NEW VISUAL ENTERTAINMENT, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
(A DEVELOPMENT-STAGE COMPANY COMMENCING NOVEMBER 1, 1999)
NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS
(UNAUDITED)

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying financial statements are unaudited. These statements have been prepared in accordance with the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC"). Certain information and footnote disclosures normally included in the financial statements prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles have been condensed or omitted pursuant to such rules and regulations. In the opinion of management, the financial statements reflect all adjustments (which include only normal recurring adjustments) necessary to state fairly the Company's financial position and results of operations as of and for the periods indicated. These financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's financial statements and notes thereto for the year ended October 31, 2000, included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-KSB as filed with the SEC.

PRINCIPLES OF CONSOLIDATION

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of New Visual Entertainment, Inc. ("NVE") and its operating subsidiaries, NV Entertainment, Inc. ("NV"), Impact Multimedia, Inc. ("IP") and New Wheel Technology, Inc. ("New Wheel") (collectively, the "Company"). All significant intercompany balances and transactions have been eliminated.

DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

The Company (previously known as Bellwether Investment Inc.) was incorporated under the laws of the State of Utah on December 5, 1985.

Edgar Filing: NEW VISUAL ENTERTAINMENT INC - Form 10-Q

In November of 1999, the Company began to focus its business activities on the development of new content telecommunications technologies. Pursuant to such plan, the Company acquired New Wheel Technology, Inc., a development stage, California-based, technology company, in February of 2000 (Note 2). As a result of the change in business focus, the Company has become a development stage entity commencing November 1, 1999. The Company also produces and distributes 2-D and 3-D filmed entertainment.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

Financial instruments, which potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risks, are principally trade accounts receivable. The Company maintains an allowance for uncollectible accounts receivable and, generally, does not require collateral. At April 30, 2001 and October 31, 2000, no allowance for uncollectible accounts was deemed necessary by management.

NEW VISUAL ENTERTAINMENT, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES
(A DEVELOPMENT-STAGE COMPANY COMMENCING NOVEMBER 1, 1999)

NOTE 1 - SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES (CONTINUED)

CASH AND CASH EQUIVALENTS

The Company considers all short-term highly liquid investments with a maturity of three months or less when purchased to be cash or cash equivalents.

PROPERTY AND EQUIPMENT

Property and equipment are stated at cost. Depreciation is computed on a straight-line method over the estimated useful lives of the assets, which generally range from five to seven years. Maintenance and repair expenses are charged to operations as incurred.

FILM AND VIDEO LIBRARY AND PROJECTS UNDER DEVELOPMENT

Film and video library and projects under development are stated at the lower of amortized cost or market. Upon completion, costs are amortized on an individual production basis in the proportion that current gross revenues bear to management's estimate of total gross revenues with such estimates being reviewed at least quarterly. In prior years, several projects under development were determined to have no estimated realizable value and were accordingly written-off. Project costs written-off during the six months ended April 30, 2000 and 2001 were $10,884 and $-0-, respectively. For the six months ended April 30, 2000 and 2001, amortization expense related to the film and video library was $35,696 and $-0-, respectively.

INCOME TAXES

Income taxes are accounted for in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards No. 109, "Accounting for Income Taxes"

Edgar Filing: NEW VISUAL ENTERTAINMENT INC - Form 10-Q

(SFAS No. 109). SFAS No. 109 employs an asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under the asset and liability method, deferred income taxes are recognized for tax consequences of temporary differences by applying enacted statutory tax rates applicable to future years to differences between the financial statement carrying amounts and the tax bases of existing assets and liabilities. Under SFAS No. 109, the effect on deferred income taxes of a change in tax rates is recognized income in the period that includes the enactment date.

ACCOUNTING ESTIMATES

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities, disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

FAIR VALUE OF FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The financial statements include various estimated fair value information at April 30, 2001, as required by Statement of Financial Accounting Standards 107, "Disclosures about Fair Value of Financial Instruments". Such information, which pertains to the Company's financial instruments, is based on the requirements set forth in that Statement and does not purport to represent the aggregate net fair value to the Company.

The following methods and assumptions were used to estimate the fair value of each class of financial instruments for which it is practicable to estimate that value:

Cash and Cash Equivalents: The carrying amount approximates fair value because of the short-term maturity of those instruments.

Receivables and Payables: The carrying amounts approximate fair value because of the short maturity of those instruments.

