P&G Reiterates Significant Transformation is Delivering Shareholder Value

Comments on Glass Lewis Report

P&G Urges Shareholders to Vote FOR ALL of P&G's Directors on the BLUE Proxy Card

CINCINNATI September 22, 2017 The Procter & Gamble Company (NYSE:PG) today issued the following statement in response to the report issued by Glass Lewis & Co. (Glass Lewis) regarding the election of directors to the P&G Board at the Company's Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held on October 10, 2017:

P&G's Board and management team are implementing a strategy that is working and has strong momentum.

P&G met or exceeded all of its going-in fiscal 2017 objectives: balanced top- and bottom-line growth, cash productivity and cash delivered to shareholders.

Since the CEO transition nearly two years ago, P&G has delivered total shareholder return (TSR) of 28%, outperforming peers that delivered a TSR of 11%.ⁱ

P&G today is a profoundly different, much stronger and more profitable Company than it was just a few years ago.

P&G has a much stronger portfolio, positioned to win with 65 brands and 10 core categories where products solve problems and performance drives purchase.

P&G is consistently the innovation leader in these categories with innovation that drives brand leadership.

P&G brands are consistently ranked #1 in market share because they are the best at delivering noticeable superiority in their categories.

P&G's productivity program is substantive and impactful, over-delivering on its first $10 billion savings goal and well positioned to deliver up to $10 billion more in savings.

P&G has overcome unprecedented negative foreign exchange impacts, while driving margin improvement and achieving industry-leading margins.

Edgar Filing: PROCTER & GAMBLE Co - Form DEFA14A

P&G is simplifying its organization design to create a more focused, agile and accountable Company through one organizing principle - the business is run by category.

Glass Lewis fails to recognize that P&G has delivered consistently strong operating results over the last five years, excluding the effects of currency, while executing its transformation of the Company:

P&G has delivered constant currency core earnings per share (EPS) growth of 11% on average.

P&G core EPS, excluding the effects of currency, has increased in EVERY year at a rate of 7% to 14% per year.

P&G core gross margin has improved by 450 basis points and core operating margin has increased by 610 basis points, excluding the effects of currency.

P&G constant currency core operating margin has increased in EVERY year at a rate of 50 basis points to 240 basis points per year.

While P&G's Board and management cannot control the macro environment and currency trends, the Company has consistently delivered strong operating results throughout a significant and profound transformation of the business, which has only accelerated since P&G appointed David Taylor as CEO on November 1, 2015.

We are disappointed that Glass Lewis failed to recognize the significant transformation that the P&G Board and management team are implementing for the benefit of all shareholders. We have the right plan, the right structure and the right team in place to continue to deliver results and shareholder value for the short-, mid- and long-term. We believe that now is not the time to risk derailing that progress.

The P&G Board has done its homework and concluded that Nelson Peltz is NOT the right director for P&G. Mr. Peltz lacks specific qualities P&G is looking for in Board members. The P&G Board and management team have talked to numerous directors, CEOs and senior executives who have worked with Mr. Peltz, and positive recommendations were not forthcoming. People would only speak candidly about their experiences with Mr. Peltz if those discussions were kept confidential, for fear of retribution.

We believe that putting the wrong person like Mr. Peltz on the P&G Board represents a risk of derailment. The consequences of derailment can be quite damaging. The weighted average shareholder return of companies on which Mr. Peltz serves as a board member is 4%.ⁱⁱ One company has NEGATIVE 10% returns. That company has had negative volume growth every year since Mr. Peltz joined the board, and current year-to-date organic sales growth is NEGATIVE 1.0%, versus POSITIVE 3.9% the year before Mr. Peltz joined.

The P&G Board and management team strongly recommend shareholders vote FOR ALL of P&G's highly qualified Directors on the BLUE Proxy Card.

Shareholders are urged NOT to vote using any white proxy card or voting instruction forms you might receive from Nelson Peltz or Trian. Please disregard and discard the white proxy card.

Shareholders can vote by Internet, telephone or by signing and dating the BLUE Proxy Card and mailing it in the postage paid envelope provided. If you have any questions about how to vote your shares, or need additional assistance, please contact our proxy solicitors, D.F. King & Co., Inc. at (877) 361-7966 or MacKenzie Partners, Inc. at (800) 322-2885.

