NOTES TO CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(UNAUDITED)

NOTE 1 - BUSINESS ACTIVITY AND SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Basis of Presentation

The unaudited consolidated financial statements included herein have been prepared pursuant to the rules and regulations of the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC) for interim reporting. Accordingly, they do not include all the information and footnotes required by accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America (GAAP) for complete financial statements. In the opinion of management, all adjustments (consisting of normal recurring accruals) considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. The quarterly operating results for Titan Machinery Inc. (the Company) are subject to fluctuation due to varying weather patterns, which may impact the timing and amount of equipment purchases, rentals, and after-sales parts and service purchases by the Company s Agriculture, Construction and International customers. Therefore, operating results for the three-month period ended April 30, 2013 are not necessarily indicative of the results that may be expected for the fiscal year ending January 31, 2014. The information contained in the balance sheet as of January 31, 2013 was derived from the audited financial statements for the Company for the year then ended. These consolidated financial statements should be read in conjunction with the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto included in the Company s Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended January 31, 2013 as filed with the SEC.

Nature of Business

The Company is engaged in the retail sale, service and rental of agricultural and construction machinery through stores in the United States and Europe. The Company s North American stores are located in Arizona, Colorado, Iowa, Minnesota, Montana, Nebraska, New Mexico, North Dakota, South Dakota, Wisconsin and Wyoming, and its European stores are located in Bulgaria, Romania, Serbia and Ukraine.

Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the consolidated financial statements and the reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates, particularly related to realization of inventory, initial valuation and impairment analyses of intangible assets, collectability of receivables, and income taxes.

Principles of Consolidation

The consolidated financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned and majority-owned subsidiaries. All significant accounts, transactions and profits between the consolidated companies have been eliminated in consolidation.

Fair Value of Financial Instruments

The carrying amount of cash, receivables, payables, short-term debt and other current liabilities approximates fair value because of the short maturity and/or frequent repricing of those instruments, which are Level 3 fair value inputs.

The Company recognized a derivative liability for outstanding foreign currency forward contracts which are recorded at fair value in an amount equal to $0.2 million and $0.1 million as of April 30, 2013 and January 31, 2013, respectively. Fair value was determined based on Level 2 inputs which include observable, market-based pricing components.

Edgar Filing: Titan Machinery Inc. - Form 10-Q

Table of Contents

The carrying value of long-term debt approximates fair value as of April 30, 2013 and January 31, 2013. Fair value was estimated based upon current borrowing rates with similar maturities, which are Level 3 fair value inputs. The fair value of senior convertible notes was approximately $144.7 million and $152.8 million as of April 30, 2013 and January 31, 2013, respectively. The face value of senior convertible notes was $150.0 million as of April 30, 2013 and January 31, 2013. The carrying value of senior convertible notes was approximately $126.4 million and $125.7 million as of April 30, 2013 and January 31, 2013, respectively. The difference between the face value and the carrying value of these notes is the result of the allocation between the debt and equity components. Fair value of the senior convertible notes was estimated based on Level 2 fair value inputs.

Earnings (Loss) Per Share (EPS)

The Company uses the two-class method to calculate basic and diluted EPS. Unvested restricted stock awards are considered participating securities because they entitle holders to non-forfeitable rights to dividends during the vesting term. Under the two-class method, basic EPS were computed by dividing net income (loss) attributable to Titan Machinery Inc. after allocation of income (loss) to participating securities by the weighted-average number of shares of common stock outstanding during the year.

Diluted EPS were computed by dividing net income (loss) attributable to Titan Machinery Inc. after allocation of income (loss) to participating securities by the weighted-average shares of common stock outstanding after adjusting for potential dilution related to the conversion of all dilutive securities into common stock. All potentially dilutive securities were included in the computation of diluted EPS. There were approximately 380,000 and 10,000 stock options outstanding as of April 30, 2013 and 2012, respectively, which were not included in the computation of diluted EPS because they were anti-dilutive. None of the approximately 3,474,000 shares underlying the Company's senior convertible notes were included in the computation of diluted EPS because the Company's average stock price was less than the conversion price of $43.17.

NOTE 4 - LINES OF CREDIT / FLOORPLAN NOTES PAYABLE*Working Capital Line of Credit*

As of April 30, 2013, the Company had a $75.0 million working capital line of credit under an amended and restated credit agreement with a group of banks led by Wells Fargo Bank, National Association (Wells Fargo). The Company had $12.0 million and $7.1 million outstanding on its working capital line of credit as of April 30, 2013 and January 31, 2013, respectively. Amounts outstanding are recorded as long-term debt, within long-term liabilities on the consolidated balance sheets, as the Company does not have the intention or obligation to repay amounts borrowed within one year.