All of the Company's financial instruments are held for purposes other than trading.

REVENUE RECOGNITION

Substantially all revenues are derived from the production of multimedia content, videos and commercial films. Revenue is recognized over the shorter of the license term or the expected revenue term.

ADVERTISING

Advertising costs are charged to operations when incurred. Advertising expense for the six months ended April 30, 2000 and 2001 was $5,504 and $247, respectively.

LOSS PER SHARE

Basic earnings per share ("Basic EPS") is computed by dividing net income available to common stockholders by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the period. Diluted earnings per share ("Diluted EPS") gives effect to all dilutive potential common shares outstanding during a period. In computing diluted EPS, the treasury stock method is used in determining the number of shares assumed to be purchased from the conversion of common stock equivalents.

REVERSE STOCK SPLITS

On October 18, 1995, the Company approved a one-for-two reverse split of its issued and outstanding common stock. On June 22, 2000, the Company effected a one-for-four reverse split of its issued and outstanding common stock. The accompanying consolidated financial statements, notes and other references to share and per share data have been retroactively restated to reflect the reverse stock splits for all periods presented.

STOCK-BASED COMPENSATION

As permitted by SFAS No. 123, "Accounting for Stock-Based Compensation", the Company accounts for its stock-based compensation arrangements pursuant to APB Opinion No. 25, "Accounting for Stock Issued to Employees". In accordance with the provisions of SFAS No. 123, the Company discloses the pro forma effects of accounting for these arrangements using the Black Scholes option-pricing model to determine fair value.

IMPAIRMENT OF LONG-LIVED ASSETS

The Company reviews long-lived assets and certain identifiable

SEGMENT REPORTING

Effective January 1, 1998, the Company adopted the provisions of SFAS No. 131, "Disclosures About Segments of an Enterprise and Related Information". SFAS No. 131 establishes standards for the way public enterprises report information about operating segments in annual financial statements and requires those enterprises to report selected information about operating segments in interim financial reports issued to stockholders. Adoption of SFAS No. 131 did not have a material effect on the Company's financial position or results of operations.

IMPACT OF RECENTLY ISSUED ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

In June 1998, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standard No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities" (FAS 133), which establishes accounting and reporting standards for derivative instruments and hedging activities. It requires that an entity recognize all derivatives as either assets or liabilities in the balance sheet and measure those instruments at fair value. In June 1999, the FASB issued SFAS No. 137, Accounting for Derivative Instruments -- Deferral of the Effective Date of SFAS Statement No.133 and in June 2000, the FASB issued SFAS 138, Accounting for Certain Derivative Instruments -- an amendment of SFAS 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities. As a result of SFAS No. 137, SFAS No. 133 and SFAS No. 138 will be effective for all fiscal quarters of all fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2000. The Company's adoption of the above Financial Accounting Standards had no material impact on the Company's financial statements for the six months ended April 30, 2001.

In June 2000, the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants issued Statement of Position 00-2, Accounting by Producers or Distributors of Films (SOP 00-2), which established new accounting standards for producers and distributors of film and supersedes Statement of Financial Accounting Standards ("SFAS" No. 53, "Financial Reporting by Producers and Distributors of Motion Picture Films". SOP 00-2 changes the accounting standards for costs to produce and distribute film and television properties. The Company expects to adopt the new standard effective November 1, 2001, and is evaluating the effect that such adoption may have on its consolidated results of operations and financial position.

Edgar Filing: NEW VISUAL ENTERTAINMENT INC - Form 10-Q

In June 2000, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued SFAS No. 139 which rescinds SFAS No. 53 and requires public companies to follow the guidance provided by SOP 00-2.

IMPACT OF RECENTLY ISSUED ACCOUNTING STANDARDS (CONTINUED)

In March 2000, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued FASB Interpretation No. 44 (FIN 44), Accounting for Certain Transactions Involving Stock Compensation -- an interpretation of APB Opinion No.25. FIN 44 clarifies the application of Opinion 25 for (a) the definition of employee for purposes of applying Opinion 25, (b) the criteria for determining whether a plan qualifies as a noncompensatory plan, (c) the accounting consequence of various modifications to the terms of a previously fixed stock option or award, and (d) the accounting for an exchange of stock compensation awards in a business combination. The Company adopted FIN 44 effective July 1, 2000. The adoption of the provisions of FIN 44 did not have a material effect on the financial position or results of operations of the Company.