P&G notes that additional information regarding the proxy contest, as well as the Company's strategy and recent results, is available at VoteBlue.PG.com.

Non-GAAP Reconciliation

This press release contains certain non-GAAP measurements that management believes are meaningful to investors because they provide useful perspective on underlying business trends (i.e. trends excluding non-recurring or unusual items) and results, provide a supplemental measure of year-on-year results, and provide a view of our business results through the eyes of management. These measures are also a factor in determining senior management's at-risk compensation. These non-GAAP measures are not intended to be considered in place of the related GAAP measure and may not be the same as similar measures used by other companies. This data should be read in conjunction with previously published company reports on Forms 10-K, 10-Q, and 8-K, which are available on www.PGInvestor.com under Financial Reporting. Reconciliations of non-GAAP measures to GAAP are provided below.

The Core earnings measures included in the following reconciliation tables refer to the equivalent GAAP measures adjusted as applicable for the following items:

Incremental restructuring: The Company has had and continues to have an ongoing level of restructuring activities. Such activities have resulted in ongoing annual restructuring related charges of approximately $250 - $500 million before tax. Beginning in 2012 Procter & Gamble began a $10 billion strategic productivity and cost savings initiative that includes incremental restructuring activities. In 2017, the company announced elements of an additional multi-year productivity and cost savings plan. These plans result in incremental restructuring charges to accelerate productivity efforts and cost savings. The adjustment to Core earnings includes only the restructuring costs above what we believe are the normal recurring level of restructuring costs.

Early debt extinguishment charges: During the three months ended December 31, 2016, the Company recorded a charge of $345 million after tax due to the early extinguishment of certain long-term debt. This charge represents the difference between the reacquisition price and the par value of the debt extinguished.

Venezuela deconsolidation charge: For accounting purposes, evolving conditions resulted in a lack of control over our Venezuelan subsidiaries. Therefore, in accordance with the applicable accounting standards for consolidation, effective June 30, 2015, we deconsolidated our Venezuelan subsidiaries and began accounting for our investment in those subsidiaries using the cost method of accounting. The charge was incurred to write off our net assets related to Venezuela.

Charges for certain European legal matters: Several countries in Europe issued separate complaints alleging that the Company, along with several other companies, engaged in violations of competition laws in prior periods. The Company established Legal Reserves related to these charges.

Venezuela B/S remeasurement & devaluation impacts: Venezuela is a highly inflationary economy under U.S. GAAP. Prior to deconsolidation, the government enacted episodic changes to currency exchange mechanisms and rates, which resulted in currency remeasurement charges for non-dollar denominated monetary assets and liabilities held by our Venezuelan subsidiaries.

Non-cash impairment charges: During fiscal years 2013 and 2012 the Company incurred impairment charges related to the carrying value of goodwill and indefinite lived intangible assets in our Appliances and Salon Professional businesses.

Gain on Iberian JV buyout: During fiscal year 2013 we incurred a holding gain on the purchase of the balance of our Iberian joint venture from our joint venture partner.

We do not view the above items to be part of our sustainable results, and their exclusion from core earnings measures provides a more comparable measure of year-on-year results.

Core EPS and currency-neutral Core EPS: Core earnings per share, or Core EPS, is a measure of the Company's diluted net earnings per share from continuing operations adjusted as indicated. Currency-neutral Core EPS is a measure of the Company's Core EPS excluding the incremental current year impact of foreign exchange. Management views these non-GAAP measures as a useful supplemental measure of Company performance over time.

Core operating profit margin and currency-neutral Core operating profit margin: Core operating profit margin is a measure of the Company's operating margin adjusted for items as indicated. Currency-neutral Core operating profit margin is a measure of the Company's Core operating profit margin excluding the incremental current year impact of foreign exchange. Management believes these non-GAAP measures provide a supplemental perspective to the Company's operating efficiency over time.

Core gross margin and currency-neutral Core gross margin: Core gross margin is a measure of the Company's gross margin adjusted for items as indicated. Currency-neutral Core gross margin is a measure of the Company's Core gross margin excluding the incremental current year impact of foreign exchange.

Management believes these non-GAAP measures provide a supplemental perspective to the Company's operating efficiency over time.
