Global Concepts, Ltd. and Subsidiaries
 Notes to the Consolidated Condensed Interim Financial Statements

BASIS OF PRESENTATION

The accompanying unaudited condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles for interim financial information and with the instructions to Item 310 of Regulation S-B. Accordingly, they do not include all of the information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included.

Edgar Filing: GLOBAL CONCEPTS, LTD. - Form 10QSB

DISCONTINUATION OF OPERATIONS

As of June 30, 2003 the Company had discontinued all of its operations that existed prior to that date. Historical results for periods prior to June 30, 2003 have been restated, therefore, to reflect the discontinuation.

ACQUISITION OF ADVANCED MEDICAL DIAGNOSTICS, LLC

On June 1, 2004 the Company acquired the entire membership interest in Advanced Medical Diagnostics LLC ("AMD"). AMD is engaged in the business of manufacturing and distributing the "Advanced Medical Diagnostics HIV (1 & 2) Rapid Test." The membership interests in AMD were acquired by the Company in exchange for 100,000 shares of the Company's common stock. The Company also agreed to issue 500,000 shares of its common stock to the management of AMD as employment incentives.

DEPOSIT TOWARD ACQUISITION OF CLTA

In September 2004 the Company entered into an agreement to acquire sixty percent (60%) of the capital stock of Compagnie Logistique de Transports Automobiles ("CLTA"). CLTA is a French corporation located in Nugent sur Oise, France. Its principal business is warehousing automobiles for Peugeot and Citroen, then completing the final dealer preparation work before the automobiles are delivered. The Company paid a deposit of $250,000 pursuant to the agreement, which is recorded on the Company's balance sheet as "Deposit on acquisition."

The Company borrowed the funds used to pay the deposit from Kevin Waltzer, a shareholder of the Company. The terms on which the Company will repay Mr. Waltzer have not been determined.

SUBSEQUENT EVENT - ACQUISITION OF CLTA

On October 1, 2004 the Company completed its acquisition of 60% of CLTA by paying $250,000 in addition to the deposit of $250,000 previously paid. The Company also agreed to loan up to $500,000 to CLTA if requested by the Board of Directors of CLTA prior to December 31, 2004. The Company also agreed to guarantee a lease of ten trucks/trailers needed to fulfill CLTA's new contract with CAT/Peugeot.

The Company borrowed the additional $250,000 used to purchase CLTA from Kevin Waltzer, bringing to $500,000 the Company's total debt to Mr. Waltzer. The terms on which the Company will repay Mr. Waltzer have not been determined.

SUBSEQUENT EVENT - ACQUISITION OF J&J MARKETING

On October 1, 2004 the Company acquired an eighty percent (80%) ownership interest in J&J Marketing, LLC. J&J Marketing LLC is a New York limited liability company that is engaged in the business of producing and distributing non-medicated pharmaceutical personal care products under the trademark "Savage Beauty ." The Company acquired the interest in J&J Marketing in exchange for 100,000 shares of the Company's common stock.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Results of Operations

Effective as of June 30, 2003, the Company terminated the operations of Xcalibur Xpress, the only operation which had been continuing prior to that date. The Company liquidated the assets of Xcalibur Xpress and used the proceeds to reduce its debts. In its financial statements for the first nine months of 2003 the Company recorded a $357,046 "loss from discontinued operations of subsidiary."

The only revenue recorded by the Company for the first nine months of 2004 was $10,350 that it was paid for consulting services rendered. Between June 1, 2004 and October 1, 2004, however, the Company acquired three new businesses: Advanced Medical Diagnostics LLC, Compagnie Logistique de Transports Automobiles ("CLTA"), and J&J Marketing, LLC. Advanced Medical Diagnostics has not generated any revenue to date. CLTA and J&J Marketing were acquired on October 1, 2004 and, accordingly, their financial results are not reflected in the Company's financial statements for the period ended September 30, 2004. In its annual report for 2004, the Company will record revenue from the operations of J&J Marketing and CLTA.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

At September 30, 2004 the Company had no operating assets and $3,028,055 in net liabilities. The subsequent acquisitions of J&J Marketing and CLTA increased the Company's operating assets, but did not ameliorate its debt situation. The Company will be unable to satisfy its liabilities unless its creditors agree to compromise their claims. In addition, the Company has committed to provide up to $500,000 if requested by the Board of CLTA prior to December 31, 2004. Any funds provided to CLTA would have to be borrowed by the Company; but the Company does not have a firm commitment from any lender to provide the funds.

ITEM 3. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

Michael Margolies, our Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, performed an evaluation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures as of September 30, 2004. Based on his evaluation, he concluded that the controls and procedures in place are sufficient to assure that material information concerning the Company which could affect the disclosures in the Company's quarterly and annual reports is made known to him by the other officers and employees of the Company, and that the communications occur with promptness sufficient to assure the inclusion of the information in the then-current report.

There have been no significant changes in the Company's internal controls or in other factors that could significantly affect those controls subsequent to the date on which Mr. Margolies performed his evaluation.