Floorplan Lines of Credit

As of April 30, 2013, the Company had discretionary floorplan lines of credit for equipment purchases totaling approximately $975.0 million with various lending institutions, including $375.0 million under the aforementioned credit agreement with Wells Fargo, a $450.0 million credit agreement with CNH Capital America LLC (CNH Capital) and a $150.0 million credit agreement with Agricredit Acceptance LLC. Floorplan notes payable relating to these credit agreements totaled approximately $677.5 million of the total floorplan notes payable balance of $762.0 million outstanding as of April 30, 2013 and $629.8 million of the total floorplan notes payable balance of $689.4 million outstanding as of January 31, 2013. As of April 30, 2013, the Company had approximately $204.7 million in available borrowings remaining under these lines of credit (net of adjustments based on borrowing base calculations and standby letters of credit under the aforementioned Wells Fargo credit agreement, and rental fleet financing and other acquisition-related financing arrangements under the CNH Capital credit agreement). These floorplan notes carried various interest rates primarily ranging from 2.45% to 7.25% as of April 30, 2013, subject to interest-free periods offered by CNH Capital. As of April 30, 2013, the Company was in compliance with all floorplan financial covenants.

Table of Contents

NOTE 5 - SENIOR CONVERTIBLE NOTES

The Company's 3.75% Senior Convertible Notes issued on April 24, 2012 (Convertible Notes) consisted of the following:

	April 30, 2013	January 31, 2013
	(in thousands except conversion rate and conversion price)
Principal value	$ 150,000	$ 150,000
Unamortized debt discount	(23,554)	(24,334)
Carrying value of senior convertible notes	$ 126,446	$ 125,666
Carrying value of equity component, net of deferred taxes	$ 15,546	$ 15,546
Conversion rate (shares of common stock per $1,000 principal amount of notes)	23.1626	23.1626
Conversion price (per share of common stock)	$ 43.17	$ 43.17

As of April 30, 2013, the unamortized debt discount will be amortized over a six-year period. As of April 30, 2013 and January 31, 2013, the if-converted value of the Senior Convertible Notes does not exceed the principal balance.

For the three months ended April 30, 2013, the Company recognized coupon interest expense of $1.4 million, and non-cash interest expense of $0.8 million related to the amortization of the debt discount and $0.1 million related to the amortization of the liability-allocated transaction costs. For the three months ended April 30, 2012, the Company recognized coupon interest expense of $0.1 million, and non-cash interest expense of $0.1 million related to the amortization of the debt discount. The effective interest rate of the liability component was equal to 7.00% for the period ended April 30, 2013.

NOTE 6 - DERIVATIVE INSTRUMENTS

The Company holds derivative instruments for the purpose of minimizing exposure to fluctuations in foreign currency exchange rates to which the Company is exposed in the normal course of its operations.

Net Investment Hedges

Edgar Filing: Titan Machinery Inc. - Form 10-Q

To protect the value of the Company's investments in its foreign operations against adverse changes in foreign currency exchange rates, the Company may, from time to time, hedge a portion of its net investment in one or more of its foreign subsidiaries. Gains and losses on derivative instruments that are designated and effective as a net investment hedge are included in other comprehensive income and only reclassified into earnings in the period during which the hedged net investment is sold or liquidated. Any hedge ineffectiveness is recognized in earnings immediately.

The notional amount of outstanding foreign currency forward contracts designated as net investment hedges was approximately $22.0 million as of April 30, 2013. There were no foreign currency forward contracts designated as net investment hedges outstanding as of January 31, 2013. For the three months ended April 30, 2013, the maximum notional amount outstanding at any point during the period was approximately $23.6 million. No derivative instruments designated as net investment hedges were outstanding during the three months ended April 30, 2012.

Derivative Instruments Not Designated as Hedging Instruments

The Company uses foreign currency forward contracts to hedge the effects of fluctuations in exchange rates on outstanding intercompany loans. The Company does not formally designate and document such derivative instruments as hedging instruments; however, the instruments are an effective economic hedge of the underlying foreign currency exposure. Both the gain or loss on the derivative instrument and the offsetting gain or loss on the underlying intercompany loan are recognized in earnings immediately, thereby eliminating or reducing the impact of foreign currency exchange rate fluctuations on net income.

