Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers

(d) Election of Directors

On the recommendation of our nominating and corporate governance committee, our board of directors elected Gerhard F. Burbach as a Class II director on January 10, 2013, to fill the vacant Class II board seat and serve until his successor is duly appointed and qualified or until his earlier resignation or removal. Mr. Burbach will also serve as a member of our audit and compensation committees.

Since January 2006, Mr. Burbach, age 50, has served as president, chief executive officer and director of Thoratec Corporation, a publicly-traded company that develops, manufactures and markets proprietary medical devices used for circulatory support. In addition, since October 2004, Mr. Burbach has served as a member of the board of directors of Digirad Corporation, a publicly-traded company focused on diagnostic imaging products. From April 2005 to January 2006, Mr. Burbach served as president and chief executive officer of Digirad Corporation. From July 2003 to April 2005, he served as president and chief executive officer of Bacchus Vascular, Inc., a developer of catheter-based medical devices. From January 2001 to July 2003, he served as chief executive officer of Philips Nuclear Medicine, a division of Philips Electronics, and, before its acquisition by Philips, worked for four years for ADAC Laboratories, most recently as president. Mr. Burbach also spent six years with the management consulting firm of McKinsey & Company, Inc., where he was most recently a senior engagement manager in the firm's healthcare practice. Mr. Burbach received a B.S. in Industrial Engineering from Stanford University in 1984 and an M.B.A. from Harvard Business School in 1990.

There was no understanding or arrangement between Mr. Burbach and any other person pursuant to which Mr. Burbach was elected as a director.

Mr. Burbach is not a party to any transaction, or series of transactions, required to be disclosed pursuant to Item 404(a) of Regulation S-K.

On January 10, 2013, in connection with Mr. Burbach's election as a Class II director, we entered into an indemnification agreement with Mr. Burbach in the form of our standard indemnification agreement, which was filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on January 28, 2011 as Exhibit 10.1 to Amendment No. 3 to Registration Statement on Form S-1 and is incorporated herein in its entirety by reference.

As a non-employee director, Mr. Burbach will participate in the compensation program applicable to all non-employee directors, which is summarized below.

Under our cash compensation policy, each non-employee director receives a base annual retainer of $20,000 and the board chair receives an additional base annual retainer of $10,000. Committee members receive additional annual cash compensation for service on board committees as follows: audit committee, $10,000; compensation committee, $7,000; and nominating and corporate governance committee, $5,000. Committee chairs receive additional compensation for service as the chair of board committees as follows: audit committee chair, $5,000; compensation committee chair, $3,500; and nominating and corporate governance committee chair, $2,500.

In accordance with our outside director equity compensation policy and our 2011 Equity Incentive Plan, on January 10, 2013, Mr. Burbach was granted an option to purchase 30,000 shares of our common stock. On the date of each annual meeting of stockholders following the date of Mr. Burbach's election to the board, Mr. Burbach will be granted an option to purchase 12,000 shares of our common stock, subject to Mr. Burbach continuing to be a non-employee director on each such date.

The foregoing is only a brief description of the material terms of our non-employee director compensation program, and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the description of our non-employee director compensation program under the heading "Compensation of Non-Employee Directors" in our definitive proxy statement on Schedule 14A, filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission on March 26, 2012 and incorporated herein in its entirety by reference.

On January 14, 2013, we issued a press release announcing Mr. Burbach's appointment as a director. The press release is attached hereto as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein in its entirety by reference.
