitrust grounds. The commencement of an anti-trust action would stay the effectiveness of any approval unless a court specifically orders otherwise.

State Applications. The merger is subject to the approval of the NC Commissioner. First Community must obtain the approval of the NC Commissioner of the merger by filing an application with the NC Commissioner. In addition, First Community is required to obtain the approval for the merger of the VA Bureau of Financial Institutions.

Status of Applications, Notices and Waivers. First Community, First Community Bank, Coddle Creek and Mooresville Savings Bank have filed all required applications, notices and waiver requests with applicable regulatory authorities in connection with the merger and the subsidiary merger. There can be no assurance that all requisite approvals and waivers will be obtained, that such approvals and waivers will be received on a timely basis or that such approvals and waivers will not impose conditions or requirements which, individually or in the aggregate, would so materially reduce the economic or business benefits of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement to First Community that had such condition or requirement been known, First Community, in its reasonable judgment, would not have entered into the merger agreement. If any such condition or requirement is imposed, First Community may elect not to consummate the merger. See Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 35.

Business Pending the Merger

The merger agreement contains certain covenants of the parties regarding the conduct of their respective businesses pending consummation of the merger. These covenants, which are contained in Article IV of the merger agreement included as Appendix A hereto, are briefly described below.

except as otherwise permitted under the merger agreement, enter into, cancel, fail to renew, terminate any material contract or amend or modify in any material respect any of its existing material contracts;

enter into any settlement or similar agreement with respect to any claims if the settlement, agreement, or action involves payment by Coddle Creek or any of its subsidiaries of an amount that exceeds $20,000 and/or would impose any material restriction on the business of Coddle Creek or any of its subsidiaries or create precedent for claims that reasonably are likely to be material to Coddle Creek and its subsidiaries taken as a whole;

Board of Directors Covenant to Recommend the Merger Agreement

Pursuant to the merger agreement and except as set forth below, the Coddle Creek board of directors is required to recommend that Coddle Creek stockholders approve the merger agreement at all times prior to and during the special meeting of Coddle Creek stockholders at which the merger agreement is to be considered and will take all reasonable lawful actions to solicit approval of the merger agreement by its stockholders. The Coddle Creek board of directors shall not withdraw, modify or qualify in any manner adverse to First Community such recommendation or take any other action or make any other public statement in connection with the meeting of its stockholders inconsistent with such recommendation, except as set forth below. Notwithstanding any change in the Coddle Creek board of directors recommendation, the merger agreement shall be submitted to the stockholders of Coddle Creek at the special meeting of Coddle Creek stockholders for the purpose of approving the merger agreement and any other matters required to be approved by Coddle Creek's stockholders for consummation of the transaction. Coddle Creek shall not submit to the vote of its stockholders any acquisition proposal other than the merger.

Notwithstanding the recommendation requirements discussed above, the Coddle Creek board of directors shall be permitted to effect a change in recommendation if Coddle Creek has complied with the merger agreement and the Coddle Creek board of directors, based on the advice of its outside counsel, has determined in good faith that failure to do so would result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law. If the Coddle Creek board of directors intends to effect a change in recommendation following an acquisition proposal (as defined in No Solicitation below) it shall have concluded in good faith, after giving effect to all of the adjustment that may be offered by First Community, that another acquisition proposal constitutes a superior proposal (as defined in No Solicitation below). Coddle Creek also shall notify First Community at least five business days in advance of its intention to effect a change in recommendation in response to the superior proposal, including the identity of the party making the acquisition proposal, and furnish to First Community a detailed summary of all material terms of the superior proposal and all other material documents. Prior to effecting the change in recommendation, Coddle Creek shall, and shall cause its financial and legal advisors to, during the period following its delivery of the required notice, negotiate in good faith with First Community for a period of up to five business days to the extent First Community desires to negotiate to make the adjustments in the terms and conditions of the merger agreement so that the other acquisition proposal ceases to constitute a superior proposal.

No Solicitation

The merger agreement provides that Coddle Creek will and will direct and use its reasonable best efforts to cause its affiliates, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives, including, without limitation, any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant, or other representative retained by it, to immediately cease any discussions or negotiations with any other parties that may be ongoing with respect to the possibility or consideration of any acquisition proposal and will use its reasonable best efforts to enforce any confidentiality or similar agreement relating to any acquisition proposal, including by requesting the other party to promptly return or destroy any confidential information previously furnished by or on behalf of Coddle Creek and by specifically enforcing the terms in a court of competent jurisdiction. For purposes of the merger agreement, acquisition proposal is defined to mean any inquiry, proposal or offer, filing of any regulatory application or notice, whether in draft or final form, or disclosure of an intention to do any of the foregoing from any person relating to any (1) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of a business that constitutes 10% or more of the total revenues, net income, assets, or deposits of Coddle Creek and its subsidiaries taken as a whole; (2) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of any class of equity securities representing 10% or more of the voting power of Coddle Creek or any of its subsidiaries; (3) tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person beneficially owning 10% or more of any class of equity securities of Coddle Creek; or (4) merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving Coddle Creek or any of its subsidiaries, other than the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

From the date of the merger agreement through the effective time, Coddle Creek will not and will cause its directors, officers or employees, and those of any Coddle Creek subsidiary, or any other representative retained by it or any subsidiary, not to, directly or indirectly through another person (1) solicit, initiate, or encourage, including by way of furnishing information or assistance, or take any other action designed to facilitate or that is likely to result in, any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer that constitutes, or is reasonably likely to lead to, any acquisition proposal, (2) provide any confidential information or data to any person relating to any acquisition proposal, (3) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any acquisition proposal, (4) waive, terminate, modify, or fail to enforce any provision of any contractual standstill or similar obligations of any person other than First Community or its affiliates, (5) approve or recommend, propose to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger agreement, asset purchase agreement or share exchange agreement, option agreement or similar agreement related to any acquisition proposal or propose to take any of these actions, or (6) make or authorize any statement, recommendation, or solicitation in support of any acquisition proposal.

However, prior to the date of the meeting of the Coddle Creek stockholders, if the Coddle Creek board of directors determines in good faith, after consulting with its outside legal and financial advisors, that the failure to do so would breach, or would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of, its fiduciary duties under applicable law, Coddle Creek may, in response to a bona fide, written acquisition proposal not solicited in violation of the merger agreement, that the Coddle Creek board of directors determines in good faith constitutes a superior proposal, subject to providing 48 hours prior written notice of its decision to take such action to First Community and identifying the person making the proposal and all the material terms and conditions of the proposal and compliance with the merger agreement:

furnish information with respect to itself and its subsidiaries to any person making the superior proposal pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement, as determined by Coddle Creek after consultation with its outside counsel, on terms no more favorable to the person than the terms contained in the confidentiality agreement, dated April 25, 2008, between First Community and Howe Barnes on behalf of Coddle Creek, are to First Community; and participate in discussions or negotiations regarding the superior proposal.

For purposes of the merger agreement, superior proposal is defined to mean any bona fide written proposal made by a third party to acquire, directly or indirectly, including pursuant to a tender offer, exchange offer, merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction, for consideration consisting of cash and/or securities, more than 50% of the combined voting power of the shares of Coddle Creek common stock then outstanding or all or substantially all of Coddle Creek's consolidated assets, that the Coddle Creek board of directors determines in good faith, after taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory, and other aspects of the proposal and the person making the proposal, including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions, and conditions to consummation, and after taking into account the advice of Coddle Creek's financial advisor, which will be a nationally recognized investment banking firm, and outside counsel, (1) is more favorable from a financial point of view to its stockholders than the merger, (2) is reasonably likely to be consummated on the terms set forth, and (3) for which financing, to the extent required, is then committed or which, in the good faith judgment of the Coddle Creek board of directors, is reasonably likely to be obtained by the third party.

In addition to these obligations, Coddle Creek will promptly, within 48 hours, advise First Community orally and in writing of its receipt of any acquisition proposal, or any inquiry that could reasonably lead to an acquisition proposal, and keep First Community informed, on a current basis, of the continuing status of the inquiry, including the terms and conditions of the inquiry and any changes to the inquiry, and will contemporaneously provide to First Community all materials provided to or made available to any third party pursuant to the merger agreement that were not previously provided to First Community.

Coddle Creek has agreed that any violations of the restrictions set forth in the merger agreement by any representative of Coddle Creek or its subsidiaries will be deemed a breach of the merger agreement by Coddle Creek.

Representations and Warranties of the Parties

Pursuant to the merger agreement, First Community and Coddle Creek made certain customary representations and warranties relating to their respective companies, subsidiaries, businesses and matters related to the merger. For detailed information concerning these representations and warranties, reference is made to Article V of the merger agreement included as Appendix A hereto. Such representations and warranties generally must remain accurate through the completion of the merger unless the fact or facts that caused a breach of a representation and warranty has not had or is not reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on the party making the representation and warranty. See Conditions to the Merger beginning on page 35.

The merger agreement contains representations and warranties that First Community and Coddle Creek made to and solely for the benefit of each other. These representations and warranties are subject to materiality standards which may differ from what may be viewed as material by investors and stockholders, and, in certain cases, were used for the purpose of allocating risk among the parties rather than establishing matters as facts. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties also are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties have exchanged in connection with signing the merger agreement. First Community's disclosure schedules contain information that has been included in First Community's general prior public disclosures, as well as potential additional non-public information. Although neither First Community nor Coddle Creek believes that the disclosure schedules contain information that the federal securities laws require to be publicly disclosed, the disclosure schedules do contain information that modifies, qualifies and creates exceptions to the representations and warranties set forth in the attached merger agreement.

Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, since they were only made as of the date of the merger agreement and are modified in important part by the underlying disclosure schedules. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may have changed since the date of the merger agreement, which, in the case of First Community, subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in First Community's public disclosures.

Effective Time of the Merger

The merger will become effective upon the filing of articles of merger with the Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina pursuant to the NCBCA and the Secretary of State of the State of Nevada pursuant to the NRS, unless a different date and time is specified as the effective time in such documents. The articles of merger will be filed only after the satisfaction or waiver of all conditions to the merger set forth in the merger agreement on a date selected by First Community, which date will be no later than the later of (A) five business days after such satisfaction or waiver or (B) the first month end following such satisfaction or waiver, or on such other date as First Community and Coddle Creek may mutually agree upon.

A closing will take place immediately prior to the effective time of the merger or on such other date as First Community and Coddle Creek may mutually agree upon.

Waiver and Amendment of the Merger Agreement

Prior to the effective time of the merger, any provision of the merger agreement may be (A) waived by the party benefited by its provision or (B) amended or modified at any time by written agreement of the parties whether before or after the approval of the stockholders of Coddle Creek, except that after the stockholders of Coddle Creek have approved the merger agreement no amendment or modification which by law requires further approval by the stockholders of Coddle Creek may be made without obtaining such approval.

Termination of the Merger Agreement

The merger agreement may be terminated:

by the mutual written consent of the parties;

if the terminating party is not in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant, or agreement contained in the merger agreement, by either First Community or Coddle Creek in the event of a breach by the other party of any representation, warranty, covenant, or agreement contained in the merger agreement that (1) cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days of the giving of written notice to the breaching party and (2) would entitle the non-breaching party not to consummate the merger;

by either First Community or Coddle Creek in the event that the merger is not consummated by February 27, 2009, except to the extent that the failure to consummate the merger by February 27, 2009 is due to (1) the failure of the party seeking to terminate to perform or observe its covenants and agreements set forth in the merger agreement, or (2) the failure of any of the stockholders (if Coddle Creek is the party seeking to terminate) to perform or observe their respective covenants under the relevant shareholder agreement;

by either party in the event the approval of any governmental authority required for consummation of the merger and the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement has been denied by final non appealable action of the governmental authority or an application for approval has been permanently withdrawn at the request of a governmental authority, provided that no party has the right to terminate the merger agreement if the denial is due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement to perform or observe its covenants;

by either First Community or Coddle Creek if approval of the merger agreement by Coddle Creek stockholders has not been obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote at the Coddle Creek stockholders meeting or any adjournment thereof;

by First Community, if Coddle Creek materially breaches the covenants described under No Solicitation on page 42, in any respect adverse to First Community, the Coddle Creek board of directors fails to recommend that the stockholders of Coddle Creek approve the merger agreement or withdraws, modifies or changes its recommendation in a manner that is adverse to First Community, or Coddle Creek materially breaches its covenants requiring the calling and holding of a meeting of stockholders in accordance with the merger agreement;

by First Community if a third party commences a tender offer or exchange offer for 15% or more of the outstanding Coddle Creek common stock and the board of directors of Coddle Creek recommends that Coddle Creek stockholders tender their shares in the offer or otherwise fails to recommend that they reject the offer within a specified period; and by Coddle Creek at any time during the two-day period following the fifth calendar day prior to the effective time of the merger (or if the applicable day is not a trading day on the Nasdaq Global Select Market, then the trading day immediately preceding that day), if the average closing price of the First Community common stock is less than $22.75. If Coddle Creek elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this provision, it shall give prompt written notice to First Community; provided that the notice of election to terminate may be withdrawn at any time within the aforementioned two-day period. During the period commencing with its receipt of such notice and ending at the effective time of the merger, First Community shall have the option of increasing the exchange ratio to equal a number equal to a quotient (rounded to the nearest one one-thousandth), the numerator of which is the product of $22.75 and the exchange ratio (as then in effect) and the denominator of which is the average closing price of First Community's common stock. If First Community makes the foregoing election within the requisite period, it shall give prompt written notice to Coddle Creek of this election and the revised exchange ratio, whereupon no termination will have occurred pursuant to the merger agreement and the merger agreement will remain in effect in accordance with its terms (except as the exchange ratio will have been so modified).

Termination Fee

The merger agreement provides that Coddle Creek must pay First Community a $1.0 million termination fee under the circumstances and in the manner described below:

if the merger agreement is terminated by First Community for any of the reasons described in the sixth or seventh bullet points under Termination of the Merger Agreement on pages 44 and 45, Coddle Creek must pay the termination fee to First Community on the second business day following the termination of the merger agreement; or if the merger agreement is terminated by (A) First Community pursuant to the second bullet point under Termination of the Merger Agreement on page 44, (B) by either First Community or Coddle Creek pursuant to the third bullet point under Termination of the Merger Agreement on page 44 and at the time of the termination no vote of the Coddle Creek stockholders contemplated by the merger agreement at the Coddle Creek special meeting shall have occurred, or (C) by either First Community or Coddle Creek pursuant to the fifth bullet point under Termination of the Merger Agreement on page 44, and in the case of any termination referenced in clause (A), (B) or (C), an acquisition proposal (as defined under No Solicitation on page 42) shall have been publicly announced or otherwise communicated or made known to the senior management of Coddle Creek or the board of directors of Coddle Creek (or any person shall have publicly announced, communicated or made known an intention, whether or not conditional, to make an acquisition proposal, or reiterated a previously expressed plan or intention to make an acquisition proposal) at any time after the date of the merger agreement and prior to the time that stockholders of Coddle Creek vote on the merger agreement (in the case of clause (C)) or the date of termination of the merger agreement (in the case of clause (A) or (B)) then (y) if within 12 months after the termination, Coddle Creek or a Coddle Creek subsidiary enters into an agreement with respect to a control transaction, then Coddle Creek shall pay to First Community an amount equal to $1.0 million on the date of execution of such agreement and (z) if a control transaction is consummated otherwise than pursuant to an agreement with Coddle Creek within 15 months after such termination, then Coddle Creek shall pay to First Community the termination fee on the date of such consummation of such control transaction. A control transaction is defined in the merger agreement as (i) the acquisition by any person whether by purchase, merger, consolidation, sale, transfer, or otherwise, in one transaction or any series of transactions, of a majority of the voting power of the outstanding securities of Coddle Creek or Mooresville Savings Bank or a majority of the assets of Coddle Creek or Mooresville Savings Bank, (ii) any issuance of securities resulting in the ownership by any person of more than 50% of the voting power of Coddle Creek or by any person other than Coddle Creek or its subsidiaries of more than 50% of the voting power of Mooresville Savings Bank, or (iii) any merger, consolidation, or other business combination transaction involving Coddle Creek or any of its subsidiaries as a result of which the stockholders of Coddle Creek cease to own, in the aggregate, at least 50% of the total voting power of the entity surviving or resulting from such transaction.

Any termination fee that becomes payable pursuant to the merger agreement shall be paid by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by First Community.

If Coddle Creek fails to timely pay the termination fee to First Community, Coddle Creek will be obligated to pay the costs and expenses incurred by First Community to collect such payment, together with interest.

Interests of Certain Persons in the Merger

When you are considering the recommendation of Coddle Creek's board of directors with respect to approving the merger agreement, you should be aware that Coddle Creek's directors and executive officers have interests in the merger as individuals which are in addition to, or different from, their interests as stockholders of Coddle Creek. The Coddle Creek board of directors was aware of these factors and considered them, among other matters, in approving the merger agreement and the merger. These interests are described below.

Stock Options. At the effective time of the merger, each option to purchase shares of Coddle Creek common stock granted under Coddle Creek's stock option plans which is outstanding, vested and unexercised immediately prior thereto will be canceled in exchange for the right to receive a lump sum cash payment equal to the product of (1) the number of shares of Coddle Creek common stock subject to the stock option and (2) the excess, if any, of (A) the sum of (i) the per share cash consideration of $19.60 and (ii) a dollar value determined by multiplying the average closing price of First Community's common stock by the exchange ratio of 0.9046, rounded to the nearest cent, over (B) the exercise price per share of such stock option. First Community's average closing price will be the average of the closing sales price per share of First Community common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market for the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the fifth day immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

As of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, the directors and executive officers of Coddle Creek as a group (8 persons) held options to purchase an aggregate of 62,331 shares of Coddle Creek common stock, including options to purchase 16,862 shares, 16,862 shares and 6,745 shares held by George W. Brawley, Jr., Dale W. Brawley, and Billy R. Williams, respectively, which have an exercise price of $31.00 per share. The aggregate amount to be paid to all directors and executive officers of Coddle Creek for stock options held by them is approximately $1,132,518 using an assumed average closing price of $32.46 per share. The foregoing assumed average closing price represents the average of the closing sales price per share of First Community common stock on the Nasdaq Global Select Market for the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the fifth day immediately prior to the date of this proxy statement/prospectus. The actual average closing price and therefore the aggregate amount of cash to be received by the directors and executive officers of Coddle Creek for stock options held by them will not be known until the effective time of the merger. As a result, the actual cash amount to be received by the directors and executive officers at the effective time of the merger may increase or decrease from the above approximated amount depending on the closing sales price of First Community's common stock during the 20 consecutive trading days immediately preceding the fifth day immediately prior to the effective time of the merger.

