PROPOSAL 1: ELECTION OF DIRECTORS

The Company's Amended and Restated By-laws provide that the Board of Directors shall consist of three to eleven directors, with the exact number set by the Board of Directors by resolution. The Board of Directors currently consists of seven directors, divided into three classes of two or three directors each. Each year, the directors of one of the three classes are elected to serve terms of three years and until their successors have been elected and qualified. Three directors will be elected at the Annual Meeting this year. Directors are elected by the affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares voted (i.e., the three nominees who receive the most votes will be elected).

Brown, Roberts, and Witt are currently directors of the Company. The nominees have indicated their willingness to serve as a director if elected. If, however, any nominee is unwilling or unable to serve as a director, shares represented by the proxies will be voted for the election of another nominee proposed by the Board of Directors or the Board may reduce the number of directors to be elected at the Annual Meeting.

INFORMATION ABOUT THE BOARD AND ITS COMMITTEES

Director Independence

The Board of Directors of the Company has determined that each of the current directors, except for R. Scott Trumbull, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of the Company, is an “independent director” in compliance with the independence standards set forth in the Company’s Corporate Governance Guidelines and under the applicable rules adopted by The NASDAQ Stock Market (“NASDAQ”). In making its independence determinations, the Board concluded that no director, other than Mr. Trumbull, has any relationship in the Company, except as a director and stockholder, and except further that in 2007 and 2006 the Company sold a de minimis amount of products to Graco, Inc., for which Mr. Roberts formerly served as President and Chief Executive Officer.

Meetings

The Board held five regularly scheduled meetings and two special meetings during 2007. Each director attended at least 75 percent of the aggregate meetings of the Board and Board committees of which he or she was a member during the period that each served as a director. All directors who were members of the Board at that time attended the 2007 Annual Meeting of Shareholders.

Committees

The committees of the Board are: the Audit Committee, the Management Organization and Compensation Committee, and the Corporate Governance Committee.

Audit Committee. The current members of the Audit Committee are Jerome D. Brady (Chairman), David M. Wathen, and Thomas L. Young. The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Audit Committee is an “independent director” in compliance with the independence standards set forth in the Company’s Corporate Governance Guidelines and under the applicable NASDAQ rules. The Board of Directors has adopted an Audit Committee charter, a copy of which is available on the Company’s website at www.franklin-electric.com under “Corporate Governance,” that sets forth the duties and responsibilities of the Audit Committee. Under its charter, the Audit Committee appoints the Company’s independent registered public accounting firm and assists the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities by reviewing the Company’s financial information, the Company’s system of internal control, the Company’s process for monitoring compliance with laws and regulations, and the Company’s audit process. It is the general responsibility of the Audit Committee to advise and make recommendations to the Board of Directors in all matters regarding the Company’s accounting methods and internal control procedures. The Audit Committee is also responsible for the review, approval, or ratification of transactions between the Company and “related persons.” The Audit Committee reviews information compiled in response to the Directors’ and Officers’ Questionnaires or otherwise developed by the Company with respect to any transactions with the Company in which any director, executive officer, or any member of his or her immediate family, have a direct or indirect material interest that would require disclosure under applicable SEC regulations. In 2007, there were no such transactions. The Audit Committee held eight meetings in 2007.

Management Organization and Compensation Committee. The current members of the Management Organization and Compensation Committee (the “Compensation Committee”) are Howard B. Witt (Chairman), David T. Brown and David A. Roberts. The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Compensation Committee is an “independent director” in compliance with the independence standards set forth in the Company’s Corporate Governance Guidelines and under applicable NASDAQ rules. The Board of Directors has adopted a Compensation Committee charter, a copy of which is available on the Company’s website at www.franklin-electric.com under “Corporate Governance,” that sets forth the duties and responsibilities of the Compensation Committee. Under its charter, the Compensation Committee determines and approves the annual salary, bonus and other benefits of the chief executive officer and the other executive officers of the Company; reviews and submits to the Board of Directors recommendations concerning stock plans; periodically reviews the Company's policies in the area of management benefits; and oversees the Company's management development and organization structure. The Compensation Committee held four meetings in 2007.

Corporate Governance Committee. The current members of the Governance Committee are Thomas L. Young (Chairman), David T. Brown, David A. Roberts, and David M. Wathen. The Board of Directors has determined that each member of the Governance Committee is an “independent director” in compliance with the independence standards set forth in the Company’s Corporate Governance Guidelines and under applicable NASDAQ rules. The Board of Directors has adopted a Governance Committee charter, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.franklin-electric.com under "Corporate Governance," that sets forth the duties and responsibilities of the Governance Committee. Under its charter, the Governance Committee reviews the size of the Company's Board of Directors and committee structure and recommends appointments to the Board and the Board Committees; reviews and recommends to the Board of Directors the compensation of non-employee directors, including grants of awards to non-employee directors under the Company's equity based and incentive compensation plans; and develops and recommends to the Board corporate governance guidelines deemed necessary for the Company. The Governance Committee held two meetings in 2007.

Director Nomination Process

The Governance Committee is also responsible for identifying and recommending to the Board candidates for director. The Governance Committee seeks to identify as candidates for director persons from various backgrounds and with a variety of life experiences who have a reputation for and a record of integrity and good business judgment and the willingness to make an appropriate time commitment. The Governance Committee also considers whether a person has experience in a highly responsible position in a profession or industry relevant to the conduct of the Company's business. The Governance Committee takes into account the current composition of the Board and the extent to which a person's particular expertise, experience and ability will complement the expertise and experience of other directors. Candidates for director should also be free of conflicts of interest or relationships that may interfere with the performance of their duties. Based on its evaluation and consideration, the Governance Committee submits its recommendation for director candidates to the full Board of Directors, which is then responsible for selecting the candidates to be elected by the shareholders.

The Governance Committee will consider as candidates for director persons recommended or nominated by shareholders. Shareholders may recommend candidates for directors by writing to the Secretary of the Company at the address listed below under "Other Corporate Governance Matters." Nominations of directors may be made by any shareholder entitled to vote in the election of directors, provided that written notice of intent to make a nomination is given to the Secretary of the Company not later than 90 days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting of shareholders. The notice must set forth: (i) information regarding the proposed nominee as would be required to be included in a proxy statement filed pursuant to the proxy rules of the SEC, and (ii) the consent of such nominee to serve as a director of the Company if so elected.