COMPREHENSIVE INCOME

The Company has no material components of other comprehensive income and, accordingly, net loss approximates comprehensive loss for all periods presented.

NOTE 2 - ACQUISITIONS

IMPACT PICTURES, INC.

In January 2000, the Company completed the acquisition of 100% of the common stock of Impact Pictures, Inc. ("Impact"), a small development-stage San Diego-based multi-media production firm, for 12,500 shares of the Company's common stock, valued at $50,000. The Company has accounted for this acquisition under the purchase method of accounting. As of the acquisition date, Impact had no tangible assets and its intangible assets were in the development stage. Accordingly, the $50,000 was charged to operations, under the caption "Acquired in-process research and development expenses", during the six months ended April 30, 2000.

Historical and proforma information have not been provided because the operations of the acquired business were not material.

NEW WHEEL TECHNOLOGY, INC.

In February 2000, the Company completed the acquisition of New Wheel Technology, Inc. ("New Wheel"), a development-stage California-based, technology company, for 500,000 restricted shares of New Visual common stock. New Wheel was merged with the Company's Astounding Acquisition Corp. subsidiary, which changed its name to New Wheel Technology, Inc. An additional 2,500,000 restricted shares of common stock were issued and placed with an escrow agent to be released to the New Wheel stockholders upon the achievement by New Wheel of a technological development milestone. Also, additional compensation would be paid to the New Wheel stockholders if New Wheel's high speed digital transmission technology generates revenues for the Company in excess of $1 billion, or if there is a sale of assets or stock, or a merger of New Visual or any of its affiliates, in which the New Wheel technology comprises at least 15% of the consideration. As of April 30, 2000, the Company recorded the issuance of the full 3,000,000 shares, which were valued at $6,000,000. The Company has accounted for this acquisition under the purchase method of accounting. As of the acquisition date, New Wheel had no tangible assets and its intangible assets were in the development stage. Accordingly, the $6,000,000 was charged to operations under the caption "Acquired in-process research and development expenses", during the six months ended April 30, 2000.

PREFERRED STOCK AND RIGHTS DIVIDEND (CONTINUED)

The Company adopted a shareholder rights plan, in which one right was distributed on August 21, 2000 as a dividend on each outstanding share of common stock to shareholders of record on that date. Each right will entitle the shareholders to purchase 1/1000th of a share of a new series of junior participating preferred stock of the Company at an exercise price of $200 per right. The rights will be exercisable only if another person acquires or announces its intention to acquire beneficial ownership of 20% or more of the Company's common stock. After any such acquisition or announcement, the Company's shareholders, other than the acquirer, could then exercise each right they hold to purchase the Company's common stock at a 50% discount from the market price. In addition, if, after another person becomes an acquiring person, the Company is involved in a merger or other business combination in which it is not the surviving corporation, each right will entitle its holder to purchase a number of shares of common stock of the acquiring company having a market value equal to twice the exercise price of the right. Prior to the acquisition by a person or group of beneficial ownership of 20% or more of the Company's common stock, at the option of the Board of Directors, the rights are redeemable for $0.001 per right. The rights will expire on August 21, 2004.

On July 27, 2000, the Company created a series of preferred stock, par value $0.01 per share, designated as "Series A Junior Participating Preferred Stock". The number of shares constituting the Series A Junior Participating Preferred Stock is 200,000, initially reserved for issuance upon exercise of the rights discussed in Note 6. Subject to the rights of the holders of any shares of any series of preferred stock ranking prior and superior to the Series A Preferred Stock with respect to dividends, the holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock, in preference to the holders of common stock, shall be entitled to receive, when, as and if declared by the Board of Directors, quarterly dividends payable in cash on the last day of each quarter in each year, commencing on the first quarterly dividend payment date after the first issuance of a share or fraction of a share of Series A Preferred Stock, in an amount per share equal to the greater of $1.00 or 1,000 times the aggregate per share amount of all cash and non-cash dividends or other distributions, other than a dividend payable in shares of common stock. Each share of Series A Preferred Stock shall entitle the holder to 1,000 votes. Upon any liquidation, no distribution shall be made to the holders of shares of stock ranking junior to the Series A Preferred Stock, unless the holders of shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall have received $1,000 per share, plus an amount equal to accrued and unpaid dividends and distributions thereon. The shares of Series A Preferred Stock shall not be redeemable.