Settlement Agreements. Mooresville Savings Bank is a party to employment agreements with each of George W. Brawley, Jr., Dale W. Brawley, and Billy R. Williams. Each of these employment agreements provides that upon a change of control of Mooresville Savings Bank each of the three officers' base salaries will be increased to include the average of the two previous years' discretionary bonuses, if any, and such adjusted base salary shall be increased annually thereafter by not less than 6% for the remainder of the term, which is automatically extended for three years.

As a condition to the consummation of the merger and in lieu of receiving any benefits under their respective employment agreements, each of Messrs. G. Brawley, D. Brawley and Williams entered into a settlement agreement with First Community and Mooresville Savings Bank which provides that the current employment agreement between the officer and Mooresville Savings Bank will be terminated at the effective time of the merger and the officer will be entitled to receive a lump-sum payment in settlement of any benefits due to the executive as a result of the merger under his currently existing employment agreement.

Pursuant to the terms of their respective settlement agreements, George Brawley will be entitled to receive $834,352, Dale Brawley will be entitled to receive $469,223, and Billy Williams will be entitled to receive $332,387. The foregoing payments to be made to each officer will not exceed 2.99 times each officer's base amount as defined in Section 280G(b)(3) of the Code. The date on which the foregoing amounts are to be paid to the respective officer will be the earliest day (as determined by the officer) that the officer can receive the payment without the payment resulting in additional tax or interest to the officer because of Section 409A of the Code or applicable regulations.

Employment Agreement. As a condition to the closing of the merger, Mooresville Savings Bank intends to enter into an employment agreement with Dale W. Brawley pursuant to which Mr. Brawley will continue as an employee of Mooresville Savings Bank (or First Community Bank following the merger).

Pursuant to the employment agreement, Mr. Brawley will serve as a Vice President of Mooresville Savings Bank (or First Community Bank following the merger), will be paid an annual salary of $75,000 and will be provided the use of an automobile during the term of the agreement. In addition, at the closing of the merger, Mr. Brawley will be entitled to receive a payment of $100,000 in consideration for the two-year non-compete and non-solicitation restrictions set forth in his employment agreement. The employment agreement will become effective at the closing of the merger and have a term that will end on the later of December 31, 2010 or two years and one month following the closing of the merger.

Under the terms of the employment agreement, if the payments and benefits owed to Mr. Brawley as the result of the termination of Mr. Brawley's employment, either alone or together with other payments due to Mr. Brawley under his settlement agreement, would constitute a parachute payment under Section 280G of the Code, the payments and benefits payable to Mr. Brawley will be recalculated as follows. In the event that (A) Mr. Brawley terminates his employment for any reason other than termination due to a material breach of the payment terms of the employment agreement, or (B) the Internal Revenue Service, which is referred to in this proxy statement/prospectus as the IRS, determines that the payments and benefits payable to Mr. Brawley would constitute an excess parachute payment under Section 280G of the Code, then the payments and benefits payable to Mr. Brawley will be reduced, in the manner determined by Mr. Brawley, by the amount, if any, which is the minimum necessary such that no portion of the payments and benefits payable to Mr. Brawley are non-deductible to Mooresville Savings Bank (or First Community Bank following the bank merger) pursuant to Section 280G of the Code and none of the benefits are subject to the excise tax imposed under Section 4999 of the Code. In the event Mr. Brawley's employment is terminated without cause, or if Mr. Brawley terminates his employment due to a material breach of the payment terms of the agreement, and any payments and/or benefits due to Mr. Brawley under the agreement and any other arrangement concerning Mr. Brawley would be subject to the excise tax under Section 280G and Section 4999 of the Code, then Mooresville Savings Bank (or First Community Bank following the merger) will pay to Mr. Brawley a gross-up payment, consisting of (x) a payment equal to the excise tax payable by Mr. Brawley under Section 4999 of the Code on the total benefits and (y) a payment equal to the amount necessary to provide the excise tax payment net of all income, payroll, and excise taxes.

Consulting Agreements. As a condition to the closing of the merger, First Community Bank intends to enter into consulting agreements with George W. Brawley, Jr., Billy R. Williams and each non-employee director of Coddle Creek and Mooresville Savings Bank.

Pursuant to the terms of Mr. Brawley's consulting agreement, he will receive a one-time payment of $50,000 in consideration for his services under the agreement and in consideration for the two-year non-compete and non-solicitation restrictions set forth in his consulting agreement. In addition, under the terms of the consulting agreement and as additional consideration for the two-year non-compete and non-solicitation restrictions, Mr. Brawley will receive $6,000 for the relocation of the Mooresville Insurance Agency and the use of an automobile during the term of the consulting agreement, which is two years.

Pursuant to the terms of Mr. Williams' consulting agreement, he will receive monthly payments equal to approximately $90,000 in the aggregate over the two-year term of his consulting agreement. In addition, First Community Bank will pay for the medical insurance premiums for Mr. Williams and his spouse for a period of three years and will provide the use of an automobile during the term of the agreement. Mr. Williams' consulting agreement also contains a one-year non-compete restriction and a two-year non-solicitation restriction.

Under the terms of the consulting agreements to be entered into with each non-employee director of Coddle Creek and Mooresville Savings Bank, each non-employee director will receive $500 per month (or $6,000 in the aggregate) during the one-year term of their consulting agreements. Each non-employee director's consulting agreement contains a two-year non-compete and non-solicitation restrictions.

Deferred Compensation Plans. Under certain deferred compensation plans maintained by Coddle Creek, if a Coddle Creek executive officer or a director who participates in the deferred compensation plan is terminated within 24 months following the merger, the starting date for payments due to the executive officer or director under the plan will be accelerated to begin on the date of termination rather than the date of retirement, which currently is age 65. The amounts payable to the executive officers and directors under the plans will not change.

Indemnification. Coddle Creek's directors, officers and employees are entitled to continuing indemnification against certain liabilities by virtue of provisions contained in Coddle Creek's articles of incorporation and bylaws and the merger agreement. Pursuant to the merger agreement, First Community agreed for a period of six years to indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director, officer and employee of Coddle Creek or any of its subsidiaries, as applicable, determined as of the effective time of the merger against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of matters existing or occurring at or prior to the effective time of the merger, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the effective time of the merger, arising in whole or in part out of or pertaining to the fact that he or she was a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of Coddle Creek or any of its subsidiaries or is or was serving at the request of Coddle Creek or any of its subsidiaries as a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including without limitation matters related to the negotiation, execution and performance of the merger agreement or the consummation of any of the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, to the fullest extent to which such indemnified parties would be entitled under the articles of incorporation and bylaws of Coddle Creek or equivalent documents of any Coddle Creek subsidiary, as applicable, or any agreement, arrangement or understanding previously disclosed by Coddle Creek to First Community pursuant to the merger agreement, in each case as in effect on the date of the merger agreement.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, First Community has agreed to maintain Coddle Creek's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy for Coddle Creek's directors and officers which shall provide such directors and officers with coverage following the effective time of the merger for an additional five years provided that First Community will not be required to expend an aggregate amount in excess of 150% of the premium paid by Coddle Creek as of the date hereof for such insurance, which is referred to as the maximum insurance amount. If First Community is unable to maintain or obtain the insurance specified above as a result of the preceding provision, First Community shall obtain the most advantageous coverage as is available for the maximum insurance amount.

Employee Stock Ownership Plan. As of the effective time of the merger, the ESOP will be terminated. The merger consideration received by the ESOP trustees with respect to the unallocated shares of Coddle Creek common stock held by the ESOP will be first applied by the ESOP trustee to the full repayment of the ESOP loan. The shares of First Community common stock and the remaining cash received by the ESOP will be allocated to the ESOP participants in accordance with the terms of the ESOP and applicable laws and regulations as soon as practical after the effective time of the merger. In connection with the termination of the ESOP, Coddle Creek will promptly apply to the IRS for a favorable determination letter on the tax-qualified status of the ESOP on termination and any amendments made to the ESOP in connection with its termination or otherwise, if such amendments have not previously received a favorable determination letter from the IRS with respect to their qualification under Code Section 401(a). Any amendments to the ESOP requested by the IRS prior to the effective time of the merger will be adopted by Coddle Creek and any amendments requested by the IRS after the effective time of the merger will be promptly adopted by First Community. Any and all distributions from the ESOP after its termination will be made consistent with the aforementioned determination letter from the IRS. Coddle Creek will not make any further contributions to the ESOP or permit the ESOP to make any allocations to the ESOP participants other than in connection with the termination of the ESOP or as may be required by applicable law or regulation. Officers of Coddle Creek and Mooresville Savings Bank participate in the ESOP on the same basis as all other participants.

Other than as set forth above, no director or executive officer of Coddle Creek has any direct or indirect material interest in the merger, except insofar as ownership in Coddle Creek common stock might be deemed such an interest.

Certain Employee Matters

The merger agreement contains certain agreements of the parties with respect to various employee matters, which are briefly described below.

General. As soon as administratively practicable after the effective time of the merger, First Community will take all reasonable action so that employees of Coddle Creek and its subsidiaries will be entitled to participate in the First Community employee benefit plans of general applicability to the same extent as similarly-situated employees of First Community and its subsidiaries, provided that coverage shall be continued under the corresponding benefit plans of Coddle Creek and its subsidiaries until such employees are permitted to participate in the First Community benefit plans and provided further that nothing in the merger agreement will require First Community or any of its subsidiaries to make any grants to any former employees of Coddle Creek or its subsidiaries under a discretionary equity compensation plan of First Community. For purposes of determining eligibility to participate in, the vesting of benefits and for all other purposes, other than for accrual of pension benefits, under the First Community employee benefit plans, First Community will recognize years of service with Coddle Creek and its subsidiaries to the same extent as such service was credited for such purpose by Coddle Creek.

Existing Benefits and Agreements. At and following the effective time of the merger, and subject to the termination and/or amendment of certain agreements set forth in the merger agreement and described herein, First Community will honor and will be obligated to perform, in accordance with their terms, all benefit obligations to, and contractual rights of, current and former employees of Coddle Creek and its subsidiaries and current and former directors of Coddle Creek and its subsidiaries existing as of the effective date of the merger, as well as all employment, severance, bonus, salary continuation, deferred compensation, split dollar, supplemental retirement or change-in-control agreements, plans or policies of Coddle Creek to the extent that each of the foregoing has been previously disclosed to First Community.

Participation in First Community Plans. If employees of Coddle Creek or any of its subsidiaries become eligible to participate in a medical, dental or health plan of First Community, First Community will cause each such plan to:

waive any preexisting condition limitations to the extent such conditions are covered under the applicable medical, health or dental plans of First Community;

provide full credit under such plans for any deductibles, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the employees and their beneficiaries during the portion of the calendar year prior to such participation; and waive any waiting period limitation or evidence of insurability requirement which would otherwise be applicable to such employee on or after the effective time of the merger to the extent such employee had satisfied any similar limitation or requirement under an analogous plan prior to the effective time of the merger.

Table of Contents

Severance Payments. An employee of Coddle Creek or its subsidiaries (other than an employee who is a party to an employment agreement or a severance agreement) whose employment is involuntarily terminated other than for cause following the effective time of the merger but on or before the date which is six months from the effective time of the merger, will be entitled to receive severance payments pursuant to Coddle Creek's severance plan.

Resale of First Community Common Stock

First Community has registered the shares of First Community common stock to be issued in the merger with the Commission under the Securities Act. No restrictions on the sale or other transfer of the First Community common stock issued in the merger will be imposed solely as a result of the merger, except for restrictions on the transfer of First Community common stock issued to any Coddle Creek stockholder who may become an affiliate of First Community for purposes of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. The term affiliate is defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act and generally includes executive officers and directors of First Community and stockholders beneficially owning 10% or more of the outstanding First Community common stock.

Federal Income Tax Consequences

General. The following description of certain material federal income tax consequences of the merger is based upon the opinion of Patton Boggs LLP, legal counsel to First Community. The federal income tax laws are complex and the tax consequences of the merger may vary depending upon each stockholder's individual circumstances or tax status. This is not a complete description of all of the consequences of the merger and, in particular, may not address federal income tax considerations that may affect the treatment of stockholders subject to special treatment under United States federal income tax law (including, for example, foreign persons, financial institutions, dealers in securities, traders in securities who elect to apply a mark-to-market method of accounting, insurance companies, tax-exempt entities, holders who acquired their shares of Coddle Creek common stock pursuant to the exercise of an employee stock option or right or otherwise as compensation and holders who hold Coddle Creek common stock as part of a hedge, straddle or conversion transaction). In addition, no opinion is expressed with respect to the tax consequences of the merger under applicable foreign, state or local laws or under any federal tax laws other than those pertaining to the income tax. This description is based on laws, regulations, rulings and judicial decisions as in effect on the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, without consideration of the particular facts or circumstances of any holder of Coddle Creek common stock. These authorities are all subject to change and any such change may be made with retroactive effect. No assurance can be given that, after any such change, this description would not be different.

Tax matters are very complicated, and the tax consequences of the merger to you will depend upon the facts of your particular situation. Accordingly, we strongly urge you to consult your own tax advisor to determine the particular federal, state, local or foreign income or other tax consequences to you resulting from the merger.

Any United States federal tax advice contained herein is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, by any taxpayer for the purpose of avoiding United States federal tax penalties that may be imposed on the taxpayer; any such advice is written to support the promotion or marketing of the transactions described herein; and each taxpayer should seek advice based on the taxpayer's particular circumstances from an independent tax advisor.

Each of First Community and Coddle Creek has received an opinion of Patton Boggs LLP dated as of the date of this proxy statement/prospectus, that the merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code. It is a condition to the obligation of First Community and Coddle Creek to complete the merger that Patton Boggs LLP confirms its opinion as of the closing date.

In delivering its opinion, Patton Boggs LLP has relied and, in delivering its closing opinion will rely on (1) the representations and covenants made by First Community, First Community Bank, Coddle Creek and Mooresville Savings Bank, including those contained in certain letters of officers of First Community, First Community Bank, Coddle Creek and Mooresville Savings Bank, and (2) specified assumptions, including an assumption regarding the completion of the merger in the manner contemplated by the merger agreement and an assumption that the aggregate fair market value at the effective time of the merger of all of the shares of First Community common stock received by holders of Coddle Creek common stock pursuant to the merger is at least 40% of the total amount of the merger consideration received by holders of Coddle Creek common stock. In addition, the opinion of Patton Boggs LLP has assumed, and its ability to provide the closing date opinion, will depend on, the absence of changes in existing facts or in applicable law between the date of this document and the closing date. If any of those representations, covenants or assumptions are inaccurate, Patton Boggs LLP may not be able to provide the required closing date opinion and/or the federal income tax consequences of the merger could differ from those described in the opinion that Patton Boggs LLP has delivered. The opinion of Patton Boggs LLP neither binds the IRS nor the courts from adopting a contrary position. Neither First Community nor Coddle Creek intends to seek or obtain a ruling from the IRS as to the federal income tax consequences of the merger and, as a result, there can be no assurance that the IRS will agree with any of the conclusions described herein.

The Merger. To the extent the merger constitutes a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, neither First Community nor Coddle Creek will recognize any gain or loss as a result of the merger.

Tax consequences to Coddle Creek stockholders. A Coddle Creek stockholder who receives cash and shares of First Community common stock in exchange for all of his/her shares of Coddle Creek common stock generally will recognize gain, but not loss, in an amount equal to the lesser of (1) the excess, if any, of (a) the sum of the cash (excluding any cash received in lieu of a fractional share of First Community common stock) and the fair market value of the First Community common stock (including any fractional share of First Community common stock deemed to be received and exchanged for cash) over (b) such stockholder's tax basis in the shares of Coddle Creek common stock exchanged in the merger and (2) the amount of cash received by such stockholder. Any gain will be capital gain (except as described below) if the shares of Coddle Creek common stock are held by such stockholder as a capital asset at the time of the merger.

If any Coddle Creek stockholder's receipt of cash has the effect of a distribution of a dividend, the gain will be treated as ordinary dividend income to the extent of the stockholder's ratable share of First Community's accumulated earnings and profits. For purposes of determining whether a Coddle Creek stockholder's receipt of cash has the effect of a distribution of a dividend, the Coddle Creek stockholder will be treated as if it first exchanged all of its Coddle Creek common stock solely in exchange for First Community common stock and then First Community immediately redeemed a portion of that stock for the cash the Coddle Creek stockholder actually received in the exchange. Receipt of cash in exchange for a portion of the Coddle Creek stockholder's First Community stock that it is deemed to have been received, will generally not have the effect of a distribution of a dividend to the Coddle Creek stockholder if such receipt is, with respect to the Coddle Creek stockholders, not essentially equivalent to a dividend or substantially disproportionate, each within the meaning of Section 302(b) of the Code. In determining whether the receipt of cash is not essentially equivalent to a dividend or substantially disproportionate, with respect to the Coddle Creek stockholder, certain constructive ownership rules must be taken into account. Under the constructive ownership rules of the Code, a stockholder may be treated as owning stock that is actually owned by another person or entity. Coddle Creek stockholders should consult their tax advisors as to the possibility that all or a portion of any cash received in exchange for their shares of Coddle Creek common stock will be treated as a dividend. Dividends are generally currently taxed at the same rates that apply to long-term capital gains.