Other Corporate Governance Matters

The Board of Directors has adopted Corporate Governance Guidelines, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.franklin-electric.com under "Corporate Governance," that provide, among other things, that the Company's independent directors will meet in executive session, outside the presence of the non-independent directors and management, at least twice a year. In 2007, the independent directors met in executive session five times.

Shareholders may contact the Board of Directors, any Board Committee, any independent director or any other director by writing to the Secretary of the Company as follows:

Franklin Electric Co., Inc.
Attention: [Board of Directors], [Board Committee], [Board Member]
c/o Corporate Secretary
Franklin Electric Co., Inc.
400 E. Spring Street
Bluffton, IN 46714

The independent directors of the Board have approved a process for collecting, organizing and responding to written shareholder communications addressed to the Board, Board Committees or individual directors. Copies of the Company's corporate governance documents, including the Board Committee charters and the Corporate Governance Guidelines are available upon written request to the Secretary of the Company at the address listed above.

In compliance with Section 406 of the Sarbanes-Oxley Act of 2002, the Company has adopted a code of business conduct and ethics for its directors, principal financial officer, controller, principal executive officer, and other employees. The Company has posted its code of ethics on the Company's website at www.franklin-electric.com. The Company will disclose any amendments to the Code and any waivers from the Code for directors and executive officers by posting such information on its website.

COMPENSATION DISCUSSION AND ANALYSIS

Management Organization and Compensation Committee

The Management Organization and Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors (the “Committee”), composed entirely of independent directors, has responsibility for establishing, implementing and monitoring adherence with the Company’s compensation program and providing input to the Board with respect to management development and succession planning. The role of the Committee is to oversee, on behalf of the Board and for the benefit of the Company and its shareholders, the Company’s compensation and benefit plans and policies, administer its stock plans (including reviewing and approving equity grants to directors and executive officers) and review and approve annually all compensation decisions relating to the CEO and the other executive officers of the Company. In addition, the Committee reviews the organization structure, recruitment of key people, management development plans for key people, and the CEO’s plan for CEO succession. The Committee meets a minimum of three times annually to review executive compensation programs, approve compensation levels and performance targets, approve final executive bonus distributions, and review management performance, development and succession.

Compensation Philosophy and Objectives

The Company and the Committee believe that compensation paid to executive officers, including the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table of this proxy statement (the “named executive officers”), should be closely aligned with the performance of the Company on both a short-term and long-term basis, and that such compensation should assist the Company in attracting and retaining key executives critical to the Company’s long-term success. Compensation should be structured to ensure that a significant portion of the executive’s compensation opportunities will be directly related to Company performance and other factors that directly and indirectly influence shareholder value. The compensation consultant retained by the Committee provides pay data that is used by the Committee to help assess and develop pay recommendations for the executive officers and the CEO. The pay data provided by the compensation consultant that is used to help assess and develop pay recommendations for the executive officers, other than the CEO, is developed utilizing a large general industry group of more than 300 companies (the “General Industry Group”). Due to the differences in size among the companies in the General Industry Group, a form of regression analysis is used to adjust the survey results based on Company revenue as compared to revenue of other companies in the General Industry Group and each executive’s level of responsibility as compared to executives in comparable positions in the General Industry Group. The compensation consultant also provides pay data that is used by the Committee to help assess and develop pay recommendations for the CEO. This pay data is based on a group of 21 companies (the “CEO Comparator Group”), which are selected based on industry (industrial goods), sales ($500M-$1B), market capitalization ($500M-$2B), and enterprise value as a multiple of sales (>1.0). The companies in the CEO Comparator Group for 2007 are: AAR Corp., Aeroflex Inc., Amcol International Corp., Baldor Electric Company, BE Aerospace, Inc., Bucyrus International, Inc., Ceradyne Inc., Clean Harbors Inc., Eagle Materials Inc., Esterline Technologies Corp., Global Industries, Ltd., GrafTech International Ltd., H&E Equipment Services Inc., Matthews International Corp., Nordson Corp., Orbital Sciences Corp., Pike Electric Corp., Simpson Manufacturing Co., Inc., Triumph Group Inc., Waste Connections Inc., and Woodward Governor Company.

The Committee encourages superior short-term performance through the use of annual cash incentive awards and superior longer-term performance through stock incentive awards designed to closely align an executive's reward to that of the shareholders. For the Company’s CEO, the cash incentive compensation is designed to reward Company-wide performance through tying his cash incentive awards to return on net assets and earnings growth. For other executive officers, the cash incentive compensation is designed to reward the achievement of specific operational goals within areas under their control, although Company-wide performance is also a factor. Stock-based compensation is in the form of performance-based restricted stock, which uses return on invested capital as its performance goal, and stock options. The Company also has retirement benefits available for its executive officers and, under certain circumstances described below, severance benefits.

Role of Executive Officers and Compensation Consultant

The Committee makes all compensation decisions with respect to the CEO and all other executive officers of the Company. The CEO annually reviews the performance of each executive officer, and based on this review presents his recommendations to the Committee regarding compensation adjustments, including with respect to salary adjustments and annual award amounts. The Committee considers the CEO's recommendations when making its final compensation decision for all executives other than the CEO.

- 11 -

The Committee utilizes the Human Resource Department and also has the authority under its charter to engage the services of outside consultants to assist the Committee. In accordance with this authority, the Committee in 2007 engaged the services of Hewitt Associates, an independent outside global human resources consulting firm, to conduct annual reviews of its total compensation program for the CEO and other executive officers, and to provide advice to the Committee in the design and implementation of its executive compensation program.