STOCK OPTION PLANS

- 2000 Omnibus Securities Plan:

During April 2000, the Board of Directors adopted, and subsequently on May 31, 2000, the shareholders of the Company approved, the 2000 Omnibus Securities Plan. The 2000 Omnibus Securities Plan authorizes the granting of stock options and restricted stock awards. The 2000 Omnibus Securities Plan may be administered by the Board of Directors or a committee appointed by the Board. A total of 2,500,000 shares of common stock are reserved for issuance under the 2000 Omnibus Securities Plan. Options granted under the option plan may be either (i) options intended to constitute incentive stock options under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any corresponding provisions of succeeding law (the "Code"), or (ii) non-qualified stock options.

Edgar Filing: NEW VISUAL ENTERTAINMENT INC - Form 10-Q

The exercise price for each stock option is determined by the Board. Incentive stock options must have an exercise price of at least 100% (or at least 110% in the case of incentive stock options granted to certain employees owning more than 10% of the outstanding voting stock) of the fair market value of the common stock on the date the stock option is granted. Under the 2000 Omnibus Securities Plan, fair market value of the common stock for a particular date will generally be the closing sale price for the stock if the common stock is listed on an established stock exchange. If the common stock is not listed on an established stock exchange on a particular date, the fair market value of the common stock will be the average of the closing bid and asked prices per share for the stock as quoted by The NASDAQ SmallCap market or on the OTC Bulletin Board of the National Association of Securities Dealers or in the NQB Pink Sheets published by the National Quotation Bureau Incorporated.

No stock option may be exercised after the expiration of ten years from the date of grant (or five years in the case of incentive stock options granted to certain employees owning more than 10% of the outstanding voting stock). Pursuant to the 2000 Omnibus Securities Plan, the aggregate fair market value of the common stock for which one or more incentive stock options granted to any participant may, for the first time, become exercisable as incentive stock options under the federal tax laws during any one calendar year shall not exceed $100,000.

As of April 30, 2001, the company granted Non-Qualified Stock options under this plan to purchase a total of 516,000 common shares at exercise prices ranging from $3.92 to $4.00 per share. The options are exercisable over a ten-year period.

STOCK OPTIONS

- Options Outside of the Plan:

As of October 31, 2000, the Company granted options outside the Plan to purchase a total of 1,563,750 common shares at exercise prices ranging from $1.00 to $5.50 per share.

On November 13, 2000, the Company granted to a consultant options to acquire 100,000 shares of its common stock. The exercise price for the options is $4.00 per share. All options became vested immediately and expire on November 13, 2010. In addition, the consultant is additionally compensated for each day of service up to $1,300 per day. The consulting agreement may be terminated at any time by either party upon thirty days' written notice to the other party.

Since the exercise price of the options was not less than the fair

NOTE 7 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES

ASTOUNDING.COM, INC.

In September 1999, the Company entered into a merger agreement with Astounding.com, Inc. The merger agreement provided for the Company to issue 10,000,000 (pre-June 22, 2000 reverse split) shares of its common stock for all of the outstanding shares of Astounding. The closing of the merger was subject to various conditions including the receipt of a debt or equity financing of at least $1,000,000 and requisite shareholders approval.

During the three months ended January 31, 2000, the Company terminated its previously announced merger with Astounding.com, Inc. because certain conditions had not been satisfied.

NOTE 7 - COMMITMENTS AND CONTINGENCIES (CONTINUED)

The Company, on March 22, 2000, filed a lawsuit in the State District Court in Dallas, Texas against Astounding.com, Inc. and Jack Robinson. The Company's complaint alleged that, among other things, Astounding.com, Inc. and Robinson breached certain contractual obligations to New Visual and engaged in negligent and/or fraudulent misrepresentation to induce New Visual to enter into the merger agreement. New Visual sought a court order confirming that the merger agreement was null and void, and an award of unspecified damages, court costs and attorneys fees. Robinson and Astounding.com filed a counterclaim against New Visual alleging breach of contract and unjust enrichment and seeking unspecified damages, court costs and attorney fees. This litigation was settled in February 2001.

Pursuant to the settlement agreement, the Company issued to Jack D. Robinson and his attorneys 250,000 restricted shares of its common stock, valued at $1,000,000. The Company in return received all the issued and outstanding common stock of Astounding.com, Inc. The Company also agreed to file a registration statement for all these 250,000 shares of its common stock by March 31, 2001 and to cause the registration statement to become effective and the shares to become freely tradable no later than June 29, 2001. This settlement was recorded during the three months ended January 31, 2001.