If (i) Patton Boggs LLP cannot provide the required closing date tax opinion, (ii) Coddle Creek and First Community waive the condition to completion of the merger that Patton Boggs LLP provides the required closing date opinion, (iii) the merger does not constitute a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code and (iv) the merger is otherwise completed in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement whereby Coddle Creek merges into First Community, then Coddle Creek will be deemed to have transferred all of its assets and liabilities to First Community in exchange for cash in a taxable transaction. In such case,

Table of Contents

Coddle Creek would recognize gain or loss in an amount equal to the difference between (i) the amount of cash received plus the amount of Coddle Creek liabilities assumed by First Community and (ii) the allocable tax basis of the respective assets of Coddle Creek deemed transferred in the exchange. Immediately after such deemed taxable exchange, Coddle Creek would be deemed to distribute all of its remaining assets to the holders of Coddle Creek common stock in complete liquidation of Coddle Creek. A holder of Coddle Creek common stock would recognize gain or loss on the amount deemed received in the liquidating distribution by Coddle Creek in excess of such stockholder's tax basis in his/her Coddle Creek common stock. Coddle Creek would incur liability for the payment of any federal income tax recognized to Coddle Creek and any additional gain recognized to Coddle Creek on its deemed liquidation. The payment of a cash tax liability by Coddle Creek would reduce the amount of consideration available for distribution to the stockholders of Coddle Creek.

The foregoing tax consequences to the holders of Coddle Creek common stock and to Coddle Creek could be different if First Community's acquisition of Coddle Creek is consummated in a transaction other than one in which Coddle Creek merges into First Community.

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares. No fractional shares of First Community common stock will be issued in the merger. A Coddle Creek stockholder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share will be treated as having received such fractional share pursuant to the merger and then as having exchanged such fractional share for cash in a redemption by First Community. A Coddle Creek stockholder should generally recognize capital gain or loss on such a deemed exchange of the fractional share. If the merger does not constitute a tax-free reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code, a holder of Coddle Creek common stock who receives cash in lieu of a fractional share of First Community common stock will be treated as having received cash in a deemed liquidation of Coddle Creek, as described above.

Dissenting Stockholders. Holders of Coddle Creek common stock who dissent with respect to the merger, as discussed under Dissenters' Rights beginning on page 54, and who receive cash for their shares of Coddle Creek common stock generally will recognize gain or loss as if such stockholder had received such cash as a distribution in redemption of such stockholder's shares of Coddle Creek common stock, subject to the provisions and limitations of Section 302 of the Code described above. The gain or loss will be capital gain or loss if the shares of Coddle Creek common stock surrendered in the merger were held as capital assets as of the time of the exchange.

Backup Withholding. Non-corporate holders of Coddle Creek common stock may be subject to information reporting and backup withholding imposed at a rate of 28% on any cash payments they receive. Coddle Creek stockholders will not be subject to backup withholding, however, if they:

furnish a correct taxpayer identification number and certify that they are not subject to backup withholding on the substitute Form W-9 or successor form included in the letter of transmittal they will receive; or are otherwise exempt from backup withholding.

Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or credit against a Coddle Creek stockholder's United States federal income tax liability, provided they furnish the required information to the IRS.

Reporting Requirements. Coddle Creek stockholders who receive First Community common stock as a result of the merger will be required to retain records pertaining to the merger and will be required to file with their United States federal income tax return for the year in which the merger takes place a statement setting forth certain facts relating to the merger.

Accounting Treatment of the Merger

The merger will be accounted for under the purchase method of accounting under accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Under this method, Coddle Creek's assets and liabilities as of the date of the merger will be recorded at their respective fair values and added to those of First Community. Any difference between the purchase price for Coddle Creek and the fair value of the identifiable net assets acquired (including core deposit intangibles) will be recorded as goodwill. In accordance with SFAS No. 142, Goodwill and Other Intangible Assets, the goodwill resulting from the merger will not be amortized to expense, but instead will be reviewed for impairment at least annually and to the extent goodwill is impaired, its carrying value will be written down to its implied fair value and a charge will be made to earnings. Core deposit and other intangibles with definite useful lives recorded by First Community in connection with the merger will be amortized to expense in accordance with applicable standards. The financial statements of First Community issued after the merger will reflect the results attributable to the acquired operations of Coddle Creek beginning on the date of completion of the merger.

Expenses of the Merger

The merger agreement provides that each of Coddle Creek and First Community will bear and pay all costs and expenses incurred by it in connection with the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, including fees and expenses of its own financial consultants, accountants and counsel, except that the expenses of printing this proxy statement/prospectus and the registration fees payable to the Commission in connection with the registration statement, of which this proxy statement/prospectus is a part, will be shared equally between First Community and Coddle Creek.

Listing of the First Community Common Stock

First Community has agreed to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the shares of First Community common stock to be issued in the merger to be approved for listing on the Nasdaq Global Select Market, or any national securities exchange on which the First Community common stock may then be listed, before the completion of the merger.

Shareholder Agreements

In connection with the execution of the merger agreement, each director and executive officer of Coddle Creek entered into a shareholder agreement with First Community pursuant to which each director and executive officer agreed that at any meeting of the stockholders of Coddle Creek, or in connection with any written consent of the stockholders of Coddle Creek, the director and/or officer shall:

appear at such meeting or otherwise cause all shares of Coddle Creek common stock owned by him to be counted as present thereat for purposes of calculating a quorum;

vote (or cause to be voted), in person or by proxy, or deliver a written consent (or cause a consent to be delivered) covering, all shares of Coddle Creek common stock beneficially owned by him or as to which he has, directly or indirectly, the right to direct the voting:

in favor of adoption and approval of the merger agreement and the merger; against any action or agreement that could reasonably be expected to result in a breach of any covenant, representation or warranty or any other obligation or agreement of Coddle Creek contained in the merger agreement or of the director or officer contained in the shareholder agreement; and against any acquisition proposal (as defined in No Solicitation above) or any other action, agreement or transaction that is intended, or could reasonably be expected, to materially impede, interfere or be inconsistent with, delay, postpone, discourage or materially and adversely affect consummation of the merger or the performance of his, her, or its obligations under the shareholder agreement.

Pursuant to the shareholder agreement, each director also agreed, while the shareholder agreement is in effect, not to, directly or indirectly, sell, transfer, pledge, encumber (except for pledges or encumbrances existing as of the date of the shareholder agreement), distribute by gift, or otherwise dispose of any of the shares whether by actual disposition, physical settlement, or effective economic disposition through hedging transactions; nor to enter into any agreement with any person that violates stockholder's representations, warranties, covenants, and obligations under the shareholder agreement; nor to take any other action that reasonably could be expected to adversely effect, in any material respect, the stockholder's power, authority, and ability to comply with and perform his, her, or its covenants and obligations under the shareholder agreement. Each director also agreed not to deposit any shares in a voting trust, grant any proxy, or enter into any voting agreement or similar agreement or arrangement with respect to any shares.

The shareholder agreements will remain in effect until the earlier of the effective time of the merger or the termination of the merger agreement in accordance with its terms.

Dissenters' Rights

General. Article 13 of the NCBCA, sets forth the rights of the stockholders of Coddle Creek who object to the merger. The following is a summary of the material terms of the statutory procedures to be followed by a stockholder in order to dissent from the merger and perfect dissenters' rights under the NCBCA. A copy of Article 13 of the NCBCA is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus. The only rights of dissent available to Coddle Creek stockholders are those provided in the law. Nothing in this proxy statement/prospectus shall be deemed to create or grant any such rights.

If you elect to exercise such a right to dissent and demand appraisal, you must satisfy each of the following conditions:

- (a) you must give to Coddle Creek and Coddle Creek must actually receive, before the vote at the special meeting of stockholders whereby approval or disapproval of the merger agreement is sought, written notice of your intent to demand payment for your shares if the merger is effectuated (this notice must be in addition to and separate from any proxy or vote against the merger proposal; neither voting against, abstaining from voting, nor failing to vote on the merger proposal will constitute a notice within the meaning of the NCBCA); and
- (b) you must not vote in favor of the merger agreement. A vote against the merger agreement or an abstention will satisfy this requirement. However, a vote in favor of the merger agreement, by proxy or in person, or the return of a proxy which does not specify a vote against approval of the merger agreement or direction to abstain, will constitute a waiver of your dissenter's rights.

If the requirements of (a) and (b) above are not satisfied and the merger proposal to approve the merger agreement becomes effective, you will not be entitled to payment for your shares under the provisions of Article 13 of the NCBCA.

If you are a dissenting Coddle Creek stockholder, any notices should be addressed to Coddle Creek Financial Corp., 347 North Main Street, Post Office Box 117, Mooresville, North Carolina 28115, Attention: Corporate Secretary. The notice must be executed by the holder of record of the shares of Coddle Creek common stock as to which dissenters' rights are to be exercised. A beneficial owner may assert dissenters' rights only if he dissents with respect to all shares of Coddle Creek common stock of which he is the beneficial owner. With respect to shares of Coddle Creek common stock which are owned of record by a voting trust or by a nominee, the beneficial owner of such shares may exercise dissenters' rights if such beneficial holder also submits to Coddle Creek the name and address of the record stockholder of the shares, if known to him. A record owner, such as a broker, who holds shares of Coddle Creek common stock as a nominee for others may exercise dissenters' rights with respect to the shares held for all or less than all beneficial owners of shares as to which such person is the record owner, provided such record owner dissents with respect to all Coddle Creek common stock beneficially owned by any one person. In such case, the notice submitted by the broker as record owner must set forth the name and address of the stockholder who is objecting to the merger proposal and demanding payment for such person's shares.

If you properly dissent and the merger proposal is approved, Coddle Creek, or First Community as the surviving corporation, must mail by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, a written dissenters' notice to you. This notice must be sent no later than 10 days after the stockholder approval of the merger agreement. The dissenters' notice will state where your payment demand must be sent, and where and when certificates for shares of Coddle Creek common stock must be deposited; inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received; supply a form for demanding payment; set a date by which Coddle Creek, or First Community as the surviving corporation, must receive your payment demand (not fewer than 30 days nor more than 60 days after the dissenters' notice is mailed and which must not be earlier than 20 days after the demand date); and include a copy of Article 13 of the NCBCA.

If you receive a dissenters' notice, you must demand payment and deposit your share certificates in accordance with the terms of the dissenters' notice. If you demand payment and deposit your share certificates, you retain all other rights of a stockholder until these rights are canceled or modified by the merger. If you do not demand payment or deposit your share certificates where required, each by the date set in the dissenters' notice, you are not entitled to demand payment for your shares under the NCBCA and will receive the merger consideration. For a discussion of the merger consideration, see Merger Consideration on page 34.

Within 30 days after receipt of your demand for payment, Coddle Creek, or First Community as the surviving corporation, is required to pay you the amount it estimates to be the fair value of your shares, plus interest accrued from the effective date of the merger to the date of payment. The payment must be accompanied by:

Coddle Creek's most recent available balance sheet, income statement, and statement of cash flows as of the end of or for the fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of payment, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

an explanation of how Coddle Creek, or First Community as the surviving corporation, estimated the fair value of the shares;

an explanation of the interest calculation;

a statement of the dissenters' right to demand payment (as described below); and a copy of Article 13 of the NCBCA.

If the merger is not consummated within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, Coddle Creek must return your deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares. If after returning your deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the merger is consummated, Coddle Creek, or First Community as the surviving corporation, must send you a new dissenters' notice and repeat the payment demand procedure.

Demand for Payment. You may, however, notify Coddle Creek, or First Community as the surviving corporation, in writing of your own estimate of the fair value of your shares and amount of interest due, and demand payment of the excess of your estimate of the fair value of your shares over the amount previously paid by Coddle Creek, or First Community as the surviving corporation, if:

- (a) you believe that the amount paid is less than the fair value of Coddle Creek common stock or that the interest is incorrectly calculated;
- (b) Coddle Creek, or First Community as the surviving corporation, fails to make payment of its estimate of fair value to you within 30 days after receipt of a demand for payment; or
- (c) the merger not having been consummated, Coddle Creek does not return your deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment.

You waive the right to demand payment unless you notify Coddle Creek, or First Community as the surviving corporation, of your demand in writing within 30 days of Coddle Creek's, or First Community's as the surviving corporation, payment of its estimate of fair value (with respect to clause (a) above) or Coddle Creek's, or First Community's as the surviving corporation, failure to perform (with respect to clauses (b) and (c) above). If you fail to notify Coddle Creek, or First Community as the surviving corporation, of your demand within such 30-day period, you shall be deemed to have withdrawn your stockholder's dissent and demand for payment.

Appraisal Proceeding. If your demand for payment remains unsettled, you may commence a proceeding within 60 days after the earlier of (a) the date Coddle Creek, or First Community as the surviving corporation, makes the demand payment, or (b) the date of your payment demand, for additional payment by filing a complaint with the Superior Court Division of the General Court of Justice, to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. If you do not commence the proceeding within such 60-day period, you will be deemed to have withdrawn your dissent and demand for payment.

The court in such an appraisal proceeding will determine all costs of the proceeding and assess the costs as it finds equitable. The proceeding is to be tried as in other civil actions; however, you will not have the right to a trial by jury. The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in the amounts the court finds equitable: (a) against Coddle Creek, or First Community as the surviving corporation, if the court finds that it did not substantially comply with the statute; or (b) against Coddle Creek, or First Community as the surviving corporation, or you, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith. If the court finds that the services of counsel for you were of substantial benefit to other dissenting stockholders, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against Coddle Creek, or First Community as the surviving corporation, the court may award to these counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenting stockholders who were benefited.

The summary set forth above does not purport to be a complete statement of the provisions of the NCBCA relating to the rights of dissenting stockholders and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the applicable sections of the NCBCA, which are included as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus. If you intend to exercise your dissenters' rights, you are urged to carefully review Appendix C and to consult with legal counsel so as to be in strict compliance therewith.

Under First Community's articles of incorporation, First Community may issue shares of First Community preferred stock in one or more series, as may be determined by the First Community's board of directors or a duly authorized committee. As of September 22, 2008, there were 610,545 shares of Coddle Creek common stock outstanding. No shares of Coddle Creek preferred stock were issued and outstanding as of that date.

First Community. Pursuant to the NRS, First Community may issue shares of First Community capital stock and rights or options for the purchase of shares of capital stock of First Community on such terms and for such consideration as may be determined by the First Community board of directors. Neither the NRS nor First Community's articles of incorporation or bylaws require stockholder approval of any such actions. Holders of First Community capital stock do not have preemptive rights with respect to any shares of First Community capital stock which may be issued.

Coddle Creek. Pursuant to the NCBCA, Coddle Creek may issue shares of Coddle Creek capital stock and rights or options for the purchase of shares of capital stock of Coddle Creek on such terms and for such consideration as may be determined by the Coddle Creek board of directors. Number and Election of Directors

First Community. First Community's articles of incorporation provide that the number of members of First Community's board of directors is determined in accordance with a bylaw or amendment thereof duly adopted by a majority of First Community's board of directors. First Community's bylaws authorize the number of directors to be fixed from time to time by resolution of the board of directors. Currently, First Community's board of directors consists of eight directors. First Community's board of directors is divided into three classes, with directors serving staggered three-year terms.

Pursuant to the NRS, unless First Community's articles of incorporation or its bylaws require more than a plurality of votes cast, First Community's directors are elected at annual meetings of stockholders by a plurality of votes cast at the election. Neither First Community's articles of incorporation or bylaws require more than a plurality.

Coddle Creek. Coddle Creek's articles of incorporation provide for a board of directors consisting of no less than five members nor more than 15 members as determined from time to time in accordance with Coddle Creek's bylaws. If the number of directors is set at nine or more, the Coddle Creek board of directors will then be divided into three classes, with directors serving staggered three-year terms. If the number of directors is set at less than nine, each director will be elected to a term ending as of the next succeeding annual meeting of stockholders or until his earlier death, resignation, retirement, removal or disqualification or until his successor has been elected and qualified. Coddle Creek currently has six members of its board of directors.

Pursuant to Coddle Creek's bylaws, Coddle Creek's directors are elected at annual meetings of stockholders, and those individuals receiving the highest number of votes at a meeting at which a quorum is present will be deemed to have been elected.

Removal of Directors

First Community. Under First Community's articles of incorporation, First Community directors may be removed only for cause by an affirmative vote of not less than a two-thirds of the votes eligible to be cast by stockholders at a meeting of stockholders called expressly for such purpose, provided that a director may not be removed if the number of votes sufficient to elect the director under cumulative voting is voted against the director's removal.

Coddle Creek. Coddle Creek's bylaws provide that Coddle Creek directors may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by a vote of the stockholders if the number of votes cast to remove the director exceeds the number of votes cast not to remove him. A director may not be removed by Coddle Creek's stockholders at a meeting unless the notice of that meeting states the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director.

Vacancies of Directors

First Community. Under First Community's articles of incorporation and bylaws, any vacancy occurring on the board of directors may be filled by a majority vote of the directors then in office, whether or not a quorum. Each director so chosen shall hold office until the expiration of the term of the director, if any, whom he or she has been chosen to succeed, or if none, until the expiration of the term assigned.

Coddle Creek. Under Coddle Creek's bylaws, any vacancy on the board of directors may be filled by either Coddle Creek's stockholders or board of directors, whichever acts first. If the directors remaining in office do not constitute a quorum, the directors may fill the vacancy by affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors or by the sole remaining director. A director appointed to fill a vacancy will serve until the next succeeding annual meeting of stockholders or until his or her earlier death, resignation, retirement, removal or disqualification or until his or her successor is elected.