Setting Executive Compensation

The Company compensates its executives through programs that emphasize performance-based incentive compensation. The Company has structured annual and long-term cash and non-cash executive compensation to motivate executives to achieve the business goals set by the Company and rewards the executives for achieving such goals. For the executive officers, including the named executive officers, the current compensation package includes a base salary, an annual cash incentive, and grants of stock options and/or awards of restricted stock. Base salary is intended to provide a certain level of income commensurate with an executive's position, responsibilities, and contributions to the Company. The Committee believes the combined value of base salary plus annual cash incentive is competitive with the combined salary and annual incentive compensation provided to similarly situated executives, as reflected in the General Industry Group for named executive officers other than the CEO, and as reflected in the CEO Comparator Group for the CEO. In allocating compensation among these components, the Committee believes that the compensation of those senior management members having the greatest ability to influence the Company's performance should be predominately performance based, while lower levels of management should receive a greater portion of their compensation as base salary. The total compensation approved by the Committee in 2007 (consisting of base salary, annual cash incentives, and equity awards) for the named executive officers other than the CEO was in the 60th - 65th percentile of the total compensation paid to executives in comparable positions in the General Industry Group, and for the CEO was at approximately the 60th percentile of the total compensation paid to chief executive officers in the CEO Comparator Group. The Company does not use a formulaic approach in determining the weighting of each component of total compensation, but after setting each separate component reviews the total compensation package of each named executive officer to ensure that it is within the appropriate percentile range.

In addition to providing executive compensation via the three general components of base salary, annual cash incentives and equity awards, the Committee in 2007 approved a long-term bonus program that provides a bonus opportunity for selected executives, including the named executive officers, based on attainment of Company-wide performance goals measured over a five-year period from 2004-2008. This program, which was implemented in connection with the Company's commencement of a major strategic transformation of its business, is designed to recognize the fact that the transformation will take some years to implement, and includes long-term goals intended to keep the executives focused on completing the process and to reward them for the successful completion of this change to the Company's business. This program is discussed further in the "Long-Term Bonus Program" section of this Compensation Discussion and Analysis.

Base Salary

The Company pays its executives fixed annual salaries, which provide a degree of financial stability and are intended to reflect the competitive marketplace and to retain quality executives. Base salary ranges for executive officers other than the CEO are established annually using data from the General Industry Group. Executive positions are individually benchmarked against these survey sources to establish a competitive salary range for each position, which is typically targeted to be at or above the median of the survey results. The base salary range for the CEO is established using data from the CEO Comparator Group.

The actual base salary of each executive officer relative to the target established above is determined by the executive's performance, which is evaluated annually by the CEO and reviewed and approved by the Committee. In the case of the CEO, the Committee also considers the CEO's performance as well as the performance of the Company for the years during which he has held his position, and the anticipated level of difficulty of replacing the CEO with someone of comparable experience and skill. Based on these factors, the Committee established the named executive officers' base salary, beginning April 1, 2007 as follows: Mr. Trumbull: $615,000; Mr. Strupp: $240,240; Mr. Maske: 271,724 Euro; Mr. Sengstack: $286,520; and Mr. Stone: $276,525.

Annual Cash Incentive Award

The executive officers of the Company are eligible to participate in the Executive Officer Annual Incentive Cash Bonus Program. Based on market data provided by Hewitt Associates for the General Industry Group (for executive officers other than the CEO) and the CEO Comparator Group (for the CEO), the Committee annually establishes a target bonus opportunity, which is typically targeted at the 60th - 65th percentile of the cash incentive opportunity of the relevant comparator group of companies.

Under the program, the Committee approves an annual incentive cash bonus calculation for the executive officers taking into account certain financial performance targets for the Company, and, for executive officers other than the CEO, the individual's strategic task accomplishments. The Company's financial performance targets in 2007 were pre-tax return on net assets, earnings per share and, for executive officers other than the CEO, financial results based on earnings before interest and taxes ("EBIT"). The maximum bonus possible as a percent of base salary was established at above median market levels (110% of salary for executive officers other than the CEO and 150% for the CEO) with the target bonus levels set at 67.5% of salary for executive officers other than the CEO and 100% of salary for the CEO, and the threshold level set at 1% of salary for each executive.

The performance goals, and the relative percentage of salary assigned to each performance goal, are as follows:

Performance Measure	R. Scott Trumbull	Thomas J. Strupp	Peter- Christian Maske	Gregg C. Sengstack	Robert J. Stone
Return on Net Assets:	50%	28.7%	33.8%	33.8%	33.8%
Earnings Per Share:	50%	28.7%	10.1%	10.1%	10.1%
EBIT Goals:	0%	0%	13.5%	13.5%	13.5%
Strategic Objectives:	0%	10.1%	10.1%	10.1%	10.1%
Target Bonus Level	100%	67.5%	67.5%	67.5%	67.5%

Actual return on net assets for 2007 (8.9%) and earnings per share for 2007 ($1.22) fell below the 2007 threshold target levels, which resulted in no cash bonus being paid to any executive officer with respect to these two components of the annual cash incentive award.

The CEO determined the extent to which the other named executive officers have attained their individual strategic goals (while some goals can be quantified, most are qualitative). In 2007, each executive (other than the CEO, whose incentive is based entirely on Company-wide performance targets) achieved his individual business unit EBIT goal and/or strategic objective goal such that aggregate payouts below target levels were made to them. Specifically, the named executive officers other than the CEO received 2007 cash incentives ranging from 8.0 to 24.8% of salary. (The Company does not publicly report EBIT in total or by segment. These EBIT goals were set in February 2007 at "stretch" levels, and the Committee believed at the time it would require a high degree of execution of the 2007 business plan by the named executive officers in order to attain these goals.)

The Committee determined that the reason the 2007 Company-wide performance goals were not achieved at a level to result in any incentive compensation was largely a result of market forces beyond the control of the executives. The CEO, however, recommended to the Committee that a bonus still be paid to the other named executive officers based on the achievement of other Company performance measures. These include an increase in the Company's overall market share, the expansion of the market share related to the Company's pump business, the introduction of new products into the pump product line ahead of schedule, an increase in the number of distributors used by the Company, the expansion into developing countries that were not a part of the pre-established plan for 2007, the accelerated integration of its 2007 acquisition of the pump division of Monarch Industries Limited, and the approval from California regulators of its ISD software product. These achievements have resulted in a better positioning of the Company for 2008. Based on the CEO's recommendation, the Committee approved an additional bonus for the other named executive officers in an amount equal to 25% of the bonus that would have been payable had all performance goals been attained at target levels. The Committee also awarded the CEO a similar bonus payment. The named executive officers thus received total cash incentive awards ranging from 24.9 to 41.7% of salary, with the CEO receiving an award equal to 25% of salary.

