American Israeli Paper Mills Ltd. Potential Class Action Suit

Hadera, Israel, January 17, 2007 American Israeli Paper Mills Ltd. (ASE:AIP) (the Company or AIPM) announced that a petition was filed against Hogla-Kimberly LTD (H-K), an affiliated company (49.9%), for the approval of a class action. According to the petition, 3.5 years ago H-K reduced the quantity of wipes in the baby wipes packages of its Titulim® Premium brand and thus misled the public according to the Israeli Consumer Protection Act. The plaintiff estimates the scope of the class action to be approximately NIS 28 million. H-K rejects the claims and intends to defend itself against the action. At this early stage H-K is not able to assess the chances of the class action and its influences.
