GWG Stock Registration Rights Agreement

On the Final Closing Date, the Issuer and the Seller Trusts entered into the GWG Stock Registration Rights Agreement granting resale registration rights to the Seller Trusts (and certain transferees) with respect to the Shares issued at the Final Closing (the “GWG Resale Registration”). The GWG Resale Registration is intended to provide the parties with the legal right to sell the Shares in compliance with the Securities Act of 1933.

The GWG Resale Registration provides the Seller Trusts (and certain transferees) with:

demand registration rights affording the Seller Trusts and their assigns the right to obligate the Issuer to register the resale of all of the Shares issued to the Seller Trusts under the Master Agreement, subject, however, to customary limitations; and piggyback registration rights affording the Seller Trusts and their assigns the right to include for resale, on any registration statement the Issuer files, any shares of the Issuer's common stock issued under the Master Agreement and not otherwise included on any demand registration effected pursuant to the rights described immediately above, subject, however, to customary cutback provisions.

The registration rights granted under the GWG Resale Registration include certain customary conditions and limitations, including the right of underwriters to limit the number of shares to be included in a registration, the right of the Issuer to delay or withdraw a registration statement under certain circumstances, and the right to limit the number of shares to be included based on SEC rules, guidance or staff comment. Subject to certain limited but customary exceptions, it is expected that the Issuer will generally pay all registration expenses incurred in connection with a GWG Resale Registration.

Notwithstanding the above-described registration rights granted to the Seller Trusts, the ability of the Seller Trusts to resell the Shares under the GWG Resale Registration will be limited by the contractual provisions of the Orderly Marketing Agreement (as described below).

Orderly Marketing Agreement

On the Final Closing Date, the Issuer and the Seller Trusts entered into the Orderly Marketing Agreement for the orderly marketing and resale of the shares of the Issuer's common stock that were issued to the Seller Trusts under the Master Agreement. The purpose of the Orderly Marketing Agreement is to manage the timing and amount of the Issuer's common shares that are publicly resold in the market since the number of shares of the Issuer's common stock issued under the Master Agreement have substantially increased the total number of the Issuer's issued and outstanding shares.

The Orderly Marketing Agreement obligates the Seller Trusts, severally, to:

agree with the Issuer (and with Beneficient) that no Shares, including Shares a Seller Trust may distribute to the beneficiaries of that trust, will be transferred or sold without the Issuer's consent other than in accordance with the orderly marketing arrangements contained in the Orderly Marketing Agreement; and agree not to assign or distribute any of the Shares without conditioning that assignment or distribution upon the agreement of the assignee or distributee to comply with provisions of the Orderly Marketing Agreement, including their agreement not to transfer or sell any of the Shares other than in accordance with the orderly marketing arrangements contained in the Orderly Marketing Agreement.

The Orderly Marketing Agreement also contains covenants of GWG, on the one hand, and Beneficient, on the other hand, to use their commercially reasonable efforts to secure the assistance of their respective senior executives to assist the investment bank or banks involved in marketing and resale activities. This assistance may include participating in roadshows from time to time as reasonably requested by the other party.

Stockholders Agreement

On the Final Closing Date, the Issuer and the Seller Trusts entered into the Stockholders Agreement. The purpose of the Stockholders Agreement is to limit the voting power of the Seller Trusts and the control they would otherwise be entitled to exercise over the Issuer. The Seller Trusts have agreed to these concepts and provisions since their main interest in engaging in the transaction is to obtain liquidity for their common units of Beneficient, which they can obtain by consummating the transaction and selling to the Issuer their common units of Beneficient (which securities are presently not liquid in that they are not listed on any exchange and do not trade) in exchange for the Issuer's issuance to them of its common stock (which is more liquid in that the Issuer's common stock is listed on the NASDAQ Capital Market) and the Seller Trust L Bonds as described herein.

To this end, the Stockholders Agreement contains the following provisions, all of which bind the Seller Trusts and their respective transferees:

until the Seller Trusts own, in the aggregate, voting securities representing less than 10% of the total voting power, all voting securities of the Issuer over which they have voting control, with respect to all matters including without limitation the election and removal of directors, regardless of whether voted at a regular or special meeting or pursuant to a written consent, will be voted solely in proportion with the votes cast by all other holders of voting securities of the Issuer on any matter put before them; and until the earlier of (i) one year from the Final Closing Date and (ii) the termination of the Orderly Marketing Agreement, no Seller Trust nor its assignees and transferees (other than pursuant to a registered public offering) or their respective affiliates will, without the prior written consent of the Issuer's Board of Directors, directly or indirectly:

acquire, offer to acquire, or agree to acquire, directly or indirectly, by purchase or otherwise, any securities or direct or indirect rights to acquire any voting securities of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries other than pursuant to the Master Agreement;

seek or propose to influence or control the management, Board of Directors, or policies of the Issuer, make or participate, directly or indirectly, in any "solicitation" of "proxies" (as such terms are used in applicable SEC rules) to vote any voting securities of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries, or seek to advise or influence any other person with respect to the voting of any voting securities of the Issuer or any of its subsidiaries;

submit a proposal for or offer of (with or without conditions) any merger, recapitalization, reorganization, business combination, or other extraordinary transaction involving the Issuer, any of its subsidiaries, or any of their respective securities or assets or, except as required by law, make any public announcement with respect to the foregoing;

enter into any discussions, negotiations, arrangements, or understandings with any other person with respect to any of the foregoing, or otherwise form, join, engage in discussions relating to the formation of, or participate in a "group," within the meaning of Section 13(d)(3) of the Exchange Act, in connection with any of the foregoing; or

o advise, assist, or encourage any other person in connection with any of the foregoing.

In furtherance of the above restrictions, each of the Seller Trusts has appointed as its proxy and attorney-in-fact the Chief Executive Officer of the Issuer with full power of substitution, to vote or execute written consents with respect to all of the Shares, provided that such proxy may only be exercised with respect to a Seller Trust if such Seller Trust fails to comply with its voting obligations under the Stockholders Agreement.

The Stockholders Agreement shall remain in effect until the termination of the Orderly Marketing Agreement.
