Acquisition Overview

On September 23, 2014 (September 24, 2014 Japan time), Starbucks Corporation, a Washington corporation (the "Company"), Solar Japan Holdings G.K., an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company ("Acquisition Sub") and Starbucks Coffee Japan, Ltd., a publicly traded Japanese corporation listed on the JASDAQ market of the Tokyo Stock Exchange ("Starbucks Japan") entered into a tender offer bid agreement (the "Tender Agreement") with Sazaby League, Ltd., a Japanese corporation ("Sazaby"), providing for the terms of the planned acquisition (the "Acquisition") by Acquisition Sub of all of the outstanding shares of Starbucks Japan that are not currently indirectly owned by the Company (approximately 60.5% of the shares outstanding). The Company currently indirectly owns approximately 39.5% of the outstanding shares of Starbucks Japan.

Pursuant to the terms of the Tender Agreement, the Acquisition is structured as a two-step tender offer under Japanese law, with Sazaby selling its shares to the Company in the first step (the "First Tender Offer Step") and the remaining public shareholders selling to the Company in the second step (the "Second Tender Offer Step") for a combined aggregate purchase price of approximately ¥99.5 billion (approximately $913.5 million). Purchase price amounts presented in US dollars throughout this Form 8-K are based on a reference conversion rate of 108.93 JPY to USD.

First Tender Offer Step

Under the terms of the Tender Agreement, in the First Tender Offer Step Sazaby is to tender all of its Starbucks Japan shares (approximately 57,000,000 shares, constituting approximately 39.5% of the outstanding shares of Starbucks Japan) at a price per share of ¥965, for an aggregate consideration of approximately ¥55 billion (approximately $505 million). The Company expects to commence the First Tender Offer Step on September 26, 2014, with settlement to occur during the Company's first quarter of fiscal 2015. Pursuant to the terms of the Tender Agreement, Starbucks Japan has agreed that it will not conduct certain material actions that are beyond the ordinary course of business of Starbucks Japan (except for those required by laws and regulations) without consent of the Company until after the settlement date for the Second Tender Offer Step. Upon the successful settlement of the First Tender Offer Step, the Company will own approximately 79% of the outstanding shares of Starbucks Japan.

Second Tender Offer Step

If the First Tender Offer Step is completed, the Acquisition Sub will implement the Second Tender Offer Step with the objective of acquiring all of the outstanding shares (including shares issuable upon the exercise of outstanding stock options) of Starbucks Japan that are not already owned directly or indirectly by the Company. The purchase price for shares purchased in the Second Tender Offer Step is ¥1,465 per share for an aggregate consideration of approximately ¥44.5 billion (approximately $408.5 million). The tender offer period for the Second Tender Offer Step (the "Second Tender Offer Period") is currently expected to be from November 10, 2014 to December 29, 2014. The commencement date of the Second Tender Offer Period may be delayed or the Second Tender Offer Period may be changed due to, for example, an extension of the First Tender Offer Step period or any delay of the settlement of the First Tender Offer Step. In such cases, the Company would commence the Second Tender Offer Step as soon as practically possible after any such extension or delay. In any event, the Second Tender Offer Period will not be less than 30 business days. If the First Tender Offer Step is not completed, the Company will not implement the Second Tender Offer Step.

Cash-out Procedure

Immediately after the successful completion of the Second Tender Offer Step, the Company intends to commence a cash-out procedure under Japanese law (the "Cash-out") in order to purchase any and all shares that remain outstanding at that time. As part of the Cash-out, minority shareholders will receive cash in exchange for their shares of Starbucks Japan at the same per share purchase price paid in the Second Tender Offer Step. At the conclusion of the Cash-out, Starbucks Japan will become a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company. The Company expects to complete the Cash-out during the first half of calendar year 2015.

Conditions to Completion of the Acquisition

The completion of each of the First and Second Tender Offer Steps are subject to customary settlement conditions under Japanese law.

The information contained in this Current Report on Form 8-K shall not be incorporated by reference into any registration statement or other document pursuant to the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”), or the Exchange Act, except as shall be expressly set forth by specific reference in any such filing.

Safe Harbor Statement under U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995.

Certain statements contained herein are “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the applicable securities laws and regulations. Generally, these statements can be identified by the use of words such as “anticipate,” “expect,” “believe,” “could,” “estimate,” “feel,” “forecast,” “intend,” “may,” “plan,” “potential,” “project,” “should,” “will,” “would,” and other expressions intended to identify forward-looking statements, although not all forward-looking statements contain these identifying words. These statements are based on information available to Starbucks as of the date hereof, and Starbucks actual results or performance could differ materially from those stated or implied, due to risks and uncertainties associated with its business. These risks and uncertainties include, but are not limited to, the failure of the parties to consummate the two-step tender offer due to commercial, regulatory or other reasons, as well as general economic and industry factors such as coffee, dairy and other raw material pricing and availability, successful execution of internal performance and expansion plans, fluctuations in U.S., Japanese and other international economies and currencies, the impact of initiatives by competitors, the effect of legal proceedings, and other risks detailed in the Company’s filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the “Risk Factors” section of the Company’s Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 29, 2013. The Company assumes no obligation to update these forward-looking statements.
