Item 1.01 Entry Into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On August 31, 2006, Intergraph Corporation, a Delaware corporation (the Company), entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Merger Agreement) with Cobalt Holding Company, a Delaware corporation (Parent), and Cobalt Merger Corp., a Delaware corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (Merger Sub). Under the terms of the Merger Agreement, Merger Sub will be merged with and into the Company, with the Company continuing as the surviving corporation and a wholly-owned subsidiary of Parent (the Merger). Parent is owned by Hellman & Friedman, LLC and Texas Pacific Group, private investment firms (the Sponsors). Other than the Merger Agreement, there is no material relationship between the Company and either Parent or Merger Sub.

At the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding share of common stock, par value $.10 per share, of the Company (including the associated common stock purchase rights, the Common Stock), other than shares owned by the Company, Merger Sub or by any shareholders who are entitled to and who properly exercise appraisal rights under Delaware law, will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive $44.00 in cash, without interest. At the effective time of the Merger, each outstanding option, whether vested or unvested, will be cancelled and converted into the right to receive in cash, without interest, the product of (a) the excess, if any, of $44.00 over the exercise price per share of Common Stock for such option and (b) the number of shares of Common Stock then subject to such option. Additionally, all restricted shares under the Company's equity plans will be vested in full immediately prior to the effective time.

Pursuant to the Merger Agreement, the Company is subject to a no-shop restriction on its ability to solicit third-party proposals, provide information and engage in discussions with third parties relating to alternative business combination transactions. The no-shop provision is subject to a fiduciary-out provision that allows the Company to provide information and participate in discussions with respect to a third party proposal that its Board of Directors (1) determines in good faith, after consultation with advisors, is or is reasonably likely to result in a superior proposal, as defined in the Merger Agreement, and (2) determines it is required to pursue (by furnishing information or engaging in discussions) in order to comply with its fiduciary duties.

The Company may terminate the Merger Agreement upon certain circumstances, including if its Board of Directors determines in good faith that it has received a superior proposal, and otherwise complies with certain terms of the Merger Agreement. The Merger Agreement provides that, upon the termination of the Merger Agreement, under specified circumstances, the Company will be required to reimburse Parent for its transaction expenses up to $7,000,000 and that, under specified circumstances, the Company will be required to pay Parent a termination fee of $33,140,000. Additionally, under specified circumstances, Parent will be required to pay the Company a termination fee up to $53,020,000, and the maximum liability of Parent and Merger Sub for breaches of the Merger Agreement is capped at $99,420,000. The Sponsors have agreed to guarantee the liability of any such amounts payable by Parent to the Company.

Parent has obtained equity and debt financing commitments for the transactions contemplated by the Merger Agreement, the aggregate proceeds of which, together with cash, cash equivalents and short-term investments of the Company, will be sufficient for Parent to pay the aggregate merger consideration and all related fees and expenses. Consummation of the Merger is not subject to a financing condition, but is subject to various other conditions, including approval of the Merger by the Company's shareholders, expiration or termination of applicable waiting periods under the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 1976, the receipt of certain other foreign and domestic regulatory and governmental approvals, and other customary closing conditions. The parties expect to close the transaction during the fourth quarter of 2006.

Table of Contents

The foregoing summary of the proposed transaction and the Merger Agreement is subject to, and qualified in its entirety by, the full text of the Merger Agreement attached as Exhibit 2.1, and incorporated herein by reference.

The Board of Directors of the Company engaged Goldman Sachs & Co. ( Goldman Sachs ) to serve as financial advisor to the Board of Directors and to render an opinion to the Board of Directors as to the fairness to the holders of the Company's Common Stock, from a financial point of view, of the merger consideration. On August 31, 2006, Goldman Sachs delivered an oral opinion to the Board of Directors that as of the date of the opinion and based on and subject to the assumptions made, matters considered, qualifications and limitations set forth in the opinion, the merger consideration to be received by holders of the Company's Common Stock is fair to such holders from a financial point of view.

The Merger Agreement has been included to provide investors and security holders with information regarding its terms. It is not intended to provide any other factual information about the Company. The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Merger Agreement were made only for purposes of such agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to such agreement, and may be subject to limitations agreed upon by the contracting parties, including being qualified by confidential disclosures exchanged between the parties in connection with the execution of the Merger Agreement. The representations and warranties may have been made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and may be subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that differ from those applicable to investors. Investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Merger Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company or Parent or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates. Moreover, information concerning the subject matter of the representations and warranties may change after the date of the Merger Agreement, which subsequent information may or may not be fully reflected in the Company's public disclosures. Important Additional Information will be Filed with the SEC:

In connection with the proposed Merger, the Company will prepare a proxy statement for the shareholders of the Company to be filed with the SEC. Before making any voting decision, the Company's shareholders are urged to read the proxy statement regarding the merger carefully in its entirety when it becomes available because it will contain important information about the proposed transaction. The Company's shareholders and other interested parties will be able to obtain, without charge, a copy of the proxy statement (when available) and other relevant documents filed with the SEC from the SEC's website at <http://www.sec.gov>. The Company's shareholders and other interested parties will also be able to obtain, without charge, a copy of the proxy statement and other relevant documents (when available) by directing a request by mail or telephone to Intergraph Corporation, One Madison Industrial Park IW 2000, Huntsville, AL 35894-0001, telephone: (256) 730-2000, or from the Company's website, <http://www.Intergraph.com>.

The Company and its directors and officers may be deemed to be participants in the solicitation of proxies from the Company's shareholders with respect to the Merger. Information about the Company's directors and executive officers and their ownership of the Company's common stock is set forth in the proxy statement for the Company's 2006 Annual Meeting of Shareholders, which was filed with the SEC on April 25, 2006. Shareholders and investors may obtain additional information regarding the interests of the Company and its directors and executive officers in the Merger, which may be different from those of the Company's shareholders generally, by reading the proxy statement and other relevant documents regarding Merger, which will be filed with the SEC.
