Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

Sara Lee announced today that Brenda C. Barnes will step down permanently from the positions of Chairman and Chief Executive Officer so she can continue to focus on improving her health. In addition, Sara Lee announced that Ms. Barnes today has resigned from Sara Lee's board of directors and will not stand for reelection at the company's 2010 annual stockholders meeting in October. Ms. Barnes had been on medical leave since May 14, 2010 after suffering a stroke. Effective with Ms. Barnes's resignation as a director, the size of Sara Lee's board of directors was reduced from 12 directors to 11 directors.

Starting this week, Sara Lee's board has initiated a global search to select a new Chief Executive Officer, looking at both internal and external candidates. During the search process, Marcel Smits will continue as interim Chief Executive Officer and Mark Garvey will continue as interim Chief Financial Officer. James S. Crown, an independent director, will remain Chairman of the Board, a role he assumed when Ms. Barnes' leave of absence began, and he will continue to lead the Office of the Chairman, comprised of Messrs. Crown, Smits and Christopher J. Fraleigh, Chief Executive Officer of North American Retail and Foodservice.

Sara Lee has entered an agreement with Ms. Barnes dated August 6, 2010 providing, among other things, that Sara Lee will continue to pay Ms. Barnes' base salary for approximately three months from today and provide Ms. Barnes, at her expense, with certain continued health coverage following her termination until she attains age 65 or, if later, when she becomes eligible for Medicare.

A copy of Sara Lee's press release is attached as Exhibit 99 to this report.