For information about the specific awards made to the named executive officers for 2007, see the “Bonus” and “Non-Equity Incentive Plan Compensation” columns of the Summary Compensation Table.

In 2008, the cash incentive compensation is designed to reward Company-wide performance through tying awards primarily to economic value added and earnings per share growth targets Economic value added is a metric commonly used by companies to help compensate for significant changes in a corporation’s asset base as it goes through a period of acquisitions and consolidation, which is what the Company is currently experiencing. The maximum, target and threshold bonus levels remain the same.

Long-Term Incentive Compensation

In 2007, the Committee made grants of stock options and performance-based restricted stock to certain executive officers, including the CEO, under the Company's shareholder-approved stock plan. The purpose of these equity incentives is to encourage stock ownership, offer long-term performance incentive and to more closely align the executive's compensation with the return received by the Company's shareholders. Based on market data for the General Industry Group and the CEO Comparator Group, the Committee annually establishes for each executive (by comparable job position) an amount of compensation to be awarded in the form of equity, which is typically targeted at the 50th - 60th percentile of the equity compensation paid for comparable job positions in the relevant comparator group of companies. In 2007, half of the equity compensation was paid in the form of options, and half was paid in restricted stock. The Committee made stock option grants ranging from 3,600 shares to 14,500 shares, and awarded restricted stock ranging from 2,300 shares to 9,400 shares, to the executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table. Grants of stock options and restricted stock are typically made on an annual basis at the Committee's February meeting following the public release of the Company's fiscal year-end results. Stock options are valued as of the date of grant using a modified Black-Scholes methodology with a single approach and amortized using a straight-line attribution method over the option vesting period. Stock options have an exercise price equal to 100% of the fair market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant and vesting over four years, at 25% per year. Restricted stock is valued as of the date of grant by applying a discount of approximately 42.7% to the closing price of the common stock on the grant date to reflect the risk of forfeiture. Restricted stock vests at the end of four years if certain Company-wide performance goals are met. For additional information about the material terms of these awards, see the narrative disclosure under the Summary Compensation Table.

In 2008, the Committee made grants of only stock options to its executives, and did not make grants of restricted stock.

Long-Term Bonus Program

In 2007 the Committee had approved a long-term strategic incentive bonus program for the named executive officers and other key executives. The bonus program is designed to be a one-time award based upon achievement of certain Company performance goals, including financial goals (sales growth, earnings per share growth, and return on assets) and certain strategic goals, including reducing customer concentration levels and increasing manufacturing abroad. These goals are measured over a five-year period from 2004-2008, which reflects the period during which the Company is undergoing a major strategic transformation of its business. The Committee has established a bonus pool equal to $2.5 million from which bonus payments will be made in 2009 based on the level of attainment of these five performance goals. Each participating executive is eligible to receive a bonus if he is employed on December 31, 2008. The maximum bonus payment is equal to 100% of base salary paid in 2006 (a prorata amount is payable to an executive who becomes eligible to participate after the effective date of the plan). Each of the five performance goals are weighted at 20% of the bonus pool, and a minimum, target and maximum level is set for each goal which pays out at 50%, 100% and 150% of the bonus pool allotment, respectively, provided that the aggregate payout for any executive does not exceed 100% of his base salary in 2006. The bonus will be paid 50% in cash and 50% in an award of unrestricted shares of common stock.

Because the performance goal targets have been derived from the Company's strategic plans for future years which have not been publicly disclosed, the Company believes that disclosure of the specific targets in this proxy statement could lead to competitive harm. The performance targets were established at what the Committee believed to be aggressive levels, reflecting performance goals that would be relatively difficult to attain at the target level. While the Committee currently believes that it is unlikely that the earnings per share growth will be met at the threshold level, it believes the return on assets could meet the threshold level. The Committee also believes the remaining goals will be achieved at or above the target level, which would result in bonus payments of approximately 80% of target amounts. There is, however, no assurance that this will occur.

Stock Ownership Guidelines

In December 2006, the Board of Directors approved stock ownership guidelines for the executives of the Company, pursuant to which executives are required to maintain direct ownership in the Company's common stock in amounts as follows:

CEO: five times annual base salary.

Senior Vice Presidents: three times annual base salary.

Corporate Vice Presidents: one times annual base salary.

An individual has five years to comply with these guidelines. Stock options do not count toward these guidelines. All shares held directly or beneficially, including shares of restricted stock, shares of stock acquired upon exercise of stock options, and shares credited under the Company's Directed Investment Salary Plan and Employee Stock Ownership Plan, count toward these guidelines. All executive officers either meet or exceed these stock ownership guidelines, or are on track to meet them within the five -year period.

Retirement Plans

The Company has three defined benefit pension plans and two defined contribution retirement plans in which certain of the named executive officers currently participate.

Basic Retirement Plan

The Basic Retirement Plan is a tax-qualified plan that covers most union, hourly, and salaried employees in the U.S. Under the Basic Retirement Plan, a participant retiring at age 65 is eligible to receive a monthly single life annuity equal to his credited service times a flat dollar amount ($25 for U.S. salaried employees). Participants age 55 or older with 10 years of vesting service may retire prior to age 65 with a reduced benefit. All named executive officers except Mr. Maske currently participate in the Basic Retirement Plan. Mr. Maske, who is a resident of Germany, currently participates in a pension plan sponsored by the Company's German subsidiary.

Cash Balance Pension Plan

The Cash Balance Pension Plan is a tax-qualified plan that covers most salaried employees in the U.S. Under the Cash Balance Pension Plan, a participant is eligible to receive the amount credited to his account or a monthly single life annuity based on the amount credited to his account. The Plan benefits consist of:

- an opening balance for participants in the Plan at December 31, 1999, equal to the present value of the participant's accrued benefit earned at December 31, 1999 under the applicable prior pension plan;
- pay credits equal to a percentage of eligible compensation based on credited service and transition credits from 2000-2004 equal to 6% of eligible compensation for participants with 45 points (age plus service) at December 31, 1999; and
 - interest credits based on the 30-year Treasury rate for the November preceding each plan year.

All named executive officers other than Mr. Maske currently participate in the Cash Balance Plan.