Indemnification and Limitation of Liability

First Community. First Community's articles of incorporation provide that First Community will indemnify any of its directors, officers, employees or agents against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, relating to service for or at the request of First Community. First Community will not indemnify a director, officer, employee or agent if:

he did not act in good faith;

he did not reasonably believe that the actions were either (i) in First Community's best interests, or (ii) not opposed to First Community's best interests; or with respect to a criminal action or proceeding, he had reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful.

First Community's articles of incorporation also provide that no director will be liable to First Community or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director, except that the director's liability will not be eliminated or limited:

for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to First Community or its stockholders;

for acts or omissions involving intentional misconduct, fraud or a knowing violation of the law;

for the payment of any distribution in violation of NRS §78.300; or for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

Coddle Creek. Coddle Creek's bylaws provide that it will indemnify its directors, officers, employees and agents to the full extent allowed by applicable law against liability and litigation expense arising out of such status or activities in such capacity.

Coddle Creek's articles provide that, to the fullest extent permitted by the NCBCA, no current or former director of Coddle Creek will be personally liable to Coddle Creek or any of its stockholders or otherwise for monetary damages for breach of any duty as a director.

Amendments to Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws

First Community. Under the NRS, First Community's board of directors must adopt a resolution setting forth a proper amendment to First Community's articles of incorporation and must call either a special meeting of the stockholders entitled to vote on the amendment or direct that the amendment be considered at the next annual meeting of First Community's stockholders. Amendments to First Community's articles of incorporation generally must be approved by stockholders holding shares in First Community entitling them to exercise at least a majority of the voting power, or such greater proportion of the voting power as may be required.

Under Nevada law, except as otherwise provided by a bylaw adopted by First Community's stockholders, First Community's board of directors can amend or repeal the bylaws, or adopt new bylaws. First Community's bylaws authorize First Community's board of directors to amend its bylaws by vote of a majority of the board of directors at a meeting.

Coddle Creek. Pursuant to North Carolina law, unless a corporation's articles of incorporation or bylaws adopted by stockholders provide otherwise, amendments to articles of incorporation must be approved by a majority of all votes entitled to be cast on the matter, and, if applicable, a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter within each voting group entitled to vote as a separate voting group on the amendment and a majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the amendment by any voting group with respect to which the amendment would create dissenters' rights.

Coddle Creek's articles do not require more than a majority of the votes cast with respect to amendments to its articles of incorporation, as amended.

Coddle Creek's bylaws provide that the bylaws may be amended or repealed and new bylaws adopted by Coddle Creek's board of directors, and that no bylaw adopted, amended or repealed by Coddle Creek's stockholders will be readopted, amended or repealed by Coddle Creek's board of directors, unless Coddle Creek's articles of incorporation or a bylaw adopted by its stockholders authorizes the board of directors to adopt, amend or repeal that particular bylaw or the bylaws generally.

Notice of Stockholder Meetings

First Community. In accordance with the NRS, First Community's bylaws provide that a written notice of the time, place and purpose of the meeting must be given to each stockholder entitled to vote at the meeting not less than 10 days nor more than 60 days prior to the meeting.

Coddle Creek. Coddle Creek's bylaws provide that written notice of the date, time and place of a meeting of stockholders must be delivered not less than 10 nor more than 60 days before the date of the meeting to each stockholder of record entitled to vote at such meeting, and in the case of a meeting at which a merger or share exchange is to be considered, to all stockholders. Notice of special meetings of stockholders also must include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is being called.

Special Meetings of Stockholders

First Community. Under the NRS and First Community's articles of incorporation, a special meeting of the stockholders may be called by First Community's entire board of directors. In addition, under the NRS, any two directors or First Community's President may call a special meeting of the stockholders.

Coddle Creek. Pursuant to Coddle Creek's bylaws, special meetings of the stockholders may be called at any time by Coddle Creek's Chief Executive Officer, President, Chairman of the Board of Directors, or the Board of Directors.

Stockholder Nominations and Stockholder Proposals

First Community. First Community's bylaws provide that any nominations to First Community's board of directors other than those made by or on behalf of First Community's existing management must be made in writing and must be delivered or mailed to First Community's Secretary not less than 30 days prior to any meeting of First Community's stockholders calling for the election of directors. If, however, less than 30 days notice of the meeting is given to stockholders, the notice of nomination must be mailed or delivered to First Community's Secretary no later than the close of business on the seventh day following the day on which the notice of the meeting was mailed.

Applicable Commission rules require that a proposal by stockholders for submission to a vote of stockholders at an annual meeting must be made in writing and delivered or mailed and received by the secretary of First Community not later than 120 calendar days prior to the anniversary date of the mailing of proxy materials for the immediately preceding annual meeting. Each such notice must set forth information concerning the proposal, the proposing stockholder and the information specified in First Community's bylaws.

Coddle Creek. Coddle Creek's bylaws provide that all nominations for directors, other than those made by Coddle Creek's board of directors, must be in writing and must be delivered to Coddle Creek's Secretary not less than 30 days nor more than 50 days prior to the meeting at which the nominations will be made. If less than 21 days' notice of the meeting is given to stockholders, the nomination must be delivered to the Secretary of Coddle Creek not later than the close of business on the seventh day following the day on which the notice of the meeting was mailed. Neither Coddle Creek's articles of incorporation, bylaws nor the NCBCA contain provisions regarding stockholder proposals other than director nominations.

Control Share Acquisition Provisions

First Community. Nevada law contains provisions that, under certain circumstances would preclude an acquirer of the shares of a Nevada corporation who crosses one of three voting thresholds (20%, 33 1/3% or 50%) from obtaining voting rights with respect to such shares unless the disinterested holders of a majority of the shares of First Community held by disinterested stockholders votes to accord voting power to such shares. The statute provides that, if authorized by the articles of incorporation or bylaws in effect on the 10th day following the acquisition of the controlling interest by an acquiring person, First Community may call for redemption of not less than all of the control shares at the average price paid for the control shares if the acquirer has not complied with certain procedural requirements or if the control shares are not accorded full voting rights by the stockholders.

Coddle Creek. North Carolina law contains provisions that, under certain circumstances, would preclude an acquirer of the shares of a North Carolina corporation who crosses one of three voting thresholds (20%, 33 1/3% or 50%) from obtaining voting rights with respect to such shares unless the disinterested holders of a majority of the shares of the corporation held by disinterested stockholders votes to accord voting power to such shares. The legislation provides that, if authorized by the articles of incorporation or bylaws in effect on the 10th day following the acquisition of the controlling interest by an acquiring person, the corporation may call for redemption of not less than all of the control shares at the average price paid for the control shares if the acquirer has not complied with certain procedural requirements or if the control shares are not accorded full voting rights by the stockholders. Coddle Creek has specifically opted out of coverage under the control share acquisition provisions of North Carolina law.

Combinations with Interested Stockholders

First Community. Under the NRS, except under certain circumstances, a corporation is not permitted to engage in a business combination with any interested stockholder for a period of three years following the date such stockholder became an interested stockholder. An interested stockholder is a person who owns 10% or more of the outstanding shares of voting stock. Nevada permits a corporation to opt out of the application of these business combination provisions by so providing in the articles of incorporation. First Community opted out of the application of these business combination provisions in its articles of incorporation. Instead, First Community's articles of incorporation require the approval of holders of more than 85% of First Community's outstanding shares entitled to vote thereon for any of the following transactions between First Community and any individual, firm, corporation or other entity (or any affiliate of any of the foregoing) that directly or indirectly beneficially owns 15% or more of First Community's outstanding shares of stock entitled to vote for the election of directors:

any merger or consolidation of First Community or any subsidiary of First Community with or into the firm, corporation or other entity;

any sale, lease, exchange, transfer or other disposition (whether in a single transaction or a series of related transactions) to or with the individual, firm, corporation or other entity of any assets of First Community or any subsidiary of First Community when such assets have an aggregate fair market value of $5,000,000 or more;

the issuance or transfer to or with the individual, firm, corporation or other entity by First Community or any subsidiary of First Community of any equity securities of First Community or any subsidiary of First Community where any such equity securities have an aggregate fair market value of $5,000,000 or more;

the adoption of any plan or proposal for the liquidation or dissolution of First Community; or any agreement, contract or other arrangement providing for any of the foregoing.

Coddle Creek. The North Carolina Shareholder Protection Act requires that certain business combinations with existing stockholders either be approved by a supermajority of the other stockholders or meet certain fair price requirements; the statute allows corporations to opt-out of these provisions in their bylaws or articles of incorporation, if they prefer. Coddle Creek has opted out of the North Carolina Shareholder Protection Act. Instead, Coddle Creek's articles of incorporation require the approval of the holders of at least 75% of the outstanding voting stock for certain fundamental transactions (combinations or mergers, the acquisition of more than 10% of Coddle Creek's outstanding voting stock, and purchases or sales of a substantial portion of the assets of Coddle Creek or a subsidiary of Coddle Creek) that require regulatory approval or approval of Coddle Creek's stockholders. This approval requirement is not applicable if the business combination is approved by Coddle Creek's board of directors by the affirmative vote of (i) at least 75% of the entire board of directors, and (ii) if the business combination is proposed by a stockholder that beneficially owned 10% or more of the outstanding voting shares of Coddle Creek, at least 75% of the directors who are unaffiliated with that stockholder. This approval requirement also is not applicable to those fundamental transactions initiated by Coddle Creek upon the vote of at least 51% of its directors who are unaffiliated with a stockholder that beneficially owns 10% or more of Coddle Creek's outstanding voting shares and is involved in the fundamental transaction.

Transactions with Interested Persons

First Community. Under the NRS, a transaction with First Community (i) in which a First Community director or officer has a direct or indirect interest, or (ii) involving another corporation, firm or association in which one or more of First Community's directors or officers are directors or officers of the corporation, firm or association or have a financial interest in the corporation firm or association, is not void or voidable solely because of the director's or officer's interest or common role in the transaction if any one of the following circumstances exists:

the fact of the common directorship, office or financial interest is known to the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors and a majority of disinterested directors on the board of directors (or on the committee) authorized, approved or ratified the transaction;

the fact of the common directorship, office or financial interest is known to the stockholders and disinterested stockholders holding a majority of the shares held by disinterested stockholders authorized, approved or ratified the transaction;

the fact of the common directorship, office or financial interest is not known to the director or officer at the time the transaction is brought to the board of directors for action; or the transaction was fair to First Community at the time it is authorized or approved.

Coddle Creek. Under the NCBCA, a transaction with Coddle Creek in which a Coddle Creek director has a direct or indirect interest is not voidable by Coddle Creek solely because of the director's interest in the transaction if any one of the following is true:

the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the board of directors or a committee of the board of directors and a majority of disinterested directors on the board of directors (or on the committee) authorized, approved or ratified the transaction;

the material facts of the transaction and the director's interest were disclosed or known to the stockholders and disinterested stockholders holding a majority of the shares held by disinterested stockholders authorized, approved or ratified the transaction; or the transaction was fair to Coddle Creek.

Stockholders' Right of Dissent and Appraisal

The holders of First Community common stock are not entitled to dissenters' rights under the NRS because the merger does not require the approval of the stockholders of First Community. Under the NRS, a stockholder is entitled to dissent from and to obtain payment for the fair value of his, her or its shares in the event of consummation of a plan of merger or plan of exchange in which the corporation is a party and any corporate action taken pursuant to a vote of the stockholders or to the extent that the articles of incorporation, bylaws or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting stockholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares. The NRS provides an exception to dissenters' rights. Holders (i) of securities listed on a national securities exchange included on the national market system by the NASD or (ii) of securities held by 2,000 holders of record are not entitled to dissenters' rights unless the (i) articles of incorporation of the issuing corporation provide otherwise; or (ii) the stockholders are required under a plan of merger or exchange to accept anything but cash, ownership interests, or ownership interests and cash in lieu of fractional shares of: (a) the surviving or acquiring entity, or (b) another entity that, at the effective date of the plan of merger or exchange, were either listed on a national securities exchange, included in the national market system by the NASD, or held of record by at least 2,000 owners.

Table of Contents

Coddle Creek's stockholders have dissenters' rights in connection with the merger. For a discussion of the dissenters' rights under the NCBCA, please refer to the section entitled "The Merger Dissenters' Rights" beginning on page 54 and to Article 13 of the NCBA, a copy of which is attached as Appendix C to this proxy statement/prospectus.

ADJOURNMENT OF THE SPECIAL MEETING

(PROPOSAL TWO)

In the event that there are not sufficient votes to constitute a quorum or approve the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting, the merger agreement cannot be approved unless the special meeting is adjourned to a later date or dates in order to permit further solicitation of proxies. In order to allow proxies that have been received by Coddle Creek at the time of the special meeting to be voted for an adjournment, if deemed necessary, Coddle Creek has submitted the question of adjournment to its stockholders as a separate matter for their consideration. The board of directors of Coddle Creek unanimously recommends that stockholders vote FOR the adjournment proposal. If it is deemed necessary to adjourn the special meeting, no notice of the adjourned meeting is required to be given to stockholders, other than an announcement at the special meeting of the place, date, and time to which the special meeting is adjourned.

LEGAL OPINION

The validity of the First Community common stock to be issued in the merger will be passed upon for First Community by Patton Boggs LLP, Washington, DC.

Coddle Creek's bylaws provide that, in order to be eligible for consideration at the annual meeting of stockholders, all nominations of directors, other than those made by Coddle Creek's board of directors, must be made in writing and must be delivered to the Secretary of Coddle Creek not less than 30 days nor more than 50 days prior to the meeting at which such nominations will be made; provided, however, if less than 21 days notice of the meeting is given to stockholders, such nominations must be delivered to the Secretary of Coddle Creek not later than the close of business on the seventh day following the day on which the notice of meeting was mailed.

Provided that CCFC has delivered, or caused to be delivered, to the Exchange Agent all information which is necessary for the Exchange Agent to perform its obligations as specified herein, the Exchange Agent shall, promptly following the Effective Date, mail or make available to each holder of record of a Certificate or Certificates a notice and letter of transmittal (which shall specify that delivery shall be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Certificates theretofore representing shares of CCFC Common Stock shall pass, only upon proper delivery of the Certificates to the Exchange Agent) advising such holder of the effectiveness of the Merger and the procedure for surrendering to the Exchange Agent such Certificate or Certificates in exchange for the consideration set forth in Section 3.01(b) hereof deliverable in respect thereof pursuant to this Agreement. A letter of transmittal will be properly completed only if accompanied by Certificates representing all shares of CCFC Common Stock covered thereby, subject to the provisions of paragraph (d) of this Section 3.02.

(b) FCBI Deliveries. At the Effective Time, for the benefit of the holders of Certificates, (i) FCBI shall deliver to the Exchange Agent certificates evidencing the maximum number of shares of FCBI Common Stock issuable and (ii) FCBI shall deliver, or cause FC Bank to deliver, to the Exchange Agent, a cash amount equal to the aggregate Per Share Cash Consideration payable pursuant to this Article III in exchange for Certificates representing outstanding shares of CCFC Common Stock. The Exchange Agent shall not be entitled to vote or exercise any rights of ownership with respect to the shares of FCBI Common Stock held by it from time to time hereunder, except that it shall receive and hold all dividends or other distributions paid or distributed with respect to such shares for the account of the Persons entitled thereto.

(c) Exchange Agent Deliveries. Each holder of an outstanding Certificate or Certificates who has surrendered such Certificate or Certificates to the Exchange Agent will, upon acceptance thereof by the Exchange Agent, be entitled to a certificate or certificates representing the number of whole shares of FCBI Common Stock and the amount of cash into which the aggregate number of shares of CCFC Common Stock previously represented by such Certificate or Certificates surrendered shall have been converted pursuant to this Agreement and any other distribution theretofore paid with respect to FCBI Common Stock issuable in the Merger, in each case without interest. The Exchange Agent shall accept such Certificates upon compliance with such reasonable terms and conditions as the Exchange Agent may impose to effect an orderly exchange thereof in accordance with normal exchange practices. Each outstanding Certificate which prior to the Effective Time represented CCFC Common Stock and which is not surrendered to the Exchange Agent in accordance with the procedures provided for herein shall, except as otherwise herein provided, until duly surrendered to the Exchange Agent, be deemed to evidence ownership of the number of shares of FCBI Common Stock and the right to receive the amount of cash into which such CCFC Common Stock shall have been converted. of assignment separate from the Certificate and otherwise in proper form for transfer and that the Person requesting such exchange pay to the Exchange Agent any transfer or other tax required by reason of the issuance of a certificate for shares of FCBI Common Stock in any name other than that of the registered holder of the Certificate surrendered or otherwise establish to the satisfaction of the Exchange Agent that such tax has been paid or is not payable.

(e) Unclaimed Merger Consideration. Any portion of the shares of FCBI Common Stock and cash delivered to the Exchange Agent by FCBI pursuant to Section 3.02(b) that remains unclaimed by the stockholders of CCFC for six months after the Effective Time (as well as any proceeds from any investment thereof) shall be delivered by the Exchange Agent to FCBI. Any stockholders of CCFC who have not theretofore complied with Section 3.02(c) shall thereafter look only to FCBI for the consideration deliverable in respect of each share of CCFC Common Stock such stockholder holds as determined pursuant to this Agreement without any interest thereon. If outstanding Certificates for shares of CCFC Common Stock are not surrendered or the payment for them is not claimed prior to the date on which such shares of FCBI Common Stock and cash would otherwise escheat to or become the property of any Governmental Authority, the unclaimed items shall, to the extent permitted by abandoned property and any other applicable law, become the property of FCBI (and to the extent not in its possession shall be delivered to it), free and clear of all claims or interest of any person previously entitled to such property. Neither the Exchange Agent nor any party to this Agreement shall be liable to any holder of stock represented by any Certificate for any consideration paid to a Governmental Authority pursuant to applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar laws. FCBI and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to rely upon the stock transfer books of CCFC to establish the identity of those persons entitled to receive the consideration specified in this Agreement, which books shall be conclusive with respect thereto. In the event of a dispute with respect to ownership of stock represented by any Certificate, FCBI and the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deposit any consideration represented thereby in escrow with an independent third party and thereafter be relieved with respect to any claims thereto.

