As described in this Schedule 13D, some of the shares of Common Stock that may be deemed to be indirectly beneficially owned by Mr. Linting are directly beneficially owned by the following entities: (i) Richard L. Linting Trust and (ii) Richard L. Linting GST Trust. Richard L. Linting expressly disclaims beneficial ownership of any shares of Common Stock other than those shares directly beneficially owned by him. The filing of this Schedule 13D shall not be deemed to be an admission that Mr. Linting is, for the purposes of Section 13(d) or 13(g) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, the beneficial owner of any securities covered by this Schedule 13D other than those shares of Common Stock directly beneficially owned by him.

Item 1. Security and Issuer.

Item 2. Identity and Background.

(a) - (c) This statement is being filed on behalf of Mr. Linting. Mr. Linting is presently employed as President - Security Services of the Company and of Patron Systems, Inc., a Delaware corporation and a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company ("Patron"). The primary address for Mr. Linting is 2030 N. Sedgwick, Unit O, Chicago, IL 60614.

(d) - (e) During the last five years, Mr. Linting has not been (i) convicted in a criminal proceeding (excluding traffic violations or similar misdemeanors) or (ii) a party to a civil proceeding of a judicial or administrative body of competent jurisdiction which resulted in a judgment, decree or final order enjoining future violations of, or prohibiting or mandating activities subject to, Federal or State securities laws or finding any violation with respect to such laws.

(f) Mr. Linting is a citizen of the United States.

Item 3. Source and Amount of Funds or Other Consideration.

Pursuant to the Amended and Restated Share Exchange Agreement, dated as of October 10, 2002, between the Company and the shareholders of Patron named therein (the "Share Exchange Agreement"), a copy of which was attached as Exhibit 2.1 to the Company's filing on Form 8-K on October 10, 2002 and which is incorporated herein by reference, on October 10, 2002, Mr. Linting indirectly acquired 1,500,000 shares of Common Stock that were directly acquired from the Company by the following entities: (i) Richard L. Schedule 13D other than those shares of Common Stock directly beneficially owned by him.

Item 4. Purpose of Transaction.

Mr. Linting's purpose in acquiring the shares of Common Stock reported in Item 5(a) hereof is for investment. Mr. Linting may purchase additional shares of Common Stock from time to time, either in the open market or in privately negotiated transactions. Any decision of Mr. Linting to increase or decrease his holdings in Common Stock will depend, however, on numerous factors, including, without limitation, the price per share of the Common Stock, the terms and conditions related to the purchase and sale, the prospects and profitability of the Company, other business and investment alternatives of Mr. Linting and general economic and market conditions. At any time, Mr. Linting may determine to dispose of some or all of his holdings of Common Stock depending on those and other considerations.

In connection with such a reincorporation merger, there could be changes in the composition of the board of directors of the Company, material changes in the present capitalization of the Company or changes in the Company's charter or bylaws. Mr. Linting is aware that the Company intends to grow through the acquisition of software providers, although there can be no guarantee that such acquisitions will be consummated.

Except as set forth above, Mr. Linting does not have any plans or proposals that relate to or would result in: (i) the acquisition by any person of additional securities of the Company or the disposition of securities of the Company; (ii) an extraordinary corporate transaction, such as a merger, reorganization or liquidation, involving the Company; (iii) a sale or transfer of a material amount of assets of the Company; (iv) any change in the present board of directors or management of the Company, including any plans or proposals to change the number or term of directors or to fill any existing vacancies on the board; (v) any material change in the present capitalization or dividend policy of the Company; (vi) any other material change in the Company's business or corporate structure; (vii) changes in the Company's charter, bylaws or instruments corresponding thereto or other actions which may impede the acquisition of control of the Company by any person; (viii) causing a class of securities of the Company to be delisted from a national securities exchange or cease to be authorized to be quoted in an interdealer quotation system of a registered national securities association; (ix) a class of equity securities of the Company becoming eligible for termination of registration pursuant to Section 12(g)(4) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934; or (x) any action similar to any of those enumerated above.