Franklin Electric Europa GmbH Pension Plan

Mr. Maske currently participates in a pension plan sponsored by the Company's German subsidiary, which provides a monthly annuity at age 65 equal to 1.5% of his five-year average compensation, less the amount of his compensation taken into account under the German governmental pension plan in which he participates, times his years of credited service.

Pension Restoration Plan

In order to provide eligible employees, including named executive officers other than Mr. Maske, with the portion of their retirement benefits that cannot be paid under the tax-qualified pension plans, the Company maintains the Pension

- 15 -

Restoration Plan. The Plan, which is non-qualified, provides retirement benefits to eligible executives based on all eligible compensation including compensation in excess of Internal Revenue Code limits. The benefit for Mr. Trumbull and Mr. Sengstack is determined applying a formula based on credited service and final average compensation, with an offset for benefits provided by the Basic Retirement Plan, Cash Balance Pension Plan, and Social Security. The benefit for Mr. Stone and Mr. Strupp is determined applying the Cash Balance Pension Plan formula for all eligible compensation, offset for benefits provided by the Cash Balance Pension Plan.

Directed Investment Salary Plan (DISP)

The DISP is a tax qualified 401(k) plan that covers all U.S. employees including the named executive officers other than Mr. Maske. An employee can elect to defer 1-50% of his compensation on a pre-tax basis, up to a maximum in 2007 of $15,500, or $20,500 if age 50 or over, and the Company will contribute up to 3% of the employee's first 5% of deferral contributions (table listed below), taking into consideration Internal Revenue Code compensation limits. (The compensation limit was $225,000 in 2007.)

Employee Contribution Company Match

1%	1.0%
2%	1.5%
3%	2.0%
4%	2.5%
5%	3.0%

Employee Stock Ownership Plan (ESOP)

The ESOP is a tax qualified retirement plan that covers most U.S. employees. All eligible employees, including the named executive officers other than Mr. Maske, receive a Company contribution equal to ½% of annual compensation, taking into consideration the Internal Revenue Code compensation limits. The Plan invests contributions primarily in Company stock.

Perquisites and Other Personal Benefits

The Company does not provide the named executive officers with perquisites or other personal benefits such as Company vehicles, club memberships, financial planning assistance, tax preparation, or other benefits not described above. The only exception is that the Company provides use of a vehicle to Mr. Maske as part of his employment agreement described below. The value of this benefit is disclosed in the Summary Compensation Table.

Employment Agreements

The Company has employment agreements with Mr. Trumbull, Mr. Strupp, Mr. Sengstack, and Mr. Maske.

The agreements with Messrs. Trumbull, Sengstack, and Strupp are three-year agreements, which automatically extend for an additional year unless either party gives notice not to renew. If the agreement is not renewed by the Company, and the executive terminates his employment, the executive is entitled to a payment equal to 12 months of salary and the bonus paid for the preceding year, a pro-rata portion of the bonus paid for the prior year, continued participation in the Company's benefit plans for 12 months, and immediate vesting of all stock options. If the executive's employment is terminated without cause by the Company or for good reason by the executive (as defined in the agreements), the executive is entitled to these same benefits, except that Messrs. Trumbull and Sengstack are entitled to 18 months of continued salary, 1½ times the bonus paid for the preceding year and 18 months of benefits continuation. If the executive's employment is terminated without cause by the Company or for good reason by the executive following a change in control of the Company, the executive is entitled to receive a payment equal to 36 months of continued salary, three times the bonus paid for the preceding year (24 months of salary and two times bonus for Mr. Strupp), a pro-rata portion of the bonus paid for the prior year, continued participation in the Company's benefit plans for 36 months (24 for Mr. Strupp), and immediate vesting and cashout of outstanding options. In addition, the executive will receive a gross-up payment to cover any liability arising under Internal Revenue Code Section 280G as a result of the payments. Under his agreement, Mr. Trumbull is deemed to have five years of full-time service with the Company as of January 1, 2003 for purposes of vesting under certain employee benefits plans of the Company.

The employment agreement with Mr. Maske continues until attainment of age 65 (or state pension eligibility, if earlier), subject to the earlier termination by either party upon six months prior written notice. If the agreement is terminated, the Company is required to provide continued compensation and health benefits for six months following the termination notice. If termination is effected in connection with a change in control of the Company, the Company is required to provide continued compensation and health benefits for two years from the earlier of the date of termination or the change in control.

Messrs. Trumbull, Sengstack, Stone and Strupp have each signed a confidentiality and non-compete agreement with the Company. Under this agreement, they agree to maintain all confidential information of the Company, and for a period of 18 months after termination of employment from the Company they agree not to, directly or indirectly, participate in the design, development, manufacture, or distribution of electrical submersible motors or related products in competition with the Company.

Deductibility of Executive Compensation

Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code limits the deductibility for federal income tax purposes of executive compensation paid to the CEO and the three other most highly compensated officers other than the chief financial officer of a public company to $1,000,000 per year, but contains an exception for certain performance-based compensation. Base salary, by its nature, does not qualify as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m) and the Company's annual incentive cash bonus payments do not qualify as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m). The Company's grants of stock options and restricted stock under its stock award plans qualify as performance-based compensation under Section 162(m). In 2007, the CEO was paid a combined base salary and incentive cash award that exceeded the Section 162(m) limit by $345,300. The Board of Directors previously concluded that the adverse tax consequences to the Company of paying compensation in excess of $1,000,000 was not so significant at the proposed compensation level that Section 162(m) needed to be considered in the compensation setting process.

Estimated Possible Payouts under Non Equity Incentive Plan Awards

The amounts reflected in the first row of the non-equity incentive compensation estimate for 2007 were established under the Executive Officer Annual Incentive Bonus Program. A description of this program can be found in the "Compensation Discussion and Analysis" section of this proxy statement. The estimated payouts shown in the table were based on performance in 2007, which has now occurred. Thus, the amounts shown in “threshold”, “target”, and “maximum” columns reflect the range of potential payouts when the performance goals were set in early 2007. Actual amounts paid for 2007 are reflected in the Summary Compensation Table.

The amounts reflected in the second row of the non-equity incentive compensation estimate for 2007 were established under the Long-Term Bonus Program. Payouts under this program will occur in 2009, based on the level of attainment of performance goals set for 2004-2008. The 50% portion of this incentive payout that is made in cash is reflected in this second row. A description of this program can be found in the “Compensation Discussion and Analysis” section of this proxy statement.

