Item 8.01 Other Events

On May 20, 2013, Ashland Inc. (the “Company”) entered into an accelerated share repurchase agreement (the “ASR Agreement”) with Citibank, N.A. (“Citibank”) to repurchase the Company’s common stock as part of the Company’s existing $600 million share repurchase program.

Under the ASR Agreement, the Company will pay an initial purchase price of $150 million to Citibank, and will receive an initial delivery of approximately 1.3 million shares of its common stock based on current market prices. The actual number of shares of its common stock that the Company will repurchase under the ASR Agreement will be determined based on the arithmetic average of the Rule 10b-18 volume weighted average prices of its common stock, less a specified discount, over the pricing period. The pricing period is expected to be for one to three months. If the actual number of shares to be repurchased under the ASR Agreement exceeds the number of shares initially delivered to the Company, then the Company will receive from Citibank a number of additional shares equal to the amount of such excess following conclusion of the pricing period. If the number of shares initially delivered to the Company exceeds the actual number of shares to be repurchased under the ASR Agreement, then the Company will, at its option, (1) pay to Citibank an amount in cash equal to the value of such shares, as determined over a valuation period following the conclusion of the pricing period, (2) deliver a number of shares equal to the amount of such excess and provide for registered resale of such shares by Citibank or (3) deliver a number of shares with a value equal to such cash amount under customary private placement procedures.

The ASR Agreement contains customary terms for agreements of its type, including adjustments to the terms of the ASR Agreement upon the occurrence of certain events involving the Company or its common stock and setting forth certain circumstances under which the pricing period may be extended or the ASR Agreement may be unwound early.

From time to time, Citibank and its affiliates have directly and indirectly engaged, and may engage in the future, in investment and/or commercial banking transactions with the Company for which they have received, or may receive, customary compensation, fees and expense reimbursement.

On May 20, 2013, the Company issued a news release announcing the entry into the ASR Agreement, a copy of which is included with this Current Report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1.