As of February 16, 2001, Astounding.com, Inc. had no liabilities and was engaged in no business activities.

INTELECON SERVICES, INC.

On March 31, 2000, the Company signed a definitive merger agreement to

The Company advanced to Intelecon monies to purchase certain equipment on behalf of the Company. Intelecon did not purchase the equipment and, therefore, breached its contract and was unjustly enriched. The Company brought a claim against Intelecon for $105,000, which is included in other assets at April 30, 2001.

During April 2001, the Company reached a settlement with Intelecon for $117,000, payable in the amount of $15,000 per month, until $117,000 has been paid in full.

CONSULTING AGREEMENTS

In June 2000, the Company entered into a marketing and public relations agreement to publicize the Company to brokers, prospective investors, institutional investors, analysts and others, for a term of six months. In consideration of the above services, the Company has paid the consultant $50,000. In addition, the consultant was issued 50,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The consultant was also issued a warrant entitling it to purchase, in the aggregate, up to 200,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The warrant is divided into four tranches of fifty thousand (50,000) shares each, with each tranche to have the following exercise prices: Tranche 1 - $7.00 per share; Tranche 2 - $8.50 per share; Tranche 3 - $10.00 per share; and Tranche 4 - $11.50 per share. The consultant and the Company shall enter into a registration rights agreement with respect to the registration of the above common stock and Warrant Shares. The consultant has not exercised any of these warrants as of April 30, 2001.

The warrants were assigned a value of $762,000, which was all charged to operations during the year ended October 31, 2000.

In March 2001, the Company entered into a consulting agreement with a company for developing a new corporate positioning strategy and identifying an enhanced brand platform. The Company agreed to pay $10,000 prior to the consulting company commencing work, $7,500 upon delivery of the first stage and $7,500 upon fulfillment of the contract.

During March 2001, the Company entered into a consulting agreement with a company to provide financial advice and to arrange for equity investments or other funding. The Company will pay for such services by providing the consultant with fees equal to (i) 5% of the gross amount of any cash financing obtained for the Company, payable in cash; (ii) a number of shares of stock equal to 10% of the stock issued in connection with any financing obtained for the Company; and (iii) a number of warrants equal to 10% of the warrants issued in connection with any financing obtained for the Company. The term of this agreement is six months.

In April 2001, the Company entered into a consulting agreement with a company for a comprehensive level of international communications services. The Company agreed to pay minimums of $15,000 per month plus related hard costs for services and expenses.

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENTS

On February 11, 2000, the Company entered into an employment agreement with its current Chief Executive Officer. The agreement, effective April 1, 2000, is a three-year employment contract that provides for base compensation in the first contract year of $250,000; in the second contract year, base compensation of $300,000; and in the third year and during any renewal term, base compensation of $350,000. The employee is also entitled to an annual bonus based upon his performance which will be at the sole discretion of the Board of Directors. The annual bonus to the CEO shall be payable in cash or in an amount of shares of the Company's common stock that equals the amount of the bonus based upon the market price of the employer's common stock on the date that the bonus is paid.

In connection with its New Wheel acquisition, in February 2000, the Company entered into two employment agreements for executive services. The agreements provide for the Company to pay base salaries of $208,000 each per annum and a bonus of $12,500 each upon the execution of the agreement. The agreements were to expire in September 2000, but have been extended through February 2001.

On June 20, 2000, the Company entered into a three-year employment agreement with its Executive Vice President commencing July 1, 2000, whereby the Executive Vice President shall receive a base salary of $15,000 per year and options to purchase 210,000 shares of common stock at $4.40 per share. Of these stock options, 35,000 vested on July 1, 2000, and the balance vests straight-line on the last day of each quarter beginning September 30, 2000 and ending December 31, 2002, or 17,500 per quarter. The options expire on July 1, 2005.

JOINT VENTURE PRODUCTION AGREEMENT

In April 2000, the Company entered into a joint venture production agreement to produce a feature length film for theatrical distribution.

Edgar Filing: NEW VISUAL ENTERTAINMENT INC - Form 10-Q

The Company will provide the funding for the production in the amount of $2,250,000 and, in exchange, will receive 50% share in all net profits from worldwide distribution and merchandising, after receiving funds equal to its initial investment of up to $2,250,000. The film is to be completed and ready for a Summer 2002 release. The Company has agreed to deposit into a separate account, on a monthly basis, funds to assure a minimum balance of $200,000 at the beginning of each month, until the total of $2,250,000 has been deposited into the account. As of April 30, 2001, the Company has funded approximately $1,030,000 of production and other costs, which was included in projects under development in the accompanying consolidated balance sheet.

