Part III - Narrative

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, N-SAR or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On February 7, 2007, the registrant appointed Moss Adams, LLP as the new audit firm for the year ended December 31, 2006. The former firm (Epstein, Weber & Conover, PLC) merged into Moss Adams and the partners of Epstein Weber Conover, PLC became partners of Moss Adams, LLP. Partly due to transition matters associated with that change, the audit report has not been issued as of April 2, 2007.

If the answer is no, identify reports(s).

(3) Is it anticipated that any significant change in results of operations from the corresponding period for the last fiscal year will be reflected by the earnings statements to be included in the subject report or portion thereof?

[X]Yes []No

Prior to the recognition of a deferred income tax benefit of $7,355,800 and a current income tax benefit of $100,000, the registrant recorded a net loss of $3,782,900 for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006 as compared to net income before income taxes of $4,641,400 during the year ended December 31, 2005. After the recognition of tax benefits, net income for the twelve months ended December 31, 2006 was $3,850,900 or $0.22 per diluted share as compared to earnings of $4,541,400 or $0.26 per diluted share for the year ended December 31, 2005. The major reason for the change in earnings was a reduction of $2,021,900 in the gain on sale of investments in the form of marketable securities of Enterra Energy Trust. Additionally the Company recorded litigation settlement expense with Phelps Dodge relating to the Lucky Jack molybdenum property in the amount of $3,500,000 during the year ended December 31, 2006. These reductions in net income were partially offset by a gain on the sale of the Company's equity position in U.S. Energy Corp. of $2,023,800. Lastly due to management's belief that the sale of its interest in uranium properties to sxr Uranium One is more than likely to occur, the Company recognized a benefit from income taxes of $7,633,800 pursuant to SFAS 109.

Crested Corp. has caused this notification to be signed on its behalf by the undersigned thereunto duly authorized.