The notional amount of outstanding foreign currency forward contracts not designated as hedging instruments was approximately $21.3 million and $4.0 million as of April 30, 2013 and January 31, 2013, respectively. For the three months ended April 30, 2013, the maximum notional amount outstanding at any point during the period was approximately $22.1 million. No derivative instruments not designated as hedging instruments were outstanding during the three months ended April 30, 2012.

The following table sets forth the fair value of the Company's outstanding derivative instruments.

NOTE 7 - BUSINESS COMBINATIONS

Edgar Filing: Titan Machinery Inc. - Form 10-Q

The Company continued to implement its strategy of consolidating dealerships in desired market areas. Below is a summary of the acquisitions completed for the three months ended April 30, 2013. In certain of the business combination transactions the Company recognized goodwill. Factors contributing to the recognition of goodwill include an evaluation of future and historical financial performance, the value of the workforce acquired and proximity to other existing and future planned Company locations. Pro forma results are not presented as the acquisitions are not considered material, individually or in aggregate, to the Company. The results of operations have been included in the Company's consolidated statements of operations since the date of each respective business combination.

Table of Contents

On February 16, 2013, the Company acquired certain assets of Tucson Tractor Company. The acquired entity consisted of one construction equipment store in Tucson, Arizona which is contiguous to the Company's existing locations in Phoenix and Flagstaff, Arizona and expands the Company's construction presence in Arizona. The acquisition-date fair value of the total consideration transferred for the store was $4.1 million.

On March 1, 2013, the Company acquired certain assets of Adobe CE, LLC. The acquired entity consisted of one construction equipment store in Albuquerque, New Mexico and expands the Company's presence into New Mexico. The acquisition-date fair value of the total consideration transferred for the store was $1.2 million.

As of January 31, 2013, the final valuation of the intangible assets acquired in the Toner's, Inc., acquisition consummated on November 1, 2012 was not complete. As a result, the recorded intangible asset values were based on provisional estimates of fair value. The valuation of such assets was completed during the period ended April 30, 2013 and resulted in a $0.1 million decrease in the value of the distribution rights, a $0.2 million decrease in the value of customer relationships and a $0.3 million increase in the value of goodwill arising from the acquisition. The comparative information as of January 31, 2013 was retrospectively adjusted to reflect the final values assigned to each of the intangible assets.

The allocations of the purchase prices in the above business combinations are presented in the following table. The estimated fair values of the intangible assets acquired are provisional estimates which are subject to change upon completion of the final valuation.

NOTE 8 - SEGMENT INFORMATION AND OPERATING RESULTS

The Company owns and operates a network of full service agricultural and construction equipment stores in the United States and Europe. During the three months ended April 30, 2013, the Company determined that its International operations were a separate reportable segment. As of April 30, 2013, the Company has three reportable segments: Agriculture, Construction and International. The Company's segments are organized based on types of products sold and geographic areas, as described in the following paragraphs. The operating results for each segment are reported separately to the Company's senior management to make decisions regarding the allocation of resources, to assess the Company's operating performance and to make strategic decisions.

The Company's Agriculture segment sells, services, and rents machinery, and related parts and attachments, for uses ranging from large-scale farming to home and garden use to customers in North America. This segment also includes ancillary sales and services related to agricultural activities and products such as equipment transportation, Global Positioning System (GPS) signal subscriptions, hardware merchandise and finance and insurance products.

The Company's Construction segment sells, services, and rents machinery, and related parts and attachments, for uses ranging from heavy construction to light industrial machinery use to customers in North America. This segment also includes ancillary sales and services related to construction activities such as equipment transportation, GPS signal subscriptions and finance and insurance products.

The Company's International segment sells, services, and rents machinery, and related parts and attachments, for uses ranging from large-scale farming to home and garden use to customers in Eastern Europe. It also includes export sales of equipment and parts to customers outside of the United States.

Revenue, income (loss) before income taxes and total assets at the segment level are reported before eliminations. The Company retains various unallocated income/(expense) items and assets at the general corporate level, which the Company refers to as Shared Resources in the table below. Shared Resources assets primarily consist of cash and property and equipment. Intersegment revenue is immaterial.