Estimated Possible Payouts under Equity Incentive Plan Awards

The amounts reflected in the first row are the estimated payouts of restricted stock awards, based on the closing price of the Company’s Common Stock at December 28, 2007, $38.84 per share, times the number of shares awarded to each named executive officer in 2007: 9,400 for Mr. Trumbull and 2,300 for each of the other named executive officers. Awards vest on the fourth anniversary of the grant date, provided that the Company’s return on invested capital at the end of the four-year vesting period exceeds the average return on invested capital of a peer group of companies (Flowserve Corporation, ITT Corporation, Pentair, Inc., Regal Beloit Corporation, A.O. Smith Corporation, The Gorman Rupp Company, The KSB Group, Ebara Corporation, and Grundfos Group), over the same four-year period. Vesting is accelerated upon a change in control of the Company. Dividends are paid on restricted stock at the same rate as paid to stockholders generally.

The amounts reflected in the second row of the equity incentive compensation estimate for 2007 were established under the Long-Term Bonus Program. Payouts under this program will occur in 2009, based on the level of attainment of performance goals set for 2004-2008. The 50% portion of this incentive payout that is made in shares of unrestricted stock is reflected in this second row. A description of this program can be found in the “Compensation Discussion and Analysis” section of this proxy statement.

All Other Option Awards

Stock option grants were approved by the Committee at its regularly scheduled meeting on February 9, 2007. The exercise price for grants of stock options is determined using the closing price of the Company’s Common Stock on the date of grant. The option grants expire after ten years and are vested over four years, at 25% per year. Vesting is accelerated upon a change in control of the Company.

Grant Date Fair Value of Options and Awards

The grant date fair value of the stock options and stock awards shown in the above table was computed in accordance with FAS 123(R) and represents the total projected expense to the Company of grants made in 2007.

Option Awards

Each option grant has a ten-year term and vests pro rata over four or five years beginning on the first anniversary of the grant date. Options with grant dates prior to January 1, 2005 vest over five years, and options with grant dates after January 1, 2005 vest over four years. Vesting is accelerated upon a change in control of the Company. Exercise prices are determined using the closing price of the Company's Common Stock on the date of grant.

Stock Awards

Restricted stock awards were granted to Mr. Stone on March 3, 2005 (10,000 shares) and to Mr. Strupp on July 25, 2005 (5,000 shares). On February 9, 2007 and February 17, 2006, restricted stock awards were granted to Mr. Trumbull (9,400 and 6,700 shares, respectively) and each of the other named executive officers (2,300 and 1,400 shares, respectively). The market value of the unearned awards was determined using the closing price of the Company's Common Stock on December 28, 2007 ($38.84 per share) and December 29, 2006 ($51.39 per share), respectively.

Awards vest on the fourth anniversary of the grant date, provided that the Company's return on invested capital at the end of the four-year vesting period exceeds the average return on invested capital of a peer group of companies, (Flowserve Corporation, ITT Corporation, Pentair, Inc., Regal Beloit Corporation, A.O. Smith Corporation, The Gorman Rupp Company, The KSB Group, Ebara Corporation, and Grundfos Group), over the same four-year period. Vesting is accelerated upon a change in control of the Company.

2007 Option Exercises and Stock Vested

There were no options exercised or restricted stock awards vested by the named executive officers during the fiscal year ended December 29, 2007.

2007 Pension Benefits Table

The following table sets forth (i) the years of service currently credited to each named executive officer under the Company's pension plans and (ii) the present value of the accumulated benefit payable under each pension plan to each of the named executive officers upon retirement.

Robert J. Stone	Basic Retirement Plan	15.3	15,948	0
	Cash Balance Pension Plan	7.5	48,499	0
	Pension Restoration Plan	7.5	25,480	0

(1) In the Pension Restoration Plan, Mr. Trumbull is credited with his years of service on the Board for purposes of vesting. $397,172 of column (d) is attributable to this additional credited service.

(2) The amounts in this column are based on a retirement age of 65 for Messrs. Trumbull, Strupp, and Maske, and a retirement age of 62 for Messrs. Sengstack and Stone, since these are the ages at which each executive can retire and receive benefits without any reduction due to age.

(3) This amount was converted to USD at the December 31, 2007 Euro exchange rate of 1.46.

Basic Retirement Plan

The Basic Retirement Plan is a tax-qualified pension plan that covers all U.S. employees of the Company and its affiliates, including the named executive officers, as of their date of hire. The Basic Retirement Plan provides each named executive officer with a monthly single life annuity commencing at normal retirement age (age 65) equal to the number of years of credited service times $25. Participants are eligible to receive benefits after completing five years of vesting service. Participants who terminate employment after age 55 with 10 years of vesting service are eligible to receive early retirement benefits that are reduced to reflect commencement prior to age 65. Participants who terminate employment on or after age 62 with 25 years of vesting service are eligible to receive early retirement benefits that are unreduced for commencement prior to age 65. Participants with five years of vesting service who terminate employment and are not eligible to receive early retirement benefits are eligible for benefits commencing at age 65. No named executive officer is currently eligible for early retirement benefits.

The benefit formula calculates the benefit payable in a single life annuity form, which is the normal form of benefit for unmarried participants. The normal form of benefit payment for married participants is a 50% joint and survivor annuity. Participants, with spousal consent if applicable, can waive the normal form and elect to have benefits paid in various annuity forms, which are the actuarially equivalent of the single life annuity form.

Mr. Maske has an accrued benefit under the Basic Retirement Plan based on his prior service as a U.S. employee. As a current employee of the Company's German subsidiary, he no longer accrues benefits under the Basic Retirement Plan, but is covered by the pension plan maintained by the German subsidiary.