(f) Affiliate Agreements. Notwithstanding anything in this Agreement to the contrary, Certificates surrendered for exchange by any CCFC Affiliate shall not be exchanged for certificates representing shares of FCBI Common Stock to which such CCFC Affiliate may be entitled pursuant to the terms of this Agreement until FCBI has received a written agreement from such person as specified in Section 6.07.

3.03 Rights as Shareholders: Stock Transfers. At the Effective Time, holders of CCFC Common Stock shall cease to be, and shall have no rights as, stockholders of CCFC other than to receive the consideration provided under this Article III. After the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of CCFC or the Surviving Corporation of shares of CCFC Common Stock.

3.04 No Fractional Shares. Notwithstanding any other provision of this Agreement, neither certificates nor scrip for fractional shares of FCBI Common Stock shall be issued in the Merger. Each holder of CCFC Common Stock who otherwise would have been entitled to a fraction of a share of FCBI Common Stock (after taking into account all Certificates delivered by such holder) shall receive in lieu thereof cash (without interest) in an amount determined by multiplying the fractional share interest to which such holder would otherwise be entitled by the closing price of a share of FCBI Common Stock on Nasdaq on the business day preceding the Effective Time (as reported in The Wall Street Journal, or if not reported therein, in another mutually agreed upon authoritative source), rounded to the nearest whole cent. No such holder shall be entitled to dividends, voting rights or any other rights in respect of any fractional share.

3.05 Dissenting Shares. Each outstanding share of CCFC Common Stock the holder of which has perfected his right to dissent under the NCBCA and has not effectively withdrawn or lost such right as of the Effective Time (the Dissenting Shares) shall not be converted into or represent a right to receive shares of FCBI Common Stock and cash hereunder, and the holder thereof shall be entitled only to such rights as are granted by the NCBCA. CCFC shall give FCBI prompt notice upon receipt by CCFC of any such written demands for payment of the fair value of such shares of CCFC Common Stock and of withdrawals of such demands and any other instruments provided pursuant to the NCBCA. Any payments made in respect of Dissenting Shares shall be made by FCBI. If any holder of Dissenting Shares shall fail to perfect or shall have effectively withdrawn or lost the right to dissent and shall have delivered a properly completed letter of transmittal to the Exchange Agent, the Dissenting Shares held by such holder shall be converted into a right to receive FCBI Common Stock and cash in accordance with the applicable provisions of this Agreement.

3.07 Withholding Rights. FCBI (through the Exchange Agent, if applicable) shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from any amounts otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of shares of CCFC Common Stock such amounts as FCBI is required under the Code or any state, local or foreign tax law or regulation thereunder to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment. Any amounts so withheld shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of CCFC Common Stock in respect of which such deduction and withholding was made by FCBI.

3.08 CCFC Options. At the Effective Time, each CCFC Option which is outstanding, vested and unexercised immediately prior to the Effective Time, shall be canceled in exchange for the right to receive a single lump sum cash payment, equal to the product of (i) the number of shares of CCFC Common Stock subject to such CCFC Option immediately prior to the Effective Time, and (ii) the excess, if any, of the Per Share Merger Consideration over the exercise price per share of such CCFC Option, less any applicable Taxes required to be withheld with respect to such payment. If the exercise price per share of any such CCFC Option is equal to or greater than the Per Share Merger Consideration, such CCFC Option shall be canceled without any cash payment being made in respect thereof. CCFC shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain the written acknowledgment of each holder of a then-outstanding CCFC Option with regard to the cancellation of such CCFC Option and the payment therefor in accordance with the terms of this Agreement. Subject to the foregoing, the CCFC Stock Option Plans and all CCFC Options issued thereunder shall terminate at the Effective Time.

This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by FCBI and, assuming due authorization, execution and delivery by CCFC, this Agreement is a valid and legally binding agreement of FCBI enforceable in accordance with its terms (except as enforceability may be limited by applicable bankruptcy, insolvency, reorganization, moratorium, fraudulent transfer and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights or by general equity principles).

(f) Regulatory Approvals; No Defaults.

(i) No consents or approvals of, or waivers by, or filings or registrations with, any Governmental Authority or with any third party are required to be made or obtained by FCBI or any of its Subsidiaries in connection with the execution, delivery or performance by FCBI of this Agreement and by FC Bank of the Bank Merger Agreement or to consummate the Transaction, except for (A) filings of applications or notices with and approvals or waivers by the FRB, the OCC, and the Commissioner, as required, (B) filings with the SEC and state securities authorities, as applicable, in connection with the submission of this Agreement for the approval of the holders of CCFC Common Stock and the issuance of FCBI Common Stock in the Merger, (C) the approval of the listing on Nasdaq of the FCBI Common Stock to be issued in the Merger and (D) the filing of Articles of Merger with the Secretary of State of the State of North Carolina pursuant to the NCBCA and the Secretary of State of the State of Nevada pursuant to the NGCL with respect to the Merger. As of the date hereof, FCBI is not aware of any reason why the approvals set forth above and referred to in Section 7.01(b) will not be received in a timely manner and without the imposition of a condition, restriction or requirement of the type described in Section 7.01(b).

(ii) Subject to receipt, or the making, of the consents, approvals, waivers and filings referred to in the preceding paragraph and expiration of the related waiting periods, the execution, delivery and performance of this Agreement by FCBI, the Bank Merger Agreement by FC Bank and the consummation of the Transaction do not and will not (A) constitute a breach or violation of, or a default under, or give rise to any Lien, any acceleration of remedies or any right of termination under, any law, code, ordinance, rule or regulation or any judgment, decree, injunction, order, governmental permit or license, or agreement, indenture or instrument of FCBI or of any of its Subsidiaries or to which FCBI or any of its Subsidiaries or any of their respective properties is subject or bound, (B) constitute a breach or violation of, or a default under, the articles of incorporation or bylaws (or similar governing documents) of FCBI or any of its Subsidiaries or (C) require any consent or approval under any such law, code, ordinance, rule, regulation, judgment, decree, injunction, order, governmental permit or license, agreement, indenture or instrument.

(ii) Since March 31, 2008, no event has occurred or circumstance arisen that, individually or taken together with all other facts, circumstances and events (described in any paragraph of this Section 5.04 or otherwise), is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect with respect to FCBI.

(h) Legal Proceedings. Except as set forth in Section 5.04(h) of FCBI's Disclosure Schedule, no litigation, arbitration, claim or other proceeding before any court or governmental agency is pending against FCBI or its Subsidiaries and, to FCBI's knowledge, no such litigation, arbitration, claim or other proceeding has been threatened and there are no facts which could reasonably give rise to such litigation, arbitration, claim or other proceeding. Neither FCBI nor any of its Subsidiaries nor any of their respective properties is a party to or subject to any order, judgment, decree or regulatory restrictions that, individually or in the aggregate, has or could reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect with respect to FCBI.

(i) No Brokers. Except for an agreement with The Orr Group, no action has been taken by FCBI or its Subsidiaries that would give rise to any valid claim against any party hereto for a brokerage commission, finder's fee or other like payment with respect to the Transaction.

(j) Tax Matters. As of the date hereof, FCBI does not have any reason to believe that any conditions exist that might prevent or impede the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

(k) Regulatory Matters.

(i) FCBI and its Subsidiaries have duly filed with the appropriate Governmental Authorities in substantially correct form the monthly, quarterly and annual reports required to be filed under applicable laws and regulations, and such reports were in all material respects complete and accurate and in compliance with the requirements of applicable laws and regulations. In connection with the most recent examination of FCBI and its Subsidiaries by the appropriate regulatory authorities, neither FCBI nor any of its Subsidiaries was required to correct or change any action, procedure or proceeding which FCBI believes in good faith has not been now corrected or changed, other than corrections or changes which, if not made, either individually or in the aggregate, would not have a Material Adverse Effect on FCBI. To the knowledge of FCBI, since its last regulatory examination of Community Reinvestment Act compliance, FC Bank has not received any complaints as to Community Reinvestment Act compliance.

(ii) Neither FCBI nor any of its Subsidiaries nor any of any of their respective properties is a party to or is subject to any order, decree, directive, agreement, memorandum of understanding or similar arrangement with, or a commitment letter or similar submission to, or extraordinary supervisory letter from, nor has FCBI or any of its Subsidiaries adopted any policies, procedures or board resolutions at the request or suggestion of, any Governmental Authority. FCBI and its Subsidiaries have paid all assessments made or imposed by any Governmental Authority.

(iii) Neither FCBI nor any its Subsidiaries has been advised by, and does not have any knowledge of facts which could give rise to an advisory notice by, any Governmental Authority that such Governmental Authority is contemplating issuing or requesting (or is considering the appropriateness of issuing or requesting) any such order, decree, agreement, memorandum of understanding, commitment letter, supervisory letter or similar submission.

(l) Compliance With Laws. Each of FCBI and its Subsidiaries:

(i) is in material compliance with all applicable federal, state, local and foreign statutes, laws, codes, regulations, ordinances, rules, judgments, injunctions, orders, decrees or policies and/or guidelines of a Governmental Authority applicable thereto or to the employees conducting such businesses, including, without limitation, Section 23A and 23B of the Federal Reserve Act and FRB regulations pursuant thereto, the Equal Credit Opportunity Act, the Fair Housing Act, the Community Reinvestment Act, the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act, the Bank Secrecy Act, the USA Patriot Act, all other applicable fair lending laws and other laws relating to discriminatory business practices and Environmental Laws and all posted and internal policies of FCBI and its Subsidiaries related to customer data, privacy and security;

(ii) has all permits, licenses, franchises, authorizations, orders and approvals of, and has made all filings, applications and registrations with, all Governmental Authorities that are required in order to permit them to own or lease their properties and to conduct their businesses as presently conducted; all such permits, licenses, certificates of authority, orders and approvals are in full force and effect and, to FCBI's knowledge, no suspension or cancellation of any of them is threatened; and

(iii) has received no notification or communication from any Governmental Authority (A) asserting that FCBI or any of its Subsidiaries is not in compliance with any of the statutes, regulations or ordinances which such Governmental Authority enforces or (B) threatening to revoke any license, franchise, permit or governmental authorization (nor, to FCBI's knowledge, do any grounds for any of the foregoing exist).

(m) Allowance For Loan Losses. FCBI's allowance for loan losses is, and shall be as of the Effective Date, in compliance with FCBI's existing methodology for determining the adequacy of its allowance for loan losses as well as the standards established by applicable Governmental Authorities and the Financial Accounting Standards Board and is and shall be adequate under all such standards.

(n) Ownership of CCFC Common Stock. None of FCBI or any of its Subsidiaries, or to FCBI's knowledge, any of its other affiliates or associates (as such terms are defined under the Exchange Act), owns beneficially or of record, directly or indirectly, or is a party to any agreement, arrangement or understanding for the purpose of acquiring, holding, voting or disposing of, shares of CCFC Common Stock (other than shares held in a fiduciary capacity that are beneficially owned by third parties or as a result of debts previously contracted).

(o) Financial Ability. On the Effective Date and through the date of payment of the Merger Consideration by FCBI, FCBI or FC Bank will have all funds necessary to consummate the Merger and pay the aggregate Per Share Cash Consideration to holders of CCFC Common Stock pursuant to Section 3.01 hereof.

(p) Disclosure. The representations and warranties contained in this Section 5.04, when considered as a whole, do not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements and information contained in this Section 5.04 not misleading.

6.01 Reasonable Best Efforts. Subject to the terms and conditions of this Agreement, each of CCFC and FCBI agrees to use its reasonable best efforts in good faith, and to cause its Subsidiaries to use their reasonable best efforts in good faith, to take, or cause to be taken, all actions, and to do, or cause to be done, all things necessary, proper or desirable, or advisable under applicable laws, so as to permit consummation of the Transaction as promptly as practicable and otherwise to enable consummation of the Transaction, including the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Article VII hereof, and shall cooperate fully with the other party hereto to that end.

6.02 Stockholder Approval.

(a) CCFC agrees to take, in accordance with applicable law and the CCFC Articles and the CCFC Bylaws, all action necessary to convene as soon as reasonably practicable a special meeting of its stockholders to consider and vote upon the approval of this Agreement and any other matters required to be approved by CCFC's stockholders for consummation of the Transaction (including any adjournment, the CCFC Meeting). Except with the prior written consent of FCBI, no other matters shall be submitted for the approval of the CCFC stockholders at the CCFC Meeting. Subject to Section 6.02(b), the CCFC Board shall at all times prior to and during such meeting recommend such approval and shall take all reasonable lawful action to solicit such approval by its stockholders and shall not (x) withdraw, modify or qualify in any manner adverse to FCBI such recommendation or (y) take such other action or make any other public statement in connection with the CCFC Meeting inconsistent with such recommendation (collectively, a Change in Recommendation), except as and to the extent permitted by Section 6.02(b). Notwithstanding any Change in Recommendation, this Agreement shall be submitted to the stockholders of CCFC at the CCFC Meeting for the purpose of approving the Agreement and any other matters required to be approved by CCFC's stockholders for consummation of the Transaction. In addition to the foregoing, CCFC shall not submit to the vote of its stockholders any Acquisition Proposal other than the Merger.

(b) Notwithstanding the foregoing, CCFC and the CCFC Board shall be permitted to effect a Change in Recommendation if and only to the extent that:

(i) CCFC shall have complied in all material respects with Section 6.08;

(ii) the CCFC Board, based on advice of its outside counsel, shall have determined in good faith that failure to do so would be reasonably expected to result in a violation of its fiduciary duties under applicable law; and

(iii) if the CCFC Board intends to effect a Change in Recommendation following an Acquisition Proposal, (A) the CCFC Board shall have concluded in good faith, after giving effect to all of the adjustments which may be offered by FCBI pursuant to clause (C) below, that such Acquisition Proposal constitutes a Superior Proposal, (B) CCFC shall notify FCBI at least five Business Days in advance of its intention to effect a Change in Recommendation in response to such Superior Proposal (including the identity of the party making such Acquisition Proposal) and furnish to FCBI a detailed summary of all material terms of such Superior Proposal and all other material documents, and (C) prior to effecting such a Change in Recommendation, CCFC shall, and shall cause its financial and legal advisors to, during the period following CCFC's delivery of the notice referred to in clause (B) above, negotiate with FCBI in good faith for a period of up to five Business Days (to the extent FCBI desires to negotiate) to make such adjustments in the terms and conditions of this Agreement so that such Acquisition Proposal ceases to constitute a Superior Proposal.

6.03 Registration Statement.

(a) FCBI agrees to prepare a registration statement on Form S-4 or other applicable form (the Registration Statement) to be filed by FCBI with the SEC in connection with the issuance of FCBI Common Stock in the Merger (including the proxy statement and prospectus and other proxy solicitation materials of CCFC and FCBI constituting a part thereof (the Proxy Statement) and all related documents). CCFC shall prepare and furnish such information relating to it and its directors, officers and stockholders as may be reasonably required in connection with the above referenced documents based on its knowledge of and access to the information required for said documents, and CCFC, and its legal, financial and accounting advisors, shall have the right to review, comment upon and consult with FCBI and its counsel in advance such Registration Statement, and all supplements and amendments thereto, prior to its or their filing. CCFC agrees to cooperate with FCBI and FCBI's counsel and accountants in requesting and obtaining appropriate opinions, consents and letters from its financial advisor and independent auditor in connection with the Registration

Provided that CCFC has cooperated as described above, FCBI agrees to file, or cause to be filed, the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement with the SEC as promptly as reasonably practicable. Each of CCFC and FCBI agrees to use its reasonable best efforts to cause the Registration Statement to be declared effective under the Securities Act as promptly as reasonably practicable after the filing thereof. FCBI also agrees to use its reasonable best efforts to obtain all necessary state securities law or Blue Sky permits and approvals required to carry out the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. After the Registration Statement is declared effective under the Securities Act, CCFC shall promptly mail at its expense the Proxy Statement to its stockholders.

(b) Each of CCFC and FCBI agrees that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (i) the Registration Statement shall, at the time the Registration Statement and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading and (ii) the Proxy Statement and any amendment or supplement thereto shall, at the date(s) of mailing to CCFC's stockholders and at the time of the CCFC Meeting, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements therein not misleading. Each of CCFC and FCBI further agrees that if such party shall become aware prior to the Effective Date of any information furnished by such party that would cause any of the statements in the Registration Statement or the Proxy Statement to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or to omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements therein not false or misleading, to promptly inform the other parties thereof and to take the necessary steps to correct the Registration Statement or the Proxy Statement.

(c) FCBI agrees to advise CCFC, promptly after FCBI receives notice thereof, of the time when the Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment has been filed, of the issuance of any stop order or the suspension of the qualification of FCBI Common Stock for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, of the initiation or, to the extent FCBI is aware thereof, threat of any proceeding for any such purpose, or of any request by the SEC for the amendment or supplement of the Registration Statement or for additional information.

6.04 Regulatory Filings.

(a) Each of FCBI and CCFC and their respective Subsidiaries shall cooperate and use their respective reasonable best efforts to prepare all documentation, to effect all filings and to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Authorities necessary to consummate the Transaction; and any initial filings with Governmental Authorities shall be made by FCBI as soon as reasonably practicable after the execution hereof. Each of FCBI and CCFC shall have the right to review in advance, and to the extent practicable each shall consult with the other, in each case subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, with respect to all written information submitted to any third party or any Governmental Authority in connection with the Transaction. In exercising the foregoing right, each of such parties agrees to act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. Each party hereto agrees that it shall consult with the other parties hereto with respect to the obtaining of all permits, consents, approvals, waivers and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Authorities necessary or advisable to consummate the Transaction, and each party shall keep the other parties apprised of the status of material matters relating to completion of the Transaction.