ITEM 2. MANAGEMENT'S DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS OF FINANCIAL CONDITION AND RESULTS OF OPERATIONS

The following discussion and analysis of our financial condition and results of operations should be read in conjunction with our interim unaudited consolidated financial statements and related notes included in Item 1 of Part I of this Quarterly Report, and the audited consolidated financial statements and notes thereto and Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations contained in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 31, 2013.

Critical Accounting Policies

There have been no material changes in our Critical Accounting Policies, as disclosed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 31, 2013.

Overview

We own and operate a network of full service agricultural and construction equipment stores in the United States and Europe. Based upon information provided to us by CNH Global N.V. or its U.S. subsidiary CNH America, LLC, we are the largest retail dealer of Case IH Agriculture equipment in the world, the largest retail dealer of Case Construction equipment in North America and a major retail dealer of New Holland Agriculture and New Holland Construction equipment in the U.S. We operate our business through three reportable segments, Agriculture, Construction and International. Within each segment, we have four principal sources of revenue: new and used equipment sales, parts sales, service, and equipment rental and other activities.

Our net income (loss) attributable to Titan Machinery Inc. common stockholders was $(0.4) million, or $(0.02) per diluted share, for the three months ended April 30, 2013, compared to $7.5 million, or $0.36 per diluted share, for the three months ended April 30, 2012. Significant factors impacting the quarterly comparisons were:

- Increase in revenue and gross profit due to acquisitions, offset by a decrease in same-store sales and the related gross profit. The decrease in same-store results was primarily due to abnormally delayed spring weather combined with cautionary Agriculture customer sentiment and the continued challenging industry conditions in the Construction segment;
- Operating expenses as a percentage of total revenue increased to 15.6% for the three months ended April 30, 2013 compared to 13.0% for the three months ended April 30, 2012, primarily due to lower same-store sales in the first quarter of fiscal 2014, as compared to the same period last year, and additional expenses associated with acquired stores; and

- Increase in floorplan interest and other interest expense primarily due to the increase in floorplan notes payable and long-term debt, including our Senior Convertible Notes issued in April 2012.

Comparative financial data for each of our four sources of revenue are expressed below. The results for these periods include the operating results of the acquisitions made during these periods. The period-to-period comparisons included below are not necessarily indicative of future results. Segment information is provided later in this discussion and analysis of our results of operations.

The increase in revenue for the first quarter of fiscal 2014, as compared to the same period last year, was due to acquisitions contributing $41.4 million, offset by a decrease in same-store sales of $21.4 million. The decrease in same-store sales primarily was due to abnormally delayed spring weather, combined with cautionary Agriculture customer sentiment and the continued challenging industry conditions in the Construction segment.

The $3.5 million increase in gross profit for the first quarter of fiscal 2014, as compared to the same period last year, was primarily due to increased revenue. Acquisitions contributed $6.5 million to the increase in gross profit for the first quarter of fiscal 2014, offset by decreases in same-store gross profit of $3.0 million. Gross profit margin was 16.7% for both the first quarters of fiscal 2014 and fiscal 2013. Increase in the gross profit margin on rental and other was primarily due to an increase in the dollar utilization of our rental fleet to 23.4% in the first quarter of fiscal 2014 from 22.5% in the same period last year.

Operating Expenses

	Three Months Ended April 30,
	2013	2012	Increase	Percent Change

Operating expenses as a percentage of revenue	15.6%	13.0%	2.6%	20.0%

The $14.1 million increase in operating expenses, as compared to the same period last year, was primarily due to the additional costs associated with acquisitions, such as compensation, rent, travel and depreciation. As a percentage of total revenue, operating expenses increased to 15.6% for the first quarter of fiscal 2014 compared to 13.0% for the first quarter of fiscal 2013. The leveraging of fixed operating costs was negatively impacted by lower same-store sales in the first quarter of fiscal 2014, as compared to the same period last year, and the Construction stores acquired in fiscal year 2013 and the first quarter of fiscal 2014. These recently acquired stores are currently operating at a much higher operating expense ratio than our average Construction store, as they are underperforming in regards to revenue levels in the markets in which they are located.

Floorplan interest expense	(3,442)	(2,898)	544	18.8%
Other interest expense	(3,167)	(793)	2,374	299.4%

The increase in floorplan interest expense of $0.5 million and other interest expense of $2.4 million for the first quarter of fiscal 2014, as compared to the same period in the prior year, was primarily due to the increase in floorplan notes payable and long-term debt, including our Senior Convertible Notes issued in April 2012.