Cash Balance Pension Plan

The Cash Balance Pension Plan is a tax-qualified pension plan that covers all U.S. employees of the Company and its affiliates who are classified as "exempt" and who are not covered by a collective bargaining agreement, which includes each named executive officer. An account is maintained for each participant under the Plan, which consists of (i) an opening account balance equal to the then present value of the participant's accrued benefit, if any, earned as of December 31, 1999 under one of the Company's prior pension plans, (ii) annual contributions made by the Company as of the end of each calendar year that range from 3% to 12% of the participant's compensation (based on the participant's credited service); (iii) annual transitional credits made by the Company from 2000-2004 equal to 6% of compensation of each participant whose age and years of vesting service as of December 31, 1999 totaled 45 or more; and (iv) annual interest credits made by the Company as of the end of each calendar year, based on the 30-year Treasury securities rate for the November preceding each such year (subject to a minimum interest rate of 4.5%). Compensation includes wages subject to withholding, excluding income recognized in connection with the Company's stock based plans, reimbursements or other expense allowances, fringe benefits, moving expenses, deferred compensation and welfare benefits (in accordance with Internal Revenue Code limits, the maximum compensation taken into account in determining benefits was limited to $225,000 in 2007).

Participants are eligible to receive benefits after completing five years of service. They can elect to receive their benefits upon termination of employment or they can defer receipt of benefits until age 65. Any accounts remaining in the Cash Balance Plan will continue to be credited with interest until the account is paid. The normal form of benefit payment for unmarried participants is a single life annuity, and the normal form of benefit payment for married participants is a 50% joint and survivor annuity. Participants, with spousal consent if applicable, can waive the normal form and elect to have benefits paid in various annuity forms, which are the actuarially equivalent of the normal form, or in a lump sum.

Mr. Maske has an accrued benefit under the Cash Balance Pension Plan based on his prior service as a U.S. employee. He currently accrues pension benefits under the pension plan maintained by the Company's German subsidiary.

Pension Restoration Plan

The Pension Restoration Plan is an unfunded, non-qualified pension plan that is intended to provide an employee with the portion of his benefits that cannot be paid under the Cash Balance Pension Plan or the Contributory Retirement Plan (the predecessor to the Cash Balance Pension Plan) due to Internal Revenue Code limitations on the amount of compensation that can be taken into account in determining benefits under, and the amount of benefits that can be paid from, tax-qualified pension plans. The Plan covers U.S. employees who are selected by the Employee Benefits Committee to participate, which includes all of the named executive officers except Mr. Maske.

The benefits of Mr. Trumbull and Mr. Sengstack are based on the formula in effect under the Contributory Retirement Plan on December 31, 1999, but without regard to the Internal Revenue Code limits. This formula is based on the employee's credited service and final three-year average compensation, with an offset for benefits provided by the Cash Balance Pension Plan. There is a minimum benefit whereby if the monthly benefit amount paid to the employee under the Basic Retirement Plan, Cash Balance Pension Plan, Pension Restoration Plan and Social Security is less than a designated percentage of the employee's three-year final average compensation, the difference is paid from the Pension Restoration Plan. The current designated percentage (which is based on years of service at retirement) for Mr. Trumbull is 40% (assuming retirement at age 65) and the current designated percentage for Mr. Sengstack is 50% (assuming retirement at age 62).

The benefits of Mr. Stone and Mr. Strupp are determined by applying the Cash Balance Pension Plan formula for all eligible compensation (including compensation in excess of the Code limits), offset for the benefits provided by the Cash Balance Pension Plan.

The benefit accrued under the Pension Restoration Plan is paid upon termination of employment as follows: (i) if the lump sum value is less than $1,000,000, it will be paid in a lump sum within 90 days following termination; (ii) if the lump sum value is more than $1,000,000 but less than $2,000,000, one-half of the benefit will be paid within 90 days following termination, the remaining benefit will be paid as a single life annuity over the first 12 months following termination, and the benefit remaining at the end of the 12-month period will be paid in a lump sum on the first anniversary of termination; (iii) if the lump sum value is $2,000,000 or more, one-third will be paid within 90 days following termination, the remaining benefit will be paid as a single life annuity over the first 12 months following termination, one-half of the benefit remaining at the end of the 12-month period will be paid in a lump sum on the first anniversary of termination, the remaining benefit will be paid as a single life annuity over the second 12-month period following termination and the benefit remaining at the end of the second 12-month period will be paid in a lump sum on the second anniversary of termination. If the participant is deemed to be a “key employee” as defined by the Internal Revenue Code, any distribution that is payable due to termination of employment will be delayed for six months following the date of such termination. Notwithstanding the foregoing, upon a change in control of the Company, all participants become fully vested in their benefits, all benefits will be paid in a lump sum within 60 days after the change in control and active participants will have three years of additional age and service credits in determining benefits.

Franklin Electric Europa GmbH Pension Plan

Mr. Maske is covered by a pension plan sponsored by the Company's German subsidiary, which operates to provide benefits in addition to those provided under a German government sponsored pension plan. The governmental plan provides benefits based on a participant's compensation up to a certain limit (Euros 63,000 in 2007). The pension plan of Franklin Electric Europa GmbH provides a monthly annuity benefit payable at normal retirement (age 65) equal to (i) the participant's five-year average compensation less the compensation taken into account under the governmental plan, times (ii) 1.5%, times (iii) the participant's years of credited service. Participants age 60 or older with five years of vesting service may retire and commence receiving a reduced benefit.

Pension Plan Assumptions

The assumptions used in calculating the present value of the accumulated pension benefits are set forth in Footnote 8 to the Company's Annual Report to Shareholders for the year ended December 29, 2007. The Company does not grant additional years of credited service under its pension plans, other than the additional years of service credited to Mr. Trumbull (as described in footnote 1 to the table above), which was intended to ensure full vesting and benefits in the first years of his employment.

