State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

Although management of Superior Industries International, Inc. (the “Company”) has been working diligently to complete all of the required information for its quarterly report on Form 10-Q for the fiscal quarter ended June 27, 2010 (the “Form 10-Q”), the Company is unable, without unreasonable effort or expense, to complete the financial statements and related disclosures to be included in the Form 10-Q on or before August 6, 2010 due to unanticipated delays experienced in the preparation of the Form 10-Q. These delays were primarily a result of performing a financial statement quarter close for the first time using the Company’s recently implemented Enterprise Resource Planning (ERP) system as well as the result of recently implemented changes to the legal structure associated with the Company’s operations in Mexico.

The Company expects that it will be able to complete the work described above in time for the Company to file its Form 10-Q for the three and six months ended June 27, 2010 within the five-day extension provided by Rule 12b-25.

If answer is no, identify report(s). Yes No

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?
 Yes No

Net sales are expected to increase for the quarter and half year ended June 27, 2010 when compared to the comparable periods in the prior year, primarily as a result of an increase in unit shipments caused by increased demand.

It is expected that gross margin will increase for the quarter and half year ended June 27, 2010 when compared to the comparable periods in the prior year, primarily due to higher plant utilization rates due to the increase in demand and the absence of certain severance and plant shut-down costs in the current year.

Selling, general and administrative expenses are expected to be slightly higher for the quarter and half year ended June 27, 2010 when compared to the comparable periods in the prior year. This increase is primarily as a result of the increase in expenses related to our ERP implementation, legal and consulting fees associated with implementing certain tax strategies and increase in certain compensation expense related accruals.

During the quarter and half year ended June 28, 2009, we recorded $2.9 million and $11.8 million of long-lived asset impairment charges. During the quarter and half year ended June 27, 2010, there were no impairments of our long-lived assets.

The Company is not able to able to provide definitive estimates of the changes in net sales, net income, gross margin or operating expenses until the Company completes its preparation and review of the financial statements and related disclosures that need to be included in the Form 10-Q.