Agriculture

Agriculture segment revenue for the first quarter of fiscal 2014 increased 1.9% compared to the same period last year. The revenue increase was due to acquisitions, offset by an Agriculture same-store sales decrease of 6.4% over the first quarter of fiscal 2013. The decrease in same-store sales primarily was due to abnormally delayed spring weather, combined with cautionary Agriculture customer sentiment. These weather conditions caused a delay in the planting season for our Agriculture customers, which had a negative impact on our parts and service revenue. The cautionary Agriculture customer sentiment experienced during the first quarter of fiscal 2014 negatively affected our equipment revenue.

Agriculture segment income before income taxes for the first quarter of fiscal 2014 decreased 45.7% compared to the same period last year, primarily caused by lower same-store sales in the first quarter of fiscal 2014, additional operating expenses associated with acquisition stores and an increase in floorplan interest expense resulting from higher floorplan notes payable, as compared to the same period in the prior year.

Construction

Construction segment revenue for the first quarter of fiscal 2014 increased 1.5% compared to the same period last year. The revenue increase was due to acquisitions, offset by a Construction same-store sales decrease of 7.1% over the first quarter of fiscal 2013. The decrease in same-store sales primarily was due to abnormally delayed spring weather, combined with the continued challenging industry conditions in the Construction segment. These weather conditions caused a delay in construction work for our customers, which had a negative impact on our equipment, parts and service revenue.

Table of Contents

Our Construction segment loss before income taxes for the first quarter of fiscal 2014 increased $6.2 million compared to the same period last year. The additional loss was primarily due to lower same-store sales in the first quarter of fiscal 2014, additional operating expenses associated with acquired stores and an increase in floorplan interest expense and other interest expense resulting from higher floorplan notes payable and rental fleet debt, respectively, as compared to the same period in the prior year.

International

International segment revenue for the first quarter of fiscal 2014 increased $21.8 million compared to the same period last year, primarily due to acquisitions and new store openings. Our International segment loss before income taxes for the first quarter of fiscal 2014 increased $0.1 million compared to the same period last year. The loss before income taxes is reflective of the seasonal nature of the business. The loss for the current quarter reflects the seasonality of our business in the areas of Eastern Europe in which our stores are located.

Shared Resources/Eliminations

We incur centralized expenses/income at our general corporate level, which we refer to as Shared Resources, and then allocate these net expenses to our segments. Since these allocations are set early in the year, unallocated balances may occur.

Eliminations remove any inter-company revenue or income (loss) before income taxes residing in our segment results.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

Cash Flow Used For Operating Activities

For the three months ended April 30, 2013, cash used for operating activities was $6.3 million. Our cash used for operating activities was primarily the result of an increase in net cash for inventories of $42.3 million and our reported net loss including noncontrolling interest of $0.6 million. This amount was principally offset by a net decrease in receivables, prepaid expenses and other assets of $34.6 million. The increase in inventories primarily reflects new equipment stocking to support forecasted equipment sales and lower than expected equipment sales in the three months ended April 30, 2013. We evaluate our cash flow from operating activities net of all floorplan activity. Taking this adjustment into account, our non-GAAP cash flow used for operating activities was $2.1 million for the three months ended April 30, 2013 and our non-GAAP cash flow used provided by operating activities was $1.7 million for the three months ended April 30, 2012. For reconciliation of this non-GAAP financial measure, please see the Non-GAAP Cash Flow Reconciliation below.

For the three months ended April 30, 2012, cash used for operating activities was $24.9 million. Our cash used for operating activities was primarily the result of an increase in net cash for inventories of $40.4 million and a net decrease in accounts payable, customer deposits, accrued expenses and other long-term liabilities of $26.2 million. This amount was principally offset by our reported net income including noncontrolling interest of $7.5 million, an add-back of non-cash depreciation and amortization of $4.9 million and a net decrease in receivables, prepaid expenses and other assets of $27.6 million. The increase in inventories primarily reflected new equipment stocking to support forecasted equipment sales.

Cash Flow Used For Investing Activities

For the three months ended April 30, 2013, cash used for investing activities was $9.6 million. Our cash flow used for investing activities primarily consisted of purchases of equipment dealerships (net of cash purchased) of $4.8 million and property and equipment purchases (excluding rental fleet) of $5.5 million.

For the three months ended April 30, 2012, cash used for investing activities was $26.3 million. Our cash flow used for investing activities primarily consisted of purchases of equipment dealerships (net of cash purchased) of $8.4 million and purchases of rental fleet of $16.2 million.

