Item 8.01 Other Events.

On July 23, 2014, Intermountain Community Bancorp (Intermountain) and Columbia Banking System, Inc. (Columbia) announced that they had entered into a definitive merger agreement (the Merger Agreement), pursuant to which Intermountain will merge with and into Columbia (the Merger) subject to, among other things, a vote of Intermountain shareholders.

On August 22, 2014, a putative shareholder class action lawsuit was filed against Intermountain, Columbia and certain other defendants in connection with the Merger Agreement. The class action complaint, entitled Kahn v. Elsaesser, et al., Case No. CV2014-01452 (the Action), was filed in District Court of the First Judicial District of the State of Idaho, Bonner County.

As described in greater detail in the Proxy Statement of Intermountain filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the SEC) on September 23, 2014 (the Proxy Statement), the Action alleges that Intermountain's directors breached their fiduciary duties to Intermountain and its shareholders in connection with the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement. The Action also alleges that the disclosures in connection with the Merger are inadequate in various respects.

Intermountain, its directors and Columbia continue to believe that the Action is without merit, have vigorously denied, and continue to vigorously deny, all of the allegations of wrongful or actionable conduct asserted in the Action, and Intermountain, its directors and Columbia vigorously maintain that Intermountain's directors have diligently and scrupulously complied with all applicable fiduciary duties, that the Proxy Statement is complete and accurate in all material respects and that no further disclosure is required under applicable law. Purely out of an abundance of caution, and in order to minimize the costs, risks, burden, expense and distraction of litigation, Intermountain is hereby making the below supplemental disclosures to be read together with the Proxy Statement. This supplemental disclosure does not affect the timing of the special meeting of Intermountain's shareholders, scheduled for October 27, 2014 in Sandpoint, Idaho, to vote upon a proposal to approve the Merger Agreement, among other things. Nothing in any public filing, including this Current Report on Form 8-K, shall be deemed an admission of the legal necessity of filing or the materiality under applicable laws of any of the additional information contained herein.

SUPPLEMENTAL DISCLOSURES TO PROXY STATEMENT

Intermountain has determined to provide the additional information set forth below. This information should be read in conjunction with the Proxy Statement and the documents incorporated therein.

Background of the Merger

and John T. Pietrzak and another representative of Castle Creek Capital Partners IV, LP (Castle Creek) presented financial modeling regarding scenarios for selling Intermountain.

The board of directors agreed that the membership of the M&A Subcommittee would be comprised of Ford Elsaesser (Chairman), Michael J. Romine, John L. Welborn Jr. and Russell J. Kubiak, and John T. Pietrzak and Curt Hecker also attended meetings of the M&A Subcommittee from time to time.

The following disclosure supplements the section of the Proxy Statement entitled Background of the Merger on page 38. The following disclosure is inserted after the words In February 2014, the M&A Subcommittee reviewed preliminary modeling in the seventh sentence of the fifth full paragraph.

presented by a representative of Castle Creek

Michael J. Romine voted in opposition to the resolution to approve the merger agreement based on his belief that the current time was too soon for Intermountain to sell.

Opinion of Intermountain's Financial Advisor

The following disclosure supplements the section of the Proxy Statement entitled Opinion of Intermountain's Financial Advisor on page 49. The following disclosure is inserted after the second sentence of the last paragraph.

Based upon Intermountain's internal projections, Sandler O'Neill used in its analysis earnings per share of $0.75 in 2014, $0.85 in 2015, and $0.97 in 2016. For years after 2016, Sandler O'Neill used a long-term earnings per share growth rate of 10% as discussed with senior management of Intermountain.

The following disclosure supplements the section of the Proxy Statement entitled Opinion of Intermountain's Financial Advisor on page 50. The following disclosure is inserted after the first sentence of the first paragraph.

The range of terminal values was selected based on the range of trading multiples for companies in the Intermountain peer group.

The publicly available mean analyst earnings estimates for 2014 and 2015 were sourced from Bloomberg. In 2014 the mean analyst earnings estimate equaled $1.66 per share, and in 2015 the mean analyst earnings estimate equaled $1.80 per share. For years after 2015, Sandler O'Neill used a long-term annual earnings growth rate of 5.0%.