LEASES

On January 3, 2000, the Company entered into an operating lease for office space in San Diego, California. The lease commenced on February 1, 2000 and expires in January 2005. The lease provides for a minimum annual rental of approximately $54,000, with a 3% annual increase each year, starting on February 1, 2001 and each year thereafter.

On February 16, 2000, the Company entered into an operating lease for office space in Livermore, California. The lease commenced on March 1, 2000 and expires on February 28, 2002. The lease provides for a minimum annual rental of approximately $25,700 for the first year and $26,800 the following year. This lease was terminated during May 2001 (Note 9).

Rent expense for the six months ended April 30, 2000 and 2001 was $17,788 and $48,250, respectively.

ROYALTY PAYMENTS

The Company's projects under development stipulate royalty payments which are based on percentages of revenue.

CONCENTRATION OF CREDIT RISK

Financial instruments which potentially subject the Company to concentrations of credit risk are primarily cash and cash equivalents. At April 30, 2001, the Company had a bank balance in excess of federally insured limits by approximately $12,583.

NOTE 8 - BUSINESS RISKS AND SEGMENT INFORMATION

The Company operates in two business segments, the production of motion pictures, films and videos (entertainment segment) and development of new content telecommunications technologies (telecommunication segment). The success of the Company's entertainment business is dependent on future revenues from the Company's current joint venture production agreement to produce a feature-length film for theatrical distribution.

NOTE 8 - BUSINESS RISKS AND SEGMENT INFORMATION (CONTINUED)

The success of the Company's telecommunication segment is dependent upon the successful completion of development and testing of its New Wheel technology. No assurances can be given that the Company can complete development of such technology, or that with respect to such technology that is fully developed, it can be commercialized on a large scale basis or at a feasible cost. Even though subsequently the Company has received independent third party verification that this technology does work, there is no assurance can be given that such technology will receive market acceptance.

Until the commencement of sales from either segment, the Company will have no operating revenues, but will continue to incur substantial operating revenues, capitalized costs and operating losses.

The Company funded its operations during the six months ended April 30, 2001 through sales of its common stock, resulting in net proceeds to the Company of $2,314,679. Sales of common stock during the six months ended April 30, 2001 were sold in private transactions in reliance on various exemptions from the registration requirements of the Securities Act. The Company is exploring other financing alternatives, including private placements and public offerings.

Under an agreement which was concluded in November of 2000, the Company has obtained an equity line of credit of up to $5 million to fund its telecommunication segment. The equity line has various limits on amounts of drawdowns and, under certain circumstances, the purchaser may not be obligated to purchase stock offered for sale by the Company (Note 6).

Summarized financial information concerning the Company's reportable segments is shown in the following table:

For the Six Months Ended April 30, 2001:

NOTE 9 - SUBSEQUENT EVENTS

COMMON STOCK

In May 2001, the original investors that were parties to the Company's November 17, 2000 private placement (Note 6) assigned their rights and obligations to two institutional investors. In May 2001, the Company issued 256,770 shares of common stock to the investors for proceeds of $660,000.

In June 2001, the Company issued 63,011 shares of common stock to the investors for $123,000.

CONSULTING AGREEMENT

In May 2001, the Company entered into a one-year consulting agreement with a company for providing consulting and advisory services in connection with strategic business planning and related matters. The Company agreed to grant warrants to purchase 500,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $2.50 per share; 250,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $5.00 per share, and 250,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price at $10.00 per share. The exercise period is five years. The fair value of stock warrants are estimated on the date of grant using the Black-Sholes option-pricing model range from $0.32 to $1.32.

LEASES

On May 4, 2001, the Company terminated an operating lease for office space in Livermore, California, which commenced on March 1, 2000. Meanwhile, the Company entered into an operating lease for office space in Pleasanton, California. The lease commenced on June 1, 2001 and expires on May 31, 2004. The lease provides for a minimum annual rental at approximately $120,000 for the first year and $156,000 the following year.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS

OF OPERATIONS

The following is a discussion and analysis of our results of operations and should be read in conjunction with the financial statements and related notes contained in this Form 10-Q.

RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

For the Six Months Ended April 30, 2001 vs. the Six Months Ended April 30, 2000

-----

REVENUES. Revenues for the six months ended April 30, 2001 were $-0-. Revenues for the six months ended April 30, 2000 were $6,800.

OPERATING EXPENSES. Operating expenses include amortization of project costs, writedown of project costs, depreciation of property and equipment, compensatory element of stock issuances, acquired in-process research and development expenses, research and development expenses, and selling, general and administrative costs. Total operating expenses decreased to $1,869,000 for the six months ended April 30, 2001, from $8,836,000 for the six months ended April 30, 2000. The decrease was principally related to $1,814,779 in compensatory element of stock issuances and a $6,050,000 charge to earnings for acquired in-process research and development costs for the six months ended April 30, 2000. An increase of $280,000 in selling, general and administrative expense was due to an increase in our corporate infrastructure, which includes two separate office spaces.

The acquired in-process research and development costs in 2000 were associated with the acquisitions of New Wheel Technology ($6,000,000) and Impact Pictures ($50,000).

OTHER EXPENSES. Other expenses included amortization of unearned financing fees, interest expense and settlement of litigation. Total other expenses increased from $-0- for the six months ended April 30, 2000 to $1,518,430 for the six months ended April 30, 2001. The increase was principally related to $500,000 in amortization of unearned financing fees and $1,000,000 of settlement of litigation. We issued 250,000 shares of common stock valued at $1,000,000 for the February 16, 2001 settlement reached with Astounding.com, Inc. and Jack Robinson in connection with certain disputes arising from a non-consummated merger between us and Astounding.com, Inc.

For the Three Months Ended April 30, 2001 vs. the Three Months Ended April 30, 2000

-----

REVENUES. Revenues for the three months ended April 30, 2001 were $-0-. Revenues for the three months ended April 30, 2000 were $6,800.

OPERATING EXPENSES. Operating expenses include amortization of project costs, depreciation of property and equipment, compensatory element of stock issuances, acquired in-process research and development expenses, and selling, general and administrative costs. Total operating expenses decreased from $8,546,141 for the three months ended April 30, 2000 to $1,231,679 for the three months ended April 30, 2001. The decrease was principally related to $1,814,729 in compensatory element of stock issuances and a $6,000,000 charge to earnings for acquired in-process research and development costs during the second quarter of 2000.

The acquired in-process research and development costs were associated with the acquisition of New Wheel Technology.

OTHER EXPENSES. Other expenses included amortization of unearned financing fees and interest expense. Total other expenses increased from $-0- for the three months ended April 30, 2000 to $260,986 for the three months ended April 30, 2001 due primarily to $250,000 in amortization of unearned financing costs.

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Operations have been financed through private sales of common stock and loans, resulting in net proceeds of approximately $2,315,000 and $1,530,000 for the six months ended April 30, 2001 and April 30, 2000, respectively. In addition, during the six months ended April 30, 2000, a portion of expenses were paid by the issuance of stock.

In April 2000, we entered into a joint venture production agreement to produce a feature length film for theatrical distribution. Under the agreement, we will provide the funding for the production in the amount of $2,250,000 and, in exchange, we will receive a 50% share in all net profits from worldwide distribution and merchandising, after receiving funds equal to our initial investment of up to $2,250,000. The film is to be completed and ready for a Summer 2002 release. We have agreed to deposit into a separate account, on a monthly basis, funds to assure a minimum balance of $200,000 at the beginning of each month, until the total of $2,250,000 has been deposited into the account. As of April 30, 2001, we had funded approximately $1,030,000 of the production costs towards this project.

Research and development expenses related to operations of our New Wheel subsidiary totalled $662,000 and $-0- for the six months ended April 30, 2001 and the six months ended April 30, 2000, respectively.

On November 17, 2000, and as amended on January 22, 2001, we entered into a private placement agreement with various investors, to sell $5,000,000 of our common stock in several tranches at a purchase price equal to 87% of the average market price of our common stock over the five days preceding the closing of each draw down. We can sell stock to the investors in 5-day intervals not to exceed $500,000 per sale. The investor may refuse to purchase the stock in the event the average purchase price is below $2.00 per share, or if the trading volume of our common stock is below a certain number of shares within the period, or if we sell capital stock in excess of $5,000,000, exclusive of any funding for our pending motion picture project. We may not apply any portion of the draw downs towards payment of any costs related to the production of our pending motion picture project. In May 2001, the original investors assigned their rights and obligations under the agreement to two institutional investors. This agreement terminates on November 17, 2002.