Table of Contents

Cash Flow Provided By Financing Activities

For the three months ended April 30, 2013, cash provided by financing activities was $5.9 million. Our cash flow provided by financing activities was primarily the result of an increase in non-manufacturer floorplan notes payable of $8.4 million, offset by principal payments on long-term debt exceeding proceeds from long-term debt by $2.7 million.

For the three months ended April 30, 2012, cash provided by financing activities was $77.9 million. Our cash flow provided by financing activities was primarily the result of proceeds from our Senior Convertible Notes offering of $145.2 million, offset by a decrease in non-manufacturer floorplan notes payable of $22.7 million and principal payments on long-term debt and short-term advances exceeding proceeds from long-term debt by $46.5 million. We used the proceeds from our Senior Convertible Notes to reduce certain interest-bearing floorplan notes payable and long-term debt balances.

Non-GAAP Cash Flow Reconciliation

We consider our cash flow from operating activities to include all equipment inventory financing activity regardless of whether we obtain the financing from a manufacturer or other source. We consider equipment inventory financing with both manufacturers and other sources to be part of the normal operations of our business and use the adjusted cash flow analysis in the evaluation of our equipment inventory and inventory flooring needs. Non-GAAP cash flow provided by (used for) operating activities is a non-GAAP financial measure which is adjusted for the following:

- Non-manufacturer floorplan notes payable: The adjustment is equal to the net change in non-manufacturer floorplan notes payable, as shown on the consolidated statements of cash flows. GAAP categorizes non-manufacturer floorplan notes payable as financing activities in the consolidated statements of cash flows.
- Impact of senior convertible notes: We issued $150.0 million of Senior Convertible Notes (the Convertible Notes) in April 2012. We used a significant amount of the proceeds from the Convertible Notes to reduce our floorplan notes payable balances, resulting in a higher level of equity in our equipment inventory than we have historically maintained. To analyze the impact of this fluctuation of equity in our equipment inventory, we use this adjustment to maintain a constant level of equipment financing. The adjustment is equal to the difference between our actual equity in inventory at the balance sheet date and our historical average level of equity in inventory of 15%. If the level of equity in inventory is less than 15% then we assume that no proceeds of the Convertible Notes were used to pay down floorplan notes payable balances. GAAP categorizes proceeds from our Convertible Notes offering as financing activities in the consolidated statements of cash flows.

We believe that the presentation of non-GAAP cash flow provided by (used for) operating activities is relevant and useful to our investors because it provides information on activities we consider normal operations of our business, regardless of financing source. The following table reconciles net cash provided by (used for) operating activities, a GAAP measure, to non-GAAP cash flow provided by (used for) operating activities and net cash provided by (used for) financing activities, a GAAP measure, to non-GAAP cash flow provided by (used for) financing activities (in thousands):

Sources of Liquidity

Our primary sources of liquidity are cash reserves, cash flow from operations, proceeds from our public stock offerings, proceeds from the issuance of debt and our Convertible Notes, and borrowings under our credit facilities. We expect that ongoing requirements for debt service and capital expenditures will be funded from these sources.

Adequacy of Capital Resources

Our primary uses of cash have been to fund our strategic acquisitions, finance the purchase of inventory, meet debt service requirements and fund operating activities, working capital, payments due under building space operating leases and manufacturer floorplan notes payable. Based on our current operational performance, we believe our cash flow from operations, available cash and available borrowings under our existing credit facilities will adequately provide our liquidity needs for, at a minimum, the next 12 months.

Certain Information Concerning Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

We do not have any relationships with unconsolidated entities or financial partnerships, such as entities often referred to as structured finance, special purpose entities or variable interest entities, which would have been established for the purpose of facilitating off-balance sheet arrangements or other contractually narrow or limited purposes. We are, therefore, not exposed to any financing, liquidity, market or credit risk that could arise if we had engaged in these relationships. In the normal course of our business activities, we lease rental equipment and buildings under operating leases.

PRIVATE SECURITIES LITIGATION REFORM ACT

The Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 provides a safe harbor for forward-looking statements. Such forward-looking information is included in this Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q, including in Management's Discussion And Analysis Of Financial Condition And Results Of Operations, as well as in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended January 31, 2013, and in other materials filed or to be filed by the Company with the Securities and Exchange Commission (as well as information included in oral statements or other written statements made or to be made by the Company).