The following disclosure supplements the section of the Proxy Statement entitled Opinion of Intermountain's Financial Advisor on page 51. The following disclosure is inserted after the first sentence of the second paragraph.

The range of terminal values was selected based on the range of trading multiples for companies in the Columbia peer group.

Sandler O'Neill acted as financial advisor to Intermountain's board of directors in connection with the merger. Intermountain has agreed to pay Sandler O'Neill a fee of 0.875% of the aggregate merger consideration (i.e., approximately $1,070,000, assuming a purchaser average closing price of $24.44 per share), of which $250,000 became payable when Sandler O'Neill rendered its fairness opinion, and the balance of which is contingent upon the completion of the merger.

Related Agreements

The following disclosure supplements the section of the Proxy Statement entitled Related Agreements on page 74. The following is inserted in place of the third sentence of the first paragraph.

Pursuant to the warrant agreements, if no other action were taken by the parties, the principal shareholders would have received the same consideration as Intermountain stockholders in case of a merger or acquisition. However, pursuant to the Warrant Transfer, Voting and Support Agreements, as part of the merger negotiations, the principal shareholders have agreed that at closing, outstanding warrants will be exchanged for cash consideration. The principal shareholders will not be entitled to elect their desired consideration and will not be subject to proration with respect to the consideration to be received in exchange for warrants outstanding at closing.

Cautionary Statements Regarding Forward-Looking Information

This Current Report on Form 8-K may contain forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. All statements other than statements of historical fact are forward looking statements. These forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors which may cause Columbia's or Intermountain's performance or achievements to be materially different from any expected future results, performance, or achievements. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date they are made and neither Columbia nor Intermountain assumes any duty to update forward looking statements. Such forward-looking statements include, but are not limited to, statements about the benefits of the business combination transaction involving Columbia and Intermountain, including future financial and operating results, the combined company's plans, objectives, expectations and intentions and other statements that are not historical facts. The following factors, among others, could cause actual results to differ from those set forth in the forward-looking statements: (i) the possibility that the merger does not close when expected or at all because required regulatory, shareholder or other approvals and other conditions to closing are not received or satisfied on a timely basis or at all; (ii) changes in Columbia's stock price before closing, including as a result of the financial performance of Intermountain prior to closing, or more generally due to broader stock market movements, and the performance of financial companies and peer group companies, (iii) the risk that the benefits from the transaction may not be fully realized or may take longer to realize than expected, including as a result of changes in general economic and market conditions, interest and exchange rates, monetary policy, laws and regulations and their enforcement, and the degree of competition in the geographic and business areas in which Columbia and Intermountain operate; (iv) the ability to promptly and effectively integrate the businesses of Columbia and Intermountain; (v) the reaction to the transaction of the companies' customers, employees and counterparties to the transaction; (vi) diversion of management time on merger-related issues; (vii) lower than expected revenues, credit quality deterioration or a reduction in real estate values or a reduction in net earnings; and (viii) other risks that are described in Columbia's and Intermountain's public filings with the SEC. For more information, see the risk factors described in each of Columbia's and Intermountain's Annual Reports on Form 10-K, Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q and other filings with the SEC.

Additional Information about the Merger and Where to Find It

In connection with the proposed merger between Columbia and Intermountain, Columbia filed with the SEC a Registration Statement on Form S-4 that included a Proxy Statement of Intermountain and Prospectus of Columbia on August 25, 2014, and filed an amendment to such Registration Statement on September 22, 2014, as well as other relevant documents concerning the proposed transaction. The SEC declared the Registration Statement effective September 23, 2014. In addition, Intermountain filed a definitive Proxy Statement on September 23, 2014, which was mailed to Intermountain shareholders on or about September 26, 2014. SHAREHOLDERS OF INTERMOUNTAIN ARE URGED TO READ THE REGISTRATION STATEMENT, AS AMENDED, AND PROXY STATEMENT/PROSPECTUS REGARDING THE MERGER AND ANY OTHER RELEVANT DOCUMENTS FILED WITH THE SEC, BECAUSE THEY CONTAIN IMPORTANT INFORMATION.
