Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On March 19, 2009, Allegiant Travel Company (the "Company") acquired the exclusive rights to travel applications of the software operating system the Company has used since its inception. The acquisition will allow the Company to fully control the continuing development of its operating system and Internet offerings and will over the next year eliminate its reliance on its outside vendor (CMS Solutions, Inc.) from whom the Company previously licensed the operating system. The structure of the transaction includes an exclusive perpetual license between CMS Solutions, Inc. and RPW Consolidated Information Systems, Inc. ("RPW"), and then a merger of RPW with and into a newly created wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. In consideration for the acquisition, the Company has issued 41,450 shares of its common stock, a portion of which are to be issued to CMS Solutions.

Under the license agreement CMS Solutions is obligated to support the system for up to 12 months for a monthly fee. The license agreement also precludes CMS Solutions, for a five year period, from developing or supporting software with similar functionality in the field of travel applications, subject to certain limited exceptions.

RPW was owned by Robert P. Wilson, III, who has now been employed by the Company as Vice President of Information Systems. Mr. Wilson was previously employed by CMS Solutions from 1995 until March 2009. Under the terms of an employment agreement entered into between Wilson and the Company, Wilson will be paid a base salary and will be entitled to participate in the Company's bonus plan. Mr. Wilson would receive six months' severance pay in the event of termination without cause or resignation for good reason. Mr. Wilson has agreed not to develop or support software with functionality similar to the licensed software during the term of his employment and for a period of six months after termination of employment.

Under the merger agreement, the Company will have the right to repurchase up to 34,300 shares issued in connection with the merger at a predetermined price if Wilson resigns from the Company or his employment is terminated with cause within two years.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement.

Item 1.02 Termination of a Material Definitive Agreement

In connection with the transaction described in Item 1.01, the Permanent Software License Agreement dated August 1, 2001, between CMS Solutions and the Company has been terminated.
