HEWLETT PACKARD CO
Form 425
December 10, 2001

Filed by Hewlett-Packard Company Pursuant to Rule 425
Under the Securities Act of 1933
And Deemed Filed Pursuant to Rule 14a-12
Under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934
Subject Company: Compaq Computer Corporation
Commission File No.: 1-9026

This filing relates to a planned merger (the "Merger") between Hewlett-Packard Company ("HP") and Compaq Computer Corporation ("Compaq") pursuant to the terms of an Agreement and Plan of Reorganization, dated as of September 4, 2001 (the "Merger Agreement"), by and among HP, Heloise Merger Corporation and Compaq. The Merger Agreement is on file with the Securities and Exchange Commission as an exhibit to the Current Report on Form 8-K, as amended, filed by Hewlett-Packard Company on September 4, 2001, and is incorporated by reference into this filing.

The following is an article discussing the Merger in light of the December 7, 2001 announcement by the Packard Foundation. The article is posted on HP's internal web site.

PACKARD FOUNDATION ANNOUNCES PRELIMINARY INTENT TO VOTE AGAINST MERGER

Following a meeting held at its Los Altos, California, headquarters December 7, the board of directors of the David and Lucile Packard Foundation announced that it had "preliminarily determined" that the nonprofit organization intends to vote its shares against HP's proposed merger with Compaq. The foundation is the largest single owner of HP stock with about 201.3 million shares, or about 10.4 percent of the total number of HP shares outstanding.

"The board of trustees understands the strategic considerations being addressed by management," said Susan Packard Orr, foundation chairman and daughter of co-founder David Packard, "but after thorough study and analysis, the board has preliminarily decided, on balance, that the best interests of the foundation would be better served by Hewlett-Packard not proceeding with the proposed transaction."

Last month, Walter Hewlett and David Woodley Packard -- sons of HP's co-founders -- announced their intention to oppose the merger, saying that they intended to vote against the deal with their shares and the shares held by the family foundations and trusts each of them controls. In total, the number of shares held by Hewlett and Packard, their foundations and representatives, Susan Packard Orr and the Packard Foundation comprise about 18 percent of the total HP shares outstanding.

"We are disappointed by the Packard Foundation's preliminary decision," stated a joint press release from HP and Compaq in response to the announcement. "Nevertheless, our responsibility to shareowners, customers and employees requires that we maintain a pragmatic view of the business and a focus on the future. Our firm commitment to this merger stems from our conviction that it will deliver the industry leadership and earnings growth our shareowners expect and our employees deserve.

Over the coming weeks and months, we intend to continue communicating its merits to our broad shareowner base."

The majority of the shares of HP stock -- about 57 percent -- are held by institutional owners. An additional 25 percent are owned by retail customers. HP employees hold about 3 percent of the stock, which is held in both the retail and institutional categories.

FORWARD-LOOKING STATEMENTS

This document contains forward-looking statements that involve risks, uncertainties and assumptions. If any of these risks or uncertainties materializes or any of these assumptions proves incorrect, the results of HP and its consolidated subsidiaries could differ materially from those expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. All statements other than statements of historical fact are statements that could be deemed forward-looking statements, including any projections of earnings, revenues, synergies, accretion or other financial items; any statements of the plans, strategies, and objectives of management for future operations, including the execution of integration and restructuring plans and the anticipated timing of filings, approvals and closings relating to the Compaq transaction or other planned acquisitions; any statements concerning proposed new products, services, developments or industry rankings; any statements regarding future economic conditions or performance; any statements of belief and any statements of assumptions underlying any of the foregoing. The risks, uncertainties and assumptions referred to above include the ability of HP to retain and motivate key employees; the timely development, production and acceptance of products and services and their feature sets; the challenge of managing asset levels, including inventory; the flow of products into third-party distribution channels; the difficulty of keeping expense growth at modest levels while increasing revenues; the challenges of integration and restructuring associated with the Compaq transaction or other planned acquisitions and the challenges of achieving anticipated synergies; the possibility that the Compaq transaction or other planned acquisitions may not close or that HP, Compaq or other parties to planned acquisitions may be required to modify some aspects of the acquisition transactions in order to obtain regulatory approvals; the assumption of maintaining revenues on a combined company basis following the close of the Compaq transaction or other planned acquisitions; and other risks that are described from time to time in HP's Securities and Exchange Commission reports, including but not limited to the annual report on Form 10-K for the year ended Oct. 31, 2000, and subsequently filed reports. HP assumes no obligation and does not intend to update these forward-looking statements.