(b) Each party agrees, upon request, to furnish the other parties with all information concerning itself, its Subsidiaries, directors, officers and stockholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with any filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of such other parties or any of their Subsidiaries to any third party or Governmental Authority.

6.05 Press Releases. CCFC and FCBI shall consult with each other before issuing any press release with respect to the Transaction or this Agreement and shall not issue any such press release or make any such public statements without the prior consent of the other party, which shall not be unreasonably withheld; provided, however, that a party may, without the prior consent of the other party (but after such consultation, to the extent practicable under the circumstances), issue such press release or make such public statements as may upon the 6.06 Access: Information.

(a) CCFC agrees that upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable laws relating to the exchange of information, it shall afford FCBI and FCBI's officers, employees, counsel, accountants and other authorized representatives such access during normal business hours throughout the period prior to the Effective Time to the books, records (including, without limitation, Tax Returns and work papers of independent auditors (which CCFC shall use its reasonable best efforts to obtain from its independent auditors)), systems, properties, personnel and advisors of CCFC and to such other information relating to CCFC as FCBI may reasonably request and, during such period, it shall furnish promptly to FCBI (i) a copy of each report, schedule, registration statement and other document filed or received during such period pursuant to the requirements of federal or state securities laws and federal or state banking, lending, consumer finance or privacy laws and (ii) all other information concerning the business, properties and personnel of CCFC as FCBI may reasonably request.

(b) During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, CCFC shall, upon the request of FCBI, cause one or more of its designated representatives to confer on a monthly or more frequent basis with representatives of FCBI regarding its financial condition, operations and business and matters relating to the completion of the Transaction. As soon as reasonably available, but in no event more than 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter ending after the date of this Agreement (other than the last quarter of each fiscal year ending December 31), CCFC will deliver to FCBI its consolidated statements of financial condition and consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income, statements of stockholders' equity and cash flows, without related notes, for such quarter prepared in accordance with GAAP and, as soon as reasonably available, but in no event more than 60 days after the end of each fiscal year, CCFC will deliver to FCBI its consolidated statements of financial condition and consolidated statements of operations and comprehensive income, statements of stockholders' equity and cash flows for such year prepared in accordance with GAAP. (c) All information furnished pursuant to this Section 6.06 shall be subject to the provisions of the Confidentiality Agreement, dated as of April 25, 2008 between FCBI and Howe Barnes Hoefler & Arnett, Inc., on behalf of CCFC (the Confidentiality Agreement).

(d) No investigation by any of the parties or their respective representatives shall affect the representations, warranties, covenants or agreements of the other parties set forth herein.

(e) CCFC shall allow a representative of FCBI to attend as an observer all CCFC Board and CCFC Board committee meetings as well as all Board of Directors and Board of Director committee meetings for each Subsidiary of CCFC (including, without limitation, loan committee meetings), except that no FCBI representative will be entitled to attend any meeting in which the CCFC Board considers the Merger, an Acquisition Proposal or a Change in Recommendation. CCFC shall also provide to FCBI all written agendas and meeting or written consent materials provided to the directors of CCFC and each CCFC Subsidiary in connection with Board and committee meetings. All information obtained by FCBI at these meetings shall be treated in confidence as provided in this Section 6.06.

Table of Contents6.08 Acquisition Proposals.

(a) CCFC agrees that it shall, and shall direct and use its reasonable best efforts to cause its affiliates, directors, officers, employees, agents and representatives (including, without limitation, any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other representative retained by it) (all of the foregoing, collectively, Representatives) to, immediately cease any discussions or negotiations with any other parties that may be ongoing with respect to the possibility or consideration of any Acquisition Proposal (as defined below), and will use its reasonable best efforts to enforce any confidentiality or similar agreement relating to any Acquisition Proposal, including by requesting the other party to promptly return or destroy any confidential information previously furnished by or on behalf of CCFC thereunder and by specifically enforcing the terms thereof in a court of competent jurisdiction. From the date of this Agreement through the Effective Time, CCFC shall not, and shall cause its directors, officers or employees (and those of any CCFC Subsidiary) or any Representative retained by it (or any Subsidiary) not to, directly or indirectly through another Person, (i) solicit, initiate or encourage (including by way of furnishing information or assistance), or take any other action designed to facilitate or that is likely to result in, any inquiries or the making of any proposal or offer that constitutes, or is reasonably likely to lead to, any Acquisition Proposal, (ii) provide any confidential information or data to any Person relating to any Acquisition Proposal, (iii) participate in any discussions or negotiations regarding any Acquisition Proposal, (iv) waive, terminate, modify or fail to enforce any provision of any contractual standstill or similar obligations of any Person other than FCBI or its affiliates, (v) approve or recommend, propose to approve or recommend, or execute or enter into, any letter of intent, agreement in principle, merger agreement, asset purchase agreement or share exchange agreement, option agreement or other similar agreement related to any Acquisition Proposal or propose to do any of the foregoing, or (vi) make or authorize any statement, recommendation or solicitation in support of any Acquisition Proposal; provided, however, that prior to the date of the CCFC Meeting, if the CCFC Board determines in good faith, after consulting with its outside legal and financial advisors, that the failure to do so would breach, or would reasonably be expected to result in a breach of, the CCFC Board's fiduciary duties under applicable law, CCFC may, in response to a bona fide, written Acquisition Proposal not solicited in violation of this Section 6.08(a)(i) that the CCFC Board determines in good faith constitutes a Superior Proposal (as defined below), subject to providing 48 hour prior written notice of its decision to take such action to FCBI and identifying the Person making the proposal and all the material terms and conditions of such proposal and compliance with Section 6.08(b), (1) furnish information with respect to itself and its Subsidiaries to any Person making such a Superior Proposal pursuant to a customary confidentiality agreement (as determined by CCFC after consultation with its outside counsel) on terms no more favorable to such Person than the terms contained in the Confidentiality Agreement are to FCBI, and (2) participate in discussions or negotiations regarding such a Superior Proposal. For purposes of this Agreement, the term Acquisition Proposal means any inquiry, proposal or offer, filing of any regulatory application or notice (whether in draft or final form) or disclosure of an intention to do any of the foregoing from any Person relating to any (w) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of a business that constitutes 10% or more of the total revenues, net income, assets or deposits of CCFC and its Subsidiaries taken as a whole, (x) direct or indirect acquisition or purchase of any class of Equity Securities representing 10% or more of the voting power of CCFC or any of its Subsidiaries, (y) tender offer or exchange offer that if consummated would result in any person beneficially owning 10% or more of any class of Equity Securities of CCFC or (z) merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction involving CCFC or any of its Subsidiaries, other than the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, the term Superior Proposal means any bona fide written proposal made by a third party to acquire, directly or indirectly, including pursuant to a tender offer, exchange offer, merger, consolidation, business combination, recapitalization, liquidation, dissolution or similar transaction, for consideration consisting of cash and/or securities, more than 50% of the combined voting power of the shares of CCFC Common Stock then outstanding or all or substantially all of CCFC's consolidated assets, which the CCFC Board determines in good faith, after taking into account all legal, financial, regulatory and other aspects of the proposal and the Person making the proposal (including any break-up fees, expense reimbursement provisions and conditions to consummation), and after taking into account the advice of CCFC's financial advisor (which shall be a nationally recognized investment banking firm and which is agreed to include

Howe Barnes Hoefler & Arnett, Inc.) and outside counsel, (i) is more favorable from a financial point of view to its stockholders than the Merger, (ii) is reasonably likely to be consummated on the terms set forth, and (iii) for which financing, to the extent required, is then committed or which, in the good faith judgment of the CCFC Board, is reasonably likely to be obtained by such third party.

(b) In addition to the obligations of CCFC set forth in Section 6.08(a), CCFC shall promptly (within 48 hours) advise FCBI orally and in writing of its receipt of any Acquisition Proposal (or any inquiry which could reasonably lead to an Acquisition Proposal) and keep FCBI informed, on a current basis, of the continuing status thereof, including the terms and conditions thereof and any changes thereto, and shall contemporaneously provide to FCBI all materials provided to or made available to any third party pursuant to this Section 6.08 which were not previously provided to FCBI.

(c) CCFC agrees that any violation of the restrictions set forth in this Section 6.08 by any Representative of CCFC or its Subsidiaries shall be deemed a breach of this Section 6.08 by CCFC.

6.09 Certain Policies. Prior to the Effective Date, each of CCFC and its Subsidiaries shall, consistent with GAAP and applicable banking laws and regulations, modify or change its Loan, OREO, accrual, reserve, Tax, litigation and real estate valuation policies and practices (including loan classifications and levels of reserves) so as to be applied on a basis that is consistent with that of FCBI; provided, however, that no such modifications or changes need be made prior to the satisfaction of the conditions set forth in Section 7.01(b); and further provided that in any event, no accrual or reserve made by CCFC or any of its Subsidiaries pursuant to this Section 6.09 shall constitute or be deemed to be a breach, violation of or failure to satisfy any representation, warranty, covenant, agreement, condition or other provision of this Agreement or otherwise be considered in determining whether any such breach, violation or failure to satisfy shall have occurred. The recording of any such adjustments shall not be deemed to imply any misstatement of previously furnished financial statements or information and shall not be construed as concurrence of CCFC or its management with any such adjustments.

6.10 Nasdaq Listing. FCBI agrees to use its reasonable best efforts to list, prior to the Effective Date, on the Nasdaq the shares of FCBI Common Stock to be issued in connection with the Merger.

6.11 Indemnification.

(a) From and after the Effective Time through the sixth anniversary of the Effective Time, FCBI (the Indemnifying Party) shall indemnify and hold harmless each present and former director, officer and employee of CCFC or a CCFC Subsidiary, as applicable, determined as of the Effective Time (the Indemnified Parties) against any costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of matters existing or occurring at or prior to the Effective Time, whether asserted or claimed prior to, at or after the Effective Time, arising in whole or in part out of or pertaining to the fact that he or she was a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of CCFC or any CCFC Subsidiary or is or was serving at the request of CCFC or any CCFC Subsidiary as a director, officer, employee, fiduciary or agent of another corporation, partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, including without limitation matters related to the negotiation, execution and performance of this Agreement or consummation of the Transaction, to the fullest extent which such Indemnified Parties would be entitled under the CCFC Articles and the CCFC Bylaws or equivalent documents of any CCFC Subsidiary, as applicable, or any agreement, arrangement or understanding which is set forth in Section 6.11(a) of CCFC s Disclosure Schedule, in each case as in effect on the date hereof.

(b) Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under this Section 6.11, upon learning of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, shall promptly notify the Indemnifying Party, but the failure to so notify shall not relieve the Indemnifying Party of any liability it may have to such Indemnified Party if such failure does not actually prejudice the Indemnifying Party. In the event of any such claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation

(whether arising before or after the Effective Time), (i) the Indemnifying Party shall have the right to assume the defense thereof and the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable to such Indemnified Parties for any legal expenses of other counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Parties in connection with the defense thereof, except that if the Indemnifying Party elects not to assume such defense or counsel for the Indemnified Parties advises that there are issues which raise conflicts of interest between the Indemnifying Party and the Indemnified Parties that make joint representation inappropriate, the Indemnified Parties may retain counsel which is reasonably satisfactory to the Indemnifying

Party, and the Indemnifying Party shall pay, promptly as statements therefore are received, the reasonable fees and expenses of such counsel for the Indemnified Parties (which may not exceed one firm in any jurisdiction unless the Indemnified Parties have conflicts of interest), (ii) the Indemnified Parties will cooperate in the defense of any such matter, (iii) the Indemnifying Party shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent and (iv) the Indemnifying Party shall have no obligation hereunder in the event that a federal or state banking agency or a court of competent jurisdiction shall determine that indemnification of an Indemnified Party in the manner contemplated hereby is prohibited by applicable laws and regulations.

(c) FCBI shall maintain CCFC's existing directors' and officers' liability insurance policy (or provide a policy providing comparable coverage and amounts on terms no less favorable to the persons currently covered by CCFC's existing policy, including FCBI's existing policy if it meets the foregoing standard) covering persons who are currently covered by such insurance for a period of five (5) years after the Effective Time; provided, however, that in no event shall FCBI be obligated to expend, in order to maintain or provide insurance coverage pursuant to this Section 6.11(c), an aggregate amount in excess of 150% of the premium paid by CCFC as of the date hereof for such insurance (Maximum Insurance Amount); provided further, that if the amount of the annual premiums necessary to maintain or procure such insurance coverage exceeds the Maximum Insurance Amount, FCBI shall obtain the most advantageous coverage obtainable for an annual premium equal to the Maximum Insurance Amount.

(d) If FCBI or any of its successors or assigns shall consolidate with or merge into any other entity and shall not be the continuing or surviving entity of such consolidation or merger or shall transfer all or substantially all of its assets to any other entity, then and in each case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of FCBI shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.11.

6.12 Benefit Plans.

(a) As soon as administratively practicable after the Effective Time, FCBI shall take all reasonable action so that employees of CCFC and its Subsidiaries shall be entitled to participate in each employee benefit plan, program or arrangement of FCBI of general applicability (the FCBI Benefit Plans) to the same extent as similarly-situated employees of FCBI and its Subsidiaries (it being understood that inclusion of the employees of CCFC and its Subsidiaries in the FCBI Benefit Plans may occur at different times with respect to different plans), provided that coverage shall be continued under the corresponding Benefit Plans of CCFC and its Subsidiaries until such employees are permitted to participate in the FCBI Benefit Plans and provided further, however, that nothing contained herein shall require FCBI or any of its Subsidiaries to make any grants to any former employee of CCFC or its Subsidiaries under any discretionary equity compensation plan of FCBI. FCBI shall cause each FCBI Benefit Plan in which employees of CCFC and its Subsidiaries are eligible to participate to recognize, for purposes of determining eligibility to participate in, the vesting of benefits and for all other purposes (but not for accrual of pension benefits) under the FCBI Benefit Plans, the service of such employees with CCFC and its Subsidiaries to the same extent as such service was credited for such purpose by CCFC or its Subsidiaries, provided, however, that such service shall not be recognized to the extent that such recognition would result in a duplication of benefits. Nothing herein shall limit the ability of FCBI to amend or terminate any of CCFC's Benefit Plans in accordance with their terms at any time.

(b) Subject to Sections 6.12(f), (g) and (i), at and following the Effective Time, FCBI shall honor, and the Surviving Corporation shall continue to be obligated to perform, in accordance with their terms, all benefit obligations to, and contractual rights of, current and former employees of CCFC and its Subsidiaries and current and former directors of CCFC and its Subsidiaries existing as of the Effective Date, as well as all employment, severance, bonus, salary continuation, deferred compensation, split dollar, supplemental retirement or change-in-control agreements, plans or policies of CCFC and its Subsidiaries to the extent that each of the foregoing are Previously Disclosed. The severance or termination payments which are payable pursuant to such agreements, plans or policies of CCFC or its Subsidiaries (which have been quantified in reasonable detail) are set forth in Section 6.12(b) of CCFC's Disclosure Schedule.

(c) At such time as employees of CCFC or its Subsidiaries become eligible to participate in a medical, dental or health plan of FCBI or its Subsidiaries, FCBI shall cause each such plan to (i) waive any preexisting condition limitations to the extent such conditions covered under the applicable medical, health or dental plans of FCBI, (ii) provide full credit under such plans for any deductibles, co-payment and out-of-pocket expenses incurred by the employees and their beneficiaries during the portion of the calendar year prior to such participation and (iii) waive any waiting period limitation or evidence of insurability requirement which would otherwise be applicable to such employee on or after the Effective Time to the extent such employee had satisfied any similar limitation or requirement under an analogous Plan prior to the Effective Time.

(d) Each of CCFC, its Subsidiaries, and FCBI acknowledges and agrees that all provisions contained within this Section 6.12 with respect to employees are included for the sole benefit of CCFC and FCBI and shall not create any right (i) in any other Person, including, Benefit Plans or any beneficiary thereof or (ii) to continued employment with CCFC, its Subsidiaries, FCBI, its Subsidiaries or any of their respective affiliates.

(e) The CCFC Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP) shall be terminated as of the Effective Time. The Merger Consideration received by the ESOP trustees with respect to the unallocated shares of CCFC Common Stock held by the ESOP shall be first applied by the ESOP trustees to the full repayment of the ESOP loan. The shares of FCBI Common Stock and the remaining cash received by the ESOP shall be allocated to the ESOP participants in accordance with the terms of the ESOP and applicable laws and regulations as soon as practicable after the Effective Time. In connection with the termination of the ESOP, CCFC shall promptly apply to the IRS for a favorable determination letter on the tax-qualified status of the ESOP on terminations and any amendments made to the ESOP in connection with its termination or otherwise, if such amendments have not previously received a favorable determination letter from the IRS with respect to their qualification under Code Section 401(a). Any amendments to the ESOP requested by the IRS prior to the Effective Time shall be adopted by CCFC and any amendments requested by the IRS after the Effective Time shall be promptly adopted by FCBI. Any and all distributions from the ESOP after its termination shall be made consistent with the aforementioned determination letter from the IRS. CCFC shall not make any further contributions to the ESOP or permit the ESOP to make any allocations to the ESOP participants other than in connection with the termination of the ESOP or as may be required by applicable law or regulation.

(f) Effective as of the Effective Time, (i) FC Bank shall have entered into consulting agreements with each of George W. Brawley, Jr. and Billy R. Williams, the forms of which are attached as Annexes D and F, respectively, hereto, and (ii) Mooresville Savings shall have entered into an employment agreement with Dale W. Brawley, the form of which is attached as Annex E hereto.

(g) Effective as of the Effective Time, FC Bank shall enter into a one-year consulting agreement with each non-employee director of CCFC and Mooresville Savings, the form of which is attached as Annex G hereto.