Potential Payments upon Termination or Change in Control of the Company

The Company provides benefits to certain of the named executive officers upon certain terminations of employment from the Company. These benefits are in addition to the benefits to which the executives would be entitled upon a termination of employment generally (i.e., vested retirement benefits accrued as of the date of termination, stock awards that are vested as of the date of termination and the right to elect continued health coverage pursuant to COBRA). The incremental benefits payable to the executives are described as follows:

Employment Agreements

The employment agreements of Messrs. Trumbull, Sengstack, and Strupp are three-year agreements, which automatically renew for an additional year unless either party provides advance written notice of an election not to extend the term. The agreements provide the following severance benefits under the described termination scenarios:

- Termination – Nonrenewal of Employment Agreement. If the executive terminates his employment at any time during the term of the agreement after receipt of notice from the Company of its decision to not extend the term, he is entitled to an immediate payment equal to a pro-rata portion of the bonus paid for the preceding year, an immediate payment equal to 12 months of his then current salary and one times the bonus paid for the preceding year, immediate vesting of all outstanding stock options, and continued participation in all of the Company's employee benefit plans for the applicable severance period.
- Termination – Prior to a Change in Control. If a Change in Control of the Company (as defined in the agreements) has not occurred and the executive's employment is terminated by the Company for other than "Cause" or the executive terminates his employment for "Good Reason," he is entitled to an immediate payment equal to a pro-rata portion of the bonus paid for the preceding year, an immediate payment equal to 18 months of his then current salary and one and one-half times the bonus paid for the preceding year (12 months and one times the bonus paid for the preceding year for Mr. Strupp), immediate vesting of all outstanding stock options, and continued participation in all of the Company's employee benefit plans for the applicable severance period.

- Termination – Following a Change in Control. If following a Change in Control of the Company (as defined in the agreements) the executive’s employment is terminated within two years of the Change in Control by the Company for other than Cause or by the executive for Good Reason, or the executive terminates his employment at any time during the 13th month following the Change in Control, he is entitled to an immediate payment equal to a pro-rata portion of the bonus paid for the preceding year, an immediate payment equal to 36 months of his then current salary and three times the bonus paid for the preceding year (24 months and two times the bonus paid for the preceding year for Mr. Strupp), immediate vesting and cash out of all outstanding stock options, and continued participation in all of the Company’s employee benefit plans for the applicable severance period, and a gross-up payment to cover any excise and related income tax liability arising under Section 280G of the Internal Revenue Code as a result of any payment or benefit under the agreement.

For purposes of the employment agreements:

- “Good Cause” means the executive’s death or disability, his fraud, misappropriation of, or intentional material damage to, the property or business of the Company, his commission of a felony likely to result in material harm or injury to the Company, or his willful and continued material failure to perform his obligations.
- “Good Reason” exists if (a) there is a change in the executive’s title or a significant change in the nature or the scope of his authority, (b) there is a reduction in the executive’s salary or retirement benefits or a material reduction in the executive’s compensation and benefits in the aggregate, (c) the Company changes the principal location in which the executive is required to perform services to more than fifty miles away, (d) the executive reasonably determines that, as a result of a change in circumstances significantly affecting his position, he is unable to exercise the authority or duties attached to his positions, or (e) any purchaser of substantially all of the assets of the Company declines to assume the obligations under the employment agreement.

The employment agreement of Mr. Maske continues until he attains the age of 65 or is entitled to receive state pension benefits. If Mr. Maske is unable to perform his duties due to illness not caused by him, he is entitled to receive continued salary for six months. In addition, upon his death, his spouse or other beneficiary is entitled to receive Mr. Maske’s continued salary for three months. The Company or Mr. Maske can terminate the agreement early, by giving six months prior notice. In such case, the Company will continue to pay his then annual compensation and continue to provide health benefits for six months from the termination notice (or in the event of a termination in connection with a change in control of the Company, for 24 months following the earlier of the termination or change in control).

Pension Restoration Plan

The Pension Restoration Plan, in which all named executive officers other than Mr. Maske participate, provides that upon a Change in Control of the Company (as defined in the Plan), (i) all participants will become 100% vested in their benefits, which will be paid in an immediate lump sum within 60 days, and (ii) active participants will have three years of additional credit for age and service in determining their benefits under the Plan.

Stock Plan

The Company’s Stock Plan provides that upon a Change in Control of the Company all outstanding awards become fully vested, all restrictions on any awards terminate or lapse and performance goals applicable to stock awards will be deemed satisfied at the highest level.

The tables set forth below quantify the additional benefits described above that would be paid to each named executive officer under the following termination scenarios, assuming a non-renewal on the employment agreement, termination of employment and/or change in control occurred on December 28, 2007.

Stock Awards

Non-employee directors participate in the Franklin Electric Co., Inc. Stock Plan. In 2007, the Corporate Governance Committee granted each non-employee director an award of 1,838 shares of the Company's Common Stock, which vested immediately upon grant and had a market value of $80,000 on the April 27, 2007 date of grant.

Deferred Compensation

Non-employee directors may participate in the Non-Employee Directors' Deferred Compensation Plan (the "Deferred Compensation Plan"). Under the Deferred Compensation Plan, each non-employee director may elect to defer, for each calendar year, all of his or her annual retainer, fees and stock award until his or her service on the Board terminates. At the time the director makes the deferral election, he or she must elect to have the deferred retainer and fees either (i) credited with interest on a monthly basis at the rate in effect for the Wells Fargo Stable Return Fund or (ii) converted into stock units, with credits equal to the cash dividends that would have been paid had the units been actual shares of Common Stock owned by the director. Deferred stock awards will also be converted into stock units and credited with dividends. If the director does not elect to defer his or her compensation under the Deferred Compensation Plan, the director can elect to have the retainer paid in the form of cash or stock.

Consulting Directors' Plan

The Company maintained a Consulting Directors' Plan for non-employee directors who retire from Board service at age 70 or older. Under this Plan, each director was eligible to enter into a consulting agreement with the Company pursuant to which the consulting director agrees to be available for consultation from time to time and is entitled to receive an annual fee for such services equal to the director's fee in effect at retirement. The consulting director can receive this fee for up to the same number of years that he served as director. The Company amended the Consulting Directors' Plan to (i) limit future participation to the Company's non-employee directors first elected before 2003 (Messrs. Brady and Witt), and (ii) base the consulting fees on the retainer amount in effect as of June 1, 2006 and years of service as a director as of June 1, 2006.

Stock Ownership Guidelines

In 2006, the Board of Directors approved stock ownership guidelines for the non-employee directors, pursuant to which they are required to maintain direct ownership in the Company's common stock with a value equal to four times their annual retainer. An individual has five years to comply with these guidelines. All shares held directly or beneficially, including stock awards, shares acquired upon exercise of stock options and shares credited under the Non-Employee Directors' Compensation Plan, count toward these guidelines. Stock options do not count toward these guidelines. All non-employee directors either meet or exceed these guidelines, or are on track to meet them within the five-year period.
