Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy A Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing

On January 17, 2006, NASDAQ notified Smart Online, Inc. (the “Company”), of NASDAQ’s withdrawal of its approval of the Company’s application to list its securities on The Nasdaq Capital Market.

The action by NASDAQ followed the issuance on January 17, 2006, by the Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) of an order temporarily suspending, pursuant to Section 12(k) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the trading of the securities of the Company from 9:30 a.m. EST, January 17, 2006 through 11:59 p.m. EST, January 30, 2006. The SEC indicated that the reason for the suspension was a lack of current and accurate information concerning the Company’s securities because of possible manipulative conduct occurring in the market for the Company’s stock. The SEC also issued a release that cautions brokers and dealers about the need to comply with Rule 15c-2-11 before entering quotations relating to the Company’s securities.

The Company does not know whether the SEC order will be extended beyond the January 30, 2006 suspension period, when the SEC will complete its investigation, the result of the investigation or its effect on the Company. The Company intends to fully cooperate with the SEC during its investigation.

On January 17, 2006, the Company issued a press release regarding the actions of the SEC and of NASDAQ. The press release is filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1.