(h) An employee of CCFC or its Subsidiaries (other than an employee who is a party to an employment agreement or a severance agreement) whose employment is involuntarily terminated other than for cause following the Effective Time but on or before the date which is six months from the Effective Time, shall be entitled to receive severance payments pursuant to CCFC's severance plan which is set forth in Section 6.12(h) of CCFC's Disclosure Schedule.

(i) Simultaneously with the execution of this Agreement, FCBI, Mooresville Savings and each of George W. Brawley, Jr., Dale W. Brawley and Billy R. Williams shall execute and deliver a Settlement Agreement in the forms of Annexes H, I and J, respectively, pursuant to which Messrs. George Brawley, Dale Brawley and Williams agree to terminate their existing employment agreements with Mooresville Savings on the terms set forth therein and, in the case of Dale Brawley, amend Plans IV and V of his Retirement Payment Agreement.

6.13 Notification of Certain Matters. Each of CCFC and FCBI shall give prompt notice to the other of any fact, event or circumstance known to it that (i) is reasonably likely, individually or taken together with all other facts, events and circumstances known to it, to result in any Material Adverse Effect with respect to it or (ii) would cause or constitute a material breach of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained herein.

6.14 Antitakeover Statutes. Each of FCBI and CCFC and their respective Boards of Directors shall, if any state antitakeover statute or similar statute becomes applicable to this Agreement and the Transaction, take all action reasonably necessary to ensure that the Transaction may be consummated as promptly as practicable on the terms contemplated hereby and otherwise to minimize the effect of such statute or regulation on this Agreement and the Transaction.

The respective obligation of each of the parties hereto to consummate the Merger is subject to the fulfillment or, to the extent permitted by applicable law, written waiver by the parties hereto prior to the Effective Date of each of the following conditions:

- (a) Stockholder Approval. This Agreement shall have been duly approved by the requisite vote of the holders of outstanding shares of CCFC Common Stock.
- (b) Regulatory Approvals. All regulatory approvals required to consummate the Transaction shall have been obtained and shall remain in full force and effect and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof shall have expired and no such approvals shall contain any conditions, restrictions or requirements which the FCBI Board reasonably determines in good faith would, individually or in the aggregate, materially reduce the benefits of the Transaction to such a degree that FCBI would not have entered into this Agreement had such conditions, restrictions or requirements been known at the date hereof.
- (c) No Injunction. No Governmental Authority of competent jurisdiction shall have enacted, issued, promulgated, enforced or entered any statute, rule, regulation, judgment, decree, injunction or other order (whether temporary, preliminary or permanent) which is in effect and prohibits consummation of the Transaction.

In rendering any such opinion, such counsel may require and rely upon representations and covenants, including those contained in certificates of officers of FCBI, CCFC and others, reasonably satisfactory in form and substance to such counsel.
- (g) Consulting Agreements. FC Bank shall have entered into a consulting agreement with each of George W. Brawley, Jr. and Billy R. Williams, the forms of which are attached hereto as Annexes D and F, respectively. Provided that FC Bank executes such consulting agreements, the failure of Mr. George Brawley or Mr. Williams, as applicable, to execute his respective agreement shall not constitute a failure of this condition for CCFC.
- (h) Consulting Agreement. FC Bank shall have entered into a consulting agreement with each of the non-employee directors of CCFC and Mooresville Savings, the form of which is attached hereto as Annex G. Provided that FC Bank executes such consulting agreements, the failure of any non-employee director to execute his respective agreement shall not constitute a failure of this condition for CCFC.

ARTICLE VIII

TERMINATION

8.01 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated, and the Transaction may be abandoned, at any time prior to the Effective Time:

(a) Mutual Consent. By the mutual consent in writing of FCBI and CCFC.

(b) Breach. Provided that the terminating party is not then in material breach of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained herein, by FCBI or CCFC, in the event of a breach by the other party of any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained herein, which breach (i) cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party or parties of such breach and (ii) would entitle the non-breaching party not to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby under Section 7.02(a) or (b) or 7.03(a) or (b), as the case may be.

(c) Delay. By FCBI or CCFC, in the event that the Merger is not consummated by February 27, 2009, except to the extent that the failure of the Merger then to be consummated by such date shall be due to (i) the failure of the party seeking to terminate pursuant to this Section 8.01(c) to perform or observe the covenants and agreements of such party set forth in this Agreement or (ii) the failure of any of the Shareholders (if CCFC is the party seeking to terminate) to perform or observe his covenants and agreements under the relevant Shareholder Agreement.

(d) No Regulatory Approval. By FCBI or CCFC in the event the approval of any Governmental Authority required for consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall have been denied by final nonappealable action of such Governmental Authority or an application therefor shall have been permanently withdrawn at the request of a Governmental Authority, provided, however, that no party shall have the right to terminate this Agreement pursuant to this Section 8.01(d) if such denial shall be due to the failure of the party seeking to terminate this Agreement to perform or observe the covenants of such party set forth herein.

(e) No CCFC Stockholder Approval. By either FCBI or CCFC, if any approval of the stockholders of CCFC contemplated by this Agreement shall not have been obtained by reason of the failure to obtain the required vote at the CCFC Meeting or at any adjournment thereof.

(f) CCFC Failure to Recommend; Etc. By FCBI if (i) CCFC shall have materially breached the provisions of Section 6.08 in any respect adverse to FCBI, (ii) the CCFC Board shall have failed to make its recommendation referred to in Section 6.02(a), withdrawn such recommendation or modified or changed such recommendation in a manner adverse in any respect to the interests of FCBI, or (iii) CCFC shall have materially breached its obligations under Section 6.02(a) by failing to call, give notice of, convene and hold the CCFC Meeting in accordance with Section 6.02(a).

(g) Certain Tender or Exchange Offers. By FCBI if a tender offer or exchange offer for 15% or more of the outstanding shares of CCFC Common Stock is commenced (other than by FCBI or a Subsidiary thereof), and the CCFC Board recommends that the stockholders of CCFC tender their shares in such tender or exchange offer or otherwise fails to recommend that such stockholders reject such tender offer or exchange offer within the ten-Business Day period specified in Rule 14e-2(a) under the Exchange Act.

(h) FCBI Optional Adjustment. By CCFC at any time during the two-day period following the Determination Date, if the Average Closing Price shall be less than $22.75; subject to the following: If CCFC elects to exercise its termination right pursuant to this Section 8.01(h), it shall give prompt written notice to FCBI; provided that such notice of election to terminate may be withdrawn at any time within the aforementioned two-day period. During the period commencing with its receipt of such notice and ending at the Effective Time, FCBI shall have the option of increasing the Exchange Ratio to equal a number equal to a quotient (rounded to the nearest one one-thousandth), the numerator of which is the product of the $22.75 and the Exchange Ratio (as then in effect) and the denominator of which is the Average Closing Price.

If FCBI makes this election, within such period, it shall give prompt written notice to CCFC of such election and the revised Exchange Ratio, whereupon no termination shall have occurred pursuant to this Section 8.01(h) and this Agreement shall remain in effect in accordance with its terms (except as the Exchange Ratio shall have been so modified), and any references in this Agreement to Exchange Ratio shall thereafter be deemed to refer to the Exchange Ratio after giving effect to any adjustment made pursuant to this Section 8.01(h).

8.02 Effect of Termination and Abandonment.

(a) In the event of termination of this Agreement and the abandonment of the Merger pursuant to this Article VIII, no party to this Agreement shall have any liability or further obligation to any other party hereunder except that (i) this Section 8.02, Section 6.06(c) and Article IX shall survive any termination of this Agreement and (ii) notwithstanding anything to the contrary, neither FCBI nor CCFC shall be relieved or released from any liabilities or damages arising out of its fraud or willful breach of any provision of this Agreement.

(b) The parties hereto agree that CCFC shall pay FCBI the sum of $1.0 million (the Termination Fee) if this Agreement is terminated as follows:

(i) if this Agreement is terminated by FCBI pursuant to Section 8.01(f) or (g), CCFC shall pay the entire Termination Fee to FCBI on the second Business Day following the termination of this Agreement; or

(ii) if this Agreement is terminated by (A) FCBI pursuant to Section 8.01(b), (B) by either FCBI or CCFC pursuant to Section 8.01(c) and at the time of such termination no vote of the CCFC stockholders contemplated by this Agreement at the CCFC Meeting shall have occurred, or (C) by either FCBI or CCFC pursuant to Section 8.01(e), and in the case of any termination pursuant to clause (A), (B) or (C), an Acquisition Proposal shall have been publicly announced or otherwise communicated or made known to the senior management of CCFC or the CCFC Board (or any Person shall have publicly announced, communicated or made known an intention, whether or not conditional, to make an Acquisition Proposal, or reiterated a previously expressed plan or intention to make an Acquisition Proposal) at any time after the date of this Agreement and prior to the taking of the vote of the stockholders of CCFC contemplated by this Agreement at the CCFC Meeting, in the case of clause (C), or the date of termination, in the case of clause (A) or (B), then (1) if within 12 months after such termination CCFC enters into an agreement with respect to a Control Transaction, then CCFC shall pay to FCBI the Termination Fee on the date of execution of such agreement and (2) if a Control Transaction is consummated otherwise than pursuant to an agreement with CCFC within 15 months after such termination, then CCFC shall pay to FCBI the Termination Fee on the date of such consummation of such Control Transaction. As used in this Section 8.02(b), a Control Transaction means (i) the acquisition by any Person whether by purchase, merger, consolidation, sale, transfer or otherwise, in one transaction or any series of transactions, of a majority of the voting power of the outstanding securities of CCFC or Mooresville Savings or a majority of the assets of CCFC or Mooresville Savings, (ii) any issuance of securities resulting in the ownership by any Person of more than 50% of the voting power of CCFC or by any Person other than CCFC or its Subsidiaries of more than 50% of the voting power of Mooresville Savings or (iii) any merger, consolidation or other business combination transaction involving CCFC or any of its Subsidiaries as a result of which the stockholders of CCFC cease to own, in the aggregate, at least 50% of the total voting power of the entity surviving or resulting from such transaction.

Any amount that becomes payable pursuant to this Section 8.02(b) shall be paid by wire transfer of immediately available funds to an account designated by FCBI.

(c) CCFC and FCBI agree that the agreement contained in paragraph (b) above is an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, that without such agreement FCBI would not have entered into this Agreement, and that such amounts do not constitute a penalty or liquidated damages in the event of a breach of this Agreement by CCFC. If CCFC fails to pay FCBI the amounts due under paragraph (b) above within the time periods specified in such paragraph (b), CCFC shall pay the costs and expenses (including reasonable legal fees and expenses) incurred by FCBI in connection with any action, including the filing of any lawsuit, taken to collect payment of such amounts, provided FCBI prevails on the merits, together with interest on the amount of any such unpaid amounts at the prime lending rate prevailing during such period as published in The Wall Street Journal, calculated on a daily basis from the date such amounts were required to be paid until the date of actual payment.

Except for the Indemnified Parties' right to enforce FCBI's obligation under Section 6.11, which are expressly intended to be for the irrevocable benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives, nothing in this Agreement, expressed or implied, is intended to confer upon any Person, other than the parties hereto or their respective successors, any rights, remedies, obligations or liabilities under or by reason of this Agreement.

9.08 Severability. Except to the extent that application of this Section 9.08 would have a Material Adverse Effect on CCFC or FCBI, any term or provision of this Agreement which is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability without rendering invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affecting the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable. In all such cases, the parties shall use their reasonable best efforts to substitute a valid, legal and enforceable provision which, insofar as practicable, implements the original purposes and intents of this Agreement.

It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions hereof in any court of the United States or any state having jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled at law or in equity. In the event attorneys' fees or other costs are incurred to secure performance of any of the obligations herein provided for, or to establish damages for the breach thereof, or to obtain any other appropriate relief, whether by way of prosecution or defense, the prevailing party shall be entitled to recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs incurred therein.

9.10 Interpretation. When a reference is made in this Agreement to Sections, Exhibits or Schedules, such reference shall be to a Section of, or Exhibit or Schedule to, this Agreement unless otherwise indicated. Whenever the words as of the date hereof are used in this Agreement, they shall be deemed to mean the day and year first above written.

9.11 Assignment. No party may assign either this Agreement or any of its rights, interests or obligations hereunder without the prior written approval of the other parties. Subject to the preceding sentence, this Agreement shall be binding upon and shall inure to the benefit of the parties hereto and their respective successors and permitted assigns.

9.12 Alternative Structure. Notwithstanding any provision of this Agreement to the contrary, FCBI may at any time modify the structure of the acquisition of CCFC set forth herein, provided that (i) the Merger Consideration to be paid to the holders of CCFC Common Stock is not thereby changed in kind or reduced in amount as a result of such modification, (ii) such modification will not adversely affect the tax treatment to CCFC's stockholders as a result of receiving the Merger Consideration and (iii) such modification will not materially jeopardize receipt of any required approvals of Governmental Authorities.

(a) Prohibition on Transfers of Shares; Other Actions. Shareholder hereby agrees that while this Agreement is in effect, Shareholder shall not, (i) sell, transfer, pledge, encumber (except for pledges or encumbrances existing as of the date of this Agreement), distribute by gift or donation, or otherwise dispose of any of the Shares (or any securities convertible into or exercisable or exchangeable for Shares) or any interest therein, whether by actual disposition, physical settlement or effective economic disposition through hedging transactions, derivative instruments or other means, (ii) enter into any agreement, arrangement or understanding with any Person, or take any other action, that violates or conflicts with or could reasonably be expected to violate or conflict with Shareholder s representations,

(b) Transfer of Voting Rights. Shareholder hereby agrees that Shareholder shall not deposit any Shares in a voting trust, grant any proxy or enter into any voting agreement or similar agreement or arrangement with respect to any of the Shares.

3. Representations and Warranties of Shareholder. Shareholder represents and warrants to and agrees with FCBI as follows:

(a) Capacity. Shareholder has all requisite capacity and authority to enter into and perform his, her or its obligations under this Agreement.

(b) Binding Agreement. This Agreement has been duly executed and delivered by Shareholder and constitutes the valid and legally binding obligation of Shareholder, subject to bankruptcy, insolvency, fraudulent transfer, reorganization, moratorium and similar laws of general applicability relating to or affecting creditors' rights and to general equity principles.

(c) Non-Contravention. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Shareholder does not, and the performance by Shareholder of his, her or its obligations hereunder and the consummation by Shareholder of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, violate or conflict with, or constitute a default under, any agreement, instrument, contract or other obligation or any order, arbitration award, judgment or decree to which Shareholder is a party or by which Shareholder is bound, or any statute, rule or regulation to which Shareholder is subject or, in the event that Shareholder is a corporation, partnership, trust or other entity, any charter, bylaw or other organizational document of Shareholder.

(d) Ownership. Shareholder's Shares are, and through the term of this Agreement will be, owned beneficially and of record solely by Shareholder except as otherwise disclosed on Exhibit I hereto. Shareholder has good and marketable title to the Shares, free and clear of any lien, pledge, mortgage, security interest or other encumbrance. As of the date hereof, the Shares identified on Exhibit I hereto constitute all of the shares of CCFC Common Stock owned beneficially or of record by Shareholder. Shareholder has and will have at all times during the term of this Agreement (i) sole voting power and sole power to issue instructions with respect to the matters set forth in Section 1 hereof, (ii) sole power of disposition and (iii) sole power to agree to all of the matters set forth in this Agreement, in each case with respect to all of the Shares owned by Shareholder on the date of this Agreement and all of the Shares hereafter acquired by Shareholder and owned beneficially or of record by him, her or it during the term of this Agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, the term "beneficial ownership" shall be interpreted in accordance with Rule 13d-3 under the Exchange Act, provided that a Person shall be deemed to beneficially own any securities which may be acquired by such Person pursuant to any agreement, arrangement or understanding or upon the exercise of conversion rights, exchange rights, warrants or options, or otherwise (irrespective of whether the right to acquire such securities is exercisable immediately or only after the passage of time, including the passage of time within 60 days, the satisfaction of any conditions, the occurrence of any event or any combination of the foregoing).

(e) Consents and Approvals. The execution and delivery of this Agreement by Shareholder does not, and the performance by Shareholder of his, her or its obligations under this Agreement and the consummation by him, her or it of the transactions contemplated hereby will not, require Shareholder to obtain any consent, approval, authorization or permit of, or to make any filing with or notification to, any Governmental Authority.

(f) Absence of Litigation. There is no suit, action, investigation or proceeding pending or, to the knowledge of Shareholder, threatened against or affecting Shareholder or any of his, her or its affiliates before or by any Governmental Authority that could reasonably be expected to materially impair the ability of Shareholder to perform his, her or its obligations hereunder or to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby on a timely basis.

4. No Solicitation. Shareholder hereby agrees that during the term of this Agreement he, she or it shall not, and shall not permit any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other representative retained by him, her or it to, directly or indirectly, (a) take any of the actions specified in clauses (i)-(vi) of Section 6.08 of the Merger Agreement, (b) agree to release, or release, any Person from any obligation under any existing standstill agreement or arrangement relating to CCFC, or (c) participate in, directly or indirectly, a solicitation of proxies (as such terms are used in the rules of the SEC) or powers of attorney or similar rights to vote, or seek to advise or influence any Person with respect to the voting of, any shares of CCFC Common Stock in connection with any vote or other action on any matter of a type described in Section 1(b), other than to recommend that stockholders of CCFC vote in favor of the adoption and approval of the Merger Agreement and the Merger and as otherwise expressly permitted by this Agreement. Shareholder agrees immediately to cease and cause to be terminated any activities, discussions or negotiations conducted before the date of this Agreement with any Persons other than FCBI with respect to any possible Acquisition Proposal and will take all necessary steps to inform any investment banker, financial advisor, attorney, accountant or other representative retained by him, her or it of the obligations undertaken by Shareholder pursuant to this Section 4. Nothing contained in this Section 4 shall prevent a Shareholder who is an officer or a member of the CCFC Board from discharging his or her fiduciary duties solely in his or her capacity as such an officer or director.