In addition, the investors received warrants to purchase 4,000,000 shares of common stock to be issued in two series (Series A warrants and Series B warrants). Each Series A warrant can be exercised at a price per share equal to the lesser of $6.00 or 50% of the average of the closing sales price of our common stock over the five consecutive trading days immediately preceding the date of the exercise of the warrants. Each Series B warrant can be exercised at a price per share of $6.00. The Series B warrants have a cashless exercise provision. The warrants expire on November 17, 2003.

Edgar Filing: NEW VISUAL ENTERTAINMENT INC - Form 10-Q

Through April 30, 2001, we received proceeds under this agreement of $1,187,000 from the investors in consideration of the purchase of 317,000 shares of our common stock.

IMPACT OF RECENTLY ISSUED ACCOUNTING STANDARDS

In June 1998, the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") issued Statement of Financial Accounting Standard ("SFAS") No. 133, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities", which establishes accounting and reporting standards for derivative instruments and hedging activities. It requires that an entity recognize all derivatives as either assets or liabilities in the balance sheet and measure those instruments at fair value. In June 1999, the FASB issued SFAS No. 137, "Accounting for Derivative Instruments -- Deferral of the Effective Date of SFAS Statement No.133" and in June 2000, the FASB issued SFAS 138, "Accounting for Certain Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities". As a result of SFAS No. 137, SFAS No. 133 and SFAS No. 138 will be effective for all fiscal quarters of all fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2000. We do not expect that the adoption of this standard will have a material impact on our financial position and results of operations.

In June 2000, the FASB issued SFAS No. 138, "Accounting for Certain Derivative Instruments -- an amendment of FAS 133, Accounting for Derivative Instruments and Hedging Activities". SFAS No. 138 will be effective for all fiscal quarters of all fiscal years beginning after June 15, 2000. We do not expect that the adoption of this standard will have a material impact on our financial position and results of operations.

In June 2000, the Financial Accounting Standards Board issued SFAS No. 139, which rescinds SFAS No. 53 and requires public companies to follow the guidance provided by SOP 00-2.

34

In March 2000, the FASB issued FASB Interpretation No. 44 ("FIN 44"), "Accounting for Certain Transactions Involving Stock Compensation -- an interpretation of APB Opinion No.25". FIN 44 clarifies the application of Opinion 25 with respect to (a) the definition of employee for purposes of applying Opinion 25, (b) the criteria for determining whether a plan qualifies as a noncompensatory plan, (c) the accounting consequence of various modifications to the terms of a previously fixed stock option or award, and (d) the accounting for an exchange of stock compensation awards in a business combination. We adopted FIN 44 effective July 1, 2000. The adoption of the provisions of FIN 44 did not have a material effect on our financial position or results of operations.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

We do not engage in trading market risk sensitive instruments and do not purchase as investments, as hedges, or for purposes "other than trading," instruments that are likely to expose us to market risk, whether it be from interest rate, foreign currency exchange, commodity price or equity price risk. We have not entered into any forward or futures contracts, purchased options or entered into swaps. Accordingly, we do not believe our exposure to market risk is material.

PART II - OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

Edgar Filing: NEW VISUAL ENTERTAINMENT INC - Form 10-Q

On March 22, 2000, the Company filed a lawsuit in the State District Court in Dallas, Texas against Astounding.com, Inc. and Jack Robinson. The Company's complaint alleged that, among other things, Astounding.com and Robinson breached certain contractual obligations made to the Company and engaged in negligent and/or fraudulent misrepresentation to induce the Company to enter into a merger agreement. The Company sought a court order confirming that the merger agreement is null and void, and an award of unspecified damages, court costs and attorneys fees. Astounding.com and Robinson filed a counterclaim against the Company that alleged breach of contract and unjust enrichment, and sought unspecified damages, court costs and attorney fees.

On February 16, 2001, the Company, Astounding.com and Robinson entered into a settlement agreement (the "Agreement"), pursuant to which, among other things, (i) the parties mutually released each other from any and all claims relating to the merger agreement and the above-referenced litigation, and (ii) the Company acquired the outstanding stock of Astounding.com in exchange for 250,000 restricted shares of the Company's common stock issued to Robinson and his attorneys. The Company also agreed to file a registration statement for these shares by March 31, 2001 and to cause the registration statement to become effective by June 29, 2001.