Forward-looking statements include all statements based on future expectations and specifically include, among other things, all statements relating to our expectations regarding exchange rate impact, equipment sales and our primary liquidity sources and adequacy of our capital resources. Any statements that are not based upon historical facts, including the outcome of events that have not yet occurred and our expectations for future performance, are forward-looking statements. The words potential, believe, estimate, expect, intend, may, could, plan, anticipate, and similar words and expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements. Such statements are based upon the current beliefs and expectations of our management. Such forward-looking information involves important risks and uncertainties that could significantly affect anticipated results in the future and, accordingly, such results may differ from those expressed in any forward-looking statements made by or on behalf of the Company. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, adverse market conditions in the agricultural and construction equipment industries, the continuation of unfavorable conditions in the credit markets and those matters identified and discussed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K under the section titled Risk Factors.

ITEM 3. QUANTITATIVE AND QUALITATIVE DISCLOSURES ABOUT MARKET RISK

We are exposed to various market risks, including changes in interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates. Market risk is the potential loss arising from adverse changes in market rates and prices such as interest rates and foreign currency exchange rates.

Interest Rate Risk: Exposure to changes in interest rates results from borrowing activities used to fund operations. For fixed rate debt, interest rate changes affect the fair value of financial instruments but do not impact earnings or cash flows. Conversely, for floating rate debt, interest rate changes generally do not affect the fair market value but do impact future earnings and cash flows, assuming other factors are held constant. We have both fixed and floating rate financing. Some of our floating rate credit facilities contain minimum rates of interest to be charged. Based upon balances and interest rates as of April 30, 2013, holding other variables constant, a one percentage point increase in interest rates for the next 12-month period would decrease pre-tax earnings and cash flow by approximately $4.4 million. Conversely, a one percentage point decrease in interest rates for the next 12-month period would result in an increase to pre-tax earnings and cash flow of approximately $4.4 million. At April 30, 2013, we had variable rate floorplan notes payable of $762.0 million, of which approximately $425.5 million was interest-bearing, variable notes payable and long-term debt of $16.6 million, and fixed rate notes payable and long-term debt of $52.0 million.

Foreign Currency Exchange Rate Risk: Foreign currency exposures arise as the result of our foreign operations. The Company is exposed to foreign currency exchange rate risk, as our net investment in our foreign operations is exposed to changes in foreign currency exchange rates. In addition, the Company is exposed to the translation of foreign currency earnings to the U.S. dollar, whereby the results of our operations and cash flows may be adversely impacted by fluctuating foreign currency exchange rates. The Company is also exposed to foreign currency transaction risk as the result of certain intercompany financing transactions. The Company attempts to manage its foreign currency exchange rate risk through the use of derivative financial instruments, primarily foreign exchange forward contracts. Based upon balances and exchange rates as of April 30, 2013, holding other variables constant, we believe that a hypothetical 10% increase or decrease in foreign exchange rates would not have a material impact on our results of operations or cash flows.

ITEM 4. CONTROLS AND PROCEDURES

(a) Evaluation of disclosure controls and procedures. After evaluating the effectiveness of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures pursuant to Rule 13a-15(b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (the "Exchange Act") as of the end of the period covered by this Quarterly Report, the Company's Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer, with the participation of the Company's management, have concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures (as defined in Exchange Act Rule 13a-15(e)) are effective.

(b) Changes in internal controls. There has not been any change in the Company's internal control over financial reporting (as defined in Exchange Act Rule 13a-15(f)) during its most recently completed fiscal quarter that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal control over financial reporting.

PART II. - OTHER INFORMATION

ITEM 1. LEGAL PROCEEDINGS

We are currently not a party to any material pending legal proceedings.

ITEM 1A. RISK FACTORS

In addition to the other information set forth in this report, including the important information in "Private Securities Litigation Reform Act," you should carefully consider the "Risk Factors" discussed in our Form 10-K for the year ended January 31, 2013 as filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Those factors, if they were to occur, could cause our actual results to differ materially from those expressed in our forward-looking statements in this report, and materially adversely affect our financial condition or future results. Although we are not aware of any other factors, aside from those discussed in our Form 10-K, that we currently anticipate will cause our forward-looking statements to differ materially from our future actual results, or materially affect the Company's financial condition or future results, additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to us or that we currently deem to be immaterial might materially adversely affect our actual business, financial condition and/or operating results.