5. Notice of Acquisitions; Proposals Regarding Prohibited Transactions. Shareholder hereby agrees to notify FCBI promptly (and in any event within two (2) Business Days) in writing of the number of any additional shares of CCFC Common Stock or other securities of CCFC of which Shareholder acquires beneficial or record ownership on or after the date hereof. Shareholder will comply with the provisions of Section 6.08(b) of the Merger Agreement as if he, she or it were CCFC.

6. Specific Performance and Remedies. Shareholder acknowledges that it will be impossible to measure in money the damage to FCBI if Shareholder fails to comply with the obligations imposed by this Agreement and that, in the event of any such failure, FCBI will not have an adequate remedy at law. Accordingly, Shareholder agrees that injunctive relief or other equitable remedy, in addition to remedies at law or in damages, is the appropriate remedy for any such failure and will not oppose the granting of such relief on the basis that FCBI may have an adequate remedy at law. Shareholder agrees that Shareholder will not seek, and agrees to waive any requirement for, the securing or posting of a bond in connection with FCBI's seeking or obtaining such equitable relief.

7. Term of Agreement; Termination.

(a) The term of this Agreement shall commence on the date hereof.

(b) This Agreement shall terminate upon the earlier to occur of (i) the date, if any, of termination of the Merger Agreement in accordance with its terms, or (ii) the Effective Time of the Merger. Upon such termination, no party shall have any further obligations or liabilities hereunder; provided, however, such termination shall not relieve any party from liability for any willful breach of this Agreement prior to such termination.

8. Stop Transfer Order. In furtherance of this Agreement, Shareholder hereby authorizes and instructs CCFC to instruct its transfer agent to enter a stop transfer order with respect to all of Shareholder's Shares for the period from the date hereof through the date this Agreement is terminated in accordance with Section 7. CCFC agrees that as promptly as practicable after the date of this Agreement it shall give such stop transfer instructions to the transfer agent for the CCFC Common Stock.

9. Entire Agreement. This Agreement supersedes all prior agreements, written or oral, among the parties hereto with respect to the subject matter hereof and contains the entire agreement among the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. This Agreement may not be amended, supplemented or modified, and no provisions hereof may be modified or waived, except by an instrument in writing signed by each party hereto. No waiver of any provisions hereof by any party shall be deemed a waiver of any other provisions hereof by any such party, nor shall any such waiver be deemed a continuing waiver of any provision hereof by such party.

APPENDIX B

July 22, 2008

Board of Directors
Coddle Creek Financial Corp.
347 North Main Street
Mooresville, NC 28115

Members of the Board:

You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, of the shareholder consideration to be received by the holders of the outstanding shares of common stock of Coddle Creek Financial Corp. (Coddle Creek) in the merger (the Merger) with First Community Bancshares, Inc. (First Community), pursuant to the Agreement and Plan of Merger by and between Coddle Creek and First Community (the Merger Agreement).

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, each share of Coddle Creek common stock outstanding immediately prior to the effective time of the Merger will be converted into 0.9046 shares of common stock of First Community and $19.60 in cash. Options to purchase shares of Coddle Creek common stock will be canceled in exchange for a single lump sum cash payment. The terms of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Merger Agreement.

In arriving at our opinion, we have reviewed certain publicly available business, financial and stockholder information relating to First Community and its subsidiaries and to Coddle Creek and its subsidiary. In addition, we have reviewed certain financial information provided to us by both Coddle Creek and First Community pertaining to their respective business plans and projections.

In connection with the foregoing, we have:

1. Reviewed the draft Merger Agreement dated July 18, 2008;
2. Reviewed First Community's recent filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission including its proxy statement filed on March 27, 2008, annual reports on Form 10-K for the three years ended December 31, 2007, 2006 and 2005, and a quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the quarter ended March 31, 2008;
3. Reviewed First Community's earnings press release for the quarter ended June 30, 2008;
4. Reviewed current reports of First Community as filed on Form 8-K with the Securities and Exchange Commission from January 1, 2005 to the date hereof;
5. Reviewed Coddle Creek's annual reports for the three years ended December 31, 2007, 2006 and 2005;
6. Reviewed Coddle Creek's proxy statement dated March 18, 2008;
7. Reviewed certain internal financial information and financial forecasts relating to the business, earnings, cash flows, assets and prospects of the respective companies furnished to us by Coddle Creek and First Community;

8. Held discussions with members of executive and senior management of Coddle Creek and First Community, including without limitation, their respective legal advisors and others concerning the past and current results of operations of Coddle Creek and First Community, their respective current financial condition and managements opinion of their respective future prospects;
9. Reviewed the historical record of reported trading prices, trading activity and dividend payments for both Coddle Creek and First Community;

10. Compared the reported financial terms of selected recent business combinations in the banking industry; and
11. Performed such other studies and analyses as we considered appropriate under the circumstances.

For purposes of this opinion, we have assumed and relied on, without independent verification, the accuracy and completeness of the material furnished to us by Coddle Creek and First Community and the material otherwise made available to us, including information from published sources, and we have not independently verified such data. With respect to the financial information, including forecasts we received from Coddle Creek and First Community, we assumed that they had been reasonably prepared reflecting the best currently available estimates and good faith judgment of the management of Coddle Creek and First Community. In addition, we have not made or obtained any independent appraisals or valuations of the assets or liabilities, and potential and/or contingent liabilities of Coddle Creek or First Community. We have further relied on the assurances of management of Coddle Creek and First Community that they are not aware of any facts that would make such information inaccurate or misleading. We express no opinion on matters of a legal, regulatory, tax or accounting nature or the ability of the Merger, as set forth in the Merger Agreement, to be consummated. No opinion is expressed as to whether any alternative transaction might produce consideration for Coddle Creek or its stockholders in an amount in excess of that contemplated in the Merger. Coddle Creek management has informed us that no alternative transaction is, and we are not otherwise aware of any alternative transaction that is, currently being contemplated by Coddle Creek.

In rendering our opinion, we have assumed that the Merger will be consummated on the terms described in the Merger Agreement and that in the course of obtaining the necessary approvals for the Merger, no restrictions or conditions will be imposed that would have a material adverse effect on the contemplated benefits of the Merger to Coddle Creek or First Community or the ability to consummate the Merger. Our opinion is based on the market, economic and other relevant considerations as they exist and have been evaluated by us on the date hereof. This opinion was approved by the Fairness Committee of Howe Barnes.

We have acted as financial advisor to Coddle Creek in connection with the Merger and have received a fee for such services, and expect an additional fee that is contingent upon consummation of the Merger. In addition, Coddle Creek has agreed to indemnify us for certain liabilities arising out of our engagement by Coddle Creek in connection with the Merger.

This opinion may not be disclosed, communicated, reproduced, disseminated, quoted or referred to at any time (in whole or part), to any third party or in any manner or for any purpose whatsoever without our prior written consent, although this opinion may be (i) furnished to First Community for inspection purposes only, provided however, that such consent to provide First Community with a copy of this opinion is based on the condition that each of Coddle Creek and First Community have acknowledged and agreed that First Community is not authorized to and shall not rely on this opinion, and (ii) included in its entirety in the proxy statement/prospectus of Coddle Creek used to solicit stockholder approval of the Merger so long as any description of or reference to us or this opinion and the related analysis in such filing is in a form reasonably acceptable to us and our counsel. It should be understood that subsequent developments may affect this opinion and we do not have any obligation to revise or reaffirm this opinion. The opinion does not in any matter address the prices at which the capital stock of Coddle Creek or First Community or any of their respective affiliates may trade after the announcement of the Merger. It is understood that this letter is directed to the Board of Directors of Coddle Creek in its consideration of the Merger Agreement, and is not intended to be and does not constitute a recommendation to any stockholder as to how such stockholder should vote with respect to the Merger. In rendering this opinion, we express no opinion with respect to the amount or nature of any compensation to any officers, directors, or employees of Coddle Creek, or any class of such persons relative to the shareholder consideration to be received by the holders of the common stock of Coddle Creek in the transaction or with respect to the fairness of any such compensation.

During the two years preceding the date of the opinion, other than this engagement, Howe Barnes has not had a material relationship with Coddle Creek where compensation was received or that it contemplates will be received after closing of the transaction. Furthermore, Howe Barnes has not received compensation from First Community in the last two years.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, including the various assumptions and limitations set forth herein, and based on such other matters as we considered relevant, it is our opinion that as of the date hereof that the shareholder consideration is fair, from a financial point of view, to the holders of Coddle Creek common stock.

Sincerely,

Howe Barnes Hoefler & Arnett, Inc.

APPENDIX C

Chapter 55, Article 13 of the North Carolina General Statutes

Dissenters Rights.

Part 1. Right to Dissent and Obtain Payment for Shares.

§ 55-13-01. Definitions.

In this Article:

- (1) Corporation means the issuer of the shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action, or the surviving or acquiring corporation by merger or share exchange of that issuer.
- (2) Dissenter means a shareholder who is entitled to dissent from corporate action under G.S. 55-13-02 and who exercises that right when and in the manner required by G.S. 55-13-20 through 55-13-28.
- (3) Fair value, with respect to a dissenter's shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion would be inequitable.
- (4) Interest means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment, at a rate that is fair and equitable under all the circumstances, giving due consideration to the rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans, if any, but not less than the rate provided in G.S. 24-1.
- (5) Record shareholder means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.
- (6) Beneficial shareholder means the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder.
- (7) Shareholder means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder.

§ 55-13-02. Right to dissent.

- (a) In addition to any rights granted under Article 9, a shareholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of his shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:
 - (1) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation (other than a parent corporation in a merger whose shares are not affected under G.S. 55-11-04) is a party unless (i) approval by the shareholders of that corporation is not required under G.S. 55-11-03(g) or (ii) such shares are then redeemable by the corporation at a price not greater than the cash to be received in exchange for such shares;
 - (2) Consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired, unless such shares are then redeemable by the corporation at a price not greater than the cash to be received in exchange for such shares;

(2a) Consummation of a plan of conversion pursuant to Part 2 of Article 11A of this Chapter;

(3) Consummation of a sale or exchange of all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation other than as permitted by G.S. 55-12-01, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed in cash to the shareholders within one year after the date of sale;

(4) An amendment of the articles of incorporation that materially and adversely affects rights in respect of a dissenter's shares because it (i) alters or abolishes a preferential right of the shares; (ii) creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of redemption, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase, of the shares; (iii) alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares or other securities; (iv) excludes or limits the right of the shares to vote on any matter, or to cumulate votes, other than an amendment of the articles of incorporation permitting action without meeting to be taken by less than all shareholders entitled to vote, without advance notice, or both, as provided in G.S. 55-7-04; (v) reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the fractional share so created is to be acquired for cash under G.S. 55-6-04; or (vi) changes the corporation into a nonprofit corporation or cooperative organization; or

(5) Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.

(b) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for his shares under this Article may not challenge the corporate action creating his entitlement, including without limitation a merger solely or partly in exchange for cash or other property, unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.

(c) Notwithstanding any other provision of this Article, there shall be no right of shareholders to dissent from, or obtain payment of the fair value of the shares in the event of, the corporate actions set forth in subdivisions (1), (2), or (3) of subsection (a) of this section if the affected shares are any class or series which, at the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of and to vote at the meeting at which the plan of merger or share exchange or the sale or exchange of property is to be acted on, were (i) listed on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., or (ii) held by at least 2,000 record shareholders. This subsection does not apply in cases in which either:

(1) The articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors of the corporation issuing the shares provide otherwise; or

(2) In the case of a plan of merger or share exchange, the holders of the class or series are required under the plan of merger or share exchange to accept for the shares anything except:

a. Cash;

b. Shares, or shares and cash in lieu of fractional shares of the surviving or acquiring corporation, or of any other corporation which, at the record date fixed to determine the shareholders entitled to receive notice of and vote at the meeting at which the plan of merger or share exchange is to be acted on, were either listed subject to notice of issuance on a national securities exchange or designated as a national market system security on an interdealer quotation system by the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc., or held by at least 2,000 record shareholders; or

c. A combination of cash and shares as set forth in sub-subdivisions a. and b. of this subdivision.

§ 55-13-03. Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners.

(a) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all the shares registered in his name only if he dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf he asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares as to which he dissents and his other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(b) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on his behalf only if:

(1) He submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights; and

(2) He does so with respect to all shares of which he is the beneficial shareholder.

(1) Must give to the corporation, and the corporation must actually receive, before the vote is taken written notice of his intent to demand payment for his shares if the proposed action is effectuated; and

(2) Must not vote his shares in favor of the proposed action.

(b) A shareholder who does not satisfy the requirements of subsection (a) is not entitled to payment for his shares under this Article.

(a) If proposed corporate action creating dissenters rights under G.S. 55-13-02 is approved at a shareholders meeting, the corporation shall mail by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, a written dissenters notice to all shareholders who satisfied the requirements of G.S. 55-13-21.

(b) The dissenters notice must be sent no later than 10 days after shareholder approval, or if no shareholder approval is required, after the approval of the board of directors, of the corporate action creating dissenters rights under G.S. 55-13-02, and must:

(2) Inform holders of uncertificated shares to what extent transfer of the shares will be restricted after the payment demand is received;

- (3) Supply a form for demanding payment;
- (4) Set a date by which the corporation must receive the payment demand, which date may not be fewer than 30 nor more than 60 days after the date the subsection (a) notice is mailed; and
- (5) Be accompanied by a copy of this Article.

§ 55-13-23. Duty to demand payment.

- (a) A shareholder sent a dissenters notice described in G.S. 55-13-22 must demand payment and deposit his share certificates in accordance with the terms of the notice.

§ 55-13-24. Share restrictions.

(a) The corporation may restrict the transfer of uncertificated shares from the date the demand for their payment is received until the proposed corporate action is taken or the restrictions released under G.S. 55-13-26.

(b) The person for whom dissenters' rights are asserted as to uncertificated shares retains all other rights of a shareholder until these rights are cancelled or modified by the taking of the proposed corporate action.

§ 55-13-25. Payment.

(a) As soon as the proposed corporate action is taken, or within 30 days after receipt of a payment demand, the corporation shall pay each dissenter who complied with G.S. 55-13-23 the amount the corporation estimates to be the fair value of his shares, plus interest accrued to the date of payment.

(b) The payment shall be accompanied by:

(1) The corporation's most recent available balance sheet as of the end of a fiscal year ending not more than 16 months before the date of payment, an income statement for that year, a statement of cash flows for that year, and the latest available interim financial statements, if any;

(2) An explanation of how the corporation estimated the fair value of the shares;

(3) An explanation of how the interest was calculated;

(4) A statement of the dissenter's right to demand payment under G.S. 55-13-28; and

(5) A copy of this Article.

§ 55-13-26. Failure to take action.

(a) If the corporation does not take the proposed action within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment and depositing share certificates, the corporation shall return the deposited certificates and release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares.

(b) If after returning deposited certificates and releasing transfer restrictions, the corporation takes the proposed action, it must send a new dissenters' notice under G.S. 55-13-22 and repeat the payment demand procedure.

§ 55-13-27. Reserved for future codification purposes.

§ 55-13-28. Procedure if shareholder dissatisfied with corporation's payment or failure to perform.

(a) A dissenter may notify the corporation in writing of his own estimate of the fair value of his shares and amount of interest due, and demand payment of the amount in excess of the payment by the corporation under G.S. 55-13-25 for the fair value of his shares and interest due, if:

(1) The dissenter believes that the amount paid under G.S. 55-13-25 is less than the fair value of his shares or that the interest due is incorrectly calculated;

(2) The corporation fails to make payment under G.S. 55-13-25; or

(3) The corporation, having failed to take the proposed action, does not return the deposited certificates or release the transfer restrictions imposed on uncertificated shares within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment.

(b) A dissenter waives his right to demand payment under this section unless he notifies the corporation of his demand in writing (i) under subdivision (a)(1) within 30 days after the corporation made payment for his shares or (ii) under subdivisions (a)(2) and (a)(3) within 30 days after the corporation has failed to perform timely. A dissenter who fails to notify the corporation of his demand under subsection (a) within such 30-day period shall be deemed to have withdrawn his dissent and demand for payment.

Part 3. Judicial Appraisal of Shares.

§ 55-13-30. Court action.

(a) If a demand for payment under G.S. 55-13-28 remains unsettled, the dissenter may commence a proceeding within 60 days after the earlier of (i) the date payment is made under G.S. 55-13-25, or (ii) the date of the dissenter's payment demand under G.S. 55-13-28 by filing a complaint with the Superior Court Division of the General Court of Justice to determine the fair value of the shares and accrued interest. A dissenter who takes no action within the 60-day period shall be deemed to have withdrawn his dissent and demand for payment.

(a1) Repealed by Session Laws 1997-202, s. 4.

(b) Reserved for future codification purposes.

(c) The court shall have the discretion to make all dissenters (whether or not residents of this State) whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares and all parties must be served with a copy of the complaint. Nonresidents may be served by registered or certified mail or by publication as provided by law.

(d) The jurisdiction of the superior court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (a) is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The parties are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings. The proceeding shall be tried as in other civil actions. However, in a proceeding by a dissenter in a corporation that was a public corporation immediately prior to consummation of the corporate action giving rise to the right of dissent under G.S. 55-13-02, there is no right to a trial by jury.

(e) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment for the amount, if any, by which the court finds the fair value of his shares, plus interest, exceeds the amount paid by the corporation.

§ 55-13-31. Court costs and counsel fees.

(a) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under G.S. 55-13-30 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including the reasonable compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court, and shall assess the costs as it finds equitable.

(b) The court may also assess the fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(1) Against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of G.S. 55-13-20 through 55-13-28; or

(2) Against either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of either or any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this Article.

(c) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to these counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenters who were benefited.
